California Leads In Traffic Toll

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

The nation's traffic death toll for the long Thanksgiving holiday weekend stood today at nearly 600, higher than last year.

A count showed that at least 592 persons were killed between 6 p.m. local time Wednesday and midnight yesterday.

The breakdown: traffic, 592; fires, 79; planes, 24; miscellaneous, 89, for a total of 784.

California led all states with 48 traffic deaths. New York State had 38, Ohio 31 and Texas 29. Only Alaska and Nevada reported no traffic fatalities during the hoilday period.

Although the National Safety Council does not tabulate traffic deaths during Thanksgiving, UPI counted 577 traffic casualties during the 1964 Thanksgiving holiday. The Safety Council said about 575 persons would die in traffic accidents during a normal four-day weekend at this time of year.

The worst accident of the holiday was an airplane crash Saturday in which 13 persons were killed. A chartered airliner crashed into a hillside near Salt Lake City, Utah, while en route to a college football game.

The death toll rose to 11 from an explosion which ripped throught the National Guard Armory at Keokuk, Iowa, at the height of a square dance on Thanksgiving eve.

Eight children at Burlington, Wis., were orphaned in a Thanksgiving day auto accident that claimed the lives of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fuller, and their grandmother.

Four children perished Saturday when fire swept their home in Lafayette, Ind. Two other children and the father escaped the flames.

San Anselmo Student Dies In Crash Of Car

A 21-year-old San Anselmo student was fatally injured at 1:45 a.m. yesterday when his car crashed into a sign pole and a light standard along Skyline Drive, San Francisco.

The victim was Durwood R. Dalka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Dalka, 42 Mariposa Avenue.

According to the San Francisco coroner's office, Dalka was driving north along Skyline and was turning toward John Muir Drive when his car struck a traffic island.

Dalka's small foreign car then struck a one-way sign pole and broadsided into a light standard on John Muir Drive, the coroner reported.

He was taken to Alemany Emergency Hospital where he was dead upon arrival at 2:02 a.m.

Dalka, a student at University of San Francisco, had been a resident of Marin County for four years. He was a native of Indiana.

Surviving are his parents, a sister, Darlyn, and a brother, Darrall Dalka, all of San Anselmo.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. Anselm's Church, San Anselmo. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. The family prefers that memorial contributions be to the March of Dimes.

Man On Moon Called Waste

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Warren Weaver, former head of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, said today that U.S. attempts to land a man on the moon were a waste of money and scientific manpower.

In a copyrighted interview in "U.S. News & World Report," Weaver said he belongs "with those who do not approve of going to the moon in anything like the way we're doing it.

"If we are doing it as some ridiculous race against the Russians," Weaver said, "I think that is just plain stupid."

Marincello Can't Be Reconsidered

Marin County supervisors cannot reconsider the Marincello master plan that they approved by a 3-2 vote on Nov. 12, according to County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney.

Maloney, in a brief opinion requested by Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, said today there is no provision in the government code for reconsideration of the adoption of a master plan.

Maloney said the board could make amendments to the plan by referring the proposed changes to the planning commission, which would start the hearing process.

The counsel said, however, there must be some point where the board's action can be considered final.

New Trial Opens For Three In KKK

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)— Three Ku Klux Klansmen accused of killing a civil rights worker went on trial on civil rights charges in federal court today before a stern judge who repeatedly cautioned prospective jurors that they must decide the issue solely on the evidence.

Thirty minutes after court convened, District Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. granted a 30-minute recess to give lawyers an opportunity to go over a panel of nearly 60 men and women, both white and Negro, drawn for jury duty.

Half a dozen Negroes were on the panel.

The defendants—Collie Leroy Wilkins Jr., 22, of Fairfield, Ala.; Eugene Thomas, 42, and William Orville Eaton, 41, both of Bessemer, Ala.—are charged with civil rights violations in connection with the slaying last March 25 of Viola Gregg Liuzzo, a white Detroit housewife.

Wilkins has already been tried and acquitted of a murder charge in the state courts and the other two defendants are awaiting trial.

Johnson told the prospective jurors on several occasions that "the guilt or innocence of a defendant cannot be determined by what you have read or heard or by anything other than the evidence and the law applicable in the case."

Each of the defendants could be sentenced to 10 years in prison and fined $5,000 under the indictment which is based on an old law used mostly in the past to safeguard voting and property rights.

Nowhere in the indictment is there any mention of the slaying of Mrs. Liuzzo, which touched off the prosecutions in both state and federal court.

The Klansmen are charged with conspiring to injure, oppress, threaten and intimidate U.S. citizens during the civil rights march from Selma to Montgomery last spring.

Mrs. Liuzzo, mother of five children and wife of Anthony Liuzzo, a Teamsters Union official, was shuttling other marchers back to Selma by car when she was shot to death the night of March 25.

The government's chief witness is expected to be Gary Thomas Rowe, a onetime Birmingham bartender who twice has told state court juries he joined the Klan as a paid undercover agent for the FBI. He testified he was in the car from which the fatal bullet was fired and that Wilkins had pulled the trigger.

Navy Secretary Resigns Post

JOHNSON CITY, Texas (AP) — President Johnson accepted the resignation today of Asst. Secretary of Navy Victor M. Longstreet and nominated Charles F. Baird as his successor, effective Dec. 30.

Longstreet has served as assistant secretary of navy for financial management since Sept. 14, 1962.

500-MPH Commute Train Proposed

NORWALK, Conn. (UPI)—A California man today outlined his solution to traffic congestion—a 500-mile-an-hour train running inside a pneumatic tube.

L.K. Edwards, Palo Alto, said the system could push trains at speeds up to 500 miles an hour, making the trip from Boston to Washington in 90 minutes, with six stops along the way.

Ecumenical Council Starts Final Week

VATICAN CITY (UPI) —The Ecumenical Council today began its final week of work with a controversy still raging on the birth control issue.

The assembly of more than 2,200 bishops meets tomorrow, Thursday and Saturday to wrap up its agenda. The historic gathering closes Dec. 8 after four years.

Jury Picking Starts In Alabama Case

ANNISTON, Ala. (UPI) — Selection of a jury began today in the case of three white men charged with first degree murder in the nightrider slaying of Negro Willie Brewster last July.

It was not immediately announced which of the three would be tried first or if all three would be tried together.

Circuit Judge Robert Parker dismissed several prospective jurors who asked to be excused for personal reasons. Six of 85 prospective jurors are Negroes.

The three men on trial were Johnny Ira Defries, 25; Hubert Damon Strange, 25, and Lewis Blevins, 26. Strange was wounded in a gun battle with another white man following the Brewster murder and was considered a prime candidate to be the first on trial.

Seated with the defendants was militant segregationist Kenneth Adams. Adams, a former Ku Klux Klansman and a local leader of the National States Rights party, once was arrested for beating the late Negro singer Nat (King) Cole in Birmingham.

Brewster, a 38-year-old father of two who said he never had taken part in civil rights activity, was shot July 15 as he returned home from work at Anniston foundry. He died three days later.

Judge To Try Novelist Kesey

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—Novelist Ken E. Kesey and a friend agreed today to have their cases on marijuana charges tried by a judge without a jury.

Charges were dismissed against three others brought to court with Kesey on charges of possession of marijuana.

Charges against nine others had been previously dropped. Kesey and 13 guests were arrested April 23 in a raid on Kesey's hilltop home at La Honda.

Kesey, 29, is the author of the novels, "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" and "Sometimes a Great Notion." Held with him for trial was John Browning, 26, Mountain View.

Burglars Hit Safe At Novato Safeway

Burglars, who left part of their equipment behind, cut into the safe at the Safeway Store in Novato yesterday, taking an undisclosed amount of cash.

The burglary appears to be the work of a gang that has been hitting Safeway Stores in Washington, Nevada and California, reported Sgt. Otto Haiungs of the Novato Police Department.

The burglary occurred between 12:15 a.m. and 8:15 a.m. yesterday, when it was discovered by David Hinton, the store's assistant manager, as he arrived for work.

Burglars entered by prying a vent in the roof, which gave them access to the back of the market, Haiungs said. Then they pried open "a couple of doors" to gain access to the safe in the cashier's office in the front part of the store, he said.

Using a torch, they burned an opening in the steel safe and "cleaned it out," Haiung said.

The Novato Police Department took the two tanks as evidence.

Grape Selling Groceries To Be Picketed

OAKLAND (AP) — A spokesman for farm groups striking against grape growers in Kern County said pickets would march today before stores in the San Francisco Bay Area and Los Angeles where the grapes are being sold.

On Nov. 17 pickets from the two groups halted loading of Delano grapes aboard the liner President Wilson in San Francisco.

The National Farm Workers Assn. and the Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee called the strike two months ago against Delano growers, calling for organization of workers, $1.40 an hour minimum wage and increased piecework rates.

When pickets appeared at the Howard Terminal yesterday longshoremen refused to lift the 2,500 grape crates onto the Burrard and three growers' trucks later removed the fruit from the terminal.

Freeze Sneaks Over Marin

The first freeze of the winter sneaked into Marin while few people were looking yesterday morning, but last night thermometers were registering more seasonal overnight lows.

Lawns and rooftops were white with frost at dawn yesterday for anyone awake to see it. Temperatures hit a chilly 29 at Woodacre and 30 at Novato.

Last night the mercury at Woodacre dropped no lower than 34, while at Novato 44 degrees was the minimum.

Forecast calls for continuing fair weather with increasing cloudiness. Temperatures are expected to remain at the seasonal level in the Bay Area.

Saigon Suffers Defeat

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said today "We have stopped losing the war" in Viet Nam. At the same time he said North Viet Nam appears determined to carry on the conflict.

McNamara made his statements in an airport news conference before returning to the United States after a one and one-half day visit to South Viet Nam.

McNamara declared that the United States would throw in as many fighting men as needed to wage the war against the Communists.

On the eve of McNamara's arrival, four Viet Cong battalions with North Vietnamese support troops handed the South Vietnamese one of their worst setbacks of the war. In an attack on troops holding an abandoned rubber plantation 45 miles northwest of Saigon, the Communists knocked out an entire government regiment as an effective fighting force. American advisers also perished.

It was feared the casualties, when finally totaled, might be the highest of the war to date.

LONG WAR

McNamara said: "This will be a long war."

McNamara told newsmen that despite the recent allied successes in the field the Communists have continued to increase the strength of their forces in South Viet Nam.

"They have more than offset the very heavy losses which they have suffered, the level of infiltration has increased and I think that this represents a clear decision on the part of Hanoi to both escalate the level of infiltration and raise the level of conflict," McNamara said.

INCREASE FORCE

"I'm sure that decision must be countered by an increase in the forces opposing the Viet Cong."

McNamara declined to speculate on the total U.S. forces that will be required but his comments heightened speculation that he will advise President Johnson to increase American ground forces in Viet Nam from 165,000 to 300,000 men and step up air attacks on the North Vietnamese jungle supply routes.

Intelligence sources reported there are at least nine North Vietnamese regiments — between 13,500 and 18,000 men—in South Viet Nam now.

He was much impressed by the combat effectiveness of the 1st Cavalry (air mobile) Division and disclosed at least one more air cavalry division

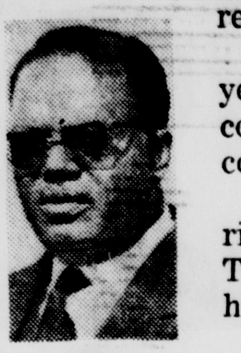
Army Seizes Power In Dahomey

COTONOU, Dahomey (UPI) — The army today seized power in this postage stamp former French African colony and forced the resignation of the republic's warring political leaders.



Maga

It was the second time in two years the military took charge of the country under the direction of army commander, Gen. Christophe Soglo.

Dahomey is situated in West Africa, wedged between Nigeria and Togoland on the Gulf of Guinea. It has a population of 1.9 million.

The coup occurred after President Souron Migan Apithy refused orders to resign from the nation's military and political leaders. Soglo called on National Assembly President Tahirou Congacou to take over temporary control of the government.

The republic remained calm, according to first reports. Martial music blared from the national radio. Vice President Justin Ahomadegbe also was forced to resign, Radio Dahomey reported.

The demand that Apithy resign was made by Gen. Soglo, who seized power in 1963, overthrowing the government of Hubert Maga. Soglo later handed power back to the politicians and a new constitution was put into force last year.

Big Narcotics Ring Cracked

ALTADENA (AP)—Authorities say they've cracked a Los Angeles County narcotics ring that peddled more than $25 million in drugs annually, much of it to high school students.

Netted, investigators said, were:

Sixteen persons—14 suspected pushers and two men believed to be kingpin suppliers.

The crackdown climaxed an eight-month investigation prompted by a sharp increase in narcotics user arrests in the Pasadena-Altadena-Monrovia area.

Investigators said many users were high school students who bought the drugs on campus, at drive-ins or other youth hangouts.

Johnson Hopes To Work For Interest Drop

By JACK BELL

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson hopes to bring pressure to bear against what he believes are unjustified profits being rung up by the nation's lenders from overly high interest rates.

If he has found noway to curb the money changers in his temple of economic stability, the President is ready to give them a hard time about the mounting interest rates they are charging the government when it is forced, as it is continually, to borrow more and more money.

His first move in the direction of easier money could come in the naming of a new member to replace C. Canby Balderston, expected to retire about Jan. 1 from the Federal Reserve Board of Governors.

FOUR YEARS

However, William McChesney Martin, the Federal Reserve Board chairman whom critics have blamed for high interest rates, still has more than four years to go on his present 14-year term. A proposal by the late President John F. Kennedy to make the chairman's term coincide with a presidential term went nowhere in Congress, and the Johnson administration has no plans to revive it.

The board is maintaining a 4 per cent rediscount rate at this point which tends to boost interest charged by banks and other lending institutions.

The White House has figured out that the cost of short-term borrowing by the Treasury has gone up 72 per cent since 1961. In that year the Treasury was renting money for an average of 2.378 per cent interest; this month, the rate has been 4.097 per cent.

12 PER CENT MORE

Long-term Treasury bonds cost the government about 12 per cent more than in 1961, because of an increase in the average interest rate from 3.90 per cent to 4.35 per cent.

As he did in the controversy over aluminum and copper prices, Johnson is staying in the background of the campaign to ease the increased borrowing costs which Budget Bureau experts say will add about $400 million this year to the January estimate of $11.6 billion interest charges on the national debt.

This is one of several reasons given by White House officials to explain why the new budget Johnson will send to Congress Jan. 17 will go over the $100-billion mark — and possibly to $105 billion or more. It is also a factor in the administration's estimate that the deficit for the current year will range from $7 to $8 billion.

Takes Kim's Place

LONDON (AP) — British actress Deborah Kerr is to take over the role of ailing American actress Kim Novak, who was unable to complete the shooting of a $3-million movie. Miss Novak dropped out of the picture, "The Eye of the Devil," two weeks ago because she hurt her back in a riding accident.

Demonstrators Plan More Protest Walks

WASHINGTON (AP) — A leader of the weekend peace march on Washington, in which thousands protested American involvement in the Viet Nam war, said today that "a demonstration doesn't convince anybody."

Despite this, Sanford Gottlieb said in a telephone interview, more demonstrations are being considered by the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy — SANE.

Gottlieb is political action director of SANE, which sponsored Saturday's march and picketing of the White House in protest of U.S. policies in Viet Nam. March officials estimated the turnout at 40,000 to 50,000; police placed it at 25,000.

"We were definitely pleased with the turnout," Gottlieb said, "despite the bus drivers who wouldn't drive people from New York and also from Baltimore."

Future marches are being considered, he said, because "at a time when a dramatic event is needed to publicize your point of view, there's nothing like a large demonstration.

"But a demonstration doesn't convince anybody," Gottlieb said.

March leaders issued a leaflet during the protest titled "What to Do Next." SANE advised protesters to write letters to newspapers, support politicians who favor a peaceful solution to the war and urge clergymen to discuss the moral issues of the Viet Nam battle.

"None of us has any illusions about the effect of any single march or even about marches as a form of action," Gottlieb said. To get results, recommendations such as offered in the leaflet "must be carried out week by week."

SIGNS OF COMPETITION

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "No Napalm for Christmas," "Make Love, Not War," "We Voted for Peace, Not Goldwater."

Such were the signs carried as more than 600 demonstraters marched Saturday from Pershing Square to MacArthur Park to support the march on Washington for peace in Viet Nam.

'Oppose The War' Leaflets Filter Along To Seabees

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — "That's really bad when you have to fight an enemy behind your back," said LeRoy Hensley, a Seabee in Viet Nam who received an "Oppose the War" leaflet.

"Even an animal don't turn on his own kind," Hensley said. "Them people, the head of the organization, they're a real enemy."

Californians in two Seabee companies received pacifist leaflets over the weekend issued by an organization known as the Vietnam Day Committee at Berkeley, Calif. A member of the committee in Berkeley acknowledged that the group issued the leaflets but said the committee didn't mail them to U.S. troops in Viet Nam.

Windrim Smith, Jr., said the committee printed about 30,000 of the leaflets, which call on all military personnel to oppose the war as "criminal and immoral."

"I got three of them in one envelope," said Hensley, 21, of Lodi, Calif. "I told the fellows, 'I got me one of them goofy letters. Anybody want to read one and have a good laugh?' "

Lynch To Head Scientific Crime Attack

LOS ANGELES (UPI)— Gov. Edmund G. Brown today announced the appointment of Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch to pilot a space-age attack on California crime.

He said Lynch had accepted appointment as chairman of a newly-created Governor's Council on Crime and Justice which will screen and recommend priorities suggested in a space firm's report on prevention and control of crime and delinquency.

The governor named Richard Mcgee, administrator of the Youth and Corrections Agency, as vice chairman. He told his council meeting on law enforcement here that other appointments to the new board would be announced soon.

CRIME REPORT

The $100,000 report on crime, one of four aerospace studies that stirred controversy in the 1965 legislature, was produced by engineers of Space General Corp. The reports recommended applying aerospace techniques to solve down-to-earth problems.

'I will ask the council to screen the recommendations that these space-age systems engineers developed for the improvement of our overall machinery for the attack on crime," Brown told the meeting in prepared remarks.

He said he was confident federal funds would help finance the attack, adding he directed his staff "to make certain this council receives all the assistance it needs."

SPACE CONTRACTS

The crime report sparked charges in the legislature that Brown's administration had usurped legislative authority in awarding the $100,000 contracts to the space companies.

Brown said the report clearly indicated California "must increase the trend we have started toward intensive treatment of aggravated, aggressive, violent offenders in the state prisons, and as much as possible where it is safe to do so provide control and treatment in the community for persons who can be logically identified as not being dangerous."

Fair Employment Unit Given Grant

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Fair Employment Practice Commission announced it has received a $11,000 grant from Wayne University, Detroit, to finance an intensive seven-month research project on the use of job screening tests in hiring workers from racial minority groups.

Edward Howden, FEPC executive officer, said the California study probably would concentrate on the area of testing and screening practices for low-skill jobs. He said the work would begin as soon as a full-time specialist is hired, with the study expected to be completed by June, 1966.

Traffic Death

TULARE (AP) — Gregory Fleming, 17, of Visalia, was killed yesterday afternoon in a two-car collision on the Tulare-Lindsay highway, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Worried Mother, Girl Reunited

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — A news dispatch from the United States and a newsman's memory reunited a worried American mother and her runaway 16-year-old daughter in Bangkok today.

The girl, Mary Wilson, had slipped away from the Encino, Calif., home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Wilson, on Nov. 19. They believed she had gone to Bangkok to work for an orphanage.

Mrs. Wilson arrived in Bangkok early today to try to pick up her daughter's trail. Meanwhile, Alan Darby, a newsman at the English-language Bangkok Post read an Associated Press dispatch about the girl's disappearance and recalled a recent article about the Pierra Foundation, a Bangkok orphanage.

MARY WILSON
Found in Bagkok

Darby called the orphanage and learned that Mary had been working there for a week. He called the U.S. Embassy, by chance found Mrs. Wilson there and told the embassy where Mary was.

"I'm so thankful that she's safe and sound," said Mrs. Wilson after the reunion with her daughter. "She's a do-gooder and rather religious girl."

Two friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Shope, whisked the pair off to their home and refused to allow newsmen to see them.

"They're both distraught and need some rest and quiet," said Mrs. Shope.

Mrs. Wilson and Mary are expected to remain in Bangkok several days before returning to California.

A spokesman at the Pierra Foundation said Mary came to the institute last Tuesday inquiring about adoption of a child.

She was asked to wait until an official of the foundation could be located but left before the official arrived.

Newsmen could not contact Dr. Pierra immediately today.

The foundation cares for about 80 orphans.

"Thank God she's safe," said Dr. Wilson in Encinco. "I prayed she would be all right."

Mary, a brown-haired, brown-eyed high school senior, disappeared Nov. 19 after telling her parents she was going to a girl friend's home after school and would not be back until late. She took a suitcase with her.

Shortly after midnight, the Wilsons called the girl friend's home only to discover that Mary had not visited there, nor had she attended school that day.

After questioning her friends, the Wilsons learned from a travel agency that the girl had made inquiries last May about flying to Cambodia.

Strike Called Off

LONDON (AP) — Britain's bakers union called off its guerrilla bread strikes today but only for a week. The union said that unless the bakeries by Dec. 7 give an interim wage increase of $2.80 a week and a promise to discuss its bigger claim, it will call out all of its 32,000 members.

Record Year For Agriculture

"Our earlier forecast that California's farm product value would equal or exceed the $3.6 billion record set in 1964 is being borne out," Brown said in a Saturday statement.

The governor said he based his statement on a recent federal report estimating the state's gross agricultural cash receipts for 1965.

Brown says the U.S. Department of Agriculture's report shows that the value of California crops is only slightly ahead of 1964, while livestock and poultry are up 5 per cent.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

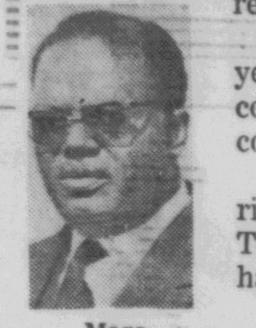
Army Seizes Power In Dahomey

COTONOU, Dahomey (UPI) — The army today seized power in this postage stamp former French African colony and forced the resignation of the republic's warring political leaders.



Maga

It was the second time in two years the military took charge of the country under the direction of army commander, Gen. Christophe Soglo.

Dahomey is situated in West Africa, wedged between Nigeria and Togoland on the Gulf of Guinea. It has a population of 1.9 million.

The coup occurred after President Souron Migan Apithy refused orders to resign from the nation's military and political leaders. Soglo called on National Assembly President Tahirou Congacou to take over temporary control of the government.

The republic remained calm, according to first reports. Martial music blared from the national radio. Vice President Justin Ahomadegbe also was forced to resign, Radio Dahomey reported.

The demand that Apithy resign was made by Gen. Soglo, who seized power in 1963, overthrowing the government of Hubert Maga. Soglo later handed power back to the politicians and a new constitution was put into force last year.

Big Narcotics Ring Cracked

ALTADENA (AP)—Authorities say they've cracked a Los Angeles County narcotics ring that peddled more than $25 million in drugs annually, much of it to high school students.

Netted, investigators said, were:

Sixteen persons—14 suspected pushers and two men believed to be kingpin suppliers.

The crackdown climaxed an eight-month investigation prompted by a sharp increase in narcotics user arrests in the Pasadena-Altadena-Monrovia area.

Investigators said many users were high school students who bought the drugs on campus, at drive-ins or other youth hangouts.

'Oppose The War' Leaflets Filter Along To Seabees

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — "That's really bad when you have to fight an enemy behind your back," said LeRoy Hensley, a Seabee in Viet Nam who received an "Oppose the War" leaflet.

"Even an animal don't turn on his own kind," Hensley said. "Them people, the head of the organization, they're a real enemy."

Californians in two Seabee companies received pacifist leaflets over the weekend issued by an organization known as the Vietnam Day Committee at Berkeley, Calif. A member of the committee in Berkeley acknowledged that the group issued the leaflets but said the committee didn't mail them to U.S. troops in Viet Nam.

Windrim Smith, Jr., said the committee printed about 30,000 of the leaflets, which call on all military personnel to oppose the war as "criminal and immoral."

"I got three of them in one envelope," said Hensley, 21, of Lodi, Calif. "I told the fellows, 'I got me one of them goofy letters. Anybody want to read one and have a good laugh?' "

Lynch To Head Scientific Crime Attack

LOS ANGELES (UPI)— Gov. Edmund G. Brown today announced the appointment of Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch to pilot a space-age attack on California crime.

He said Lynch had accepted appointment as chairman of a newly-created Governor's Council on Crime and Justice which will screen and recommend priorities suggested in a space firm's report on prevention and control of crime and delinquency.

The governor named Richard Mcgee, administrator of the Youth and Corrections Agency, as vice chairman. He told his council meeting on law enforcement here that other appointments to the new board would be announced soon.

CRIME REPORT

The $100,000 report on crime, one of four aerospace studies that stirred controversy in the 1965 legislature, was produced by engineers of Space General Corp. The reports recommended applying aerospace techniques to solve down-to-earth problems.

'I will ask the council to screen the recommendations that these space-age systems engineers developed for the improvement of our overall machinery for the attack on crime," Brown told the meeting in prepared remarks.

He said he was confident federal funds would help finance the attack, adding he directed his staff "to make certain this council receives all the assistance it needs."

SPACE CONTRACTS

The crime report sparked charges in the legislature that Brown's administration had usurped legislative authority in awarding the $100,000 contracts to the space companies.

Brown said the report clearly indicated California "must increase the trend we have started toward intensive treatment of aggravated, aggressive, violent offenders in the state prisons, and as much as possible where it is safe to do so provide control and treatment in the community for persons who can be logically identified as not being dangerous."

Fair Employment Unit Given Grant

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Fair Employment Practice Commission announced it has received a $11,000 grant from Wayne University, Detroit, to finance an intensive seven-month research project on the use of job screening tests in hiring workers from racial minority groups.

Edward Howden, FEPC executive officer, said the California study probably would concentrate on the area of testing and screening practices for low-skill jobs. He said the work would begin as soon as a full-time specialist is hired, with the study expected to be completed by June, 1966.

Traffic Death

TULARE (AP) — Gregory Fleming, 17, of Visalia, was killed yesterday afternoon in a two-car collision on the Tulare-Lindsay highway, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Worried Mother, Girl Reunited

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — A news dispatch from the United States and a newsman's memory reunited a worried American mother and her runaway 16-year-old daughter in Bangkok today.

MARY WILSON
Found in Bagkok

The girl, Mary Wilson, had slipped away from the Encino, Calif., home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Wilson, on Nov. 19. They believed she had gone to Bangkok to work for an orphanage.

Mrs. Wilson arrived in Bangkok early today to try to pick up her daughter's trail. Meanwhile, Alan Darby, a newsman at the English-language Bangkok Post read an Associated Press dispatch about the girl's disappearance and recalled a recent article about the Pierra Foundation, a Bangkok orphanage.

Darby called the orphanage and learned that Mary had been working there for a week. He called the U.S. Embassy, by chance found Mrs. Wilson there and told the embassy where Mary was.

"I'm so thankful that she's safe and sound," said Mrs. Wilson after the reunion with her daughter. "She's a do-gooder and rather religious girl."

Two friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Shope, whisked the pair off to their home and refused to allow newsmen to see them.

"They're both distraught and need some rest and quiet," said Mrs. Shope.

Mrs. Wilson and Mary are expected to remain in Bangkok several days before returning to California.

A spokesman at the Pierra Foundation said Mary came to the institute last Tuesday inquiring about adoption of a child.

She was asked to wait until an official of the foundation could be located but left before the official arrived.

Newsmen could not contact Dr. Pierra immediately today.

The foundation cares for about 80 orphans.

"Thank God she's safe," said Dr. Wilson in Encinco. "I prayed she would be all right."

Mary, a brown-haired, brown-eyed high school senior, disappeared Nov. 19 after telling her parents she was going to a girl friend's home after school and would not be back until late. She took a suitcase with her.

Shortly after midnight, the Wilsons called the girl friend's home only to discover that Mary had not visited there, nor had she attended school that day.

After questioning her friends, the Wilsons learned from a travel agency that the girl had made inquiries last May about flying to Cambodia.

Strike Called Off

LONDON (AP) — Britain's bakers union called off its guerrilla bread strikes today but only for a week. The union said that unless the bakeries by Dec. 7 give an interim wage increase of $2.80 a week and a promise to discuss its bigger claim, it will call out all of its 32,000 members.

Record Year For Agriculture

"Our earlier forecast that California's farm product value would equal or exceed the $3.6 billion record set in 1964 is being borne out," Brown said in a Saturday statement.

The governor said he based his statement on a recent federal report estimating the state's gross agricultural cash receipts for 1965.

Brown says the U.S. Department of Agriculture's report shows that the value of California crops is only slightly ahead of 1964, while livestock and poultry are up 5 per cent.

Utah Air Disasters Claim 61 In 16 Days

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — Investigators raked through the wreckage of a DC-3, a search party was to recover bodies and search planes circled snow-capped mountains today in the wake of airplane disasters that have claimed 61 lives in Utah in 16 days.

Civil Aeronautics Board investigators probed the wreckage of a twin-engine DC-3 that crashed minutes after takeoff from Salt Lake Airport Saturday, killing all 13 persons aboard.

It was the second commercial airliner tragedy in the state this month. On Nov. 11, a United Air Lines 727 trijet crashlanded and burst into flames at the airport, killing 43 of the 91 persons aboard.

In south-central Utah, a ground party was to bring down the bodies of four Minneapolis residents who perished when their light plane crashed near the peak of 11.139-feet Mount Belnap.

The Minnesota plane disappeared in a snowstorm Nov. 14. The same night a private plane piloted by a Phoenix, Ariz., minister disappeared. He was found dead in the wreckage the next day.

Civil Air Patrol planes were still searching the mountains of eastern Utah today for a small plane that vanished with an Air Force sergeant on a flight from Salt Lake City to Denver.

The plane which crashed Saturday was operated by Edde Airlines, a charter service. On board were nine passengers and four crew members. It took off at dawn. Two hours later the smouldering wreckage was found in the Traverse Mountains 20 miles south of the airport.

Some 20 other passengers were waiting to board at Provo. It was a "football special" carrying members of a Brigham Young University Booster's club to the Cougars' football game with New Mexico at Albuquerque.

$20,000 Mink Stolen From Car

Carol M. La Benda of 20 Tiburon Boulevard, Alto, reported a $2,000 mink stole was taken from her unlocked car between 10:30 p.m. Saturday and 2 a.m. yesterday in Tiburon.

The Tiburon sheriff's substation said the car, with the stole on the front seat, was in the parking lot adjacent to the Tiburon Playhouse.

Vietnamese Get Soap Donations

OROVILLE (AP)—Some 2,000 bars of soap are en route to Viet Nam today, the gift of Oroville area residents. And another 16,000 are ready for shipment.

Mrs. P. D. Adams, who read a serviceman's story, organized the collection. A newspaper quoted the serviceman as saying soap costs a Vietnamese a day's wages.

Mrs. Adams and other donors are sending the soap to Viet Nam to be given away by servicemen.

The Air Force transported the first 2,000 bars without charge and has offered to transport the other 16,000.

No Delay Is Expected In Gemini Space Shot

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —The space agency said today that an electrical problem with a spacecraft power unit was not expected to delay Saturday's Gemini 7 launching.

A spokesman made the statement after engineers wrestled through the night with the trouble. First they installed a new power unit in the spacecraft, discovered it probably would cause the same difficulty, yanked it out and replaced it with the original unit.

"The problem is not completely solved at this time," the spokesman said. "Evaluation is continuing. But the situation looks good and we don't expect it will delay the launching."

Astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. are to ride Gemini 7 into space for a 14-day endurance mission. Nine days later, Gemini 6 astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford are to take off in an attempt to rendezvous within a few feet of Gemini 7.

The trouble developed Saturday during a flight rehearsal when a stray electrical signal called a "voltage spike" appeared in the spacecraft guidance system. The source was traced to the power unit which supplies the system."

Instruments recorded the stray current at seven-tenths of a volt for 100 milliseconds. This sent a signal that simulated an unwanted three-tenths of a degree turn in the Titan 2 booster rocket.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said the primary guidance system immediately took over and corrected the situation.

He said officials are confident the same correction could be made under similar circumstances during the actual launching.

He added that when the new power unit was installed, it became apparent that it could create similar voltage spikes. So the decision as made to return to the original unit because it had been tested more thoroughly.

A space agency spokesman noted that similar trouble occurred a few days before the Gemini 5 launching in August. The unit was replaced without delaying the firing.

Fence Busting Vandals Sought

Marin County sheriff's deputies today were investigating an expensive form of vandalism: fence busting.

Jay J. Wimberly of 195 Vista Grande Drive, Greenbrae, reported to the sheriff's office Saturday that sometime last week someone knocked down his 160-foot fence, valued at $300.

Ralph E. Brodeck, 205 Nista Grande Drive, reported that someone knocked down 40 feet of his picket fence, valued at $100.

Car Radio Gone

Wayne Lenherr told Mill Valley police last night that the car radio was stolen from his sister's car, which he had parked, unlocked, in front of their home at 26 Montford Avenue.

REFUGE FOR FOWL

It was Thanksgiving Day when this fowl flew into the swimming pool of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Cossman in Studio City, Calif. She makes another vain try at netting the elusive bird as Shana, the dog, watches. The Cossmans don't know if its a duck or not, but they'll "give him away free to anyone who can catch him." Canada, U.S. Send Two Satellites Up

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Two new satellites — the Canadian Alouette 2 and the American Explorer 31 — raced side-by-side through space today, placed in orbit by a single booster.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said initial data from last night's launch at this West Coast base indicated that the satellites reached a near perfect orbit.

The spokesman said the satellites will circle the earth once every two hours and four minutes, reaching an apogee or high point of 1,980 miles and a perigee or low point of 315 miles above the earth.

The double launch went off at 8:48 p.m. atop a Thor-Agena B rocket combination.

The satellites were the second in a series of five Alouette satellite vehicles developed by the Canadian Defence Board and NASA's Direct Measurements Explorer.

The program, first of a two-country effort called International Satellites for Ionospheric Studies, has been dubbed ISIS-X for short.

Passenger, 19, Injured On Cycle

A 19-year-old girl from National City, San Diego County, suffered minor injuries when a motorcycle struck a boat and trailer at the county parking area at the launching ramp along the Petaluma River at Black Point at 12:35 p.m. yesterday.

Injured was Carolyn Phillips, passenger on a motorcycle driven by Robert F. Phillips, 20, of National City, who was thrown from the vehicle by the impact. She suffered multiple scrapes and was treated by her own doctor.

Phillips, driving the motorcycle owned by Donald Robertson of 1125 Mirabelle Avenue, rammed a parked boat and trailer owned by James I. Miyand, 50, of Petaluma, the California Highway Patrol reported. Phillips told officers that the throttle stuck.

Senators Visit Cambodia Chief

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — U.S. Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield arrived today for talks with Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's chief of state.

The Montana Democrat is the first high-ranking U.S. visitor to visit Cambodia since Sihanouk broke diplomatic relations with the United States May 3.

Mansfield and four other senators are on a global fact-finding mission that included talks with the Soviet leaders in the Kremlin. He arrived aboard a U.S. Air Force plane from Vientiane, capital of neighboring Laos.

How to solve the college problem

Not enough room for the growing number of qualified boys and girls who want to go to college—and who ought to go—that's the problem.

The colleges lack the classrooms, facilities and teachers to educate all these potential leaders.

It's our problem, too. We need leaders to make wise use of our resources, manpower and human skills.

This affects our level of prosperity—our jobs, opportunities and living standards.

The problem is too big, too widespread to be solved by the colleges alone. They need our help.

College is America's best friend

No Delay Is Expected In Gemini Space Shot

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —The space agency said today that an electrical problem with a spacecraft power unit was not expected to delay Saturday's Gemini 7 launching.

A spokesman made the statement after engineers wrestled through the night with the trouble. First they installed a new power unit in the spacecraft, discovered it probably would cause the same difficulty, yanked it out and replaced it with the original unit.

"The problem is not completely solved at this time," the spokesman said. "Evaluation is continuing. But the situation looks good and we don't expect it will delay the launching."

Astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. are to ride Gemini 7 into space for a 14-day endurance mission. Nine days later, Gemini 6 astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford are to take off in an attempt to rendezvous within a few feet of Gemini 7.

The trouble developed Saturday during a flight rehearsal when a stray electrical signal called a "voltage spike" appeared in the spacecraft guidance system. The source was traced to the power unit which supplies the system."

Instruments recorded the stray current at seven-tenths of a volt for 100 milliseconds. This sent a signal that simulated an unwanted three-tenths of a degree turn in the Titan 2 booster rocket.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said the primary guidance system immediately took over and corrected the situation.

He said officials are confident the same correction could be made under similar circumstances during the actual launching.

He added that when the new power unit was installed, it became apparent that it could create similar voltage spikes. So the decision as made to return to the original unit because it had been tested more thoroughly.

A space agency spokesman noted that similar trouble occurred a few days before the Gemini 5 launching in August. The unit was replaced without delaying the firing.

Fence Busting Vandals Sought

Marin County sheriff's deputies today were investigating an expensive form of vandalism: fence busting.

Jay J. Wimberly of 195 Vista Grande Drive, Greenbrae, reported to the sheriff's office Saturday that sometime last week someone knocked down his 160-foot fence, valued at $300.

Ralph E. Brodeck, 205 Nista Grande Drive, reported that someone knocked down 40 feet of his picket fence, valued at $100.

VIET

will be formed.

The United States objective in the Viet Nam war is not to destroy the Communist regime in the north but to destroy the Communist insurgents in the south.

Radio Cambodia reported that to American prisoners held since November, 1963 by the Viet Cong arrived at the Cambodian frontier yesterday and were granted transit visas to the United States. The Viet Cong announced over the weekend that the two men—Sgt. George E. Smith of Chester, W.Va., and Sp/5 Claude E. McClure of Chattanooga, Tenn., had been freed.

Air Force planes and Vietnamese Skyraiders today splashed heavy bombs and machine-gun fire on a large Viet Cong force in Tay Ninh Province northwest of Saigon.

Six Air Force F-100 Supersabre jets hit three Viet Cong companies camped in Kien Hoa province, 75 miles south of Saigon, with bombs and rockets, an official spokesman reported.

McNamara arrived within hours of the destruction of South Viet Nam's 7th Regiment on the abandoned rubber plantation in the heaviest fighting of the war. Waves of Viet Cong backed by North Vietnamese regulars destroyed the regiment as an effective fighting force in a three-hour battle.

U.S. spokesmen feared the toll of South Vietnamese dead would be the highest of the war. Among the dead were an undisclosed number of U.S. Army advisers whose bodies were found in foxholes next to their Vietnamese comrades.

McNamara, accompanied by Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, said he had been "surprised by the intensity and scale" of the recent attacks by the Viet Cong and regular North Vietnamese forces.

"But," he added, "I think they are surprised at the price they have to pay in launching these attacks. Their fatalities this year are 100 per cent over last year."

In the desperate fighting for the French-owned Michelin rubber plantation Saturday morning, a four-battalion force of 1,200 to 2,000 Communists overwhelmed 1,200 government troops.

The Reds split the 7th Regiment in to with a withering barrage. The Vietnamese regimental commander died early in the battle.

Survivors said the Communists machine-gunned government troops who scrambled out of foxholes with their hands in the air in response to a loud-speaker appeal to surrender.

The Communist attack came at dawn. The regiment was dug in around a road inside the plantation which had been abandoned by its French owners last month.

Sweeping in from three sides, the Communists cut through the regiment, overwhelming the headquarters unit and two center battalions.

An American Army adviser called for air strikes on his own positions because "that's where the Communists are." Government troops as well as Communists died as jets from the newly arrived U.S. carrier Kitty Hawk hammered at the plantation with bombs and rockets.

The Vietnamese and American dead lay among fallen branches and in foxholes they had dug in the four days they had been in the area in an attempt to regain control of the plantation.

The foxholes gave little protection against the Communist charge and light artillery fire By early afternoon, Vietnamese rangers had gathered up 100 bodies. There were many more.

Legion Opposes Viet Nam Protests

Mill Valley Post 284, American Legion, has unanimously approved a resolution stating its opposition to anti-Viet Nam demonstrations by non-violent groups and individuals, Roy A. Ibach, past post commander, said today.

Copies of the resolution are being sent to Rep. Donald Clausen (R-First District), and to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, he said.

How Police Caught Meter Thief Suspect

Robert Earl Williams quietly opened several parking meters while San Rafael police watched, before they closed in to arrest him shortly after midnight, Saturday, according to Inspector Thomas C. Cheetham, who participated in the arrest of the meter theft suspect.

Williams, 30, of San Francisco (still in jail today in lieu of $1,320 bail) was seen by officers to drop his key to the old-style meters as the police approached, the inspector added. He was due to appear in Marin Municipal Court late today.

The arrest was made at the city parking lot at Third and Cijos streets, one that had been hit before by the thief, who always operated in San Rafael late Friday night or early Saturday. Police had set up a stakeout at the lot.

According to San Leandro police, Williams is also a suspect on parking meter thefts there. He was arrested by that department Sept. 23, and was out on bail from Alameda County Jail when nabbed.

Some 130 meters were opened in San Rafael on Nov. 5 or 6, the first time the city was hit. It was then the city ordered speedy delivery of new meters, with different locks.

City officials estimated as much as $270 may have been taken each time the thief hit.

Main Breaks Cut Supply Of Water

Residents on two streets in Corte Madera were without water for a few hours during the weekend because of water main breaks, Marin Municipal Water District reported.

Most serious break occurred early yesterday near 4 Council Crest Drive. Corte Madera police reported that water from the broken main flooded the area and undermined a portion of the street.

Water district manager William R. Seeger said the street may have been damaged somewhat, but there was no damage to private property. He said water was restored at 5 a.m., four hours after the break occurred.

A crack occurred in another six-inch main on Chickasaw Court in Corte Madera Friday night, Seeger reported. The break was not serious, he said, and water district work crews repaired it by 9 a.m. Saturday.

Police Investigating Possibility Of Arson

San Rafael police today said they were investigating the possibility of arson in a small fire discovered in the basement of James R. Shankland, 24 Vineyard Avenue, at 3:50 a.m. yesterday.

Deputy Fire Chief Francis S. Rogers said the fire, which appeared to have been set in a gunny sack on the concrete floor, did no damage. Shankland was at home at the time, but could not be aroused. The fire was reported by an unidentified woman.

Windows Broken At Redwood High

Vandals smashed six windows, total value estimated at $360, of Redwood High School, sheriff's officers reported today.

Marvin Kattner, a school custodian, told deputies he discovered the damage to north wing classrooms when he arrived at work early yesterday.

$300 Ring, Cash Taken From Car

Theft of a $300 ring and $17 cash from the automobile of Wilma A. Sisk, 220 Van Winkle Drive, Sleepy Hollow, and parked at Indian Valley Golf Club north of Novato was reported today by sheriff's officers.

Deputies said the loot was taken yesterday.

OBITUARIES

Fred L. Stevens Rites Set

Funeral for Fred L. Stevens, 67, of 93 Redwood Road, Fairfax, a retired custodian, will be held at noon Wednesday at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

He was first stricken at home, taken to the office of Dr. Harold White, 29 Bolinas Road, where he was given resuscitation by the Fairfax Fire Department, and then to the hospital where he died at 5:40 p.m., about an hour after admittance.

Stevens had been a resident of California for 50 years and of Marin for 25 years. He was a native of Cambridge, Mass.

He was a custodian at San Rafael High School for five years prior to his retirement and was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his wife, Clarice, of Fairfax; two daughters, Mrs. Vilma Maloney of Fairfax, and Mrs. Nancy Hendrickson, of San Rafael; a son, James N. Stevens of Los Angeles, and a foster son, William Center of Albuquerque, N.M.

Burial at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

JESSIE BARDMESS

Funeral for Mrs. Jessie Bardmess, 88, mother of Harold A. Bardmess of San Quentin Village, was scheduled for today in Paso Robles, San Luis Obispo County.

A frequent visitor at her son's home, she died Friday in an Atascadero, San Luis Obispo County, hospital. Burial was in San Luis Obispo.

She is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Leo Bayer.

ALFRED WARREN

Funeral arrangements are pending at Spokane, Wash., for Alfred Emil Warren, 78, who collapsed and died, apparently from a heart attack, in San Rafael Saturday while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Juanita Sanders, 163 Knight Drive.

His wife, Edna, 73, was admitted yesterday to Marin General Hospital with a heart condition and was reported in fair condition today.

Warren and his wife were staying over the holiday at the Dolphin Boatel on Third Street, where he collapsed Saturday night. He was dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital.

Born in Spokane, Warren was a retired heating and air conditioning contratcor.

He is survived by his wife, and two daughters, Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Gladys Tonn of Spokane.

WILLIAM REESE

Funeral was scheduled today in Napa for William Merrill Reese, 59, of San Francisco, father of James C. Reese of Corte Madera.

The elder Reese, founder of Merrill's drug stores, died Friday at a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

A native of West Virginia, he came to California as a boy, and attended school in Fresno and Santa Rosa Junior College.

After working for Skaggs' Cash and Carry Stores in Santa Rosa, he became Safeway Stores district manager in the Santa Rosa area and later assistant division manager for Northern California.

He opened his first drug store in San Francisco, and subsequently started the chain which now includes two stores in San Francisco, one in Vallejo and one in Napa.

Surviving are his wife, Allinea M. Reese, San Francisco; three sons William Merrill Reese Jr., San Francisco; James S. Reese, Corte Madera, and David P. Reese, Napa; a daughter, Mrs. Nancy Belle Christenson, San Francisco and a brother, Phillip S. Reese, Oakland.

ANTON GATTINI

Funeral for Anton Michael Gattini, 78, of 15 Juanita Avenue, Mill Valley, was held today at the Russell and Gooch Funeral Chapel, Mill Valley.

Gattini, a retired watchman, died at home Saturday of a heart attack. He had been a watchman for American Distilling Co. in Sausalito for 19 years prior to his retirement.

A native of Austria, he had lived in California for 59 years and in Marin for 35 years.

Surviving is his wife, Pearl M. Gattini, of Mill Valley.

EINAR ANDERSEN

Funeral was held today in Point Arena for Einar H. Andersen, 77, of Gualgia, Mendocino County, brother of Mrs. Anna Betega of San Rafael.

Andersen died in a Ukiah hospital Wednesday.

Other survivors are a son, Robert Andersen; a daughter, Norma Exley; two other sisters, Martha Griffith and Rachel Lenninger of Oakland; and one grandchild.

A native of Oslo, Norway, he came to California 55 years ago.

Cremation was in Santa Rosa.

MELBA FRANCIS

Funeral services for Melba J. Francis of Petaluma, former Novato resident, will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the chapel of the Sorensen Funeral Home, 400 Washington Street, Petaluma.

Mrs. Francish died Friday in a San Francisco hospital. She was 49 years old, a native of Ashland, Ky.

Burial will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park, Petaluma.

DANIEL GILES

Private funeral for Dr. Daniel W. Giles, 82, of 610 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, was scheduled for today from the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Dr. Giles died Saturday of a heart attack at a local convalescent home. A native of Oregon, he was a dentist in San Francisco for nearly 40 years. He was a Marin County resident for four years.

He is survived by his wife, Grace E. Giles; and a son, Daniel A. Giles, both of Fairfax.

VIRGINIA SMITH

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Virginia Louise Smith, 52, of 61 Pixley Place, Corte Madera, was to be celebrated today at St. Cecilia's Church, San Francisco.

Mrs. Smith, a registered nurse, died Friday at a local hospital after a long illness. She was employed by the City and County Health Department of San Francisco and worked at the Laguna-Honda Hospital.

Mrs. Smith was the widow of John C. Smith Sr., an employee of the estate tax division of the Internal Revenue Service.

A native of California, she had been a resident of Marin County for 10 years. She was a graduate of Notre Dame High School and College in Belmont, and St. Mary's Hospital College of Nursing.

Surviving are three sons, John C. Smith Jr. and Robert E. Smith of Corte Madera and Michael J. Smith of Berkeley, and two daughters, Patricia J. and Virginia M. Smith, of Corte Madera.

Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

MARTIN KEARNS

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated for Martin James Kearns, 79, of San Francisco, father of Mrs. Lawrence F. Murray, of Marinwood, at 9:45 a.m. tomorrow at St. Cecilia's Church, San Francisco.

Kearns, a retired first assistant chief of the San Francisco Fire Department, died Saturday at a San Francisco hospital after an illness.

A native of San Francisco, Kearns was a member of the fire department for 43 years. He became assistant chief in 1926, served as acting chief on several occasions, and organized the department's first fire prevention bureau.

Kearns was a member of Firefighters Union Local 798; Widows and Orphans Mutual Aid, and Rincon Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West.

Surviving are his wife, Edith F. Kearns of San Francisco; his daughter, Mrs. Murray; six grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Carew and English, Masonic at Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco.

Canada, U.S. Send Two Satellites Up

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Two new satellites — the Canadian Alouette 2 and the American Explorer 31 — raced side-by-side through space today, placed in orbit by a single booster.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said initial data from last night's launch at this West Coast base indicated that the satellites reached a near perfect orbit.

The spokesman said the satellites will circle the earth once every two hours and four minutes, reaching an apogee or high point of 1,980 miles and a perigee or low point of 315 miles above the earth.

The double launch went off at 8:48 p.m. atop a Thor-Agena B rocket combination.

The satellites were the second in a series of five Alouette satellite vehicles developed by the Canadian Defence Board and NASA's Direct Measurements Explorer.

The program, first of a two-country effort called International Satellites for Ionospheric Studies, has been dubbed ISIS-X for short.

Passenger, 19, Injured On Cycle

A 19-year-old girl from National City, San Diego County, suffered minor injuries when a motorcycle struck a boat and trailer at the county parking area at the launching ramp along the Petaluma River at Black Point at 12:35 p.m. yesterday.

Injured was Carolyn Phillips, passenger on a motorcycle driven by Robert F. Phillips, 20, of National City, who was thrown from the vehicle by the impact. She suffered multiple scrapes and was treated by her own doctor.

Phillips, driving the motorcycle owned by Donald Robertson of 1125 Mirabelle Avenue, rammed a parked boat and trailer owned by James I. Miyand, 50, of Petaluma, the California Highway Patrol reported. Phillips told officers that the throttle stuck.

Senators Visit Cambodia Chief

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — U.S. Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield arrived today for talks with Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's chief of state.

The Montana Democrat is the first high-ranking U.S. visitor to visit Cambodia since Sihanouk broke diplomatic relations with the United States May 3.

Mansfield and four other senators are on a global fact-finding mission that included talks with the Soviet leaders in the Kremlin. He arrived aboard a U.S. Air Force plane from Vientiane, capital of neighboring Laos.

How to solve the college problem

Not enough room for the growing number of qualified boys and girls who want to go to college—and who ought to go—that's the problem.

The colleges lack the classrooms, facilities and teachers to educate all these potential leaders.

It's our problem, too. We need leaders to make wise use of our resources, manpower and human skills.

This affects our level of prosperity—our jobs, opportunities and living standards.

The problem is too big, too widespread to be solved by the colleges alone. They need our help.

College is America's best friend

Californians owned 7.2 per cent more motor vehicles in 1964 than they did in 1963.

Additive To Gas Said No Solution

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board reported tests have shown thus far that putting additives in gasoline does not appear to be the solution to the smog problem.

Recent tests with a "highly-touted" additive, made on five automobiles for a combined mileage of about 60,000 miles, showed the additive reduced the hydrocarbons in four cases, but only by a small amount. In none of the tests did the additive reduce hydrocarbons in the exhaust to anywhere near the California standard of 275 parts per million, and 1.5 per cent carbon monoxide.

"The lowest cost mentioned for the additive is about one-third of a cent per gallon," the board said. "This would cost California motorists $2.4 million per year with no proven benefits.

"Thus, at least for the present, it can be seen that California is pursuing the only logical course in auto smog control," they said. "This is not to say that the door is closed on any other control method. It is not so long as the method observes engineering and scientific principles."

The board said more than 5 million California vehicles are equipped with certified crankcase controls, while approved exhaust control system are on more than 100,000 cars. The board estimated these controls are keeping 364,000 gallons of unburned gasoline and 200 tons of carbon monoxide from California's atmosphere every day.

The California legislature will consider smog control again when it meets in special session early next year. While exhaust smog control systems are required on 1966 model cars and in the future, none have been certified for installation on used cars. The law provides the latter may not cost more than $65 and they do not have to be installed until one is certified by the board.

Blizzards Rake Over England

LONDON (AP) — Blizzards, gales, rainstorms and floods raked Britain today, piling snowdrifts up to 18 feet that isolated hundreds of farms in northern England and Scotland.

Most of Europe reported generally miserable conditions, with colder weather predicted.

Drifts blocked deliveries of fodder to snowbound cattle in northern Britain and farmers compared conditions to the winter of 1964, when many cattle perished.

For the first time in many years, British railways canceled their cross channel ferry at Newhave as gale winds swept the coast.

Millicent Vergun of 422 Redwood Avenue, Corte Madera, told police last night that the radio was stolen from her car while it was parked in the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

Phone Holdup Attempt Fails

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An attempted holdup-by-telephone failed today.

Tom Villafuerte, 19 of Daly City, night attendant at a service station on Van Ness Avenue, was the intended victim.

The phone rang at 4:50 a.m., he told police, and a female voice ordered:

"We've got a rifle aimed at your back. Pick up all the money and put it across the street."

He could see no one, but placed $50 on a gas pump island at a service station across the street, then telephoned police.

Officers said the thieves probably saw Villafuerte place the call and decided against picking up the money. Police recovered the cash.

Heavy Snow Hits East, Great Lakes

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Residents of parts of New York and Pennsylvania trudged through heavy snows today as drifts piled up along the eastern and southeastern shores of the Great Lakes.

The port city of Erie, Pa., was digging out of 13 inches of snow and looked forward to a continuing fall of 6 more inches. The snow covered a belt extending about 10 miles along the Lake Erie shore.

Drifting snow in the Erie area —piled up by winds up to 32 knots — hampered highway crews. Snow deposits measured up to 12 inches just northeast of Cleveland.

About 1,000 travelers were forced by blowing and drifting snow to find emergency shelter Sunday night in Dunkirk, N.Y., and three other Chautauqua County communities.

The Weather Bureau said 10 inches or more of additional snow was due today in western New York State and upwards of 6 inches more was likely in northeastern Ohio and northwestern Pennsylvania.

Schlesinger Hits State Department

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Historian Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. contends that State Department bureaucrats would have blocked the Kennedy administration's Alliance for Progress program, even the nuclear test ban treaty, if they had been left to the diplomats alone to work out.

Schlesinger accused the department yesterday of trying to prevent presidents from exercising their own foreign policy wishes because of two basic problems:

"One, within the State Department bureaucracy, a sense that presidents come and presidents go, but they go on forever and that the foreign policy of the United States is their personal property to be preserved against interference and meddling from the White House."

The other, he said, was the department's "deep commitment to past policies whether good or bad, with a kind of concealed feeling that if you change a past policy it is implying that the policy was wrong."

Schlesinger, author of a newly published book on the Kennedy era, "A Thousand Days," praised individual members of the State Department during a televison interview (Meet The Press—NBC).

Dam To Have New Visitors Facility

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Department of Water Resources has called for bids for construction of a new overlook facility at Oroville dam, a structure to be 325 feet higher than the one that has provided a ringside seat for visitors during early construction of the dam.

The new overlook facility will include an information center, restroom facilities and a parking area. Bids will be opened in Sacramento Dec. 22, with $125,000 available.

Jesus Given Drug, Anthropologist Says

BERKELEY (UPI)— Jesus may not have died on the Cross at all, but rather may have been fed a drug that put him into a trance and fooled his Roman guards, a leading research anthropologist said yesterday.

Dr. Michael J. Harner, assistant director of the University of California's Lowie Museum of Anthropology, said it was "certainly possible" Christ was fed a drug that would make him appear to be dead for as long as three days.

For eight years the scientist has done research on the worldwide use of such drugs throughout history.

"There is some evidence that during the period of Roman rule in Palestine, Jewish women would administer a so-called death wine made from the mandrake plant," Harner said.

He said the death wine was "intended to put a person who was being crucified into a death-like state—with the expectation that the appearance of death would cause the Roman soldiers to lower the person from the cross."

Mandrake wine or a similar substance "may have been the so-called vinegar passed onto Jesus on the Cross, he added.

The scientist said the mandrake plant belongs to the solanaceae family. Included in this group are the drug datura and other hallucogenic plants used "in a number of cultures in the world to effect death-like states during which the individual has visions."

"Mandrake is mentioned in the book of Genesis because of its reported aphrodisiac qualities, but there is much other evidence that the Jews used it," Dr. Harner said.

Harner, an Episcopalian by upbringing, said he was disclosing his research because of a book just published in England by Dr. Hugh J. Schonfield. The London scholar suggested the vinegar passed to Jesus on a sponge may really have been just such a drug.

Reaction from leading area clergymen was immediate and highly critical.

"There is no reason to believe Jesus had anything to drink but straight wine," said the Right Rev. J. Richard Millard, acting Episcopal Bishop of California. "The type of person the Disciples saw after the resurrection was a different kind of person who walked through doorways and appeared and disappeared.

"This would hardly indicate He could have been out for three days on some kind of drug," he added.

The Rev. Thomas Leahy, a professor of New Testament at Alma College, a Jesuit seminary at nearby Los Gatos, said the "critical historical value (of the theory) for the study of the Gospels is zero."

The Rev. John B. Streater, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Francisco, discounted the simulated death theory, calling the resurrection of Christ "as well as the death of Christ, the most thoroughly documented fact in history."

Housing Session

Marin County Housing Authority commissioners will hold a special closed meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at 429 Drake Avenue, Marin City, to discuss staffing of the administrative office in 1966.

Man Arrested On Two Charges

Leonard G. Tobin, 23, of Modesto was arrested by Corte Madera police yesterday on a warrant for non-support and traffic violations in Stanislaus County.

Tobin was stopped for a traffic warning as he drove out of the Corte Madera Shopping Center. Following in a car right behind him, police said, were his wife, mother-in-law and two brothers-in-law, who had traced him to Marin County.

Tobin, who has been working in Ignacio, was booked at county jail, en route to Stanislaus County.

will be formed.

The United States objective in the Viet Nam war is not to destroy the Communist regime in the north but to destroy the Communist insurgents in the south.

Radio Cambodia reported that to American prisoners held since November, 1963 by the Viet Cong arrived at the Cambodian frontier yesterday and were granted transit visas to the United States. The Viet Cong announced over the weekend that the two men—Sgt. George E. Smith of Chester, W.Va., and Sp/5 Claude E. McClure of Chattanooga, Tenn., had been freed.

Air Force planes and Vietnamese Skyraiders today splashed heavy bombs and machine-gun fire on a large Viet Cong force in Tay Ninh Province northwest of Saigon.

Six Air Force F-100 Supersabre jets hit three Viet Cong companies camped in Kien Hoa province, 75 miles south of Saigon, with bombs and rockets, an official spokesman reported.

McNamara arrived within hours of the destruction of South Viet Nam's 7th Regiment on the abandoned rubber plantation in the heaviest fighting of the war. Waves of Viet Cong backed by North Vietnamese regulars destroyed the regiment as an effective fighting force in a three-hour battle.

U.S. spokesmen feared the toll of South Vietnamese dead would be the highest of the war. Among the dead were an undisclosed number of U.S. Army advisers whose bodies were found in foxholes next to their Vietnamese comrades.

McNamara, accompanied by Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, said he had been "surprised by the intensity and scale" of the recent attacks by the Viet Cong and regular North Vietnamese forces.

"But," he added, "I think they are surprised at the price they have to pay in launching these attacks. Their fatalities this year are 100 per cent over last year."

In the desperate fighting for the French-owned Michelin rubber plantation Saturday morning, a four-battalion force of 1,200 to 2,000 Communists overwhelmed 1,200 government troops.

The Reds split the 7th Regiment in to with a withering barrage. The Vietnamese regimental commander died early in the battle.

Survivors said the Communists machine-gunned government troops who scrambled out of foxholes with their hands in the air in response to a loudspeaker appeal to surrender.

The Communist attack came at dawn. The regiment was dug in around a road inside the plantation which had been abandoned by its French owners last month.

Sweeping in from three sides, the Communists cut through the regiment, overwhelming the headquarters unit and two center battalions.

An American Army adviser called for air strikes on his own positions because "that's where the Communists are." Government troops as well as Communists died as jets from the newly arrived U.S. carrier Kitty Hawk hammered at the plantation with bombs and rockets.

The Vietnamese and American dead lay among fallen branches and in foxholes they had dug in the four days they had been in the area in an attempt to regain control of the plantation.

The foxholes gave little protection against the Communist charge and light artillery fire By early afternoon, Vietnamese rangers had gathered up 100 bodies. There were many more.

Legion Opposes Viet Nam Protests

Mill Valley Post 284, American Legion, has unanimously approved a resolution stating its opposition to anti-Viet Nam demonstrations by non-violent groups and individuals, Roy A. Ibach, past post commander, said today.

Copies of the resolution are being sent to Rep. Donald Clausen (R-First District), and to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, he said.

How Police Caught Meter Thief Suspect

Robert Earl Williams quietly opened several parking meters while San Rafael police watched, before they closed in to arrest him shortly after midnight, Saturday, according to Inspector Thomas C. Cheetham, who participated in the arrest of the meter theft suspect.

Williams, 30, of San Francisco (still in jail today in lieu of $1,320 bail) was seen by officers to drop his key to the old-style meters as the police approached, the inspector added. He was due to appear in Marin Municipal Court late today.

The arrest was made at the city parking lot at Third and Cijos streets, one that had been hit before by the thief, who always operated in San Rafael late Friday night or early Saturday. Police had set up a stakeout at the lot.

According to San Leandro police, Williams is also a suspect on parking meter thefts there. He was arrested by that department Sept. 23, and was out on bail from Alameda County Jail when nabbed.

Some 130 meters were opened in San Rafael on Nov. 5 or 6, the first time the city was hit. It was then the city ordered speedy delivery of new meters, with different locks.

City officials estimated as much as $270 may have been taken each time the thief hit.

Main Breaks Cut Supply Of Water

Residents on two streets in Corte Madera were without water for a few hours during the weekend because of water main breaks, Marin Municipal Water District reported.

Most serious break occurred early yesterday near 4 Council Crest Drive. Corte Madera police reported that water from the broken main flooded the area and undermined a portion of the street.

Water district manager William R. Seeger said the street may have been damaged somewhat, but there was no damage to private property. He said water was restored at 5 a.m., four hours after the break occurred.

A crack occurred in another six-inch main on Chickasaw Court in Corte Madera Friday night, Seeger reported. The break was not serious, he said, and water district work crews repaired it by 9 a.m. Saturday.

Windows Broken At Redwood High

Vandals smashed six windows, total value estimated at $360, of Redwood High School, sheriff's officers reported today.

Marvin Kattner, a school custodian, told deputies he discovered the damage to north wing classrooms when he arrived at work early yesterday.

Police Investigating Possibility Of Arson

San Rafael police today said they were investigating the possibility of arson in a small fire discovered in the basement of James R. Shankland, 24 Vineyard Avenue, at 3:50 a.m. yesterday.

Deputy Fire Chief Francis S. Rogers said the fire, which appeared to have been set in a gunny sack on the concrete floor, did no damage. Shankland was at home at the time, but could not be aroused. The fire was reported by an unidentified woman.

$300 Ring, Cash Taken From Car

Theft of a $300 ring and $17 cash from the automobile of Wilma A. Sisk, 220 Van Winkle Drive, Sleepy Hollow, and parked at Indian Valley Golf Club north of Novato was reported today by sheriff's officers.

Deputies said the loot was taken yesterday.

OBITUARIES

Fred L. Stevens Rites Set

Funeral for Fred L. Stevens, 67, of 93 Redwood Road, Fairfax, a retired custodian, will be held at noon Wednesday at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

He was first stricken at home, taken to the office of Dr. Harold White, 29 Bolinas Road, where he was given resuscitation by the Fairfax Fire Department, and then to the hospital where he died at 5:40 p.m., about an hour after admittance.

Stevens had been a resident of California for 50 years and of Marin for 25 years. He was a native of Cambridge, Mass.

He was a custodian at San Rafael High School for five years prior to his retirement and was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his wife, Clarice, of Fairfax; two daughters, Mrs. Vilma Maloney of Fairfax, and Mrs. Nancy Hendrickson, of San Rafael; a son, James N. Stevens of Los Angeles, and a foster son, William Center of Albuquerque, N.M.

Burial at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

JESSIE BARDMESS

Funeral for Mrs. Jessie Bardmess, 88, mother of Harold A. Bardmess of San Quentin Village, was scheduled for today in Paso Robles, San Luis Obispo County.

A frequent visitor at her son's home, she died Friday in an Atascadero, San Luis Obispo County, hospital. Burial was in San Luis Obispo.

She is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Leo Bayer.

ALFRED WARREN

Funeral arrangements are pending at Spokane, Wash., for Alfred Emil Warren, 78, who collapsed and died, apparently from a heart attack, in San Rafael Saturday while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Juanita Sanders, 163 Knight Drive.

His wife, Edna, 73, was admitted yesterday to Marin General Hospital with a heart condition and was reported in fair condition today.

Warren and his wife were staying over the holiday at the Dolphin Boatel on Third Street, where he collapsed Saturday night. He was dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital.

Born in Spokane, Warren was a retired heating and air conditioning contratcor.

He is survived by his wife, and two daughters, Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Gladys Tonn of Spokane.

WILLIAM REESE

Funeral was scheduled today in Napa for William Merrill Reese, 59, of San Francisco, father of James C. Reese of Corte Madera.

The elder Reese, founder of Merrill's drug stores, died Friday at a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

A native of West Virginia, he came to California as a boy, and attended school in Fresno and Santa Rosa Junior College.

After working for Skaggs' Cash and Carry Stores in Santa Rosa, he became Safeway Stores district manager in the Santa Rosa area and later assistant division manager for Northern California.

He opened his first drug store in San Francisco, and subsequently started the chain which now includes two stores in San Francisco, one in Vallejo and one in Napa.

Surviving are his wife, Allinea M. Reese, San Francisco; three sons William Merrill Reese Jr., San Francisco; James S. Reese, Corte Madera, and David P. Reese, Napa; a daughter, Mrs. Nancy Belle Christenson, San Francisco and a brother, Phillip S. Reese, Oakland.

ANTON GATTINI

Funeral for Anton Michael Gattini, 78, of 15 Juanita Avenue, Mill Valley, was held today at the Russell and Gooch Funeral Chapel, Mill Valley.

Gattini, a retired watchman, died at home Saturday of a heart attack. He had been a watchman for American Distilling Co. in Sausalito for 19 years prior to his retirement.

A native of Austria, he had lived in California for 59 years and in Marin for 35 years.

Surviving is his wife, Pearl M. Gattini, of Mill Valley.

EINAR ANDERSEN

Funeral was held today in Point Arena for Einar H. Andersen, 77, of Gualgia, Mendocino County, brother of Mrs. Anna Betega of San Rafael.

Andersen died in a Ukiah hospital Wednesday.

Other survivors are a son, Robert Andersen; a daughter, Norma Exley; two other sisters, Martha Griffith and Rachel Lenninger of Oakland; and one grandchild.

A native of Oslo, Norway, he came to California 55 years ago.

Cremation was in Santa Rosa.

MELBA FRANCIS

Funeral services for Melba J. Francis of Petaluma, former Novato resident, will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the chapel of the Sorensen Funeral Home, 400 Washington Street, Petaluma.

Mrs. Francish died Friday in a San Francisco hospital. She was 49 years old, a native of Ashland, Ky.

Burial will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park, Petaluma.

DANIEL GILES

Private funeral for Dr. Daniel W. Giles, 82, of 610 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, was scheduled for today from the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Dr. Giles died Saturday of a heart attack at a local convalescent home. A native of Oregon, he was a dentist in San Francisco for nearly 40 years. He was a Marin County resident for four years.

He is survived by his wife, Grace E. Giles; and a son, Daniel A. Giles, both of Fairfax.

VIRGINIA SMITH

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Virginia Louise Smith, 52, of 61 Pixley Place, Corte Madera, was to be celebrated today at St. Cecilia's Church, San Francisco.

Mrs. Smith, a registered nurse, died Friday at a local hospital after a long illness. She was employed by the City and County Health Department of San Francisco and worked at the Laguna-Honda Hospital.

Mrs. Smith was the widow of John C. Smith Sr., an employee of the estate tax division of the Internal Revenue Service.

A native of California, she had been a resident of Marin County for 10 years. She was a graduate of Notre Dame High School and College in Belmont, and St. Mary's Hospital College of Nursing.

Surviving are three sons, John C. Smith Jr. and Robert E. Smith of Corte Madera and Michael J. Smith of Berkeley, and two daughters, Patricia J. and Virginia M. Smith, of Corte Madera.

Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

MARTIN KEARNS

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated for Martin James Kearns, 79, of San Francisco, father of Mrs. Lawrence F. Murray, of Marinwood, at 9:45 a.m. tomorrow at St. Cecilia's Church, San Francisco.

Kearns, a retired first assistant chief of the San Francisco Fire Department, died Saturday at a San Francisco hospital after an illness.

A native of San Francisco, Kearns was a member of the fire department for 43 years. He became assistant chief in 1926, served as acting chief on several occasions, and organized the department's first fire prevention bureau.

Kearns was a member of Firefighters Union Local 798; Widows and Orphans Mutual Aid, and Rincon Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West.

Surviving are his wife, Edith F. Kearns of San Francisco; his daughter, Mrs. Murray; six grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Carew and English, Masonic at Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco.

Compromises Necessary On Redwood Park Plans

Those who are going all-out to set aside the biggest and best chunk of redwood region in Del Norte and Humboldt counties for a Redwood National Park might take a lesson from what happened at Point Reyes National Seashore.

The cost of acquiring 93,000 acres in and around the Jedediah Smith, Del Norte Coast and Prairie Creek State parks is being estimated $120 million to $140 million. The actual cost may come to several times that amount.

Consider what happened at Point Reyes National Seashore in Marin County. A total of $14 million has been appropriated for the acquisition of land for the seashore. Under the cost estimates made originally, that was to be sufficient.

Apparently, the cost was grossly underestimated. Congressman Don H. Clausen reports that another $30 million is needed to complete the acquisition, and he's having a tough time trying to justify the cost, which is more than double what was expected.

Conceivably, the same thing could happen on the Redwood National Park. In fact, warning voices have already been sounded.

Eldon V. Shafer, executive vice president of the Redwood Region Conservation Council, declared that the cost of developing the proposed 93,000-acre national park would come closer to a half billion dollars.

In addition to the cost of acquisition and development must be considered the repercussions on the lumber interests and families who are dependent on that industry for survival.

Major lumber companies like Arcata, Miller and Rellim redwood companies will be forced out of business or seriously crippled.

In contrast with the ambitious federal plan, the state plan for a national redwood park in southern Humboldt County is more modest. It calls for a federal-state partnership, with Humboldt State Park as the nucleus and acquisition of the Kings Range area to the west for campsites.

As we've said before, some compromises will have to be made by both conservationists and lumber interests in preserving and expanding park and recreation areas.

The federal plan for 93,000 acres in Del Norte and Humboldt strikes us as a plan that does not consider the plight of lumber companies that will be forced out of business and the lumber families who will be thrown out of work.

WEALTHY BEGGAR FED BY NEIGHBORS

An estate of $90,000 left by a "beggar" greatly surprised his neighbors in Southampton, England.

Most people assumed he was a penniless old man because he knocked at their back doors asking for sugar, tea and anything they could spare.

When the 72-year-old former prize fighter began chopping down the fence around his garden for firewood, one family provided a weekly supply of wood so he could keep his fence.

Several months after his death, the thoughtful neighbors discovered the retired boxer could have bought and sold the entire block.

His daughter said he had invested in real estate years before and it had made him a wealthy man.

Judging by appearances can be misleading. Often enough, it turns out to be an unreliable method. But in case of doubt, the Lord will abundantly repay you for assisting another in real or apparent need.

In your daily contact with others, try to get the facts—but do not become too inquisitive.

Bond Issues Cost Californians Millions In Servicing, Interest

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO — Although much conversation and some thinking has gone into the subject of pay-as-you-go financing for the state's capital outlay program, the fact has developed that the administration of Gov. Edmund G. Brown is considering another $250 million issues of state bonds for construction purposes during the next two years.

In addition to this, the state allocations board has been advised that financing for local school district projects is about out, and that from $250 to $300 million can be used to further this program.

IF BOTH THESE bond issues are submitted to the people and approved next year, taxpayers of California will be saddled with an additional half billion dollars of indebtedness, in the face of rising interest rates and reluctant markets.

Merely the cost of servicing already outstanding bonds, not computing retirements, is soaring into astronomical figures. It is estimated that the bond issues alone approved during the administration of Governor Brown costs taxpayers of California up to $160 million a year.

INTEREST RATES continue to climb, and the last bond money available is costing the taxpayers 3.7 per cent, where in the past, the figure was around three per cent.

Submission of new bond issues to the legislature next year well could engender a storm of protest reaching into the November elections.

Many legislators feel the state has reached a crucial point in financing new construction for schools and colleges, which with population increases and demand for higher education at taxpayers expense, has gone on almost unabated for more than a decade. The point now is how much can the public afford to spend and how high will taxes have to go during the next 30 or 40 years to enable the state to get out of debt.

OF COURSE, it is fundamental that the state will never even approach the happy state of not owing bond interest and retirement.

And again, adoption of even a partial pay-as-you-go program appears to be conducive to greater increases in taxes. Take this plus the funds necessary for interest and principal on state bonds, and the taxpayer is hit doubly.

SO FAR, there has been little if any discussion concerning cut-backs on expenditures for capital outlay, particularly in connection with the university, the state colleges, and now another obligation to which the state is partially committed, the junior colleges.

However, such discussion is likely to crop up, especially among economy minded legislators, when and if the subject comes up for consideration next year. And some hard facts will be bruited about, among them the question of whether the state has reached the point where it has to tighten its belt, or whether it can continue to tempt bankruptcy for its taxpayers.

U.S. Involvement In Rhodesia Hit

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am continually amazed that the American public keeps electing hypocritical socialists to governmental offices. It now appears that the U.S. government is joining England and that most glorious organization, the United Nations, in applying sanctions against Rhodesia.

It was the U.S. and the U.N., along with the Communists, who insisted on "freedom now" for the Congo, Ghana, Guinea, Kenya and the rest of savage, black Africa. Now when the second most advanced nation in Africa wants independence, these same bleeding heart, left-wing-oriented groups say, "no." The United States has no business sticking its nose into the internal affairs of Rhodesia.

I remember a small colony which in 1776 declared its independence from Britain. I thank God the socialists were not in power and that the U.N. did not exist at that time.

British ships are hauling war goods to the Viet Cong, yet they have the gall to involve us in their crucifixion of Rhodesia. The double standard of moral conduct is obvious in all of these machinations. The communist-socialist axis is in power around the world, including our own government in Washington, D.C.

Americans wake up.

Why The Fuss Over Meters?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A year and a half ago, when I first moved into Marin County, three things impressed me: the beauty of its geography, the cultural level of its people, and the reporting excellence of its local paper. All seemed to exist and function in harmony.

Recently I began to detect a discord in this harmony. A minor controversy between a Fourth Street merchant and a meter maid has created a . . . TEMPEST IN A TEA POT.

The disturbance gained momentum with your pictorial report of a meter maid's electric cart parked in a red zone while she was sipping coffee. The innuendo being that the cart was parked illegally and the meter maid was not attending to her duties.

You and I know that this needs parenthetical explanation. The carts are parked in the red zone to save legal parking spaces for shoppers, and the meter maids are entitled to their coffee breaks, like everyone else.

But what disturbs me most, in the cacophony, is the sad fact that so much valuable space is wasted in your fine paper for such trivia. When more important matters such as THE REDEVELOPMENT OF THE CENTRAL CORE OF SAN RAFAEL, THE CREATION OF A MARINA, THE PLANNING OF NEW AIRPORT FACILITIES IN THE COUNTY, THE CREATION OF A CULTURAL COUNCIL IN MARIN, and THE BUILDING OF HIGHWAY 17 are crying for more attention and space.

Your paper has served this community in a magnificent manner in the past, and I know you will continue to support every worthwhile project to help us build a better community.

Physician Answers Pre-School Critics

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Because I was one of the physicians who planned the medical examinations for the children of the pre-school program in the Sausalito School District, I would like to express my concern with the attack made upon the medical part of the program by the president of the Marin Medical Society.

To begin with, the giving of the examinations by private physicians had the approval of the Marin Medical Society. It did not sponsor them, but was aware of the plan and cooperated generously in its organization.

In August, 1965, when the pre-school program was being planned, representatives of the health department, the medical society, the Economic Opportunity office, the Sausalito School District and I (who didn't represent anybody but myself) met. . . . It was felt by all of us that if the program was to give all the children in it an opportunity to participate in wider experiences in their community, that an examination in a private physician's office should be offered.

To make sure that the examinations would be done by physicians who had time and interest appropriate to this program, a list of volunteers was prepared. Each family was asked to choose a physician from that list if it did not have already a family physician. The examination was designed to take about 45 minutes and a fee of $15 was set.

No doubt some of the children's parents could afford such a fee. But should they be singled out? Should those same parents also send crackers and milk for their children's snack time? The pre-school program is for children —children who can contribute to each other to make all their lives better. It is not a program for separate groups.

I am sorry that the president of the Marin Medical Society did not inform himself of the facts and philosophy of the program before he wrote his editorial.

What's Other Side Of Price Rollbacks?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

James Marlow writes of Johnsons' tactics over price rollbacks on raw materials presenting but one side of the story. He never mentions the fact that first the union bosses made such unreasonable demands on the steel industry that the industry was forced to raise its prices. No check is ever put on the union bosses by this administration. What was the government doing with 200,000 tons of aluminum it wished to get rid of? The aluminum must have been bought with money from taxes paid by you and me. Were we asked if we wished the aluminum dumped?

Mr. Marlow seems to forget investors in a stock have confidence when they realize what can happen, and without investors our country goes bankrupt. Industry has built our country and made it great. With industry controlled by a socialist form of government, our country goes down with all the other socialist countries. Are the people going to accept a socialist regime in which nobody benefits but those in power?

BENNETT CERF

TWO TIME-HONORED rivals in Western Texas were fighting it out for a nomination to Congress, and agreed to a debate in a town hall that brought fun-loving citizens from every corner of the county. After the debate had gotten properly warmed up, one candidate thundered, "What about the powerful and corrupt interests that control you?" The other candidate shouted back, "You leave my wife out of this!"

Johnson-Kennedy Conflict Now Polite, Probably Will Change

WASHINGTON — What's up with President Johnson and the Kennedys?

That's one of Washington's most fascinating questions. It is fascinating because anything can happen—and probably will.

It is important because the stake in this now-polite but later no-holds-barred conflict in the making is nothing less than the presidency of the United States.

There is no doubt about Sen. Robert Kennedy's ultimate goal: the Democratic presidential nomination in 1972 unless some circumstance puts Vice President Hubert Humphrey into the White House before then.

Anyone who knows the Kennedys—their drive, talent, resources and charismatic appeal —will not lightly argue that he cannot bring it off.

At this stage the senator is not tied to a full-scale plan of battle. Instead he is trying things out to see where they take him and how far they take him—like these:

1. He is taking special care to identify himself with the Democratic liberals. He rarely misses an opportunity to be a visible and vigorous advocate of liberal measures, thus establishing a position on farther political ground, when possible, from that of the Johnson-Humphrey administration.

2. He is pressing, prodding and pin-pricking the Johnson administration to push harder to get a nuclear non-proliferation treaty with the Soviet and others. He suggests that the president is either dragging his feet or not grasping the urgency of the issue. Mr. Kennedy can hardly fail to make sure that, if agreement should come, he will have been one of its foremost advocates and, if agreement should come, he will have been one of its foremost advocates and, if agreement cannot be reached, he will appear to have talked for it harder than anyone else.

3. Between adjournment and the re-opening of Congress in January, Kennedy will have completed a long, event-laden, well-headlined journey through much of Latin America where he confronted the Communists and got the same sputum treatment as did Richard Nixon in 1958. But the trip is a seasoning, informative experience which will give him new credentials to expand his differences with the administration over the Dominican intervention and some other issues which mark his stance apart from that of the president.

Obviously Kennedy is building for the future. He is keeping flexible. He is moving far enough away from the Johnson administration to challenge it as a Democrat but not so far away that he would impair his standing in the party.

KENNEDY will have a considerable political base from which to operate in 1968 and after. He will be the No. 1 Democrat in New York State; Sen. Edward Kennedy will be the No. 1 Democrat in Massachusetts; and brother-in-law Sargent Shriver by then may be governor of Illinois. He also has two other special assets—his own name and the pervasive memory of his late brother.

But it should be understood that nothing is going to fall into Robert's lap. President Johnson has already chosen his 1968 running mate and his political heir four years later—Hubert Humphrey.

This is why Kennedy will have to hurdle both Johnson and Humphrey to win his goal. He's warming up now.

Otepka Case Seems No Nearer Solution

By ROBERT S. ALLEN
and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The State Department is trying to put over a face-saving plan to end its long-pending case against security officer Otto Otepka.

Aides of Secretary of State Dean Rusk are offering to arrange Otepka's retirement at almost full pay if he will agree to leave early next year.

These secret feelers, channeled through congressional friends of Otepka, are being coupled with a veiled intimation that he will be forced to retire on a lower pay scale if he rejects the compromise proposal.

If accepted by Otepka, this stratagem would, in effect, shelve the State Department's two-year-old charges against him. The nationally known case would be closed and all further action dropped.

So far Otepka has neither accepted nor rejected the backstage offer.

SIGNIFICANTLY, however, close friends are characterizing the proposal as unacceptable on the ground the department should either withdraw the accusations against him or give him the chance to disprove them.

A career civil servant with more than 25 years' service, Otepka has persistently demanded a public hearing to answer the charge that he gave the Senate internal security subcommittee department documents without approval of his superiors.

Otepka admits he gave the subcommittee a memorandum signed by a superior, but he states he did that at the request of the Senate probers and after the official had testified he had not been truthful concerning a matter.

It is Otepka's contention that the memorandum, in the subcommittee's records, proved clearly it was Otepka's accuser and not Otepka who gave untruthful testimony under oath.

Behind Otepka's insistance on public hearings are several other important factors — his strong desire to air the State Department's laxity in security, which he was blocked from investigating, and the use against him of wiretapping and other illegal practices.

The veteran security officer's difficulties with his superior began when he proposed they cooperate with the Senate probers, who were digging into reports of a breakdown of security in the U.S. embassies in Warsaw and other capitals.

Otepka has succeeded in staying on the department's payroll at $19,000 despite numerous attempts to dismiss or force him out. He has been shifted to an unimportant position, and denied access to security and other files.

SEVERAL HEARINGS have been called on his case but have been postponed at the request of both sides. No new date has been set since a scheduled October hearing was cancelled.

State Department authorities claim that Otepka can be compelled to retire by the Stratagem of abolishing his position in the contemplated reorganization of the security office.

Should this ruse be used, members of the International Security Subcommittee have let it be known they will counter by taking the matter directly to President Johnson, and summoning Rusk to a public hearing on this action.

LEADERS of Young Americans of Freedom, which advocates a tougher U. S. policy in Viet Nam, are having trouble finding opponents to debate.

In preparing for a series of campus "Viet Nam Debate-ins" on Pearl Harbor Day, Dec. 7, YAF chairman Tom Charles Huston reports that none of the anti-Viet Nam leaders will accept his organization's challenge.

Blizzards Rake Over England

LONDON (AP) — Blizzards, gales, rainstorms and floods raked Britain today, piling snowdrifts up to 18 feet that isolated hundreds of farms in northern England and Scotland.

Most of Europe reported generally miserable conditions, with colder weather predicted.

Drifts blocked deliveries of fodder to snowbound cattle in northern Britain and farmers compared conditions to the winter of 1964, when many cattle perished.

For the first time in many years, British railways canceled their cross channel ferry at Newhave as gale winds swept the coast.

Radio Stolen

Millicent Vergun of 422 Redwood Avenue, Corte Madera, told police last night that the radio was stolen from her car while it was parked in the Corte Madera Shopping Center.

Californians owned 7.2 per cent more motor vehicles in 1964 than they did in 1963.

Additive To Gas Said No Solution

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board reported tests have shown thus far that putting additives in gasoline does not appear to be the solution to the smog problem.

Recent tests with a "highly-touted" additive, made on five automobiles for a combined mileage of about 60,000 miles, showed the additive reduced the hydrocarbons in four cases, but only by a small amount. In none of the tests did the additive reduce hydrocarbons in the exhaust to anywhere near the California standard of 275 parts per million, and 1.5 per cent carbon monoxide.

"The lowest cost mentioned for the additive is about one-third of a cent per gallon," the board said. "This would cost California motorists $2.4 million per year with no proven benefits.

"Thus, at least for the present, it can be seen that California is pursuing the only logical course in auto smog control," they said. "This is not to say that the door is closed on any other control method. It is not so long as the method observes engineering and scientific principles."

The board said more than 5 million California vehicles are equipped with certified crankcase controls, while approved exhaust control system are on more than 100,000 cars. The board estimated these controls are keeping 364,000 gallons of unburned gasoline and 200 tons of carbon monoxide from California's atmosphere every day.

The California legislature will consider smog control again when it meets in special session early next year. While exhaust smog control systems are required on 1966 model cars and in the future, none have been certified for installation on used cars. The law provides the latter may not cost more than $65 and they do not have to be installed until one is certified by the board.

Phone Holdup Attempt Fails

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An attempted holdup-by-telephone failed today.

Tom Villafuerte, 19 of Daly City, night attendant at a service station on Van Ness Avenue, was the intended victim.

The phone rang at 4:50 a.m., he told police, and a female voice ordered:

He could see no one, but placed $50 on a gas pump island at a service station across the street, then telephoned police.

Officers said the thieves probably saw Villafuerte place the call and decided against picking up the money. Police recovered the cash.

Heavy Snow Hits East, Great Lakes

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Residents of parts of New York and Pennsylvania trudged through heavy snows today as drifts piled up along the eastern and southeastern shores of the Great Lakes.

The port city of Erie, Pa., was digging out of 13 inches of snow and looked forward to a continuing fall of 6 more inches. The snow covered a belt extending about 10 miles along the Lake Erie shore.

Drifting snow in the Erie area —piled up by winds up to 32 knots — hampered highway crews. Snow deposits measured up to 12 inches just northeast of Cleveland.

About 1.000 travelers were forced by blowing and drifting snow to find emergency shelter Sunday night in Dunkirk, N.Y., and three other Chautauqua County communities.

The Weather Bureau said 10 inches or more of additional snow was due today in western New York State and upwards of 6 inches more was likely in northeastern Ohio and northwestern Pennsylvania.

Schlesinger Hits State Department

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Historian Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. contends that State Department bureaucrats would have blocked the Kennedy administration's Alliance for Progress program, even the nuclear test ban treaty, if they had been left to the diplomats alone to work out.

Schlesinger accused the department yesterday of trying to prevent presidents from exercising their own foreign policy wishes because of two basic problems:

"One, within the State Department bureaucracy, a sense that presidents come and presidents go, but they go on forever and that the foreign policy of the United States is their personal property to be preserved against interference and meddling from the White House."

The other, he said, was the department's "deep commitment to past policies whether good or bad, with a kind of concealed feeling that if you change a past policy it is implying that the policy was wrong."

Schlesinger, author of a newly published book on the Kennedy era, "A Thousand Days," praised individual members of the State Department during a televison interview (Meet The Press—NBC).

Dam To Have New Visitors Facility

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Department of Water Resources has called for bids for construction of a new overlook facility at Oroville dam, a structure to be 325 feet higher than the one that has provided a ringside seat for visitors during early construction of the dam.

The new overlook facility will include an information center, restroom facilities and a parking area. Bids will be opened in Sacramento Dec. 22, with $125,000 available.

Jesus Given Drug, Anthropologist Says

BERKELEY (UPI)— Jesus may not have died on the Cross at all, but rather may have been fed a drug that put him into a trance and fooled his Roman guards, a leading research anthropologist said yesterday.

Dr. Michael J. Harner, assistant director of the University of California's Lowie Museum of Anthropology, said it was "certainly possible" Christ was fed a drug that would make him appear to be dead for as long as three days.

For eight years the scientist has done research on the worldwide use of such drugs throughout history.

"There is some evidence that during the period of Roman rule in Palestine, Jewish women would administer a so-called death wine made from the mandrake plant," Harner said.

He said the death wine was "intended to put a person who was being crucified into a death-like state—with the expectation that the appearance of death would cause the Roman soldiers to lower the person from the cross."

Mandrake wine or a similar substance "may have been the so-called vinegar passed onto Jesus on the Cross, he added.

The scientist said the mandrake plant belongs to the solanaceae family. Included in this group are the drug datura and other hallucogenic plants used "in a number of cultures in the world to effect death-like states during which the individual has visions."

"Mandrake is mentioned in the book of Genesis because of its reported aphrodisiac qualities, but there is much other evidence that the Jews used it" Dr. Harner said.

Harner, an Episcopalian by upbringing, said he was disclosing his research because of a book just published in England by Dr. Hugh J. Schonfield. The London scholar suggested the vinegar passed to Jesus on a sponge may really have been just such a drug.

Reaction from leading area clergymen was immediate and highly critical.

"There is no reason to believe Jesus had anything to drink but straight wine," said the Right Rev. J. Richard Millard, acting Episcopal Bishop of California. "The type of person the Disciples saw after the resurrection was a different kind of person who walked through doorways and appeared and disappeared.

"This would hardly indicate He could have been out for three days on some kind of drug," he added.

The Rev. Thomas Leahy, a professor of New Testament at Alma College, a Jesuit seminary at nearby Los Gatos, said the "critical historical value (of the theory) for the study of the Gospels is zero."

The Rev. John B. Streater, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Francisco, discounted the simulated death theory, calling the resurrection of Christ "as well as the death of Christ, the most thoroughly documented fact in history."

Man Arrested On Two Charges

Leonard G. Tobin, 23, of Modesto was arrested by Corte Madera police yesterday on a warrant for non-support and traffic violations in Stanislaus County.

Tobin was stopped for a traffic warning as he drove out of the Corte Madera Shopping Center. Following in a car right behind him, police said, were his wife, mother-in-law and two brothers-in-law, who had traced him to Marin County.

Tobin, who has been working in Ignacio, was booked at county jail, en route to Stanislaus County.

Hold Your Fire Until You See If Escapee Is Just A Truant

Talk about near things, a 14-year-old Kentfield youth playing hooky Nov. 10, had about the nearest.

According to County Supt. of Schools Virgil S. Hollis, the lad was hiding in the hills above San Quentin Prison when a flock of armed guards swarmed out of the keep by the bay.

They were in search of a prisoner who failed to show up for the noon count at the honor farm. But to the young vagrant, it appeared that a new vigilant crack-down on truants had been initiated and he was the first target.

The boy hid behind a clump of brush until the guards were upon him, then he jumped and ran.

"It's just lucky he did not get himself shot," Hollis said.

Fortunately the guards held their fire and after a brief chase, captured the frightened boy. The shaken guards gave him a sound scolding and sent him home where further disciplinary action was invoked, Hollis said.

A LOST PURSE story with a happy ending is being told by Mrs. Jule Ballarin, clerk of the West Marin Justice Court. Her purse, placed on top of her car while she was loading building materials, fell off somewhere between San Rafael and her home in San Anselmo.

It contained $20, all her credit cards, but no phone number. The number is not listed in the book.

All she could do was pray that some honest person found it.

Her prayers are evidently pretty strong. The purse was found and returned after some tough detective work by William Fred Sliger. He's pastor of the First Baptist Church, San Rafael.

ONLY IN MARIN do the citizens rise to literary heights over refuse dumps. This portion of the protest to the Corte Madera dump from Miss Ann McCorry of Greenbrae Boardwalk to supervisors last Tuesday seems a quotable comment that could apply to all governments.

"I realize that in the administration of this county there is a fight about having ordinary but gifted citizens involved in planning the way of life of this community.

"Admittedly, it is not neat, in the organizational chart sense. It is unweildy—so many views—so much energy. Decision makers have to consider so much.

"The push and pull of a few powers in a public vacuum is so much easier to handle. Real politics is a nightmare."

That's what Miss McCorry said in arguing for a community effort to retain the tidelands for open space rather than fill it with refuse.

ART BUCHWALD

Peace Feeler Can Distinguish True From False Peace Ideas

WASHINGTON — One of the trickiest things to recognize in Washington are legitimate "peace feelers" from the enemy. In a Look magazine article Eric Sevareid wrote that Adlai Stevenson had told him the United States rejected a "peace feeler" from Hanoi through U.N. Secretary General U Thant in August of 1964. The State Department confirmed that the offer had been made, but thanks to Dean Rusk's antenna, which is very sensitive to peace feelers, the U. S. had turned it down.

The Assistant Secretray for Peace Feelers in the State Department told me the other day, "I don't know what all the fuss is about. We've had a lot of peace feelers from the Commies, but not one of them has shown up on Dean Rusk's feeler set as being legitimate."

"How do you know when a peace feeler is legitimate or not?" I asked.

"WE HAVE a peace-feeler evaluator here," he said, taking me over to what looked like a very complicated radio set. "When a peace feeler comes in, we broadcast to Dean Rusk, who picks it up on his counter - peace feeler. This feeler, attached to the secretary's head, is so sensitive that it can tell within seconds whether it is a sincere feeler or just another lousy Communist trick."

"Could you demonstrate for me?"

"Well, I don't know if the secretary has his counter-feeler on his head now or not. Let's try it." He spoke into the machine. "Hanoi told Bulgaria it will meet with American representatives in Geneva."

There was crackling static and finally a weak voice came over which said, "Turn the offer down."

The assistant secretary switched the machine off.

"THAT'S MARVELOUS," I said. "It's almost like extrasensory perception."

"It's the greatest breakthrough we've had since radar," he said proudly.

"Would it work for any secretary of state," I asked.

"Is this the only way you people handle peace feelers?" I asked.

"OH, NO. For the time being it's the most foolproof, but we have other methods as well. Timing is very important when it comes to peace feelers. For example, when you're losing a war, you've got to ignore them or the other side will get you in a box. The peace feeler from them may be legitimate, but you certainly don't want to take it up with people committing naked aggression."

"BUT IF you can't accept a peace feeler when you're losing and you can't accept one when you're winning, when can you accept one?"

"If I told you that I'd be giving aid and comfort to the enemy."

"Do you ever send out peace feelers of your own?"

"All the time. The president has said he will talk peace any where, any time, with no conditions attached."

"Have they ever picked up your feelers?"

"As far as we know they haven't."

"Why not?"

Compromises Necessary On Redwood Park Plans

Those who are going all-out to set aside the biggest and best chunk of redwood region in Del Norte and Humboldt counties for a Redwood National Park might take a lesson from what happened at Point Reyes National Seashore.

The cost of acquiring 93,000 acres in and around the Jedediah Smith, Del Norte Coast and Prairie Creek State parks is being estimated $120 million to $140 million. The actual cost may come to several times that amount.

Consider what happened at Point Reyes National Seashore in Marin County. A total of $14 million has been appropriated for the acquisition of land for the seashore. Under the cost estimates made originally, that was to be sufficient.

Apparently, the cost was grossly underestimated. Congressman Don H. Clausen reports that another $30 million is needed to complete the acquisition, and he's having a tough time trying to justify the cost, which is more than double what was expected.

Conceivably, the same thing could happen on the Redwood National Park. In fact, warning voices have already been sounded.

Eldon V. Shafer, executive vice president of the Redwood Region Conservation Council, declared that the cost of developing the proposed 93,000-acre national park would come closer to a half billion dollars.

In addition to the cost of acquisition and development must be considered the repercussions on the lumber interests and families who are dependent on that industry for survival.

Major lumber companies like Arcata, Miller and Rellim redwood companies will be forced out of business or seriously crippled.

In contrast with the ambitious federal plan, the state plan for a national redwood park in southern Humboldt County is more modest. It calls for a federal-state partnership, with Humboldt State Park as the nucleus and acquisition of the Kings Range area to the west for campsites.

As we've said before, some compromises will have to be made by both conservationists and lumber interests in preserving and expanding park and recreation areas.

The federal plan for 93,000 acres in Del Norte and Humboldt strikes us as a plan that does not consider the plight of lumber companies that will be forced out of business and the lumber families who will be thrown out of work.

WEALTHY BEGGAR FED BY NEIGHBORS

An estate of $90,000 left by a "beggar" greatly surprised his neighbors in Southampton, England.

Most people assumed he was a penniless old man because he knocked at their back doors asking for sugar, tea and anything they could spare.

When the 72-year-old former prize fighter began chopping down the fence around his garden for firewood, one family provided a weekly supply of wood so he could keep his fence.

Several months after his death, the thoughtful neighbors discovered the retired boxer could have bought and sold the entire block.

His daughter said he had invested in real estate years before and it had made him a wealthy man.

Judging by appearances can be misleading. Often enough, it turns out to be an unreliable method. But in case of doubt, the Lord will abundantly repay you for assisting another in real or apparent need.

Bond Issues Cost Californians Millions In Servicing, Interest

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO — Although much conversation and some thinking has gone into the subject of pay-as-you-go financing for the state's capital outlay program, the fact has developed that the administration of Gov. Edmund G. Brown is considering another $250 million issues of state bonds for construction purposes during the next two years.

In addition to this, the state allocations board has been advised that financing for local school district projects is about out, and that from $250 to $300 million can be used to further this program.

IF BOTH THESE bond issues are submitted to the people and approved next year, taxpayers of California will be saddled with an additional half billion dollars of indebtedness, in the face of rising interest rates and reluctant markets.

Merely the cost of servicing already outstanding bonds, not computing retirements, is soaring into astronomical figures. It is estimated that the bond issues alone approved during the administration of Governor Brown costs taxpayers of California up to $160 million a year.

INTEREST RATES continue to climb, and the last bond money available is costing the taxpayers 3.7 per cent, where in the past, the figure was around three per cent.

Submission of new bond issues to the legislature next year well could engender a storm of protest reaching into the November elections.

Many legislators feel the state has reached a crucial point in financing new construction for schools and colleges, which with population increases and demand for higher education at taxpayers expense, has gone on almost unabated for more than a decade. The point now is how much can the public afford to spend and how high will taxes have to go during the next 30 or 40 years to enable the state to get out of debt.

OF COURSE, it is fundamental that the state will never even approach the happy state of not owing bond interest and retirement.

And again, adoption of even a partial pay-as-you-go program appears to be conducive to greater increases in taxes. Take this plus the funds necessary for interest and principal on state bonds, and the taxpayer is hit doubly.

SO FAR, there has been little if any discussion concerning cut-backs on expenditures for capital outlay, particularly in connection with the university, the state colleges, and now another obligation to which the state is partially committed, the junior colleges.

However, such discussion is likely to crop up, especially among economy minded legislators, when and if the subject comes up for consideration next year. And some hard facts will be bruited about, among them the question of whether the state has reached the point where it has to tighten its belt, or whether it can continue to tempt bankruptcy for its taxpayers.

U.S. Involvement In Rhodesia Hit

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am continually amazed that the American public keeps electing hypocritical socialists to governmental offices. It now appears that the U.S. government is joining England and that most glorious organization, the United Nations, in applying sanctions against Rhodesia.

It was the U.S. and the U.N., along with the Communists, who insisted on "freedom now" for the Congo, Ghana, Guinea, Kenya and the rest of savage, black Africa. Now when the second most advanced nation in Africa wants independence, these same bleeding heart, left-wing-oriented groups say, "no." The United States has no business sticking its nose into the internal affairs of Rhodesia.

I remember a small colony which in 1776 declared its independence from Britain. I thank God the socialists were not in power and that the U.N. did not exist at that time.

British ships are hauling war goods to the Viet Cong, yet they have the gall to involve us in their crucifixion of Rhodesia. The double standard of moral conduct is obvious in all of these machinations. The communist-socialist axis is in power around the world, including our own government in Washington, D.C.

Americans wake up.

Why The Fuss Over Meters?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A year and a half ago, when I first moved into Marin County, three things impressed me: the beauty of its geography, the cultural level of its people, and the reporting excellence of its local paper. All seemed to exist and function in harmony.

Recently I began to detect a discord in this harmony. A minor controversy between a Fourth Street merchant and a meter maid has created a . . . TEMPEST IN A TEA POT.

The disturbance gained momentum with your pictorial report of a meter maid's electric cart parked in a red zone while she was sipping coffee. The innuendo being that the cart was parked illegally and the meter maid was not attending to her duties.

You and I know that this needs parenthetical explanation. The carts are parked in the red zone to save legal parking spaces for shoppers, and the meter maids are entitled to their coffee breaks, like everyone else.

But what disturbs me most, in the cacophony, is the sad fact that so much valuable space is wasted in your fine paper for such trivia. When more important matters such as THE REDEVELOPMENT OF THE CENTRAL CORE OF SAN RAFAEL, THE CREATION OF A MARINA, THE PLANNING OF NEW AIRPORT FACILITIES IN THE COUNTY, THE CREATION OF A CULTURAL COUNCIL IN MARIN, and THE BUILDING OF HIGHWAY 17 are crying for more attention and space.

Your paper has served this community in a magnificent manner in the past, and I know you will continue to support every worthwhile project to help us build a better community.

Physician Answers Pre-School Critics

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Because I was one of the physicians who planned the medical examinations for the children of the pre-school program in the Sausalito School District, I would like to express my concern with the attack made upon the medical part of the program by the president of the Marin Medical Society.

To begin with, the giving of the examinations by private physicians had the approval of the Marin Medical Society. It did not sponsor them, but was aware of the plan and cooperated generously in its organization.

In August, 1965, when the pre-school program was being planned, representatives of the health department, the medical society, the Economic Opportunity office, the Sausalito School District and I (who didn't represent anybody but myself) met. . . . It was felt by all of us that if the program was to give all the children in it an opportunity to participate in wider experiences in their community, that an examination in a private physician's office should be offered.

To make sure that the examinations would be done by physicians who had time and interest appropriate to this program, a list of volunteers was prepared. Each family was asked to choose a physician from that list if it did not have already a family physician. The examination was designed to take about 45 minutes and a fee of $15 was set.

No doubt some of the children's parents could afford such a fee. But should they be singled out? Should those same parents also send crackers and milk for their children's snack time? The preschool program is for children —children who can contribute to each other to make all their lives better. It is not a program for separate groups.

I am sorry that the president of the Marin Medical Society did not inform himself of the facts and philosophy of the program before he wrote his editorial.

What's Other Side Of Price Rollbacks?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

James Marlow writes of Johnsons' tactics over price rollbacks on raw materials presenting but one side of the story. He never mentions the fact that first the union bosses made such unreasonable demands on the steel industry that the industry was forced to raise its prices. No check is ever put on the union bosses by this administration. What was the government doing with 200,000 tons of aluminum it wished to get rid of? The aluminum must have been bought with money from taxes paid by you and me. Were we asked if we wished the aluminum dumped?

Mr. Marlow seems to forget investors in a stock have confidence when they realize what can happen, and without investors our country goes bankrupt. Industry has built our country and made it great. With industry controlled by a socialist form of government, our country goes down with all the other socialist countries. Are the people going to accept a socialist regime in which nobody benefits but those in power?

Johnson-Kennedy Conflict Now Polite, Probably Will Change

WASHINGTON — What's up with President Johnson and the Kennedys?

That's one of Washington's most fascinating questions. It is fascinating because anything can happen—and probably will.

It is important because the stake in this now-polite but later no-holds-barred conflict in the making is nothing less than the presidency of the United States.

There is no doubt about Sen. Robert Kennedy's ultimate goal: the Democratic presidential nomination in 1972 unless some circumstance puts Vice President Hubert Humphrey into the White House before then.

Anyone who knows the Kennedys—their drive, talent, resources and charismatic appeal —will not lightly argue that he cannot bring it off.

At this stage the senator is not tied to a full-scale plan of battle. Instead he is trying things out to see where they take him and how far they take him—like these:

1. He is taking special care to identify himself with the Democratic liberals. He rarely misses an opportunity to be a visible and vigorous advocate of liberal measures, thus establishing a position on farther political ground, when possible, from that of the Johnson-Humphrey administration.

2. He is pressing, prodding and pin-pricking the Johnson administration to push harder to get a nuclear non-proliferation treaty with the Soviet and others. He suggests that the president is either dragging his feet or not grasping the urgency of the issue. Mr. Kennedy can hardly fail to make sure that, if agreement should come, he will have been one of its foremost advocates and, if agreement should come, he will have been one of its foremost adovcates and, if agreement cannot be reached, he will appear to have talked for it harder than anyone else.

3. Between adjournment and the re-opening of Congress in January, Kennedy will have completed a long, event-laden, well-headlined journey through much of Latin America where he confronted the Communists and got the same sputum treatment as did Richard Nixon in 1958. But the trip is a seasoning, informative experience which will give him new credentials to expand his differences with the administration over the Dominican intervention and some other issues which mark his stance apart from that of the president.

Obviously Kennedy is building for the future. He is keeping flexible. He is moving far enough away from the Johnson administration to challenge it as a Democrat but not so far away that he would impair his standing in the party.

KENNEDY will have a considerable political base from which to operate in 1968 and after. He will be the No. 1 Democrat in New York State; Sen. Edward Kennedy will be the No. 1 Democrat in Massachusetts; and brother-in-law Sargent Shriver by then may be governor of Illinois. He also has two other special assets—his own name and the pervasive memory of his late brother.

But it should be understood that nothing is going to fall into Robert's lap. President Johnson has already chosen his 1968 running mate and his political heir four years later—Hubert Humphrey.

This is why Kennedy will have to hurdle both Johnson and Humphrey to win his goal. He's warming up now.

Otepka Case Seems No Nearer Solution

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The State Department is trying to put over a face-saving plan to end its long-pending case against security officer Otto Otepka.

Aides of Secretary of State Dean Rusk are offering to arrange Otepka's retirement at almost full pay if he will agree to leave early next year.

These secret feelers, channeled through congressional friends of Otepka, are being coupled with a veiled intimation that he will be forced to retire on a lower pay scale if he rejects the compromise proposal.

If accepted by Otepka, this stratagem would, in effect, shelve the State Department's two-year-old charges against him. The nationally known case would be closed and all further action dropped.

So far Otepka has neither accepted nor rejected the backstage offer.

SIGNIFICANTLY, however, close friends are characterizing the proposal as unacceptable on the ground the department should either withdraw the accusations against him or give him the chance to disprove them.

A career civil servant with more than 25 years' service, Otepka has persistently demanded a public hearing to answer the charge that he gave the Senate internal security subcommittee department documents without approval of his superiors.

Otepka admits he gave the subcommittee a memorandum signed by a superior, but he states he did that at the request of the Senate probers and after the official had testified he had not been truthful concerning a matter.

It is Otepka's contention that the memorandum, in the subcommittee's records, proved clearly it was Otepka's accuser and not Otepka who gave untruthful testimony under oath.

Behind Otepka's insistance on public hearings are several other important factors — his strong desire to air the State Department's laxity in security, which he was blocked from investigating, and the use against him of wiretapping and other illegal practices.

The veteran security officer's difficulties with his superior began when he proposed they cooperate with the Senate probers, who were digging into reports of a breakdown of security in the U.S. embassies in Warsaw and other capitals.

Otepka has succeeded in staying on the department's payroll at $19,000 despite numerous attempts to dismiss or force him out. He has been shifted to an unimportant position, and denied access to security and other files.

SEVERAL HEARINGS have been called on his case but have been postponed at the request of both sides. No new date has been set since a scheduled October hearing was cancelled.

State Department authorities claim that Otepka can be compelled to retire by the Stratagem of abolishing his position in the contemplated reorganization of the security office.

Should this ruse be used, members of the International Security Subcommittee have let it be known they will counter by taking the matter directly to President Johnson, and summoning Rusk to a public hearing on this action.

LEADERS of Young Americans of Freedom, which advocates a tougher U. S. policy in Viet Nam, are having trouble finding opponents to debate.

In preparing for a series of campus "Viet Nam Debateins" on Pearl Harbor Day, Dec. 7, YAF chairman Tom Charles Huston reports that none of the anti-Viet Nam leaders will accept his organization's challenge.

JORDAN L. MARTINELLI SR.
Once a judge . . .

Retired Judge Helps State Handle Overload

When Jordan L. Martinelli Sr. retired in 1960 from the Marin County Superior Court bench, he promised he would return to help the courts from time to time if he were needed.

The California Supreme Court in the past two years has taken him up on that offer. Judge Martinelli serves as a referee for the state's highest court on habeas corpus cases from the state's prisons.

Martinelli has yet to handle any cases of writs from prisoners arising from the Dorado decision, which ruled that a prisoner must be advised of his rights to an attorney and to keep silent.

Most of his cases, instead, have dealt with prisoners who did not file appeals on their convictions within the allotted 10 days after sentencing. Often, he said, the prisoners claim they believed their attorney was going to file an appeal.

Such a request for appeal by the Supreme Court might come as much as two years late, Martinelli said. In all, he has handled about 10 cases in the past two years, the most recent at Folsom Prison.

Because the Supreme Court is an appeals court, it generally does not listen directly to witnesses or take evidence. That is where the referee comes in, especially if a man in prison is involved, according to officials of the state attorney general's office in San Francisco.

Martinelli said he always takes evidence in the prisons. He then makes a recommendation to the court, and, sometimes, the court agrees to allow a late appeal. He said he had recommended several late appeals, which later had been allowed.

As for pay, Martinelli said the state pays him the difference between his retirement pay and a regular judge's salary for each day he is handling an assignment.

Planners Ask Businessmen To Speak Up

"What is right and what is wrong with the city's three commercial areas and what can be done to improve them" will be discussed by the Mill Valley Planning Commission at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Outdoor Art Club.

Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon said today the commission is very interested in opinions from businessmen and other residents.

Approval of Mill Valley's application for federal "701 funds" for upgrading the business districts is imminent, Bragdon said, and precise studies over the next year will focus on the three commercial areas—Lytton Square, Miller and East Blithedale avenues.

Marin Praised For Work With Retarded Children

Although Marin County's aid for retarded children compares well with that in other areas, much progress lies ahead if they are to get the best possible diagnosis, treatment, and training.

So said Dr. Richard Koch of Los Angeles, president of the California Council for Retarded Children, in San Rafael as he prepared to address members of Marin Aid for Retarded Children Friday.

"The public schools here have done especially well in establishing a program for retarded children younger than eight years old," said Koch. "It is most important to discover and treat the problems of retardation early, and many areas aren't doing that.

"What the county needs most is a public health official to whom all newly discovered cases of retardation may be referred," he added.

Koch described recent state legislation which will provide $1,500,000 to set up regional diagnostic centers and to aid parents of retarded children so the children may continue to live at home.

Marin Wildlife Talk For Audubon Society

Field trips scheduled for December include: Dec. 6, to Stinson Beach State Park; Dec. 11, to Conn Dam; Dec. 13, canoeing on Bolinas Lagoon; and Dec. 20, a cycling trip.

Charles J. Francis is president of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce.

"Let the skeptics scoff. I'm convinced there are Americans who won't mind an odd-sounding engine when they find the Mercedes-Benz Diesel can cut their fuel costs in half."

—Heinz C. Hoppe, Chief Executive Officer, Mercedes-Benz of North America, Inc.

Mr. Heinz C. Hoppe and the impeccably engineered Mercedes-Benz 200D Diesel Sedan.

"The Mercedes-Benz 200D uses inexpensive diesel fuel. It has no sparkplugs to replace, no carburetors to adjust. With normal care, it will be going strong after most cars go to the scrap heap. It's well worth its $4,280 price—as you'll see when you read the full story below."

THE Mercedes-Benz 200D isn't so unconventional it will startle your neighbors. But it is a maverick of sorts—as you'll find the moment you lift the hood.

Tucked inside is a 4-cylinder Diesel engine. Here's how a Diesel differs from gasoline engines. Diesel fuel is fed by injection nozzles, not carburetors, into the engine's combustion chambers. Instead of a spark, compression ignites the fuel—with twice the combustion power of a 150-mph Ferrari gasoline engine.

Speaking frankly

The unique combustion in Diesel engines produces a unique noise, most audible at idling speeds. Mercedes-Benz engineers have reduced this drastically in recent years to a faint echo of what once was called "Diesel knock."

Car Life magazine comments, "Once underway, things quiet down and many unsuspecting passengers are surprised to learn that they've been riding in a Diesel."

Gauge watchers: You won't find diesel fuel at every gas pump. You will find it wherever Diesel trucks refill. And a tankful takes you 550 miles—enough for a nonstop trip from New York to Montreal, with 150 miles of driving to spare.

How you save money

In many areas of the United States, diesel fuel costs much less than gasoline. And the super-efficient Diesel engine uses less of it (to a Diesel owner, 32 miles to the gallon is mere routine mileage on a long trip). You can cut your fuel costs in half.

You never have to adjust carburetors, repair condensers or distributors, or replace sparkplugs and points—there are none.

The Mercedes-Benz Diesel engine is machined to tolerances of 4/10,000ths of an inch. Mercedes-Benz designers specified heavy-duty bearings, crankshaft and engine block to suit the Diesel's high-compression running. Result: the Mercedes-Benz Diesel, with normal care, will be going strong while other cars lie on the junk heap.

Startling proof: Some Mercedes-Benz Diesels are still rolling after 600,000 miles—such as the 1957 model owned by Mr. John J. Gray of Albany, Oregon. "The cost per mile has been 4.6 cents," says Mr. Gray. "This figure includes repairs, tires, fuel, insurance and depreciation."

Background note: Mercedes-Benz sold the world's first Diesel passenger car 29 years ago. A German engineer, Rudolf Diesel, invented the engine in 1897. Diesels may still be a novelty to Americans, but they're a household word elsewhere. Last April, the 500,000th Diesel car left the Mercedes-Benz factory in Germany.

The best—not the best seller

Mercedes-Benz engineers have never felt that a car should pay for its economy by cutting corners somewhere else.

For example, you ride in a body made of heavy-gauge sheet steel, welded at 10,000 points. This taut "unit" structure can't loosen up to rattle, squeak or groan. Nor will it rust in two or three years: 26 pounds of anti-corrosion undercoating are sprayed on at the factory. And the whole car—doors, hood and trunk lid attached—is sunk in a primer bath before painting—then given 6 more coats of paint.

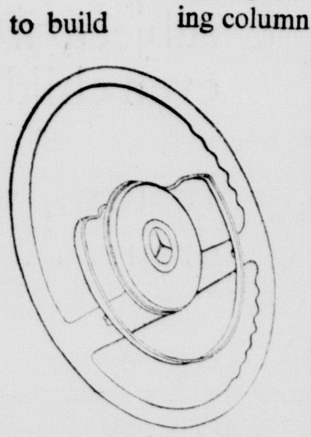
Showroom browsers: Note the rich, silvery sheen of that famous Mercedes-Benz radiator. It's made of steel, then copper-coated and polished by hand, dipped in chrome, baked and buffed by hand again.

The Mercedes-Benz three-pointed star radiator ornament is spring-mounted to foil sudden blows. A minor point—but a telling example of the Mercedes-Benz passion for detail.

Bring on the potholes

"Mercedes-Benz engineers know how to build sports car handling qualities into a family sedan—there's no doubt about that in our minds," says Car Life in a recent report.

The secret: the Mercedes-Benz 200D uses a fully independent suspension similar to that you'll find on the $6,262 Mercedes-Benz 230SL sports car. The "seasick" feeling you get in many big cars that lean and wallow over curvy roads is utterly unknown in the Mercedes-Benz 200D.



Some think it's ugly!

This car is not only agile. It smashes over potholes and ruts with unflappable calm. Each individually sprung wheel—not the entire body—soaks up bumps. Come hell or high water, you ride in civilized comfort.

You're in control

"You feel like you're actually steering a car—not changing direction by remote control," said one automotive authority about Mercedes-Benz steering precision.

There's no sponginess. The Mercedes-Benz 200D even has a shock absorber in the steering linkage. The wheel stays steady in your hands whatever the road surface.

Who needs options?

A refreshing point: the Mercedes-Benz 200D rolls off the assembly line as a completely equipped car. Tires are premium grade. Mercedes-Benz engineers tested their design and quality at continuous speeds of over 100 mph—at normal air pressures. Even the spare is balanced at the factory. You can have the 4-speed, fully synchronized gearshift mounted on the floor or the steering column. And you don't pay a cent extra.

Inside story: Sit in a Mercedes-Benz 200D—you'll find more room than in many large American cars. The car is designed around its occupants—not shaped to a stylist's whim.

Seats are hand built with fine wire coil springs, interwoven and interlocked to prevent sagging. Orthopedic physicians helped shape these seats to ward off fatigue. And they're firm: "When you sit down in a Mercedes-Benz, you don't sort of disappear into the cushion. You're cradled in something that was really engineered to keep a human being where he belongs."—David E. Davis Jr., Editor of Car & Driver magazine.

Note: The individual front seats are equipped with reclining backrests. Twist a knob and you can lean back in one of 4 positions. No extra charge, of course.

Mercedes-Benz motor cars: from $23,245 to $4,065

You may be able to afford a Mercedes-Benz without knowing it. Below are suggested retail prices* for 7 of the 15 Mercedes-Benz models.

600 Grand Mercedes	$23,245
300SE Coupe	11,737
230SL Roadster	6,262
230S Sedan	4,900
230 Sedan	4,250
200 Diesel Sedan	4,280
200 Sedan	4,065

Trustworthy brakes

The tough-minded Mercedes-Benz engineers think you should have more braking power than you need. The Mercedes-Benz 200D weighs 2,920 lbs.—one and a half tons. Its brakes could safely stop a car of twice the weight. With disc brakes in front (where most of the car's weight is thrown in stopping), you face downhill mountain curves or deep puddles in peace. No shuddering, no fade. And because front and rear brake systems are separately activated, you actually have two sets of brakes.

World's safest car

The body of the Mercedes-Benz 200D has been patented as a safety feature. In the event of a sudden heavy impact, front and rear sections of the car are designed to fold—absorbing shock before it reaches the passenger area.

Savage crash tests at the Mercedes-Benz proving grounds show that doors stay tightly shut under all conditions. The "safety cone" door lock used on the 200D is the same as that used on the $23,245 Grand Mercedes 600 limousine.

Safety padding covers the steering wheel hub, instrument panel edges, even the window cranks. (To those who claim the Mercedes-Benz steering wheel is "ugly," safety experts have a thought-provoking reply: "Yes—so ugly it could save your life!")

Altogether, 12 potential danger spots in the Mercedes-Benz 200D are padded. Control knobs are recessed or made of elasticized material. Authorities term Mercedes-Benz cars "the safest in the world."

See for yourself

As your Mercedes-Benz dealer, we'll be glad to arrange a thorough demonstration drive in a 200D or other Mercedes-Benz model. You'll find it a remarkable experience to drive a car built to be the best—not the best seller.

Hold Your Fire Until You See If Escapee Is Just A Truant

Talk about near things, a 14-year-old Kentfield youth playing hooky Nov. 10, had about the nearest.

According to County Supt. of Schools Virgil S. Hollis, the lad was hiding in the hills above San Quentin Prison when a flock of armed guards swarmed out of the keep by the bay.

They were in search of a prisoner who failed to show up for the noon count at the honor farm. But to the young vagrant, it appeared that a new vigilant crack-down on truants had been initiated and he was the first target.

The boy hid behind a clump of brush until the guards were upon him, then he jumped and ran.

"It's just lucky he did not get himself shot," Hollis said.

Fortunately the guards held their fire and after a brief chase, captured the frightened boy. The shaken guards gave him a sound scolding and sent him home where further disciplinary action was invoked, Hollis said.

A LOST PURSE story with a happy ending is being told by Mrs. Jule Ballarin, clerk of the West Marin Justice Court. Her purse, placed on top of her car while she was loading building materials, fell off somewhere between San Rafael and her home in San Anselmo.

It contained $20, all her credit cards, but no phone number. The number is not listed in the book.

All she could do was pray that some honest person found it.

Her prayers are evidently pretty strong. The purse was found and returned after some tough detective work by William Fred Sliger. He's pastor of the First Baptist Church, San Rafael.

ONLY IN MARIN do the citizens rise to literary heights over refuse dumps. This portion of the protest to the Corte Madera dump from Miss Ann McCorry of Greenbrae Boardwalk to supervisors last Tuesday seems a quotable comment that could apply to all governments.

"I realize that in the administration of this county there is a fight about having ordinary but gifted citizens involved in planning the way of life of this community.

"Admittedly, it is not neat, in the organizational chart sense. It is unweildy—so many views—so much energy. Decision makers have to consider so much.

"The push and pull of a few powers in a public vacuum is so much easier to handle. Real politics is a nightmare."

That's what Miss McCorry said in arguing for a community effort to retain the tidelands for open space rather than fill it with refuse.

ART BUCHWALD

Peace Feeler Can Distinguish True From False Peace Ideas

WASHINGTON — One of the trickiest things to recognize in Washington are legitimate "peace feelers" from the enemy. In a Look magazine article Eric Sevareid wrote that Adlai Stevenson had told him the United States rejected a "peace feeler" from Hanoi through U.N. Secretary General U Thant in August of 1964. The State Department confirmed that the offer had been made, but thanks to Dean Rusk's antenna, which is very sensitive to peace feelers, the U. S. had turned it down.

The Assistant Secretray for Peace Feelers in the State Department told me the other day, "I don't know what all the fuss is about. We've had a lot of peace feelers from the Commies, but not one of them has shown up on Dean Rusk's feeler set as being legitimate."

"How do you know when a peace feeler is legitimate or not?" I asked.

"WE HAVE a peace-feeler evaluator here," he said, taking me over to what looked like a very complicated radio set. "When a peace feeler comes in, we broadcast to Dean Rusk, who picks it up on his counter - peace feeler. This feeler, attached to the secretary's head, is so sensitive that it can tell within seconds whether it is a sincere feeler or just another lousy Communist trick."

"Could you demonstrate for me?"

"Well, I don't know if the secretary has his counter-feeler on his head now or not. Let's try it." He spoke into the machine. "Hanoi told Bulgaria it will meet with American representatives in Geneva."

There was crackling static and finally a weak voice came over which said, "Turn the offer down."

The assistant secretary switched the machine off.

"THAT'S MARVELOUS," I said. "It's almost like extra-sensory perception."

"It's the greatest breakthrough we've had since radar," he said proudly.

"Would it work for any secretary of state," I asked.

"Is this the only way you people handle peace feelers?" I asked.

"OH, NO. For the time being it's the most foolproof, but we have other methods as well. Timing is very important when it comes to peace feelers. For example, when you're losing a war, you've got to ignore them or the other side will get you in a box. The peace feeler from them may be legitimate, but you certainly don't want to take it up with people committing naked aggression."

"BUT IF you can't accept a peace feeler when you're losing and you can't accept one when you're winning, when can you accept one?"

"If I told you that I'd be giving aid and comfort to the enemy."

"Do you ever send out peace feelers of your own?"

"All the time. The president has said he will talk peace any where, any time, with no conditions attached."

"Have they ever picked up your feelers?"

"As far as we know they haven't."

"Why not?"

Scholarship Rite Set At Redwood

Ceremonies are scheduled for 8 p.m. tomorrow to honor 164 students who achieved academic distinction during the spring semester last year at Redwood High School.

Sponsored by the Sequoians, a parent organization supporting scholarship, the program will be held at the school's little theater.

Howard B. Shontz, assistant chancellor at the new University of California campus at Santa Cruz, will speak to the students and parents.

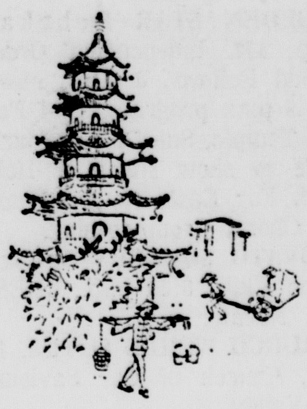
TASTEFULLY

Combining East And West

By PATRICIA ZINN



A newcomer to Marin who tastefully combines the culinary arts of the East and the West and has cooked soup "in a pumpkin" is Mrs. Ann Lett of Greenbrae.

The newcomer, born in Czechoslovakia, was schooled at the Academy of Cooking in Vienna and the Cordon Bleu in Paris and the Cordon Bleu in London.

FOR THE past 12 years she has lived in Hong Kong, where she spent one year studying Chinese cuisine at the famous Maxim's, and giving television and radio cookery demonstrations.

Mrs. Lett is the wife of a doctor and the mother of a daughter, Angela Mary, who is a junior at Redwood High School.

Although she is an expert in universal cookery and speaks six languages, the attractive brunette says that steaks served with salad, and a glass of wine and fresh fruit is her favorite menu.

Also among her preferences are:

AT LEAST four colors in a salad.

COLLECTING pretty aprons wherever she goes.

Following are recipes from Ann Lett's collection of recipes:

SWEET AND SOUR PORK

Serves 4

INGREDIENTS:

1 lb. loin pork, cut into 1" cubes
1 tablespoon dry sherry
2 tablespoons soy sauce
2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon cornstarch
oil for deep frying
2 green peppers — seeded and cut into ½" pieces
4 ozs. bamboo shoots — cut into small wedges
1 small tin pineapple, cut into small wedges
juice of pineapple
4 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 clove garlic — crushed
4 tablespoons tomato ketchup
2 teaspoons oil
1 dessert spoon cornstarch mixed with ½ cup water

METHOD:

First prepare pork this way:

1. Mix flour and cornstarch together and coat meat well.
2. Heat oil — and fry pork till golden brown — put aside — but keep hot.
3. Heat remaining 2 teaspoons oil.
4. Add sugar — stirring all the time.
5. Add vinegar, soy sauce and tomato catsup.
6. Then add cornstarch mixed with water — lower flame.
7. Now is the time to add crushed clove of garlic, green peppers, bamboo shoots, pineapple chunks, sherry and pineapple juice.
8. Allow the sauce to simmer for 5 minutes, stirring constantly.
9. Lastly add pork to sauce and allow to cook for 5 minutes.
10. Serve very hot.

CHRISTMAS BUFFET

Lotte en Mayonnaise
Swedish Roll-mop Salad
Prawns in Aspic
Stuffed Roast Turkey
Chestnut & Celery Salad
Pineapple & Orange Salad
Meringues Chinoises
Gateau Au Chocolat Et Marrons

LOTTE EN MAYONNAISE

Choose any thick fleshed white fish, such as rock salmon, cod or turbot.

Two pounds white fish; 3 thick slices of white bread; good olive oil; lemon juice; garlic, chopped or crushed with salt; ¾ pint or more of mayonnaise; capers and sliced gherkins to garnish.

Cook the fish with plenty of vegetables and herbs to flavor, leave to cool in the liquor, then drain, bone and skin. Soak the bread in a little water and oil and then squeeze as dry as possible. Crush and work the fish well with the bread, then add by degrees ¾ tablespoons oil, garlic, lemon juice and seasoning to taste. Finish with ⅔ tablespoons of mayonnaise. When a creamy but firm consistency, mound in a serving dish, and coat with the remaining mayonnaise. Decorate with the capers and gherins.

SWEDISH ROLL-MOP SALAD

Six roll-mop herrings, 2 pickled cucumbers,. 3 small potatoes, French dressing.

Scrub and cook the potatoes in their skins until tender, drain, dry and peel: cut into neat slices and moisten with French dressing while still hot. Allow to cool.

Slice the cucumbers and the herrings and mix with the prepared potatoes. Moisten with a little extra dressing, pile in the serving dish and dust with chopped parsley.

PRAWNS IN ASPIC

Four to six ounces frozen or shelled prawns, rounds of canned pimento or ripe tomatoes for decoration.

ASPIC JELLY:

Put the fish stock and gelatin into a scalded pan and dissolve over gentle heat. Whip the egg whites to a froth and add to the pan with wine and lemon juice. Whisk over steady heat until boiling point is reached and then allow to boil to the top of the saucepan undisturbed, draw aside and leave to settle. Boil up twice more in the same way, stand 5 minutes and then pour through a scalded cloth or jelly bag.

Line small dariole moulds with cool aspic, arrange the decoration at the bottom and set in aspic. Fill the mould with the prawns, fill up with aspic and leave to set.

Dip the moulds into hot water to turn out and garnish the dish with small cress or curled celery.

ROAST STUFFED TURKEY

8 lbs. turkey, butter, a little stock and sherry for roasting.

HAM MOUSSE: 2-lbs. ham; ½ lb. pate de foie, ½ lb. butter, ½ pint Bechamel sauce made with 1½ ozs. butter and 1½ ozs. flour, ¼ pint cream.

GARNISH: Aspic jelly and truffle.

Roast the turkey with the butter, stock and sherry for about 2 hours and allow to cool.

Prepare the aspic jelly and ham mousse.

HAM MOUSSE:

Mince the ham twice and then pound in a mortar with the pate de foie, creamed butter and cold sauce. Season well and fold in the half-whipped cream. Carefully remove the Supremes and then cut away into breast bone. Fill the "body" with the mousse. Cut the supreme into slices and place on the mousse leaving an open space down the center.

Arrange the sliced truffle along the breast and baste the bird with the cold aspic jelly and leave to set.

Serve on a large flat dish garnished with chopped aspic and hand a chestnut and celery salad and an orange and pineapple salad separately.

MERINGUES CHINOISES

Three whites egg, 6 ozs. castor sugar, a few drops vanilla essence. Creme Chantilly, Cape Gooseberries or Kumquats.

Whip the whites to a firm snow. Whisk in 1 teaspoonful of the weighed sugar for each egg white. Add the vanilla and fold in the rest of the sugar. Pipe out into small merinques, dust with sugar and leave for 10 minutes before drying in a cool oven or oiled and floured trays. Lift off and cool.

Fill the meringues and insert a cape gooseberry or kumquat between them.

GATEAU AU CHOCOLAT ET MARRONS

One-half lb. chestnuts weighed after cooking and sieving, 4

Retired Judge Helps State Handle Overload

JORDAN L. MARTINELLI SR.
Once a judge . . .

When Jordan L. Martinelli Sr. retired in 1960 from the Marin County Superior Court bench, he promised he would return to help the courts from time to time if he were needed.

The California Supreme Court in the past two years has taken him up on that offer. Judge Martinelli serves as a referee for the state's highest court on habeas corpus cases from the state's prisons.

Martinelli has yet to handle any cases of writs from prisoners arising from the Dorado decision, which ruled that a prisoner must be advised of his rights to an attorney and to keep silent.

Most of his cases, instead, have dealt with prisoners who did not file appeals on their convictions within the allotted 10 days after sentencing. Often, he said, the prisoners claim they believed their attorney was going to file an appeal.

Such a request for appeal by the Supreme Court might come as much as two years late, Martinelli said. In all, he has handled about 10 cases in the past two years, the most recent at Folsom Prison.

Because the Supreme Court is an appeals court, it generally does not listen directly to witnesses or take evidence. That is where the referee comes in, especially if a man in prison is involved, according to officials of the state attorney general's office in San Francisco.

Martinelli said he always takes evidence in the prisons. He then makes a recommendation to the court, and, sometimes, the court agrees to allow a late appeal. He said he had recommended several late appeals, which later had been allowed.

As for pay, Martinelli said the state pays him the difference between his retirement pay and a regular judge's salary for each day he is handling an assignment.

Gate Span Patrolman Promoted, Moved

Traffic Officer J. H. Courter of the California Highway Patrol's Marin-Golden Gate Bridge Area office has been promoted to sergeant and reassigned to the Eureka area, effective Dec. 2.

A 17-year veteran, Courter was first assigned to San Francisco-Bay Bridge duty in 1948. After 12 years service, he transferred to Marin County.

Trucks Haul More

WASHINGTON (AP) —Intercity truck tonnage in 34 metropolitan areas across the country in the week ended Nov. 20 was up 7.2 per cent from the corresponding week last year, the American Trucking Assn. reports.

In the high speed world of data processing, time often is measured in nanoseconds, which are defined as one-billionth of a second.

Planners Ask Businessmen To Speak Up

"What is right and what is wrong with the city's three commercial areas and what can be done to improve them" will be discussed by the Mill Valley Planning Commission at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Outdoor Art Club.

Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon said today the commission is very interested in opinions from businessmen and other residents.

Approval of Mill Valley's application for federal "701 funds" for upgrading the business districts is imminent, Bragdon said, and precise studies over the next year will focus on the three commercial areas—Lytton Square, Miller and East Blithedale avenues.

Marin Praised For Work With Retarded Children

Although Marin County's aid for retarded children compares well with that in other areas, much progress lies ahead if they are to get the best possible diagnosis, treatment, and training.

So said Dr. Richard Koch of Los Angeles, president of the California Council for Retarded Children, in San Rafael as he prepared to address members of Marin Aid for Retarded Children Friday.

"The public schools here have done especially well in establishing a program for retarded children younger than eight years old," said Koch. "It is most important to discover and treat the problems of retardation early, and many areas aren't doing that.

"What the county needs most is a public health official to whom all newly discovered cases of retardation may be referred," he added.

Koch described recent state legislation which will provide $1,500,000 to set up regional diagnostic centers and to aid parents of retarded children so the children may continue to live at home.

Marin Wildlife Talk For Audubon Society

A talk about Marin's most abundant types of doves, treefrogs and fence lizards will be given by Dr. James P. Mackey, associate professor of biology at San Francisco State College at a meeting of Marin Audubon Society Friday at 8 p.m. in the county supervisors' chambers at Marin Civic Center.

Field trips scheduled for December include: Dec. 6, to Stinson Beach State Park; Dec. 11, to Conn Dam; Dec. 13, canoeing on Bolinas Lagoon; and Dec. 20, a cycling trip.

Charles J. Francis is president of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce.

"Let the skeptics scoff. I'm convinced there are Americans who won't mind an odd-sounding engine when they find the Mercedes-Benz Diesel can cut their fuel costs in half."

—Heinz C. Hoppe, Chief Executive Officer, Mercedes-Benz of North America, Inc.

Mr. Heinz C. Hoppe and the impeccably engineered Mercedes-Benz 200D Diesel Sedan.

"The Mercedes-Benz 200D uses inexpensive diesel fuel. It has no sparkplugs to replace, no carburetors to adjust. With normal care, it will be going strong after most cars go to the scrap heap. It's well worth its $4,280 price—as you'll see when you read the full story below."

The Mercedes-Benz 200D isn't so unconventional it will startle your neighbors. But it is a maverick of sorts—as you'll find the moment you lift the hood.

Tucked inside is a 4-cylinder Diesel engine. Here's how a Diesel differs from gasoline engines. Diesel fuel is fed by injection nozzles, not carburetors, into the engine's combustion chambers. Instead of a spark, compression ignites the fuel—with twice the combustion power of a 150-mph Ferrari gasoline engine.

Speaking frankly

The unique combustion in Diesel engines produces a unique noise, most audible at idling speeds. Mercedes-Benz engineers have reduced this drastically in recent years to a faint echo of what once was called "Diesel knock."

> Car Life magazine comments, "Once underway, things quiet down and many unsuspecting passengers are surprised to learn that they've been riding in a Diesel."

Gauge watchers: You won't find diesel fuel at every gas pump. You will find it wherever Diesel trucks refill. And a tankful takes you 550 miles—enough for a nonstop trip from New York to Montreal, with 150 miles of driving to spare.

How you save money

In many areas of the United States, diesel fuel costs much less than gasoline. And the super-efficient Diesel engine uses less of it (to a Diesel owner, 32 miles to the gallon is mere routine mileage on a long trip). You can cut your fuel costs in half.

You never have to adjust carburetors, repair condensers or distributors, or replace sparkplugs and points—there are none.

The Mercedes-Benz Diesel engine is machined to tolerances of 4/10,000ths of an inch. Mercedes-Benz designers specified heavy-duty bearings, crankshaft and engine block to suit the Diesel's high-compression running. Result: the Mercedes-Benz Diesel, with normal care, will be going strong while other cars lie on the junk heap.

Startling proof: Some Mercedes-Benz Diesels are still rolling after 600,000 miles—such as the 1957 model owned by Mr. John J. Gray of Albany, Oregon. "The cost per mile has been 4.6 cents," says Mr. Gray. "This figure includes repairs, tires, fuel, insurance and depreciation."

Background note: Mercedes-Benz sold the world's first Diesel passenger car 29 years ago. A German engineer, Rudolf Diesel, invented the engine in 1897. Diesels may still be a novelty to Americans, but they're a household word elsewhere. Last April, the 500,000th Diesel car left the Mercedes-Benz factory in Germany.

The best—not the best seller

Mercedes-Benz engineers have never felt that a car should pay for its economy by cutting corners somewhere else.

For example, you ride in a body made of heavy-gauge sheet steel, welded at 10,000 points. This taut "unit" structure can't loosen up to rattle, squeak or groan. Nor will it rust in two or three years: 26 pounds of anti-corrosion undercoating are sprayed on at the factory. And the whole car—doors, hood and trunk lid attached—is sunk in a primer bath before painting—then given 6 more coats of paint.

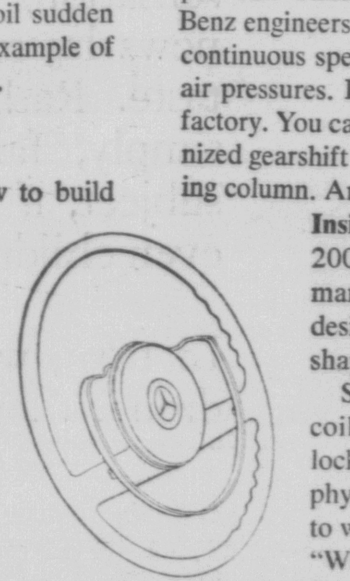
Showroom browsers: Note the rich, silvery sheen of that famous Mercedes-Benz radiator. It's made of steel, then copper-coated and polished by hand, dipped in chrome, baked and buffed by hand again.

The Mercedes-Benz three-pointed star radiator ornament is spring-mounted to foil sudden blows. A minor point—but a telling example of the Mercedes-Benz passion for detail.

Bring on the potholes

"Mercedes-Benz engineers know how to build sports car handling qualities into a family sedan—there's no doubt about that in our minds," says Car Life in a recent report.

The secret: the Mercedes-Benz 200D uses a fully independent suspension similar to that you'll find on the $6,262 Mercedes-Benz 230SL sports car. The "seasick" feeling you get in many big cars that lean and wallow over curvy roads is utterly unknown in the Mercedes-Benz 200D. This car is not only agile. It smashes over potholes and ruts with unflappable calm. Each individually sprung wheel—not the entire body—soaks up bumps. Come hell or high water, you ride in civilized comfort.



Some think it's ugly!

You're in control

"You feel like you're actually steering a car—not changing direction by remote control," said one automotive authority about Mercedes-Benz steering precision.

There's no sponginess. The Mercedes-Benz 200D even has a shock absorber in the steering linkage. The wheel stays steady in your hands whatever the road surface.

Who needs options?

A refreshing point: the Mercedes-Benz 200D rolls off the assembly line as a completely equipped car. Tires are premium grade. Mercedes-Benz engineers tested their design and quality at continuous speeds of over 100 mph—at normal air pressures. Even the spare is balanced at the factory. You can have the 4-speed, fully synchronized gearshift mounted on the floor or the steering column. And you don't pay a cent extra.

Inside story: Sit in a Mercedes-Benz 200D—you'll find more room than in many large American cars. The car is designed around its occupants—not shaped to a stylist's whim.

Seats are hand built with fine wire coil springs, interwoven and interlocked to prevent sagging. Orthopedic physicians helped shape these seats to ward off fatigue. And they're firm: "When you sit down in a Mercedes-Benz, you don't sort of disappear into the cushion. You're cradled in something that was really engineered to keep a human being where he belongs."—David E. Davis Jr., Editor of Car & Driver magazine.

Note: The individual front seats are equipped with reclining backrests. Twist a knob and you can lean back in one of 4 positions. No extra charge, of course.

Mercedes-Benz motor cars: from $23,245 to $4,065

You may be able to afford a Mercedes-Benz without knowing it. Below are suggested retail prices* for 7 of the 15 Mercedes-Benz models.

600 Grand Mercedes	$23,245
300SE Coupe	11,737
230SL Roadster	6,262
230S Sedan	4,900
230 Sedan	4,250
200 Diesel Sedan	4,280
200 Sedan	4,065

Trustworthy brakes

The tough-minded Mercedes-Benz engineers think you should have more braking power than you need. The Mercedes-Benz 200D weighs 2,920 lbs.—one and a half tons. Its brakes could safely stop a car of twice the weight. With disc brakes in front (where most of the car's weight is thrown in stopping), you face downhill mountain curves or deep puddles in peace. No shuddering, no fade. And because front and rear brake systems are separately activated, you actually have two sets of brakes.

World's safest car

The body of the Mercedes-Benz 200D has been patented as a safety feature. In the event of a sudden heavy impact, front and rear sections of the car are designed to fold—absorbing shock before it reaches the passenger area.

Savage crash tests at the Mercedes-Benz proving grounds show that doors stay tightly shut under all conditions. The "safety cone" door lock used on the 200D is the same as that used on the $23,245 Grand Mercedes 600 limousine.

Safety padding covers the steering wheel hub, instrument panel edges, even the window cranks. (To those who claim the Mercedes-Benz steering wheel is "ugly," safety experts have a thought-provoking reply: "Yes—so ugly it could save your life!")

Altogether, 12 potential danger spots in the Mercedes-Benz 200D are padded. Control knobs are recessed or made of elasticized material. Authorities term Mercedes-Benz cars "the safest in the world."

See for yourself

As your Mercedes-Benz dealer, we'll be glad to arrange a thorough demonstration drive in a 200D or other Mercedes-Benz model. You'll find it a remarkable experience to drive a car built to be the best—not the best seller.

Benefield-Lamoure Ceremony In City

The choice of Notre Dames Des Victoires Church in San Francisco for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Judith Ann Lamoure and James R. Benefield continues a family tradition of over a century.

The bride's great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jean Pierre Maneiet were wed in the same church in 1861, and her grandparents — Mr. and Mrs. Jean Baptiste Lamoure were married there in 1904.

James, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glidden Benefield of Tiburon claimed his bride at a three o'clock double ring ceremony.

The bridal gown worn by Judith Ann was white peau de soie in the empire style. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline and decorated with pearl and crystal appliques. The long straight skirt ended in a chapel length train. Her Camelot headdress secured a bouffant veil of white silk illusion.

Two of the bride's sisters, Mrs. David K. Ulrickson of San Jose and Mrs. Kenneth G. Fuller of Greenbrae, and a friend, Carol Kimball, of Palo Alto, were her attendants. Mrs. Ulrickson was matron of honor. All were gowned alike in floor-length empire-style dresses of brown chiffon. The bride's nephew, Mark Fuller of Greenbrae was ringbearer.

Best man was Robert Gemignani of San Francisco, while Richard Nystrom of Lafayette and James Goulding of San Mateo were ushers.

After a honeymoon trip to Mexico, the couple will live in San Franicsco.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Lamoure of Los Altos. Her grandparents are the late Judge and Mrs. Lewis Howell Smith and the late Jean Baptiste Lamoure and Mrs. Gabrielle Lamoure of Fresno.

James is the grandson of James E. Moore of Red Bluff and the late Mrs. Moore, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Chelius Clifton Benefield of Chico. His sister is Mrs. Orison Swett Marden III of Scarsdale, N.Y.

Judith is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy in Alabama, and attended Foothill College in Los Altos Hills.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and the University of California, where he was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity. He is in the advertising business.

Anderson-Rounds Rite

A 5 o'clock ceremony attended by family members only united in marriage Mrs. Virginia P. Rounds of Kentfield and William Scott Anderson Jr. of San Rafael on Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo. The Rev. Henry Kuizenga officiated.

Here from her home in Fort Morgan, Colo. to attend the wedding were the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. McClary.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edward W. Pfeffer of San Francisco and the late Mr. Pfeffer of Lebanon, Ill. She has four children by a previous marriage, Sally Cooper, Dwight Clinton, Mary Case and Edward Madison Rounds.

Mr. Anderson is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William S. Anderson of Minneapolis, Minn. His three children are William Scott III, Leonard Welles and Gerealdine Bell Anderson, of Kentfield.

The newly-wedded couple will live in Kentfield.

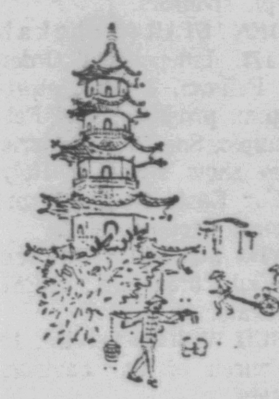
TASTEFULLY

Combining East And West

By PATRICIA ZINN



A newcomer to Marin who tastefully combines the culinary arts of the East and the West and has cooked soup "in a pumpkin" is Mrs. Ann Lett of Greenbrae.

The newcomer, born in Czechoslovakia, was schooled at the Academy of Cooking in Vienna and the Cordon Bleu in Paris and the Cordon Bleu in London.

FOR THE past 12 years she has lived in Hong Kong, where she spent one year studying Chinese cuisine at the famous Maxim's, and giving television and radio cookery demonstrations.

Mrs. Lett is the wife of a doctor and the mother of a daughter, Angela Mary, who is a junior at Redwood High School.

Although she is an expert in universal cookery and speaks six languages, the attractive brunette says that steaks served with salad, and a glass of wine and fresh fruit is her favorite menu.

Also among her preferences are:

AT LEAST four colors in a salad.

HAWAIIAN style chicken served on a palm leaf (which she polishes with oil first) and a wooden platter.

COLLECTING pretty aprons wherever she goes.

Following are recipes from Ann Lett's collection of recipes:

SWEET AND SOUR PORK

Serves 4

INGREDIENTS:

1 lb. loin pork, cut into 1" cubes
1 tablespoon dry sherry
2 tablespoons soy sauce
2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon cornstarch
oil for deep frying
2 green peppers — seeded and cut into ½" pieces
4 ozs. bamboo shoots — cut into small wedges
1 small tin pineapple, cut into small wedges
juice of pineapple
4 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 clove garlic — crushed
4 tablespoons tomato ketchup
2 teaspoons oil
1 dessert spoon cornstarch mixed with ½ cup water

METHOD:

First prepare pork this way:

1. Mix flour and cornstarch together and coat meat well.

2. Heat oil — and fry pork till golden brown — put aside — but keep hot.

3. Heat remaining 2 teaspoons oil.

4. Add sugar — stirring all the time.

5. Add vinegar, soy sauce and tomato catsup.

6. Then add cornstarch mixed with water — lower flame.

7. Now is the time to add crushed clove of garlic, green peppers, bamboo shoots, pineapple chunks, sherry and pineapple juice.

8. Allow the sauce to simmer for 5 minutes, stirring constantly.

9. Lastly add pork to sauce and allow to cook for 5 minutes.

10. Serve very hot.

CHRISTMAS BUFFET

Lotte en Mayonnaise
Swedish Roll-mop Salad
Prawns in Aspic
Stuffed Roast Turkey
Chestnut & Celery Salad
Pineapple & Orange Salad
Meringues Chinoises
Gateau Au Chocolat Et Marrons

LOTTE EN MAYONNAISE

Choose any thick fleshed white fish, such as rock salmon, cod or turbot.

Two pounds white fish; 3 thick slices of white bread; good olive oil; lemon juice; garlic, chopped or crushed with salt; ¾ pint or more of mayonnaise; capers and sliced gherkins to garnish.

Cook the fish with plenty of vegetables and herbs to flavor, leave to cool in the liquor, then drain, bone and skin. Soak the bread in a little water and oil and then squeeze as dry as possible. Crush and work the fish well with the bread, then add by degrees ¾ tablespoons oil, garlic, lemon juice and seasoning to taste. Finish with ⅔ tablespoons of mayonnaise. When a creamy but firm consistency, mound in a serving dish, and coat with the remaining mayonnaise. Decorate with the capers and gherins.

SWEDISH ROLL-MOP SALAD

Six roll-mop herrings, 2 pickled cucumbers,. 3 small potatoes, French dressing.

Scrub and cook the potatoes in their skins until tender, drain, dry and peel: cut into neat slices and moisten with French dressing while still hot. Allow to cool.

Slice the cucumbers and the herrings and mix with the prepared potatoes. Moisten with a little extra dressing, pile in the serving dish and dust with chopped parsley.

PRAWNS IN ASPIC

Four to six ounces frozen or shelled prawns, rounds of canned pimento or ripe tomatoes for decoration.

ASPIC JELLY:

Put the fish stock and gelatin into a scalded pan and dissolve over gentle heat. Whip the egg whites to a froth and add to the pan with wine and lemon juice. Whisk over steady heat until boiling point is reached and then allow to boil to the top of the saucepan undisturbed, draw aside and leave to settle. Boil up twice more in the same way, stand 5 minutes and then pour through a scalded cloth or jelly bag.

Line small dariole moulds with cool aspic, arrange the decoration at the bottom and set in aspic. Fill the mould with the prawns, fill up with aspic and leave to set.

Dip the moulds into hot water to turn out and garnish the dish with small cress or curled celery.

ROAST STUFFED TURKEY

8 lbs. turkey, butter, a little stock and sherry for roasting.

HAM MOUSSE: 2-lbs. ham; ½ lb. pate de foie, ½ lb. butter, ½ pint Bechamel sauce made with 1½ ozs. butter and 1½ ozs. flour, ¼ pint cream.

GARNISH: Aspic jelly and truffle.

Roast the turkey with the butter, stock and sherry for about 2 hours and allow to cool.

Prepare the aspic jelly and ham mousse.

HAM MOUSSE:

Mince the ham twice and then pound in a mortar with the pate de foie, creamed butter and cold sauce. Season well and fold in the half-whipped cream. Carefully remove the Supremes and then cut away into breast bone. Fill the "body" with the mousse. Cut the supreme into slices and place on the mousse leaving an open space down the center.

Arrange the sliced truffle along the breast and baste the bird with the cold aspic jelly and leave to set.

Serve on a large flat dish garnished with chopped aspic and hand a chestnut and celery salad and an orange and pineapple salad separately.

MERINGUES CHINOISES

Three whites egg, 6 ozs. castor sugar, a few drops vanilla essence. Creme Chantilly, Cape Gooseberries or Kumquats.

Whip the whites to a firm snow. Whisk in 1 teaspoonful of the weighed sugar for each egg white. Add the vanilla and fold in the rest of the sugar. Pipe out into small merinques, dust with sugar and leave for 10 minutes before drying in a cool oven or oiled and floured trays. Lift off and cool.

Fill the meringues and insert a cape gooseberry or kumquat between them.

GATEAU AU CHOCOLAT ET MARRONS

One-half lb. chestnuts weighed after cooking and sieving, 4

Evelyn Bossange Plans Spring Rite

EVELYN BOSSANGE

Mr. and Mrs. Edouard R. Bossange of Dallas, Tex. announced the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Thacher Bossange, to Mohammed Selah Younes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Saleh Younes of Cairo, Egypt.

The future bride attended Katharine Branson School in Ross and schools in Switzerland, Paris and London. She made her debut at a reception given by her great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Kent Jr. in 1960 and at the San Francisco Cotillion. She is the granddaughter of the late Congressman William Kent of Kentfield.

The future bridegroom was graduated from Cairo University, attended Edinburgh University and was graduated from Harvard Business School in 1963. He is a member of the University Club of New York.

The couple plans a late spring wedding in Kentfield.

SEEING THE SOVIET

State Marriage—USSR Style

One of a series of articles on a just-completed trip through Russia and India.

By BARBARA HOSMER

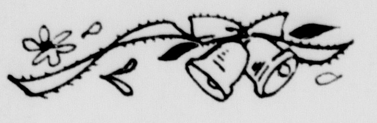
Stately canned music begins on the loudspeaker and two deputies — women dressed in black mannishly cut suits and wearing no makeup—rise behind a large official-looking desk. There is no other furniture.

The young couple advances to half the length of the standard Soviet red and green striped runner on the hardwood floor of what was once a Russian nobleman's ballroom. They stand stiffly, she in an unadorned short white dress and plain white veil falling from a circlet and he wearing his best suit and a new haircut. On each side stand a friend or two. The girls wear plain wool dresses. No one else is in the room, except a photographer who pops a quick flash and departs.

The head official begins speaking for the state outlining some of the responsibilities the couple will have and urges patience and understanding in their life together. Each replies in a few syllables. Rings are exchanged. Then the chief deputy advances from behind the desk, an official but motherly looking woman, and smiles at the pair as she offers each an abrupt handshake.

The witnesses step up to bashfully kiss and congratulate the pair, and all retreat to the strains of the canned music. There went the bride . . .

In the adjacent room the young couple stands quietly before a floral arrangement and poses with champagne toasting glasses from the white clothed table before them. Their friends join in the toast and the photographer makes a few quick recordings of the scene to be framed for placement on a table at home and hurries out. In the large room the canned music is starting again and a young couple is advancing on the red and green striped runner.



Another of the 60 weddings per day held every 10 minutes at the Palace of Weddings in Moscow is beginning in the room with unornamented cream-colored walls, hardwood floor and small alcove along one side—where one imagines an orchestra played in the days of the empire. Far back in the alcove is a marble bust of Vladimir Ilyich Lenin, placed so unobtrusively that one must squint into the shadows to identify it.

Outside in the halls and other rooms crowds of people push their way from room to room in processes of Soviet style marriage. Out on the sidewalk bride after bride, all in the plain white gowns, are waiting with their bridegrooms and friends for taxis to go home, where their parents are waiting to welcome them, as is the traditional Russian custom. It is explained to visitors that couples may have a religious ceremony in a church if they wish. Most don't.

Inside the spacious, though hardly palatial, building which was once the Polish embassy, young people crowd the entry rooms. Some have come to wait their turn to make application to be married. Then they will learn when it will be possible to schedule their wedding, probably on a week day. When that day arrives, they come to the Palace of Weddings, where "everything they will need can be bought." A counter in the lobby has rings, and there they can buy the bride's dress and veil, and some white flowers which remain cellophane wrapped in Russian style through the brief ceremony. They also can purchase the champagne for the toasts if they wish that part of the "reception" afterward.

In one room the bridegrooms wait nervously with their friends, and across the hall a room is filled with girls in the white dresses and their female friends who help fix their hair and adjust the veils. Though the legal marriage age is 18 in most of the Soviet Union, the brides look very young and unsophisticated compared to their American counterparts. Mostly they are devoid of makeup and jewelry, and wear plain white shoes and no gloves.

Most of the young people prefer to be married at the Wedding Palaces, of which there are two in Moscow and at least one in most of the large Soviet cities, we were told. But some have a religious ceremony at one of the few functioning Russian Orthodox churches. Older people and those having second marriages are married at another office in Moscow without the music and the "ceremony"—stiff and cold as it seemed to foreigners allowed to witness it.

It was explained that formerly couples merely signed a register and were married, but the people wanted to have a small ceremony and hence the music, flowers and white gown of today.

And the state has made another concession to just-married young people—a special store in Moscow only for newlyweds where they may obtain all the goods and furniture necessary to set them up in housekeeping, all at a reduced price. Thus the state smiles on the institution of marriage in the USSR as does the rest of the world.

Benefield-Lamoure Ceremony In City

The choice of Notre Dames Des Victoires Church in San Francisco for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Judith Ann Lamoure and James R. Benefield continues a family tradition of over a century.

The bride's great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jean Pierre Maneiet were wed in the same church in 1861, and her grandparents — Mr. and Mrs. Jean Baptiste Lamoure were married there in 1904.

James, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glidden Benefield of Tiburon claimed his bride at a three o'clock double ring ceremony.

The bridal gown worn by Judith Ann was white peau de soie in the empire style. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline and decorated with pearl and crystal appliques. The long straight skirt ended in a chapel length train. Her Camelot headdress secured a bouffant veil of white silk illusion.

Two of the bride's sisters, Mrs. David K. Ulrickson of San Jose and Mrs. Kenneth G. Fuller of Greenbrae, and a friend, Carol Kimball, of Palo Alto, were her attendants. Mrs. Ulrickson was matron of honor. All were gowned alike in floor-length empire-style dresses of brown chiffon. The bride's nephew, Mark Fuller of Greenbrae was ringbearer.

Best man was Robert Gemignani of San Francisco, while Richard Nystrom of Lafayette and James Goulding of San Mateo were ushers.

After a honeymoon trip to Mexico, the couple will live in San Franicsco.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Lamoure of Los Altos. Her grandparents are the late Judge and Mrs. Lewis Howell Smith and the late Jean Baptiste Lamoure and Mrs. Gabrielle Lamoure of Fresno.

James is the grandson of James E. Moore of Red Bluff and the late Mrs. Moore, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Chelius Clifton Benefield of Chico. His sister is Mrs. Orison Swett Marden III of Scarsdale, N.Y.

Judith is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy in Alabama, and attended Foothill College in Los Altos Hills.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and the University of California, where he was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity. He is in the advertising business.

Anderson-Rounds Rite

A 5 o'clock ceremony attended by family members only united in marriage Mrs. Virginia P. Rounds of Kentfield and William Scott Anderson Jr. of San Rafael on Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo. The Rev. Henry Kuizenga officiated.

Here from her home in Fort Morgan, Colo. to attend the wedding were the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. McClary.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edward W. Pfeffer of San Francisco and the late Mr. Pfeffer of Lebanon, Ill. She has four children by a previous marriage, Sally Cooper, Dwight Clinton, Mary Case and Edward Madison Rounds.

Mr. Anderson is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William S. Anderson of Minneapolis, Minn. His three children are William Scott III, Leonard Welles and Gerealdine Bell Anderson, of Kentfield.

The newly-wedded couple will live in Kentfield.

Negro Strike Attempt Fails In Rhodesia

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (UPI) —Another underground attempt to set in motion a general strike by African workers failed today.

Authorities said absenteeism was at the normal rate despite a broadcast from neighboring Zambia which urged Africans to stay home today in protest against the white-ruled secessionist government of Premier Ian Smith.

(In London, informed sources said British Prime Minister Harold Wilson has decided to send Royal Air Force units to Zambia to patrol the frontier with Rhodesia. The action was taken at the request of Zambian President Kenneth Kaunda who asked for help in guarding the key Kariba hydroelectric dam which is situated on the border between the two countries.)

Police riot squads guarded most African districts of Salisbury and other officers rode buses and stationed themselves at bus stops in anticipation of a strike. Workers streamed to their jobs and no incidents were reported.

Ten Africans were being held by police in connection with two factory fires Sunday night touched off by Molotov cocktail explosions. Extensive damage was reported at a flooring company hit by terrorists. The other plant, a paper company, was slightly damaged.

The Roman Catholic Church in Rhodesia Sunday condemned the Smith government in its first official statement since the premier broke with Britain Nov. 11.

The statement was in a pastoral letter signed by the five Rhodesian bishops, including the Most Rev. Francis W. Markall, archbishop of Salisbury.

Congo Says Kasavubu Put In Camp

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Former President Joseph Kasavubu was taken to an army camp after the bloodless coup which ousted him last Thursday, a Leopoldville newspaper said today.

The newspaper said its reporter asked Lt. Gen. Joseph Mobutu, the new president, about Kasavubu's whereabouts. Mobutu had another official take the reporter to the heavily guarded camp, where he saw Kasavubu and his family strolling comfortably around a large house.

Kasavubu reportedly said there was no need to worry about him.

"I will make statements when I am free," he said. "But I must affirm that my major worry is for national reconstruction and I appeal to everybody to use nonviolence in this aim."

The Congolese Parliament voted unanimous approval yesterday of the cabinet of Mobutu's premier, Col. Leonard Mulamba. Mobutu has named himself president for five years.

Troupe, Singers To Do Wilder

The College of Marin Opera Workshop and San Anselmo's Festival Theater have joined forces to present Thornton Wilder's play, "The Long Christmas Dinner," coupled with its operatic adaptation by Paul Hindemith.

The play and opera will be performed on Dec. 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 10, and Jan. 1 and 2. Friday and Saturday performances will begin at 8:30 p.m., Sunday performances will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The program will be the first presentation of the two works in one performance in the United States. It also will be the West Coast premiere of Hindemith's opera.

Flood Control Work Is Repaid

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Department of Water Resources has announced payment of $1,625,655 to the Los Angeles county flood control district as reimbursement for expenditures on flood control works.

The payment is one of a continuing series that reached $60-million for various local agencies since the program started 20 years ago. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, in its flood control projects, requires that local agencies acquire lands, easements and rights of way needed for the project and that they pay for relocation or replacement of utility lines required to be moved.

The local agencies are reimbursed for their expenses by the department of water resources.

Suspect Shot By Detectives

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Los Angeles police officer shot a suspect in the cheek today to save another policeman from injury, police said.

Vice detective Gary Figelski, 23, shot Robert Wright, 39, as he attempted to drive away from an arrest, officers said. They said detective S. P. Eisenhower, 24, was partially in Wright's car when the suspect started to drive away.

Figelski opened fire, police said, and wounded Wright in the left cheek. He was treated at Central Receiving Hospital and then booked for assault on a police officer with a deadly weapon, officers said.

THE BLUES TAKE A BREAK

Felix McGill of Mill Valley and Phyllis Johnson of Oakland find romance for a moment in James Baldwin's play, "Blues for Mr. Charlie" which opens Friday at 8:30 p.m. in Brown's Hall, Mill Valley. Opening night is a benefit for Marin Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. Other performances will be given next Saturday and Sunday and again on Dec. 10, 11 and 12. The story is a protest against the violence of white supremacists.

Casady Says Very Few CDC Aides Will Resign

GROSSMONT (UPI) —Simon Casady, president of the California Democratic Council CDC, predicted last night that very few CDC clubs will defect and very few CDC officers will resign as a result of recent unsuccessful impeachment proceedings against him.

"The CDC is not in any danger of disintegrating because of its domestic crisis," Casady told a meeting of the Heartland Democratic Club.

"Up and down the state I find that nobody expects the CDC to wither and die," he added.

Casady also said Gov. Brown wants CDC support in the 1966 elections. He said he learned this from remarks made by Brown during an hour-long conference Friday in Los Angeles.

"The governor is not mad at the CDC," Casady said.

State Gets Park Land For Less Than Appraisal

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state has been successful in purchasing 1,975 acres of prime land on the west shore of Lake Tahoe for a new state park for less money than the appraisal for the property.

The agreement was announced Friday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown at a special meeting of the state Public Works Board, which handles property acquisition.

The special session of the 1965 legislature approved a bill providing $8.3 million for purchase of the property. Because it was generally known that the property was worth more than that figure, the legislature also provided that, if the state could buy the entire property for $8.3 million, a total of $7.4 million would be available to acquire as much of the property as possible through condemnation proceedings.

But Brown announced that Mrs. Esther Ehrman Lazard, San Francisco, had agreed to sell the property for $8.3 million. The Public Works Board approved the purchase agreement.

"The purchase price is less than the appraised value of the property," Brown said, "and I want to thank Mrs. Lazard for making it possible for us to acquire the land."

The property has a 1-5-mile beach front and extends west about three miles along General Creek. It is located north of D. L. Bliss state park and south of Tahoe City. The property, which will be known as the Sugar Pine Point state park, has a large, three-story turreted mansion, recreational facilities and an excellent beach.

B-B Breaks Window

Corte Madera police reprimanded three Corte Madera boys, two aged 13 and one aged 12, and confiscated their B-B gun yesterday after they admitted firing at and breaking a kitchen window at the Melvin O. Brockhoff home at 209 Oakdale Avenue. Parents of the boys promised to repair the window.

Woman Suffers Cut In Car Collision

Ruth L. Donnellon, 40, of 23 Sutter Street, Tiburon, suffered a cut upper lip at 1:25 a.m. yesterday when her station wagon crashed into a parked car on Beach Road just north of Main Street, the Tiburon sheriff's substation reported.

Deputies said Mrs. Donnellon was northbound when she struck a blue 1964 Cadillac sedan. She was to see her own doctor.

Evelyn Bossange Plans Spring Rite

EVELYN BOSSANGE

Mr. and Mrs. Edouard R. Bossange of Dallas, Tex. announced the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Thacher Bossange, to Mohammed Selah Younes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Saleh Younes of Cairo, Egypt.

The future bride attended Katharine Branson School in Ross and schools in Switzerland, Paris and London. She made her debut at a reception given by her great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Kent Jr. in 1960 and at the San Francisco Cotillion. She is the granddaughter of the late Congressman William Kent of Kentfield.

The future bridegroom was graduated from Cairo University, attended Edinburgh University and was graduated from Harvard Business School in 1963. He is a member of the University Club of New York.

The couple plans a late spring wedding in Kentfield.

SEEING THE SOVIET

State Marriage—USSR Style

One of a series of articles on a just-completed trip through Russia and India.

By BARBARA HOSMER

Stately canned music begins on the loudspeaker and two deputies — women dressed in black mannishly cut suits and wearing no makeup—rise behind a large official-looking desk. There is no other furniture.

The young couple advances to half the length of the standard Soviet red and green striped runner on the hardwood floor of what was once a Russian nobleman's ballroom. They stand stiffly, she in an unadorned short white dress and plain white veil falling from a circlet and he wearing his best suit and a new haircut. On each side stand a friend or two. The girls wear plain wool dresses. No one else is in the room, except a photographer who pops a quick flash and departs.

The head official begins speaking for the state outlining some of the responsibilities the couple will have and urges patience and understanding in their life together. Each replies in a few syllables. Rings are exchanged. Then the chief deputy advances from behind the desk, an official but motherly looking woman, and smiles at the pair as she offers each an abrupt handshake.

The witnesses step up to bashfully kiss and congratulate the pair, and all retreat to the strains of the canned music. There went the bride . . .

Another of the 60 weddings per day held every 10 minutes at the Palace of Weddings in Moscow is beginning in the room with unornamented cream-colored walls, hardwood floor and small alcove along one side—where one imagines an orchestra played in the days of the empire. Far back in the alcove is a marble bust of Vladimir Ilyich Lenin, placed so unobtrusively that one must squint into the shadows to identify it.

Outside in the halls and other rooms crowds of people push their way from room to room in processes of Soviet style marriage. Out on the sidewalk bride after bride, all in the plain white gowns, are waiting with their bridegrooms and friends for taxis to go home, where their parents are waiting to welcome them, as is the traditional Russian custom. It is explained to visitors that couples may have a religious ceremony in a church if they wish. Most don't.

Inside the spacious, though hardly palatial, building which was once the Polish embassy, young people crowd the entry rooms. Some have come to wait their turn to make application to be married. Then they will learn when it will be possible to schedule their wedding, probably on a week day. When that day arrives, they come to the Palace of Weddings, where "everything they will need can be bought." A counter in the lobby has rings, and there they can buy the bride's dress and veil, and some white flowers which remain cellophane wrapped in Russian style through the brief ceremony. They also can purchase the champagne for the toasts if they wish that part of the "reception" afterward.

In one room the bridegrooms wait nervously with their friends, and across the hall a room is filled with girls in the white dresses and their female friends who help fix their hair and adjust the veils. Though the legal marriage age is 18 in most of the Soviet Union, the brides look very young and unsophisticated compared to their American counterparts. Mostly they are devoid of makeup and jewelry, and wear plain white shoes and no gloves.

Most of the young people prefer to be married at the Wedding Palaces, of which there are two in Moscow and at least one in most of the large Soviet cities, we were told. But some have a religious ceremony at one of the few functioning Russian Orthodox churches. Older people and those having second marriages are married at another office in Moscow without the music and the "ceremony"—stiff and cold as it seemed to foreigners allowed to witness it.

It was explained that formerly couples merely signed a register and were married, but the people wanted to have a small ceremony and hence the music, flowers and white gown of today.

And the state has made another concession to just-married young people—a special store in Moscow only for newlyweds where they may obtain all the goods and furniture necessary to set them up in housekeeping, all at a reduced price. Thus the state smiles on the institution of marriage in the USSR as does the rest of the world.

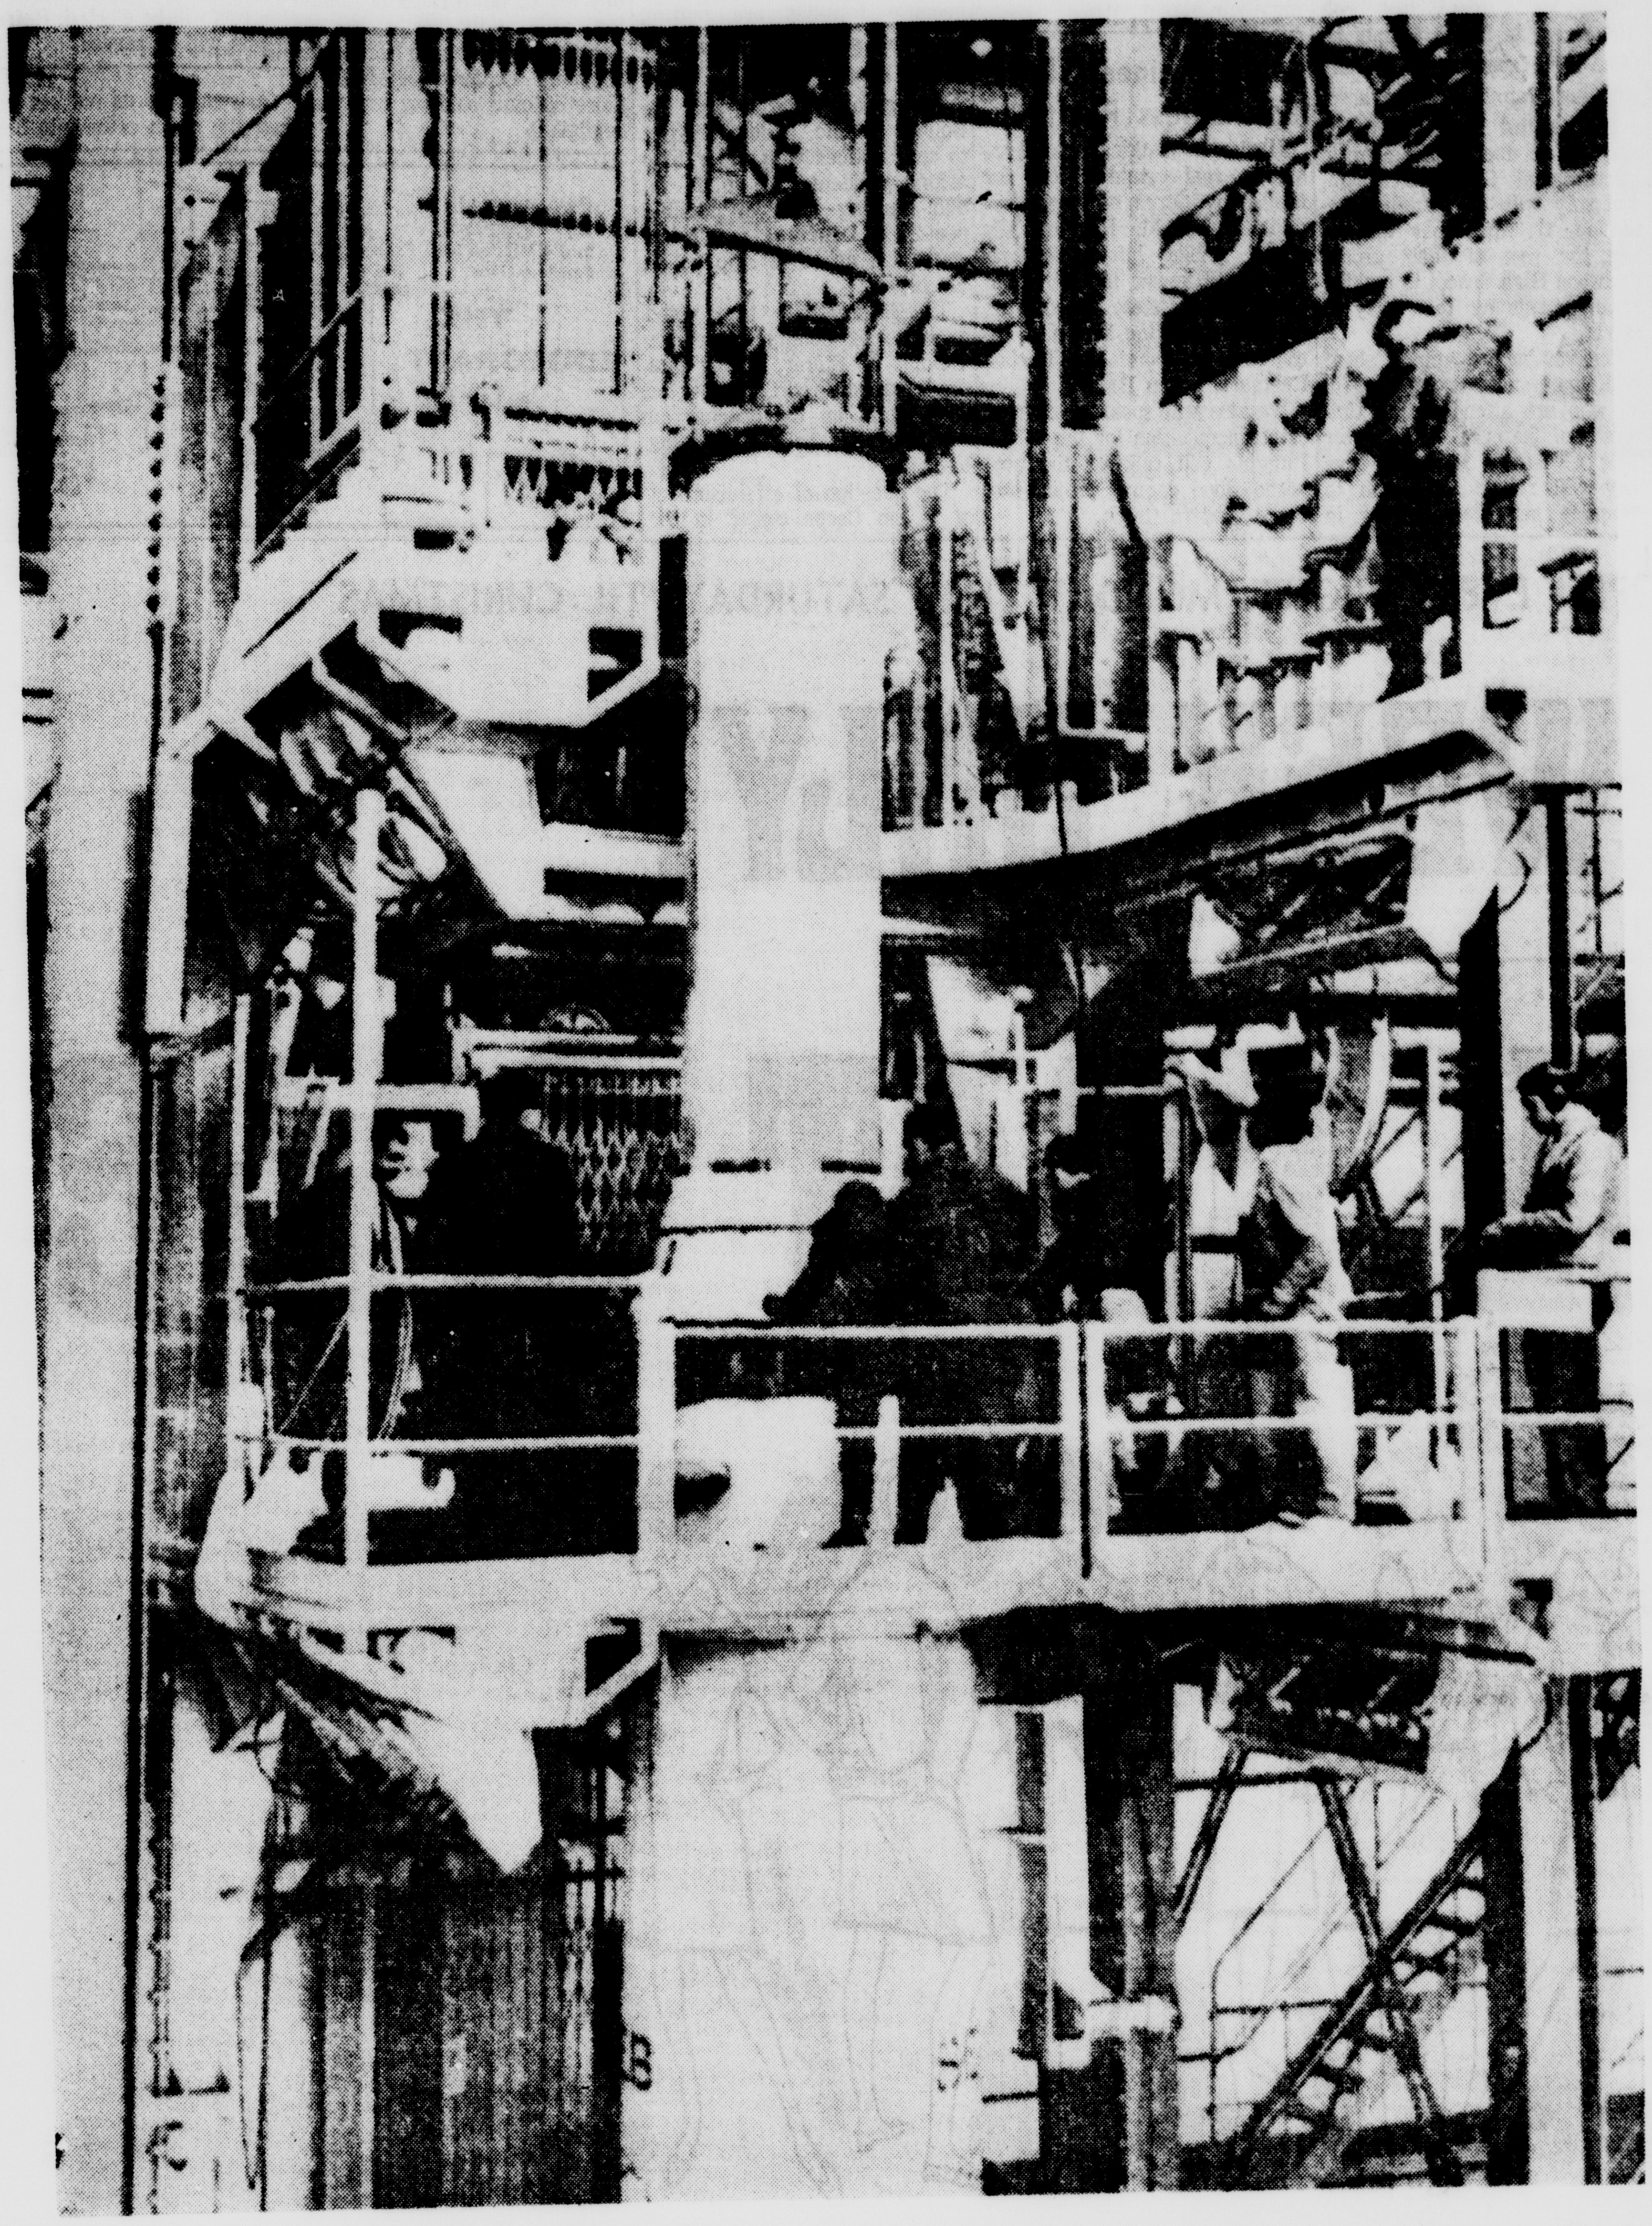
France's Formal Inauguration Into Space Race



FRENCH PREPARE FOR LAUNCH—Specialists at the launching base at Hammaguir in the Algerian Sahara work on the second stage of the three-stage Diamond rocket used to put the French satellite A1 into orbit. This picture and others on this page were made available by the French Army in Paris after the Defense Ministry announced Friday the 92.5-pound satellite was in orbit.

Signal From A1 Falters

PARIS (AP) — France's first space satellite continued orbiting, but its radio signals had all but died away by Saturday.

Technicians said that the "beep-beep" signal from the A1 satellite could be heard from time to time, but that it was very feeble. Radio transmissions to indicate details on the orbiting also encountered trouble, they said.

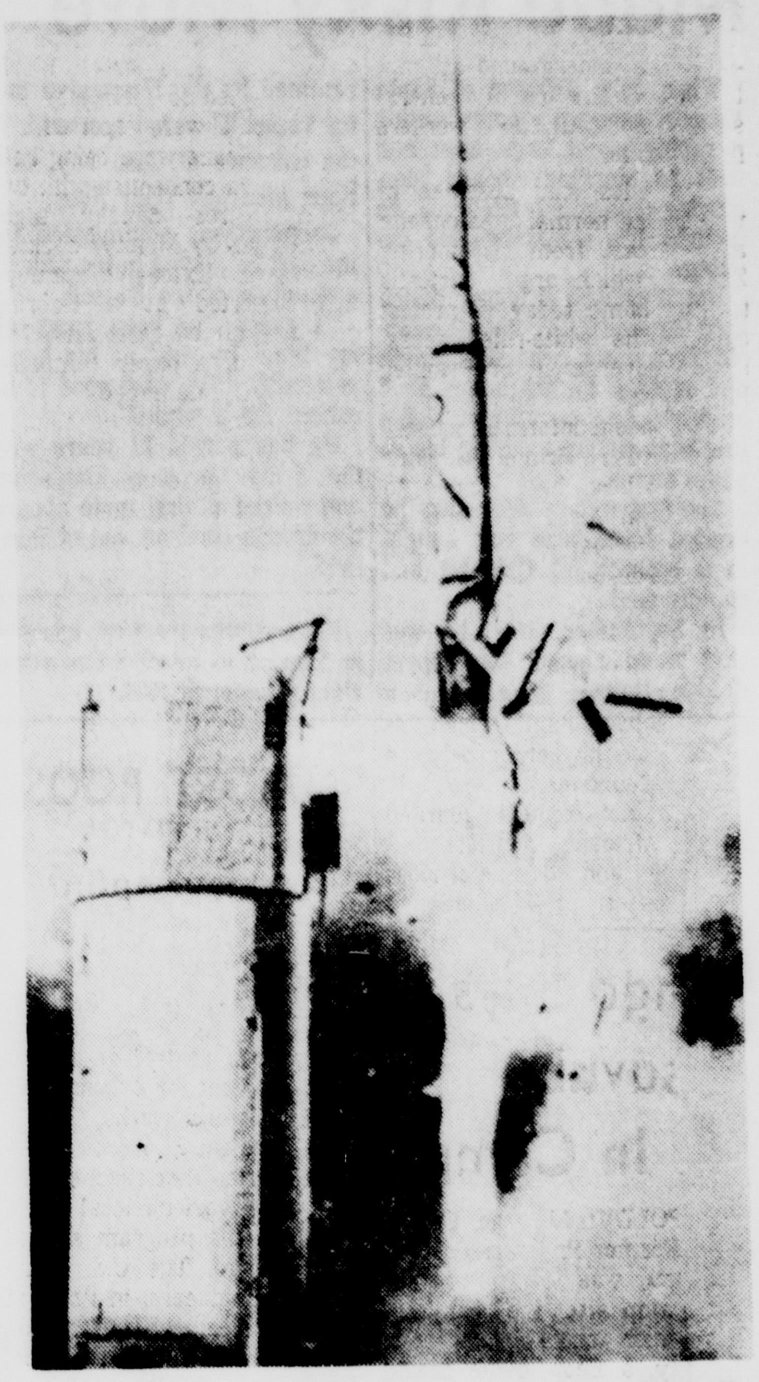
Long-distance radar confirmed that the A1 had gone into orbit.

The Defense Ministry said the principal purpose of the shot was to test the launching rocket, called the Diamond.

President Charles de Gaulle said the successful launching "attests to the high value of French science and technique" and is "an important accomplishment of which the entire nation should be happy and proud."

The launching was the most dramatic demonstration of French technological development since France exploded its first A-bomb in the Sahara Feb. 13, 1960.



SATELLITE ON ITS WAY—The Diamond rocket takes off from its Sahara site, to put France alongside the United States and Russia in the exclusive space club. The A-1 was designed to transmit radio signals for two weeks, but faded after a day. Its practical purpose was to test the Diamond rocket, not to gather scientific data.

Otepka Security Case Shakes State Department Hierarchy

By EWARD W. O'BRIEN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Every week or two, the Senate Internal Security subcommittee is releasing another volume of testimony in what it stiffly calls, "State Department Security — The Otepka Case."

Otto F. Otepka is the State Department personnel security officer who was ordered fired in 1963 on a variety of charges by the department. His offenses amount to an allegation that he was cooperating with the Senators in their investigation of State Department security practices.

Because Otepka is an unusually obdurate man, his case has taken on an importance extending far beyond his personal fate. Before he received his dismissal notice he was convinced of serious laxity in the State Department's security program, and he answered the Senators' questions about what was going on. Despite almost three years of harassment by his department superiors, those are still his convictions, and he still responds to the subcommittee.

A newly released volume of testimony demonstrates for the first time how this one rather lonely government employe has shaken the mighty hierarchy of the State Department. The testimony leaves no doubt that the issues raised by Otepka have rubbed some exceedingly sensitive nerves among the officials who make big decisions on relations with the communist world.

In the hearing, Abram Chayes, the department's former top legal official, was describing the handling of the effort to get rid of Otepka, and the role in that effort of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Undersecretary George Ball.

"Every major step in the case has been considered either by Mr. Rusk or Mr. Ball," the subcommittee was told by Chayes.

Chayes was the subordinate who recommended placing the dismissal charges against Otepka. He told the subcommittee that after Otepka's office trash was searched and evidence of correspondence between the subcommittee and Otepka was found, "Mr. Ball and the Secretary called me in and asked me to review the material and make recommendations to them" on whether federal law or government regulations had been violated.

The decision to bring the ouster action against Otepka was made by Ball, with the knowledge of Secretary Rusk, Chayes testified.

With all the other problems to be dealt with daily by Secretary Rusk and Undersecretary Ball, it is enlightening that the Otepka case could claim their time and attention. Even to a conference growing out of the tawdry episode of monitoring his waste basket, tapping his telephone, and drilling his office safe.

Why the determination at the top to rid the State Department of Otto Otepka? The answers are in the hearings, where everyone involved had his say. The Senators, Democrats and Republicans, have not yet given their formal answer in a committee report. But their persistence in delving into the case and publishing the evidence suggests their conclusion that Otepka was right in wanting to correct many things which he believed are desperately wrong in the department's security program.

'Space Park' Ground Broken

REDONDO BEACH (AP)—Gov. Brown today broke ground for a "space park complex" in Redondo Beach and said the facility will mean "several thousand new jobs by the end of 1966."

The space park is being built by TRW Space Technology Laboratories, which employes about 10,000 Californians.

Brown said the space park "truly symbolizes California's position as a leader in the space age."

TRW's most recent projects are the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's orbiting geophysical observatories and the Air Force's nuclear detection satellites.

Bonn Asks Decision Role In Use Of Nuclear Arms

BONN (UPI) —Government and opposition deputies joined hands today in a demand for a German role in NATO nuclear decision-making, including a veto over the use of American weapons located in West Germany.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's parliamentary supporters said an increased nuclear role was not a matter of prestige but of security. They called for participation in the making of decisions as well as in fixing the principles on which they are based.

Fritz Erler, leading for the opposition Social Democrats in the parliamentary debate on Erhard's government policy speech, said it was legitimate for the chancellor to seek "appropriate participation" in the nuclear area.

"That must include," Erler arned, "a German territory or against German territory—in this we must feel ourselves responsible for the fate of Germany beyond the demarcation line."

Erhard, informed sources report, intends to ask for such veto rights when he meets President Johnson Dec. 19-21. Germany is the only NATO member which does not enjoy the right of veto over American nuclear weapons stationed on its territory.

Rainer Barzel, chairman of Erhard's Christian Democratic parliamentary party, opened the discussion scheduled to continue until Wednesday night.

In his speech, Barzel echoed Erhard's own plea to the NATO powers to end nuclear discrimination against West Germany, which provides the largest conventional armed force in Europe.

"We are prepared to accept military division of labor within the alliance," Barzel said.

"We are not prepared to permit a division of the risk. The alliance is as effective as the mutual confidence and the non-discrimination of all partners, and as the common deterrent."

Owner Pays Fine To Keep Bar Open

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control announced it has accepted payment of $502 from Max Key, in lieu of a suspension of his on-sale general liquor license at the Rancho Rafael, 6045 Redwood Highway, Ignacio.

The licensee was charged on July 30 with sales of alcohol to minors and permitting minors to consume it.

Britisher To Russia For Viet Nam Talks

MOSCOW (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart arrived in Moscow today for talks with Soviet leaders on Viet Nam and on the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons.

Pravda said it hoped Stewart's four-day visit would contribute "to the normalization of the international situation." British sources here hold little hope of major results.

Negro Strike Attempt Fails In Rhodesia

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (UPI) —Another underground attempt to set in motion a general strike by African workers failed today.

Authorities said absenteeism was at the normal rate despite a broadcast from neighboring Zambia which urged Africans to stay home today in protest against the white-ruled secessionist government of Premier Ian Smith.

(In London, informed sources said British Prime Minister Harold Wilson has decided to send Royal Air Force units to Zambia to patrol the frontier with Rhodesia. The action was taken at the request of Zambian President Kenneth Kaunda who asked for help in guarding the key Kariba hydroelectric dam which is situated on the border between the two countries.)

Police riot squads guarded most African districts of Salisbury and other officers rode buses and stationed themselves at bus stops in anticipation of a strike. Workers streamed to their jobs and no incidents were reported.

Ten Africans were being held by police in connection with two factory fires Sunday night touched off by Molotov cocktail explosions. Extensive damage was reported at a flooring company hit by terrorists. The other plant, a paper company, was slightly damaged.

The Roman Catholic Church in Rhodesia Sunday condemned the Smith government in its first official statement since the premier broke with Britain Nov. 11.

The statement was in a pastoral letter signed by the five Rhodesian bishops, including the Most Rev. Francis W. Markall, archbishop of Salisbury.

Congo Says Kasavubu Put In Camp

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Former President Joseph Kasavubu was taken to an army camp after the bloodless coup which ousted him last Thursday, a Leopoldville newspaper said today.

The newspaper said its reporter asked Lt. Gen. Joseph Mobutu, the new president, about Kasavubu's whereabouts. Mobutu had another official take the reporter to the heavily guarded camp, where he saw Kasavubu and his family strolling comfortably around a large house.

Kasavubu reportedly said there was no need to worry about him.

"I will make statements when I am free," he said. "But I must affirm that my major worry is for national reconstruction and I appeal to everybody to use nonviolence in this aim."

The Congolese Parliament voted unanimous approval yesterday of the cabinet of Mobutu's premier, Col. Leonard Mulamba. Mobutu has named himself president for five years.

Troupe, Singers To Do Wilder

The College of Marin Opera Workshop and San Anselmo's Festival Theater have joined forces to present Thornton Wilder's play, "The Long Christmas Dinner," coupled with its operatic adaptation by Paul Hindemith.

The play and opera will be performed on Dec. 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 10, and Jan. 1 and 2. Friday and Saturday performances will begin at 8:30 p.m., Sunday performances will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The program will be the first presentation of the two works in one performance in the United States, It also will be the West Coast premiere of Hindemith's opera.

Flood Control Work Is Repaid

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Department of Water Resources has announced payment of $1,625,655 to the Los Angeles county flood control district as reimbursement for expenditures on flood control works.

The payment is one of a continuing series that reached $60-million for various local agencies since the program started 20 years ago. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, in its flood control projects, requires that local agencies acquire lands, easements and rights of way needed for the project and that they pay for relocation or replacement of utility lines required to be moved.

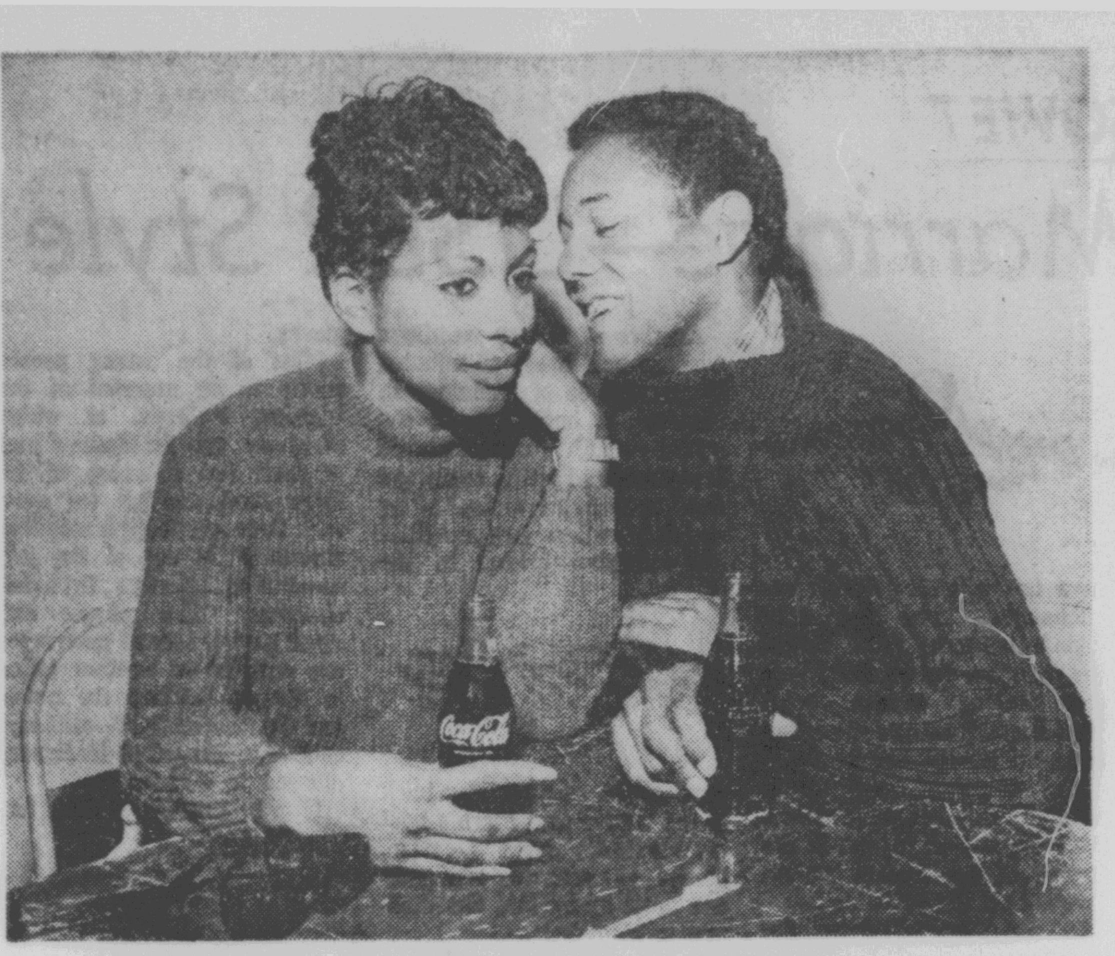
The local agencies are reimbursed for their expenses by the department of water resources.

Suspect Shot By Detectives

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Los Angeles police officer shot a suspect in the cheek today to save another policeman from injury, police said.

Vice detective Gary Figelski, 23, shot Robert Wright, 39, as he attempted to drive away from an arrest, officers said. They said detective S. P. Eisenhower, 24, was partially in Wright's car when the suspect started to drive away.

Figelski opened fire, police said, and wounded Wright in the left cheek. He was treated at Central Receiving Hospital and then booked for assault on a police officer with a deadly weapon, officers said.



THE BLUES TAKE A BREAK

Felix McGill of Mill Valley and Phyllis Johnson of Oakland find romance for a moment in James Baldwin's play, "Blues for Mr. Charlie" which opens Friday at 8:30 p.m. in Brown's Hall, Mill Valley. Opening night is a benefit for Marin Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. Other performances will be given next Saturday and Sunday and again on Dec. 10, 11 and 12. The story is a protest against the violence of white supremacists.

Casady Says Very Few CDC Aides Will Resign

GROSSMONT (UPI) —Simon Casady, president of the California Democratic Council CDC, predicted last night that very few CDC clubs will defect and very few CDC officers will resign as a result of recent unsuccessful impeachment proceedings against him.

"The CDC is not in any danger of disintegrating because of its domestic crisis," Casady told a meeting of the Heartland Democratic Club.

"Up and down the state I find that nobody expects the CDC to wither and die," he added.

Casady also said Gov. Brown wants CDC support in the 1966 elections. He said he learned this from remarks made by Brown during an hour-long conference Friday in Los Angeles.

"The governor is not mad at the CDC," Casady said.

Car Stolen

Mary E. Durkee of 1495 Casa Buena Drive, apt. 605, Corte Madera, told police that her 1959 Ford was stolen from the apartment parking lot sometime yesterday.

State Gets Park Land For Less Than Appraisal

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state has been successful in purchasing 1,975 acres of prime land on the west shore of Lake Tahoe for a new state park for less money than the appraisal for the property.

The agreement was announced Friday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown at a special meeting of the state Public Works Board, which handles property acquisition.

The special session of the 1965 legislature approved a bill providing $8.3 million for purchase of the property. Because it was generally known that the property was worth more than that figure, the legislature also provided that, if the state could buy the entire property for $8.3 million, a total of $7.4 million would be available to acquire as much of the property as possible through condemnation proceedings.

But Brown announced that Mrs. Esther Ehrman Lazard, San Francisco, had agreed to sell the property for $8.3 million. The Public Works Board approved the purchase agreement.

"The purchase price is less than the appraised value of the property," Brown said, "and I want to thank Mrs. Lazard for making it possible for us to acquire the land."

The property has a 1-5-mile beach front and extends west about three miles along General Creek. It is located north of D. L. Bliss state park and south of Tahoe City. The property, which will be known as the Sugar Pine Point state park, has a large, three-story turreted mansion, recreational facilities and an excellent beach.

B-B Breaks Window

Corte Madera police reprimanded three Corte Madera boys, two aged 13 and one aged 12, and confiscated their B-B gun yesterday after they admitted firing at and breaking a kitchen window at the Melvin O. Brockhoff home at 209 Oakdale Avenue. Parents of the boys promised to repair the window.

Woman Suffers Cut In Car Collision

Ruth L. Donnellon, 40, of 23 Sutter Street, Tiburon, suffered a cut upper lip at 1:25 a.m. yesterday when her station wagon crashed into a parked car on Beach Road just north of Main Street, the Tiburon sheriff's substation reported.

Deputies said Mrs. Donnellon was northbound when she struck a blue 1964 Cadillac sedan. She was to see her own doctor.

Ex-Racing Skipper Made Risky Move

When John Johnsen of Santa Venetia gave up a commanding a racing yacht back East and took to working aboard slow moving sea-going dredges, he thought life would be less exciting.

But it packed a bigger punch than expected for the 68-year-old first mate, who this month has retired to his home at 7 Jefferson Avenue after surviving two boat sinkings during his 55 years at sea.

The first was in 1945 when the dredge MacKenzie was caught in a typhoon off Okinawa and rapidly sank.

In September, 1957, he was first mate aboard the hopper dredge Rossell when it was rammed by the Norwegian motor vessel Thorshal and sank in the entrance of Coos Bay, Ore. Four men lost their lives.

Johnsen was commended for the part he played in the orderly evacuation of the Rossell.

"I guess I've been lucky all my life," he said at his home yesterday. "It's sure good to be ashore for a while."

He has served 24 years with the Army Corps of Engineers and retired as first mate aboard the dredge Davison, out of Portland.

Finland was the first country in Europe to grant women the right to vote, in 1906.

Nevada Court Denies Retrial To Marinites

A Corte Madera man and woman serving a prison sentence for manslaughter in Nevada lost an attempt Friday to have their case retried, this time for murder.

Dr. Sherman O. Wirt, 59, and Mrs. Helen C. Calani, 45, had pleaded guilty to voluntary manslaughter in the death of Virginia City contractor Richard Ghilotti in his restored Victorian home on May 23, 1964.

They later asked for a trial on the murder charge, in hopes of being freed. Yesterday the motion was denied by Judge Richard L. Waters Jr. of the First Judicial District Court in Nevada's Storey County.

Wirt is serving a term of five to 10 years. Mrs. Calani's sentence was one to 10 years.

Marin To Host Kuwait Youths Over Holidays

Eight young men from Kuwait will arrive in Marin County on Dec. 18 to spend their holiday with host families in the area.

The youths, who under the auspices of the Experiment in International Living Program, will stay with the families until Jan. 17, when they will rejoin the rest of their group. Redwood High School is making arrangements for their stay in Marin.

The youths are among about 40 Kuwait students, ages 18 to 22, who are attending the University of Texas at Austin. After their Christmas vacation here they will return to Austin to complete semester courses in English and studies about the United States. Then they will attend various trade schools to prepare themselves for jobs in their Persian Gulf country's wealthy petroleum industry.

Hhe Kuwait government is financing the youths' stay in this country. The students have their own cars and will be on a very independent basis during their Marin visit.

Army Engineers Due To Address Realtors

Harlan B. Watkins, special assistant real estate officer for the Army Corps of Engineers, and Eugene M. Huggins, the corps' public information officer, will speak to the Marin County Real Estate Board at its breakfast meeting at 8 a.m. tomorrow at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael.

Watkins will speak about real estate acquisition for the corps. Huggins will talk on the proposed flood control project for Corte Madera Creek.

Litter Problem Compounded By Home Garbage

Members of Bolinas Community, Inc. Friday learned that the litter problem on the beaches is being compounded because families are putting household garbage in litter cans placed by the county.

The group voted to ask the Bolinas Public Utility District to send notices with water bills asking residents not to do so, and warning them of possible penalties. District employees were also asked to help police the beach.

The organization also voted to write to County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, asking that the mounted sheriff's deputy be used again on the beaches on weekends and holidays starting Feb. 12.

The question of establishment of a Job Corps center in the Bolinas area was again discussed, with persons at the meeting overwhelmingly opposed to the idea unless police protection is increased.

Pipe Dampens Store

A ruptured water pipe in the fire sprinkler system of the Emporium at 9:35 p.m. Friday wetted down racks of greeting cards at the northeast corner of the store at the Northgate Shopping Center, San Rafael. Store officials said the loss was negligible.

Christmas Party Set For Retired Persons

A Christmas party with games, entertainment and carol singing will be held by the Marin Chapter, American Assn. of Retired Persons, at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church of San Rafael. Officers for 1966 will be elected. Refreshments will be served.

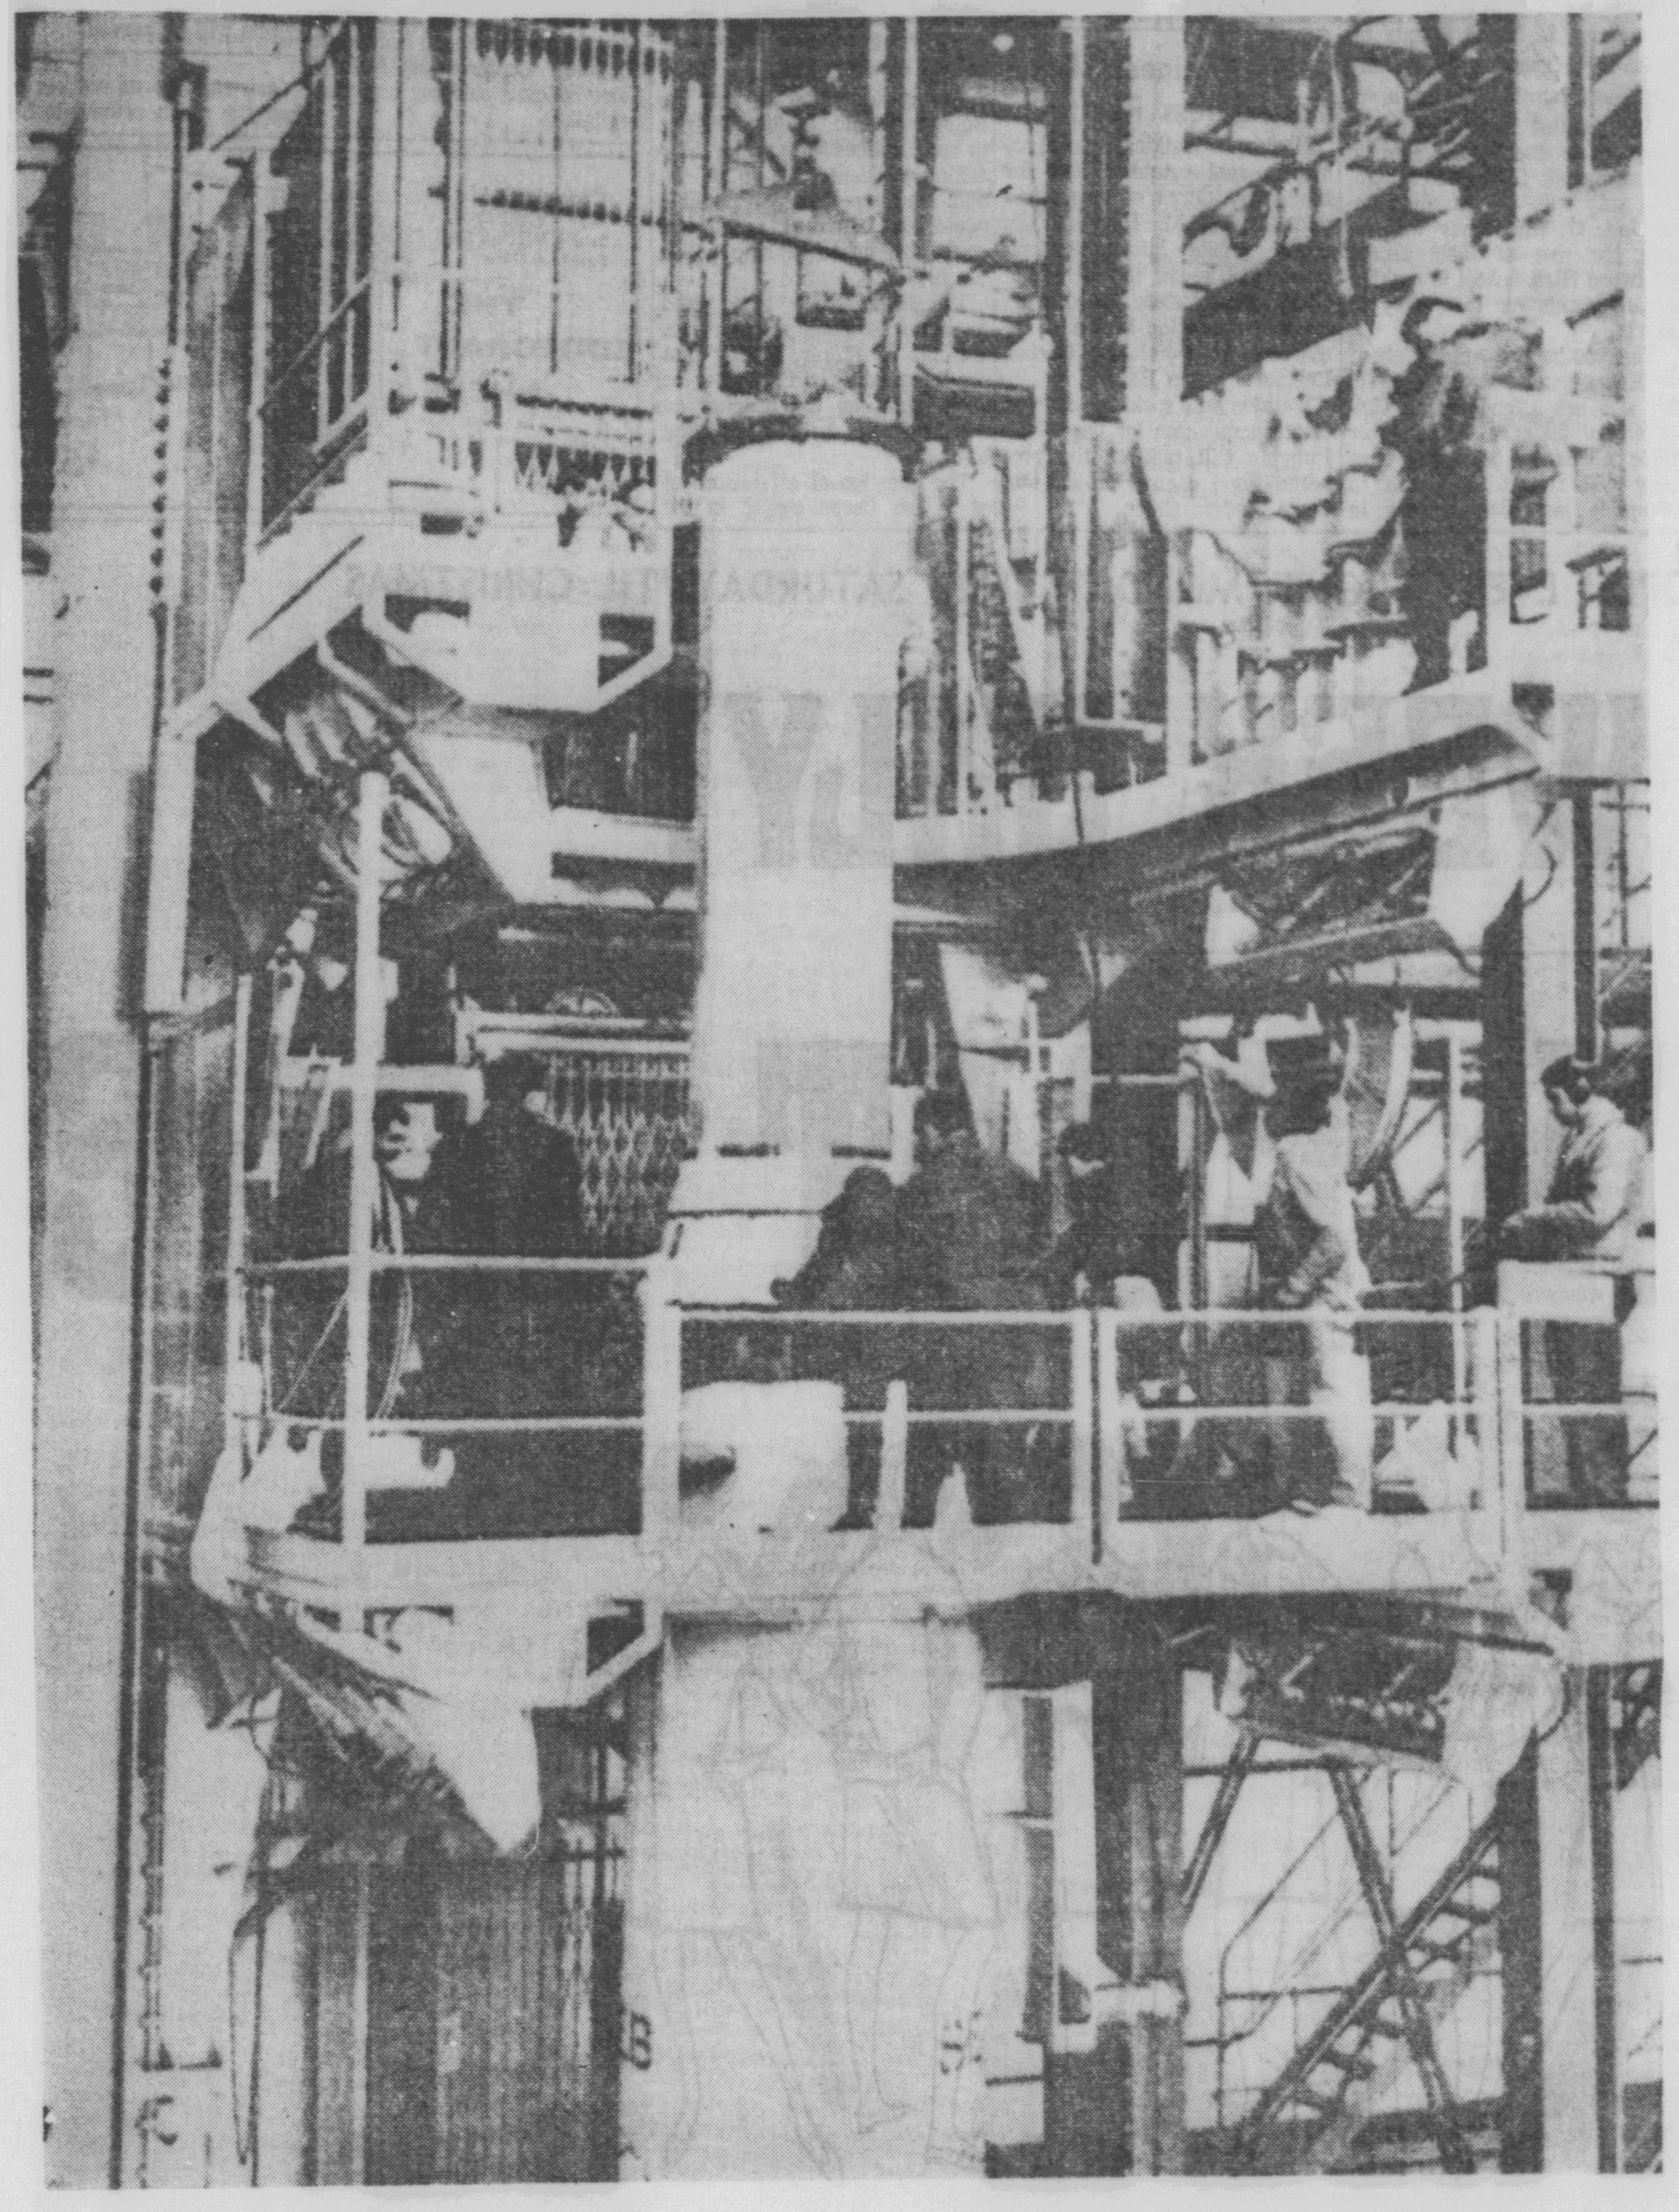
France's Formal Inauguration Into Space Race



FRENCH PREPARE FOR LAUNCH—Specialists at the launching base at Hammaguir in the Algerian Sahara work on the second stage of the three-stage Diamond rocket used to put the French satellite A1 into orbit. This picture and others on this page were made available by the French Army in Paris after the Defense Ministry announced Friday the 92.5-pound satellite was in orbit.

Signal From A1 Falters

PARIS (AP) — France's first space satellite continued orbiting, but its radio signals had all but died away by Saturday.

Technicians said that the "beep-beep" signal from the A1 satellite could be heard from time to time, but that it was very feeble. Radio transmissions to indicate details on the orbiting also encountered trouble, they said.

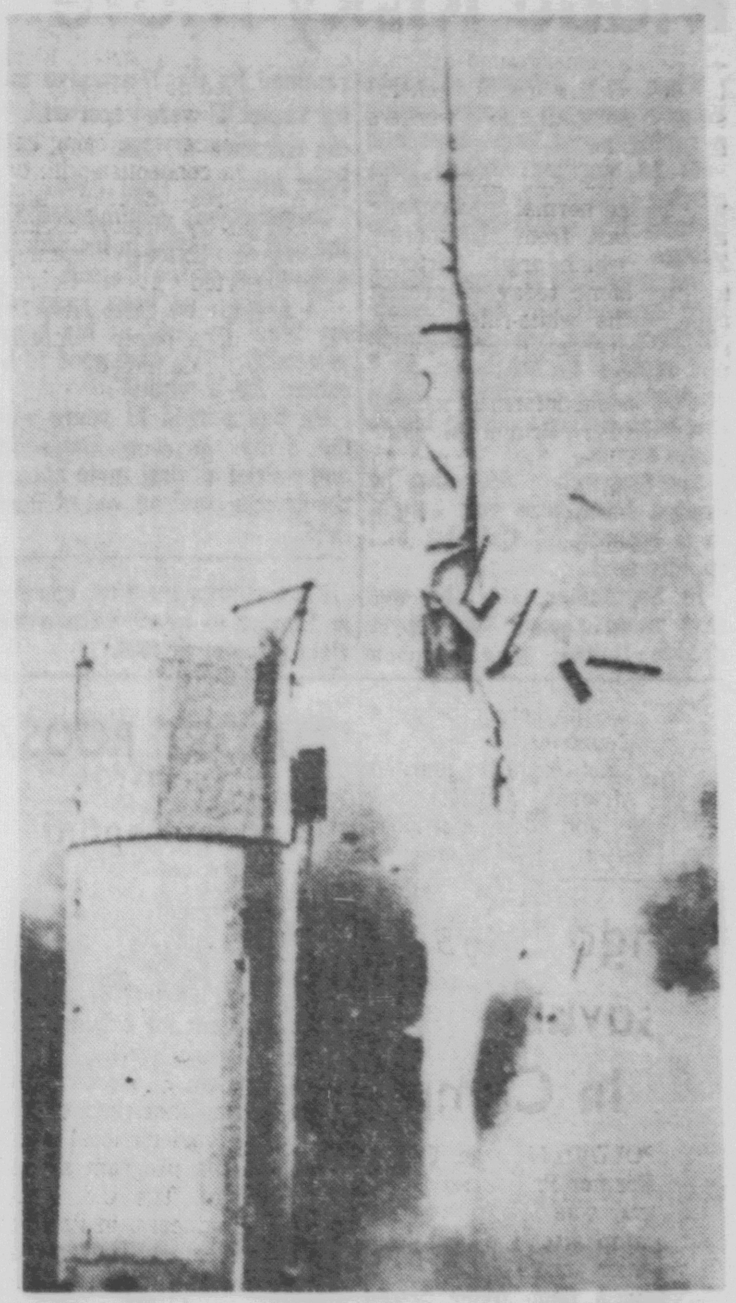
Long-distance radar confirmed that the A1 had gone into orbit.

The Defense Ministry said the principal purpose of the shot was to test the launching rocket, called the Diamond.

President Charles de Gaulle said the successful launching "attests to the high value of French science and technique" and is "an important accomplishment of which the entire nation should be happy and proud."

The launching was the most dramatic demonstration of French technological development since France exploded its first A-bomb in the Sahara Feb. 13, 1960.



SATELLITE ON ITS WAY—The Diamond rocket takes off from its Sahara site, to put France alongside the United States and Russia in the exclusive space club. The A-1 was designed to transmit radio signals for two weeks, but faded after a day. Its practical purpose was to test the Diamond rocket, not to gather scientific data.

Otepka Security Case Shakes State Department Hierarchy

By EWARD W. O'BRIEN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Every week or two, the Senate Internal Security subcommittee is releasing another volume of testimony in what it stiffly calls, "State Department Security — The Otepka Case."

Otto F. Otepka is the State Department personnel security officer who was ordered fired in 1963 on a variety of charges by the department. His offenses amount to an allegation that he was cooperating with the Senators in their investigation of State Department security practices.

Because Otepka is an unusually obdurate man, his case has taken on an importance extending far beyond his personal fate. Before he received his dismissal notice he was convinced of serious laxity in the State Department's security program, and he answered the Senators' questions about what was going on. Despite almost three years of harassment by his department superiors, those are still his convictions, and he still responds to the subcommittee.

A newly released volume of testimony demonstrates for the first time how this one rather lonely government employe has shaken the mighty hierarchy of the State Department. The testimony leaves no doubt that the issues raised by Otepka have rubbed some exceedingly sensitive nerves among the officials who make big decisions on relations with the communist world.

In the hearing, Abram Chayes, the department's former top legal official, was describing the handling of the effort to get rid of Otepka, and the role in that effort of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Undersecretary George Ball.

"Every major step in the case has been considered either by Mr. Rusk or Mr. Ball," the subcommittee was told by Chayes.

Chayes was the subordinate who recommended placing the dismissal charges against Otepka. He told the subcommittee that after Otepka's office trash was searched and evidence of correspondence between the subcommittee and Otepka was found, "Mr. Ball and the Secretary called me in and asked me to review the material and make recommendations to them" on whether federal law or government regulations had been violated.

The decision to bring the ouster action against Otepka was made by Ball, with the knowledge of Secretary Rusk, Chayes testified.

With all the other problems to be dealt with daily by Secretary Rusk and Undersecretary Ball, it is enlightening that the Otepka case could claim their time and attention. Even to a conference growing out of the tawdry episode of monitoring his waste basket, tapping his telephone, and drilling his office safe.

Why the determination at the top to rid the State Department of Otto Otepka? The answers are in the hearings, where everyone involved had his say. The Senators, Democrats and Republicans, have not yet given their formal answer in a committee report. But their persistence in delving into the case and publishing the evidence suggests their conclusion that Otepka was right in wanting to correct many things which he believed are desperately wrong in the department's security program.

'Space Park' Ground Broken

REDONDO BEACH (AP)—Gov. Brown today broke ground for a "space park complex" in Redondo Beach and said the facility will mean "several thousand new jobs by the end of 1966."

The space park is being built by TRW Space Technology Laboratories, which employes about 10,000 Californians.

Brown said the space park "truly symbolizes California's position as a leader in the space age."

TRW's most recent projects are the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's orbiting geophysical observatories and the Air Force's nuclear detection satellites.

Bonn Asks Decision Role In Use Of Nuclear Arms

BONN (UPI) —Government and opposition deputies joined hands today in a demand for a German role in NATO nuclear decision-making, including a veto over the use of American weapons located in West Germany.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's parliamentary supporters said an increased nuclear role was not a matter of prestige but of security. They called for participation in the making of decisions as well as in fixing the principles on which they are based.

Fritz Erler, leading for the opposition Social Democrats in the parliamentary debate on Erhard's government policy speech, said it was legitimate for the chancellor to seek "appropriate participation" in the nuclear area.

"That must include," Erler arned, "a German territory or against German territory—in this we must feel ourselves responsible for the fate of Germany beyond the demarcation line."

Erhard, informed sources report, intends to ask for such veto rights when he meets President Johnson Dec. 19-21. Germany is the only NATO member which does not enjoy the right of veto over American nuclear weapons stationed on its territory.

Rainer Barzel, chairman of Erhard's Christian Democratic parliamentary party, opened the discussion scheduled to continue until Wednesday night.

In his speech, Barzel echoed Erhard's own plea to the NATO powers to end nuclear discrimination against West Germany, which provides the largest conventional armed force in Europe.

"We are prepared to accept military division of labor within the alliance," Barzel said.

"We are not prepared to permit a division of the risk. The alliance is as effective as the mutual confidence and the non-discrimination of all partners, and as the common deterrent."

Owner Pays Fine To Keep Bar Open

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control announced it has accepted payment of $502 from Max Key, in lieu of a suspension of his on-sale general liquor license at the Rancho Rafael, 6045 Redwood Highway, Ignacio.

The licensee was charged on July 30 with sales of alcohol to minors and permitting minors to consume it.

Britisher To Russia For Viet Nam Talks

MOSCOW (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart arrived in Moscow today for talks with Soviet leaders on Viet Nam and on the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons.

Pravda said it hoped Stewart's four-day visit would contribute "to the normalization of the international situation." British sources here hold little hope of major results.

Quentin Execution Slated —First In Three Years

Controversy Expected To Rise Again

By ROBERT STRAND
U.P. International

On Dec. 15, a convicted killer is scheduled to enter the gas chamber at San Quentin prison for the first criminal execution in California in nearly three years.

The event is likely to revive bitter controversy over the future of capital punishment in the state, and could bring about the same type of mass demonstrations the San Francisco Bay area has experienced for civil rights and pacifist causes.

Up to 1963, California normally had about eight executions a year at San Quentin. But a combination of court decisions has stopped all executions since Jan. 23, 1963.

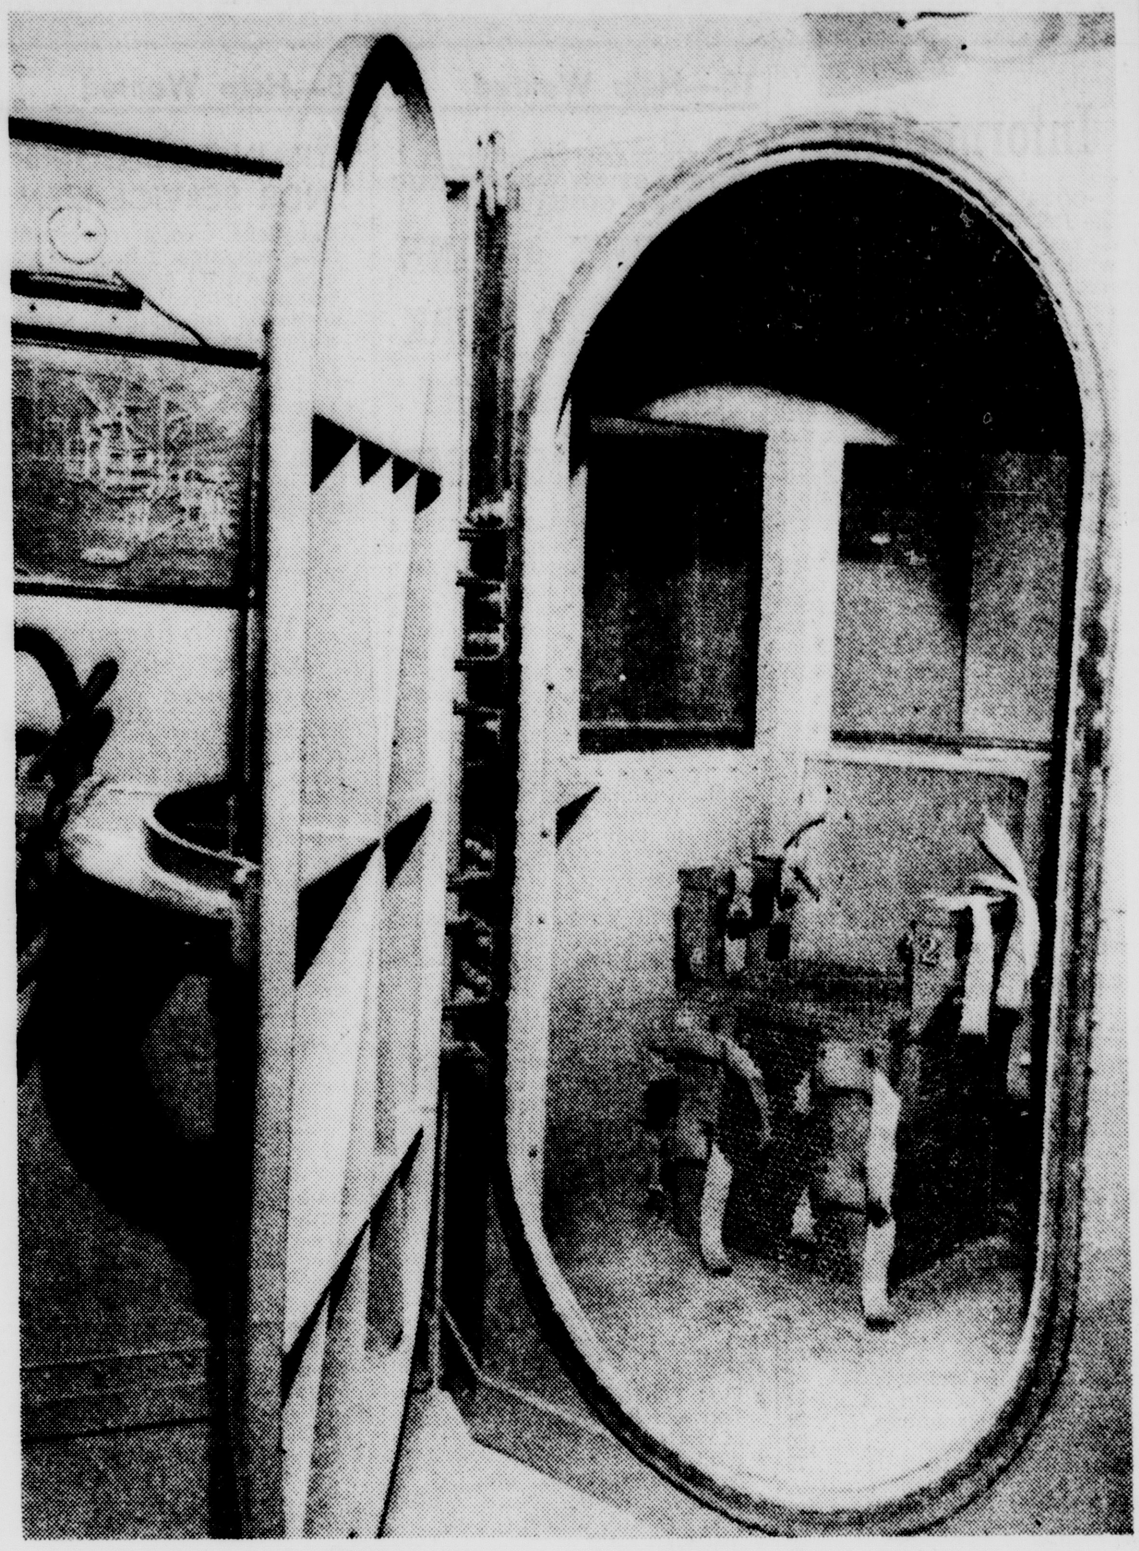
Now sitting in the prison's death row is Thomas Leroy Teale, 37, convicted of kidnaping and killing a Lodi bartender and robbing him of $266 in 1962, just six months after he was released from prison for another robbery and shooting 11 years earlier. He was sentenced to death.

The conviction was upheld by the California Supreme Court, and now Teale's only hope is a stay of execution from the U.S. Supreme Court.

The capital punishment controversy—now muted because of the moratorium—reached a climax in California with the 1960 execution of author-kidnaper Caryl Chessman, who fought through the courts from death row for 12 years.

Gov. Edmund E. Brown, an avowed foe of capital punishment, granted Chessman a stay 10 hours before one of his scheduled execution dates to give a special legislative session a chance to abolish the death penalty. The legislature overwhelmingly turned down his plea—as it has done repeatedly before and after.

The night before Chessman's execution hundreds of protesting pickets held a bonfire vigil outside the prison walls. The vigils have continued at every execution since.



EXECUTION CHAMBER — This is the San Quentin Prison gas chamber. There have been no executions there for almost three years, but one is scheduled there next month. Preparation for the event is sure to bring more mass demonstrations. (UPI Telephoto)

Brown's vocal opposition has brought the widest publicity to the capital punishment controversy, but it was two decisions of the California Supreme Court which played the primary role in bringing about the current moratorium.

In one case, the state court interpreted the U.S . Supreme Court's Escobedo decision to mean that local police must inform suspects of their right to remain silent and consult a lawyer. This ruling has resulted in new trials or freedom for a number of convicts.

The other decision ruled that prosecutors may not tell a jury that a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment could be paroled, thus possibly influencing the jury to vote the death penalty instead.

Since these two cases were handed down within the last two years, 42 men and one woman have had their death sentences reversed. Upon retrial, 12 were sentenced to death for a second time and five received life sentences. The rest of the cases are pending.

In the meantime the San Quentin gas chamber remained unused.

One of Brown's sharpest critics, Assemblyman C. George Deukmejian, a Long Beach Republican, has charged that statistics show violent crime has increased in the state as a result of the execution moratorium.

He said he believes a renewed controversy over capital punishment will help make crime the major issue of the state's 1966 gubernatorial campaign.

Brown, a Democrat, points to studies which find no solid evidence the death penalty either encourages or discourages crime. He is continuing to urge the abolition of the death penalty, complaining that the moratorium has made "a laughing stock of the administration of justice."

No Mental Center Delay Is Hoped

Marin Hospital District board president Marion C. Ibach said today she hopes that Psychiatrist J. M. Stubblebine's five-page critique of plans for community mental health center at Marin General Hospital will not delay the project.

She said she does not think the county board of supervisors should allow the criticism to halt planning for the joint county-hospital district project.

County Administrator Alan Bruce has said he will recommend that, because of the report, the supervisors hold up planning for the center. Construction is scheduled to begin next July.

Mrs. Ibach suggested the supervisors "should instruct the architects to go ahead and resubmit a program more in line with Dr. Stubblebine's thinking, if they are going to accept the report. If not, they should tell the architects to proceed with the present program."

In his report, Dr. Stubblebine, San Francisco mental health director and former chief psychiatrist at Ross General Hospital, took issue with the mental health center's emphasis on outpatient care.

He also urged that the county auditor study projected costs to see if the facility will provide cheaper care than a private one. Private clinics are sometimes able to provide cheaper rates, he said.

Dr. Stubblebine's report will go to the supervisors, tomorrow, with Bruce's recommendation that it be referred to the mental health advisory board and that design work be suspended.

Girl Arrested

A 14-year-old Marinwood girl was arrested at the Emporium in the Northgate Shopping Center Saturday after a store detective said she left the store without paying for an $8.30 brassiere she was carrying. The girl was booked at Marin County Juvenile Hall.

Lower-Class Airmen Losing Club At Base

The lowest strata of the Air Force caste system is about to lose its wine-and-dine club at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Col. Ralph M. Wanderer, base commander, has announced that the Airmen's Club, operated for airmen third and second class, will be closed Jan. 25. The reason: it lost $4,000 last year and the loss is increasing.

Airmen third and second class are not permitted by Air Force regulations to operate their own club, selling drinks, on the base. Higher enlisted grades can do so, and have a Non-Commissioned Officers Club at Hamilton which sells meals and drinks. If the NCO Club makes a profit, it gets to keep it; if it goes in the red, the taxpayer unknowingly picks up the tab.

Not so with the airmen third and second. So their Airmen's Club has been subsidized by the NCO Club; and, according to Colonel Wanderer, its losses have been made up out of what should have been the NCO Club's profits, or from the pockets of the members.

"The low base pay of the airmen just does not give them enough money to support such a club," said Colonel Wanderer.

The finances of these low-strata airmen (with a base pay starting at $93.90 per month) was one reason for organizing the Airmen's Club. It sells mixed drinks at 35 to 40 cents, and beer at 15 cents a glass. Hamburgers are 35 cents, and meals with chicken and steak $1 and $1.25—all well below the prices of the night spots that line Highway 101 in the vicinity of Hamilton Air Force Base.

The club also has dancing one night each week with music by a combo. There used to be dancing both Friday and Saturday nights, but it was cut to once weekly as a money-saving measure.

The NCO Club has "tried everything, including bingo," to put its stepchild Airmen's Club in the black ink, but all without avail, according to M/Sgt. J. L. Andrews, NCO Club manager.

It seems the unmarried airmen prefer to get their action off the base, he said.

One reason may be that, while there has been no complaints of the club's drinks or meals, and certainly none about its prices, the club itself is none too attractive. It is a wooden building erected during World War II, and somewhat the worse for wear.

Colonel Wanderer said the club has lacked funds to put the building in shape. Sergeant Andrews said a contractor had to be hired, at $250, to complete a "self-help" painting job the airmen started but didn't finish.

The club was scheduled to close Nov. 25, it was learned, but a two-month delay was granted — perhaps in hope of making up some of the loss during the Christmas season.

Not quite all will be lost for the non-teetotaling airman when his club closes: he can still drink beer at the Post Exchange.

And, pointed out Colonel Wanderer: "We do have a service club that's open seven days a week. They have dances there and TV, pool tables and reading and game rooms." But no beer or liquor.

Christmas Lights Go Up In Mill Valley

Mill Valley firemen today put finishing touches on the city's Christmas street decorations which, in a switch from recent year's redwood branches, will be colored lights in many of the street trees. Trees are to be lighted Friday.

Lights are being installed in Lytton Square, on Miller and East Blithedale avenues by the chamber of commerce. The city plans to erect lights in front of city hall and in trees in the center of the square. Santa Claus' house will be erected at 85 Throckmorton Avenue, and Saint Nicholas himself will put in his appearance at a date to be announced.

Auto Strikes Driver Pushing His Own Car

A/2c Charles P. Lavin was behind his car, pushing it north in front of 1440 Lincoln Avenue in San Rafael, when he heard a squeal of brakes behind him about 1:15 a.m. yesterday.

The next thing he knew he was pinned against the rear of his car by one driven by Roger L. Reclus, 44, of 4136 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, according to San Rafael police. Lavin, 20, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was taken to the base hospital, where he was reported in satisfactory condition today with a broken right leg.

Police said Lavin was wearing dark clothes and no hat, and that an overhead streetlight was partly blocked by a tree. Reclus was cited, however, for not having a driver's license in his possession.

Kentfield Session

Kentfield fire district commissioners will meet at 8 p.m. today in the fire house, Chief Kenneth Kamp reported. The commission's regularly scheduled meeting this month fell on Thanksgiving night and was postponed.

Nicasio Lake Rec Proposal 'Impractical'

The Marin Visitors Bureau today advanced a proposal to turn Nicasio Lake into a recreation-tourist area, but Gen. Mgr. William R. Seeger of Marin Municipal Water District called it "completely impractical."

Clinton De Lap, Visitors Bureau manager, said the bureau's board of directors envisioned the big lake becoming a year-around recreation area, available for swimming, fishing and boating.

He said the water could be replaced from Russian River or Eel River sources, and reported "MMWD officials indicate that this would be feasible."

No so, said Seeger. "I told them it would not be feasible," he declared, referring to the proposal as a "hare-brained idea."

Nicasio Lake cost some five million dollars, Seeger pointed out, and was financed from a bond issue so could not be sold by the water district without approval of the voters.

Replacement of the water from Russian and Eel River sources is impractical, he said. The water district already is planning on utilizing such sources, but needs the big Nicasio Reservoir, which stores seven and one-half billion gallons, as a major source of water supply, he declared.

DeLap admitted the Visitors Bureau could not implement its plan, but suggested the county could buy the reservoir and the water district could use the five million dollars to develop water sources elsewhere.

Marijuana Suspect Held

An 18-year-old Marin City youth, Floyd Barrow of 25 Burgess Court, was booked in county jail yesterday for investigation of possession of marijuana.

Sheriff's officers said they approached a car parked in the 300 block of Drake Avenue, Marin City, to quizz Barrow, after he acted in a suspicious manner.

Barrows leaped out of the car and fled. But officers found particles appearing to be marijuana on the car's front seat. These will be analyzed by state narcotic laboratories.

Barrow surrendered himself at the Marin City sheriff's substation shortly afterward. He was held in lieu of $1,100 bail.

Boy Waiting For Very Important Pet From Luci Baines Johnson

By JOHN F. KEARNEY

Andrew Bassis is only seven but he will stay up late tomorrow to meet a VIP from the White House at San Francisco International Airport.

The VIP is a Very Important Pet: a three-month-old hamster which has been given Andrew by Luci Baines Johnson because the President's daughter enjoyed so much the letter he sent her from his home in San Rafael.

Andrew read in a newspaper that Luci wanted to give away six hamsters born Aug. 27 to her pets, Boris and Natasha.

So he put pencil to paper and cheerfully wrote from his home on Tarragon Drive:

"I have heard that your hamster had babies. I am seven years old. My mother said I could have a hamster. And I have asked you for a hamster. Could you give me a girl because I would like to name it after you."

Before leaving for Don Timoteo School today, Andrew swallowed a mouthful of cereal, took a deep breath, and said:

"I am going to take great care of it and keep it in my den and it eats tid-bits and carrots, peas, beans, lettuce and lots of things and I have read all about it in a book 'cause I never had a pet like this before although I once had a dog that died."

The hamster will travel in a box direct from Washington in the captain's cabin on United Air Lines flight 57, arriving at San Francisco Airport at 8:20 p.m.

Andrew is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Milton L. Bassis and has a sister, Lisa, 11.

His mother said today: "I had a call last week from a secretary at the White House asking if it was all right for Andrew to have a hamster. I, of course, said we would be delighted.

"Miss Johnson followed the call with a letter saying how much she was captivated by Andrew's request. It was all his own idea. He is so unpredictable, I didn't even know what he had written."

Andrew's letter was one of six chosen out of a hundred requests for hamsters received at the White House.

Woman Bruised, Man Bleeding

San Rafael police were called to an apartment at 65 Fairfax Street Saturday and found a man bleeding from cuts on both arms and a woman with a bruised cheek and broken bridgework.

Responding to a call from a neighbor, officers confiscated a butcher knife with an eight-inch blade before giving first aid treatment to Donald J. Sollar, 45, who lived in Apartment 18 in the building.

They questioned Martha M. Lutzi, 47, who also said she lived in the same apartment, but released her, saying today they were not sure exactly how the cutting took place.

Two Women Win Bridge Ratings

Two more members of the Marin unit of American Contract Bridge League won their life master ratings during the 10-day national bridge tournament which wound up yesterday in San Francisco.

Mrs. Susan Cole of Marinwood and Mrs. Sue Takeshita of Livermore won enough "red" points (awarded only in major tournaments) to win the coveted life master rating.

Mrs. Cole was paired with Ludovica Bigelow of Belvedere, and Mrs. Takeshita with P. L. Dearmond of Kentfield when they "went over the top."

Police End His Easy Life In A Church

The easy life of living off a Sausalito Church came to an abrupt end early today for a young man from Moss Beach, San Mateo County.

Mark A. Hills, 18, was awakened by police at the Sausalito Presbyterian Church at 112 Bulkley Avenue at 3:45 a.m., rolled off the couch and given a new home in Marin County Jail. Charge: unlawful entry.

Police Lt. Ted Zink said he had had reports the past week that someone had been breaking into the church, sleeping downstairs in the recreation room, eating from the larder in the kitchen, and turning the heat up too high.

Each morning the uninvited sleep-in, eat-in intruder would leave the church before anyone arrived for the day.

Last night police had a look, and found Hill asleep on a couch in the basement.

Zink said Hill has been employed at the Marin Guide in Sausalito.

Ex-Racing Skipper Made Risky Move

When John Johnsen of Santa Venetia gave up a commanding a racing yacht back East and took to working aboard slow moving sea-going dredges, he thought life would be less exciting.

But it packed a bigger punch than expected for the 68-year-old first mate, who this month has retired to his home at 7 Jefferson Avenue after surviving two boat sinkings during his 55 years at sea.

The first was in 1945 when the dredge MacKenzie was caught in a typhoon off Okinawa and rapidly sank.

In September, 1957, he was first mate aboard the hopper dredge Rossell when it was rammed by the Norwegian motor vessel Thorshal and sank in the entrance of Coos Bay, Ore. Four men lost their lives.

Johnsen was commended for the part he played in the orderly evacuation of the Rossell.

"I guess I've been lucky all my life," he said at his home yesterday. "It's sure good to be ashore for a while."

He has served 24 years with the Army Corps of Engineers and retired as first mate aboard the dredge Davison, out of Portland.

Finland was the first country in Europe to grant women the right to vote, in 1906.

Nevada Court Denies Retrial To Marinites

A Corte Madera man and woman serving a prison sentence for manslaughter in Nevada lost an attempt Friday to have their case retried, this time for murder.

Dr. Sherman O. Wirt, 59, and Mrs. Helen C. Calani, 45, had pleaded guilty to voluntary manslaughter in the death of Virginia City contractor Richard Ghilotti in his restored Victorian home on May 23, 1964.

They later asked for a trial on the murder charge, in hopes of being freed. Yesterday the motion was denied by Judge Richard L. Waters Jr. of the First Judicial District Court in Nevada's Storey County.

Wirt is serving a term of five to 10 years. Mrs. Calani's sentence was one to 10 years.

Marin To Host Kuwait Youths Over Holidays

Eight young men from Kuwait will arrive in Marin County on Dec. 18 to spend their holiday with host families in the area.

The youths, who under the auspices of the Experiment in International Living Program, will stay with the families until Jan. 17, when they will rejoin the rest of their group. Redwood High School is making arrangements for their stay in Marin.

The youths are among about 40 Kuwait students, ages 18 to 22, who are attending the University of Texas at Austin. After their Christmas vacation here they will return to Austin to complete semester courses in English and studies about the United States. Then they will attend various trade schools to prepare themselves for jobs in their Persian Gulf country's wealthy petroleum industry.

Hhe Kuwait government is financing the youths' stay in this country. The students have their own cars and will be on a very independent basis during their Marin visit.

Army Engineers Due To Address Realtors

Harlan B. Watkins, special assistant real estate officer for the Army Corps of Engineers, and Eugene M. Huggins, the corps' public information officer, will speak to the Marin County Real Estate Board at its breakfast meeting at 8 a.m. tomorrow at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael.

Watkins will speak about real estate acquisition for the corps. Huggins will talk on the proposed flood control project for Corte Madera Creek.

Litter Problem Compounded By Home Garbage

Members of Bolinas Community, Inc. Friday learned that the litter problem on the beaches is being compounded because families are putting household garbage in litter cans placed by the county.

The group voted to ask the Bolinas Public Utility District to send notices with water bills asking residents not to do so, and warning them of possible penalties. District employees were also asked to help police the beach.

The organization also voted to write to County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, asking that the mounted sheriff's deputy be used again on the beaches on weekends and holidays starting Feb. 12.

The question of establishment of a Job Corps center in the Bolinas area was again discussed, with persons at the meeting overwhelmingly opposed to the idea unless police protection is increased.

Pipe Dampens Store

A ruptured water pipe in the fire sprinkler system of the Emporium at 9:35 p.m. Friday wetted down racks of greeting cards at the northeast corner of the store at the Northgate Shopping Center, San Rafael. Store officials said the loss was negligible.

Christmas Party Set For Retired Persons

A Christmas party with games, entertainment and carol singing will be held by the Marin Chapter, American Assn. of Retired Persons, at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church of San Rafael. Officers for 1966 will be elected. Refreshments will be served.

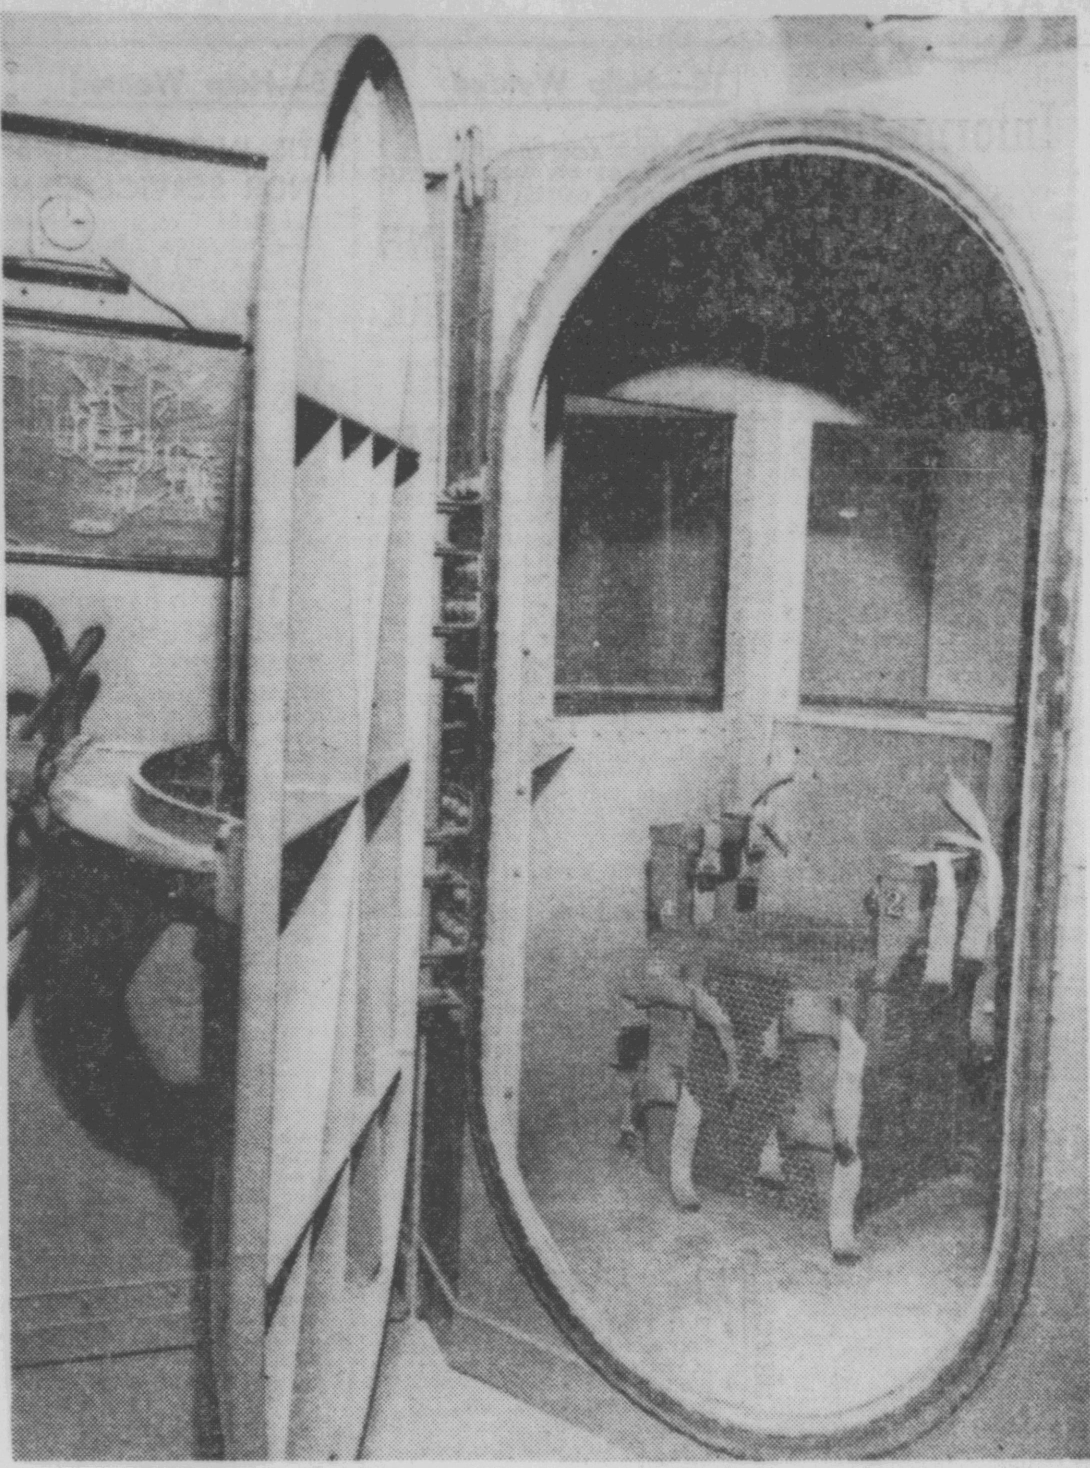
Quentin Execution Slated —First In Three Years

Controversy Expected To Rise Again

By ROBERT STRAND
U.P. International



EXECUTION CHAMBER — This is the San Quentin Prison gas chamber. There have been no executions there for almost three years, but one is scheduled there next month. Preparation for the event is sure to bring more mass demonstrations. (UPI Telephoto)

On Dec. 15, a convicted killer is scheduled to enter the gas chamber at San Quentin prison for the first criminal execution in California in nearly three years.

The event is likely to revive bitter controversy over the future of capital punishment in the state, and could bring about the same type of mass demonstrations the San Francisco Bay area has experienced for civil rights and pacifist causes.

Up to 1963, California normally had about eight executions a year at San Quentin. But a combination of court decisions has stopped all executions since Jan. 23, 1963.

Now sitting in the prison's death row is Thomas Leroy Teale, 37, convicted of kidnaping and killing a Lodi bartender and robbing him of $266 in 1962, just six months after he was released from prison for another robbery and shooting 11 years earlier. He was sentenced to death.

The conviction was upheld by the California Supreme Court, and now Teale's only hope is a stay of execution from the U.S. Supreme Court.

The capital punishment controversy—now muted because of the moratorium—reached a climax in California with the 1960 execution of author-kidnaper Caryl Chessman, who fought through the courts from death row for 12 years.

Gov. Edmund E. Brown, an avowed foe of capital punishment, granted Chessman a stay 10 hours before one of his scheduled execution dates to give a special legislative session a chance to abolish the death penalty. The legislature overwhelmingly turned down his plea—as it has done repeatedly before and after.

The night before Chessman's execution hundreds of protesting pickets held a bonfire vigil outside the prison walls. The vigils have continued at every execution since.

Brown's vocal opposition has brought the widest publicity to the capital punishment controversy, but it was two decisions of the California Supreme Court which played the primary role in bringing about the current moratorium.

In one case, the state court interpreted the U.S . Supreme Court's Escobedo decision to mean that local police must inform suspects of their right to remain silent and consult a lawyer. This ruling has resulted in new trials or freedom for a number of convicts.

The other decision ruled that prosecutors may not tell a jury that a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment could be paroled, thus possibly influencing the jury to vote the death penalty instead.

Since these two cases were handed down within the last two years, 42 men and one woman have had their death sentences reversed. Upon retrial, 12 were sentenced to death for a second time and five received life sentences. The rest of the cases are pending.

In the meantime the San Quentin gas chamber remained unused.

One of Brown's sharpest critics, Assemblyman C. George Deukmejian, a Long Beach Republican, has charged that statistics show violent crime has increased in the state as a result of the execution moratorium.

He said he believes a renewed controversy over capital punishment will help make crime the major issue of the state's 1966 gubernatorial campaign.

Brown, a Democrat, points to studies which find no solid evidence the death penalty either encourages or discourages crime. He is continuing to urge the abolition of the death penalty, complaining that the moratorium has made "a laughing stock of the administration of justice."

Nicasio Lake Rec Proposal 'Impractical'

The Marin Visitors Bureau today advanced a proposal to turn Nicasio Lake into a recreation-tourist area, but Gen. Mgr. William R. Seeger of Marin Municipal Water District called it "completely impractical."

Clinton De Lap, Visitors Bureau manager, said the bureau's board of directors envisioned the big lake becoming a year-around recreation area, available for swimming, fishing and boating.

He said the water could be replaced from Russian River or Eel River sources, and reported "MMWD officials indicate that this would be feasible."

No so, said Seeger. "I told them it would not be feasible," he declared, referring to the proposal as a "hare-brained idea."

Nicasio Lake cost some five million dollars, Seeger pointed out, and was financed from a bond issue so could not be sold by the water district without approval of the voters.

Replacement of the water from Russian and Eel River sources is impractical, he said. The water district already is planning on utilizing such sources, but needs the big Nicasio Reservoir, which stores seven and one-half billion gallons, as a major source of water supply, he declared.

DeLap admitted the Visitors Bureau could not implement its plan, but suggested the county could buy the reservoir and the water district could use the five million dollars to develop water sources elsewhere.

Marijuana Suspect Held

An 18-year-old Marin City youth, Floyd Barrow of 25 Burgess Court, was booked in county jail yesterday for investigation of possession of marijuana.

Sheriff's officers said they approached a car parked in the 300 block of Drake Avenue, Marin City, to quizz Barrow, after he acted in a suspicious manner.

Barrows leaped out of the car and fled. But officers found particles appearing to be marijuana on the car's front seat. These will be analyzed by state narcotic laboratories.

Barrow surrendered himself at the Marin City sheriff's substation shortly afterward. He was held in lieu of $1,100 bail.

By JOHN F. KEARNEY

Andrew Bassis is only seven but he will stay up late tomorrow to meet a VIP from the White House at San Francisco International Airport.

The VIP is a Very Important Pet: a three-month-old hamster which has been given Andrew by Luci Baines Johnson because the President's daughter enjoyed so much the letter he sent her from his home in San Rafael.

Andrew read in a newspaper that Luci wanted to give away six hamsters born Aug. 27 to her pets, Boris and Natasha.

So he put pencil to paper and cheerfully wrote from his home on Tarragon Drive:

"I have heard that your hamster had babies. I am seven years old. My mother said I could have a hamster. And I have asked you for a hamster. Could you give me a girl because I would like to name it after you."

Before leaving for Don Timoteo School today, Andrew swallowed a mouthful of cereal, took a deep breath, and said:

"I am going to take great care of it and keep it in my den and it eats tid-bits and carrots, peas, beans, lettuce and lots of things and I have read all about it in a book 'cause I never had a pet like this before although I once had a dog that died."

The hamster will travel in a box direct from Washington in the captain's cabin on United Air Lines flight 57, arriving at San Francisco Airport at 8:20 p.m.

Andrew is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Milton L. Bassis and has a sister, Lisa, 11.

His mother said today: "I had a call last week from a secretary at the White House asking if it was all right for Andrew to have a hamster. I, of course, said we would be delighted.

"Miss Johnson followed the call with a letter saying how much she was captivated by Andrew's request. It was all his own idea. He is so unpredictable, I didn't even know what he had written."

Andrew's letter was one of six chosen out of a hundred requests for hamsters received at the White House.

Woman Bruised, Man Bleeding

San Rafael police were called to an apartment at 65 Fairfax Street Saturday and found a man bleeding from cuts on both arms and a woman with a bruised cheek and broken bridgework.

Responding to a call from a neighbor, officers confiscated a butcher knife with an eight-inch blade before giving first aid treatment to Donald J. Sollar, 45, who lived in Apartment 18 in the building.

They questioned Martha M. Lutzi, 47, who also said she lived in the same apartment, but released her, saying today they were not sure exactly how the cutting took place.

Two Women Win Bridge Ratings

Two more members of the Marin unit of American Contract Bridge League won their life master ratings during the 10-day national bridge tournament which wound up yesterday in San Francisco.

Mrs. Susan Cole of Marinwood and Mrs. Sue Takeshita of Livermore won enough "red" points (awarded only in major tournaments) to win the coveted life master rating.

Mrs. Cole was paired with Ludovica Bigelow of Belvedere, and Mrs. Takeshita with P. L. Dearmond of Kentfield when they "went over the top."

Police End His Easy Life In A Church

The easy life of living off a Sausalito Church came to an abrupt end early today for a young man from Moss Beach, San Mateo County.

Mark A. Hills, 18, was awakened by police at the Sausalito Presbyterian Church at 112 Bulkley Avenue at 3:45 a.m., rolled off the couch and given a new home in Marin County Jail. Charge: unlawful entry.

Police Lt. Ted Zink said he had had reports the past week that someone had been breaking into the church, sleeping downstairs in the recreation room, eating from the larder in the kitchen, and turning the heat up too high.

Each morning the uninvited sleep-in, eat-in intruder would leave the church before anyone arrived for the day.

Last night police had a look, and found Hill asleep on a couch in the basement.

Zink said Hill has been employed at the Marin Guide in Sausalito.

No Mental Center Delay Is Hoped

Marin Hospital District board president Marion C. Ibach said today she hopes that Psychiatrist J. M. Stubblebine's five-page critique of plans for community mental health center at Marin General Hospital will not delay the project.

She said she does not think the county board of supervisors should allow the criticism to halt planning for the joint county-hospital district project.

County Administrator Alan Bruce has said he will recommend that, because of the report, the supervisors hold up planning for the center. Construction is scheduled to begin next July.

Mrs. Ibach suggested the supervisors "should instruct the architects to go ahead and resubmit a program more in line with Dr. Stubblebine's thinking, if they are going to accept the report. If not, they should tell the architects to proceed with the present program."

In his report, Dr. Stubblebine, San Francisco mental health director and former chief psychiatrist at Ross General Hospital, took issue with the mental health center's emphasis on outpatient care.

He also urged that the county auditor study projected costs to see if the facility will provide cheaper care than a private one. Private clinics are sometimes able to provide cheaper rates, he said.

Dr. Stubblebine's report will go to the supervisors, tomorrow, with Bruce's recommendation that it be referred to the mental health advisory board and that design work be suspended.

Girl Arrested

A 14-year-old Marinwood girl was arrested at the Emporium in the Northgate Shopping Center Saturday after a store detective said she left the store without paying for an $8.30 brassiere she was carrying. The girl was booked at Marin County Juvenile Hall.

Lower-Class Airmen Losing Club At Base

The lowest strata of the Air Force caste system is about to lose its wine-and-dine club at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Col. Ralph M. Wanderer, base commander, has announced that the Airmen's Club, operated for airmen third and second class, will be closed Jan. 25. The reason: it lost $4,000 last year and the loss is increasing.

Airmen third and second class are not permitted by Air Force regulations to operate their own club, selling drinks, on the base. Higher enlisted grades can do so, and have a Non-Commissioned Officers Club at Hamilton which sells meals and drinks. If the NCO Club makes a profit, it gets to keep it; if it goes in the red, the taxpayer unknowingly picks up the tab.

Not so with the airmen third and second. So their Airmen's Club has been subsidized by the NCO Club; and, according to Colonel Wanderer, its losses have been made up out of what should have been the NCO Club's profits, or from the pockets of the members.

"The low base pay of the airmen just does not give them enough money to support such a club," said Colonel Wanderer.

The finances of these low-strata airmen (with a base pay starting at $93.90 per month) was one reason for organizing the Airmen's Club. It sells mixed drinks at 35 to 40 cents, and beer at 15 cents a glass. Hamburgers are 35 cents, and meals with chicken and steak $1 and $1.25—all well below the prices of the night spots that line Highway 101 in the vicinity of Hamilton Air Force Base.

The club also has dancing one night each week with music by a combo. There used to be dancing both Friday and Saturday nights, but it was cut to once weekly as a money-saving measure.

The NCO Club has "tried everything, including bingo," to put its stepchild Airmen's Club in the black ink, but all without avail, according to M/Sgt. J. L. Andrews, NCO Club manager.

It seems the unmarried airmen prefer to get their action off the base, he said.

One reason may be that, while there has been no complaints of the club's drinks or meals, and certainly none about its prices, the club itself is none too attractive. It is a wooden building erected during World War II, and somewhat the worse for wear.

Colonel Wanderer said the club has lacked funds to put the building in shape. Sergeant Andrews said a contractor had to be hired, at $250, to complete a "self-help" painting job the airmen started but didn't finish.

The club was scheduled to close Nov. 25, it was learned, but a two-month delay was granted — perhaps in hope of making up some of the loss during the Christmas season.

Not quite all will be lost for the non-teetotaling airman when his club closes: he can still drink beer at the Post Exchange.

And, pointed out Colonel Wanderer: "We do have a service club that's open seven days a week. They have dances there and TV, pool tables and reading and game rooms." But no beer or liquor.

Christmas Lights Go Up In Mill Valley

Mill Valley firemen today put finishing touches on the city's Christmas street decorations which, in a switch from recent year's redwood branches, will be colored lights in many of the street trees. Trees are to be lighted Friday.

Lights are being installed in Lytton Square, on Miller and East Blithedale avenues by the chamber of commerce. The city plans to erect lights in front of city hall and in trees in the center of the square. Santa Claus' house will be erected at 85 Throckmorton Avenue, and Saint Nicholas himself will put in his appearance at a date to be announced.

Auto Strikes Driver Pushing His Own Car

A/2c Charles P. Lavin was behind his car, pushing it north in front of 1440 Lincoln Avenue in San Rafael, when he heard a squeal of brakes behind him about 1:15 a.m. yesterday.

The next thing he knew he was pinned against the rear of his car by one driven by Roger L. Reclus, 44, of 4136 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, according to San Rafael police. Lavin, 20, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was taken to the base hospital, where he was reported in satisfactory condition today with a broken right leg.

Police said Lavin was wearing dark clothes and no hat, and that an overhead streetlight was partly blocked by a tree. Reclus was cited, however, for not having a driver's license in his possession.

Kentfield Session

Kentfield fire district commissioners will meet at 8 p.m. today in the fire house, Chief Kenneth Kamp reported. The commission's regularly scheduled meeting this month fell on Thanksgiving night and was postponed.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL DISTRICT BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, at the office of the County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of said Board of Supervisors in the Civic Center, City of San Rafael, in said County, California, on Tuesday, the 14th day of December, 1965, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. for the purchase of bonds of NOVATO-SAN JOSE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF MARIN COUNTY, State of California, more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $1,810,000.00 1965 School Bonds, Series A, consisting of 362 bonds of the denomination of $5,000.00 each, numbered A-1 to A-362, inclusive, all dated December 15th, 1965. Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $3,840,000.00. The remaining $2,030,000.00 principal amount of said authorized issue may be sold when and as determined by said Board of Supervisors, but it is anticipated will not be offered for sale prior to April 1st, 1966.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five per cent (5%) per annum, payable annually for the first year on December 15th, 1966, and semi-annually thereafter on December 15 and on June 15 in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-eighth or one-twentieth of one per cent per annum payable as aforesaid. Each bond must bear interest from its date to its fixed maturity date at the rate specified in the bid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:

$ 20,000.00	1-8	1966-1967
25,000.00	9-28	1968-1971
20,000.00	29-52	1972-1977
100,000.00	53-72	1978
130,000.00	73-98	1979
145,000.00	99-127	1980
200,000.00	128-167	1981
250,000.00	168-217	1982
260,000.00	218-269	1983
275,000.00	270-324	1984
190,000.00	325-362	1985

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America, National Trust and Savings Association in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or at the option of the holder at the respective offices of the paying agents of said County in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said school district. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said district on April 20th, 1965, and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said school district and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said school district, subject to taxation by said school district (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and, in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond at the expense of the successful bidder, if requested in his bid.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the district would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided, that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of NOVATO-SAN JOSE UNIFIED School District of Marin County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000.00 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of delivery of the bonds.

Dated: November 23, 1965.

GEO. H. GNOSS,
County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of Marin County, California.

Three Inmates Due New Trials

Three Death Row inmates at San Quentin Prison were scheduled to go on trial today in Santa Ana to determine if their sentences should be reduced from death to life imprisonment.

They are Joseph Rosoto, John Vlahovich and Donald Franklin, who have been at the prison since July, 1960.

The State Supreme Court ordered a new penalty trial because the Orange County district attorney told the jury the trio could be freed on parole in seven years if given life sentences.

The three men were convicted of hiring a man to murder Leslie Simpson, an Anaheim tavern owner, who was shot outside his home Feb. 7, 1959.

Ex-President Is Recovering

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Former president Adolfo Lopez Mateos was reported getting along well today after a four-hour brain operation to remove a blood clot.

Dr. Gregorio Gonzalez Mariscal, a Mexican brain specialist, said: "I am very happy about the results."

Lopez Mateos, 55, was sent to the hospital last week after suffering severe headaches and loss of control of his left eye.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Kidney Stone Dissolution Can Be Done, But Not With Ease

VAN DELLEN

Is it possible to dissolve kidney stones? Yes, and we have written on this treatment on several occasions. It has never been a popular remedy because washing out the kidneys is time consuming and fluid strong enough to dissolve stones is likely to be irritating. A new report from West Germany sounds encouraging because physicians were able to dissolve all the concretions that were less than six months old.

ACCORDING TO an abstract in International Medical Digest, two irrigating solutions designated A and B were inrtoduced via a catheter into the small tube that connects the bladder and kidney (ureter) on the involved side. Solution A contained chemicals that dissolved the framework (organic matrix) of the stone; B was designed to dissolve the mineral layers. One of the substances in B allowed a longer period of irrigation because of a chemical that reduced irritation of the delicate membranes.

Each daily treatment took from 15 to 20 hours. Stones older than six months did not respond so well but the over-all percentages on 260 patients were encouraging. The majority were dissolved completely or partially. The procedure takes so long that it is not practical. In addition, it is difficult to determine the age of a kidney stone.

THE PASSAGE of these rough and irregular rocks is accompanied by intense pain. Soreness usually begins over the kidney area and radiates into the groin. The victim moans and squirms as the discomfort increases in severity. Relief is obtained with painkilling drugs or after the stone is expelled, dissolved, or removed surgically.

Knowing the chemical composition of the calculi helps to prevent recurrences especially when the original cause remains. Some people are known stone formers whereas others develop concretions under certain conditions. Victims of gout, for example, may form a uric acid stone when excessive amounts of the chemical are excreted in the urine as a result of treatment. Others develop stones because they drink too little water, overindulge in calcium-rich foods, consume excessive vitamin D, or remain too long in bed as a result of illness or accident.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if a stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

INJECTIONS ARE SAFE

M. M. writes: Are babies ever harmed by the "shots" doctors give them?

REPLY

Reactions occur occasionally but they do far less damage than the diseases against which the protective injections are given.

AGE AND CONTAGION

Mrs. T. writes: At what age are children likely to go through the various contagious diseases?

REPLY

Most contagious diseases occur when the child starts to school—between the ages of 5 and 7.

ARTHRITIS AND INNER ORGANS

O. Z. writes: Can arthritis affect the bowel and kidneys?

REPLY

These organs usually escape, even though some types of arthritis are generalized diseases and extend beyond the confines of the joints.

ALLERGY AND THE HEART

F. B. G. writes: Could allergy cause heart trouble?

REPLY

This is a moot question. Some persons, overly sensitive to the effects of alcohol, coffee, tea, and tobacco, suffer from paliptation of the heart when these substances are used.

FLUCTUANT FEVER

H.P. writes: What is remittent fever?

REPLY

A remittent fever is one that fluctuates. This up and down tendency is noted in diseases such as brucellosis and relapsing fever. Years ago, a severe form of malaria was dubbed remittent fever.

State To Get Biggest Share Of Federal Scholarship Fund

By RONALD L. SOBLE

SACRAMENTO (AP) — If a California high school student can clear higher education's academic hurdles, the federal government will boost him over the financial barriers.

That's the heart of a section in the federal Higher Education Act of 1965, which promises a multi-million dollar bonus to California.

Signed into law by President Johnson Nov. 8, the bill authorizes a total appropriation of $841.4 million with $160 million earmarked for the 1965-66 fiscal year.

California's share is conservatively estimated at $22.5 million for the present fiscal year—the highest in the nation.

The legislature will have to hammer out the program's administration and determine what state funds will be needed.

"Its full impact probably won't be felt until the summer of next year at the earliest," says Keith Sexton, associate director of the Coordinating Council for Higher Education.

Here's what the plan will provide:

Scholarships ranging from $200 to $1,000 a year with high schools expected to use a "scouting system" to find and recommend outstanding academic talent to colleges and universities.

Arthur S. Marmaduke, executive director of the California State Scholarship Commission, predicts this section "will approximately double the amount of scholarship money" available to college students in the near future. California will receive $5.9 million in the current fiscal year.

Student loans insured through the federal government or a state or private agency with banks and savings and loan associations doing the actual lending.

A college work-study program in which colleges and universities will receive from the federal government 90 per cent of the cost of providing part-time jobs for needy students.

A National Teacher Corp to bring quality education into low income areas, with financing to come next year.

Fellowships for teachers.

Reaction from bankers to the government-backed student loans has been mixed.

Loans — for the first time — would be insured by the federal government for the full 100 per cent of the unpaid principal. If a state or private agency insures the loan, it would be insured up to only 80 per cent.

"The system has high social value," asserts a spokesman for Bank of America, which negotiates more private student loans in California than any other financial institution.

"There's no high risk involved — not with the federal government behind it."

But a spokesman for Wells Fargo declared there was some risk since "you don't know very much about freshmen or sophomores in college." He said the default rate in some private student loan programs was "higher than I'd like to see."

The insurance system will generally cover loans to a maximum of $5,000 for undergraduates and $7,500 for graduates. Loan periods will run for a maximum period of 15 years at 6 per cent annual interest.

California is allocated $642,000 in federal funds for fiscal 1965-66 if the state elects to use the money for an insurance fund.

Students from families whose income is under a gross figure of roughly $20,000 would be eligible for a loan without paying interest while in school. After graduation, the student would have to pay half the interest. Students whose families have a gross income of over $20,000 also could get loans, but would have to pay full interest.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL DISTRICT BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, at the office of the County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of said Board of Supervisors in the Civic Center, City of San Rafael, in said County, California, on Tuesday, the 14th day of December, 1965, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. for the purchase of bonds of NOVATO-SAN JOSE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF MARIN COUNTY, State of California, more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $1,810,000.00 1965 School Bonds, Series A, consisting of 362 bonds of the denomination of $5,000.00 each, numbered A-1 to A-362, inclusive, all dated December 15th, 1965. Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $3,840,000.00. The remaining $2,030,000.00 principal amount of said authorized issue may be sold when and as determined by said Board of Supervisors, but it is anticipated will not be offered for sale prior to April 1st, 1966.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five per cent (5%) per annum, payable annually for the first year on December 15th, 1966, and semi-annually thereafter on December 15 and on June 15 in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-eighth or one-twentieth of one per cent per annum payable as aforesaid. Each bond must bear interest from its date to its fixed maturity date at the rate specified in the bid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:

1965

$ 20,000.00	1-8	1966-1967
25,000.00	9-28	1968-1971
20,000.00	29-52	1972-1977
100,000.00	53-72	1978
130,000.00	73-98	1979
145,000.00	99-127	1980
200,000.00	128-167	1981
250,000.00	168-217	1982
260,000.00	218-269	1983
275,000.00	270-324	1984
190,000.00	325-362	1985

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America, National Trust and Savings Association in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or at the option of the holder at the respective offices of the paying agents of said County in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said school district. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said district on April 20th, 1965, and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said school district and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said school district, subject to taxation by said school district (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and, in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond at the expense of the successful bidder, if requested in his bid.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the district would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided, that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of NOVATO-SAN JOSE UNIFIED School District of Marin County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000.00 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of delivery of the bonds.

Dated: November 23, 1965.

Education Board Checks Three Peacock Sites

San Rafael Board of Education members yesterday afternoon slogged through the mud of Peacock Gap checking over three possible school sites, and then agreed to ask the county counsel to order appraisals for each of them.

The board members first saw the site which had been turned down a year ago, five acres at Riviera and Biscayne drives. Then they examined a seven-acre area northeast of the old McNear barn, on the west side of the golf course.

Finally, they were shown a 25-acre parcel, including both the second site and the McNear barn. Supt. Bert C. Corona said an elementary and junior high school might be located there.

After the Peacock Gap trip, the board toured the almost completed additions to San Rafael High School.

Sentencing Set For Kidnaper

OROVILLE (AP) — Bobby Gene Miller, 35, is to be sentenced Friday for a prison break, kidnaping, two auto thefts and burglary. He pleaded guilty last Friday.

Superior Court Judge Jean Morony set the day for sentencing.

Miller was serving a robbery term when he escaped from Megalia Honor Camp and kidnaped Mrs. Sharon Gore, 18, of nearby Nelson.

Novato Asks Help On Cemetery Data

For many years the Pioneer Memorial Cemetery on Simmons Lane, Novato, was unattended, and vandals broke, tipped over and moved grave markers.

Now the Novato Parks and Recreation Department is trying to set things right again, and has asked for help. Any friend or relative of persons buried at the cemetery, now a city park, who has any idea of proper location of graves, will be welcomed by the department.

The city has located 112 graves, and has 15 names, but no official knows which names go with which graves, or to whom the anonymous graves belonged.

A group from the Seventh Day Adventist Church once cleaned up the cemetery and reset the tombstones. The next night the vandals hit again, causing new confusion.

It was after that incident that the city took action to make the cemetery a park.

Belvedere Art Exhibit To Help Young Teams

An art show and sale to benefit Little League basketball teams being formed in Tiburon and Belvedere will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at the Crocker-Citizens National Bank in the Boardwalk Shopping Center, Belvedere.

The show and the basketball teams are being sponsored by the Shark Lions Club.

Farmers' Votes Due

Marin County farmers and ranchers must mail their ballots for county committeemen to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service by tomorrow, or cast their ballots in person at the ASC Office, 515 Hahman Drive, Santa Rosa, by Thursday, according to A. J. Biachi, Marin County chairman.

Negroes' Ballet Signups Gain

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — An expected upswing continued through October in Negro voter registration in Louisiana, a report of the State Board of registration showed today.

Among 1,221,874 registered voters in the state on Oct. 31, there were 1,013,423 whites and 208,451 Negroes. The Negro total was an increase of 2,389 over the Sept. 30 total of 206,062. The Negro registration total was 163,453 at the end of July, before a new federal law on voter registration took effect.

Louisiana has over 2,000,000 citizens of voting age. About 600,000 of these are Negro.

Almost 1 million persons disappear in the United State each year.

If your car is an antique . . .

This Happens Every Day!

I had an old car and decided I'd keep her
Thought I'd fix her up and get by cheaper
I paid a hundred bucks for a new set of tires
Bought a new fuel pump and new ignition wires
Had the motor overhauled, bought a new carburetor
Brakes were relined and a new generator.
THEN . . .
I looked at my pocketbook and grabbed for my head
I SHOULD HAVE BOUGHT A GOOD USED CAR INSTEAD!

Three Inmates Due New Trials

Three Death Row inmates at San Quentin Prison were scheduled to go on trial today in Santa Ana to determine if their sentences should be reduced from death to life imprisonment.

They are Joseph Rosoto, John Vlahovich and Donald Franklin, who have been at the prison since July, 1960.

The State Supreme Court ordered a new penalty trial because the Orange County district attorney told the jury the trio could be freed on parole in seven years if given life sentences.

The three men were convicted of hiring a man to murder Leslie Simpson, an Anaheim tavern owner, who was shot outside his home Feb. 7, 1959.

Ex-President Is Recovering

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Former president Adolfo Lopez Mateos was reported getting along well today after a four-hour brain operation to remove a blood clot.

Dr. Gregorio Gonzalez Mariscal, a Mexican brain specialist, said: "I am very happy about the results."

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

Is it possible to dissolve kidney stones? Yes, and we have written on this treatment on several occasions. It has never been a popular remedy because washing out the kidneys is time consuming and fluid strong enough to dissolve stones is likely to be irritating. A new report from West Germany sounds encouraging because physicians were able to dissolve all the concretions that were less than six months old.

ACCORDING TO an abstract in International Medical Digest, two irrigating solutions designated A and B were inrtoduced via a catheter into the small tube that connects the bladder and kidney (ureter) on the involved side. Solution A contained chemicals that dissolved the framework (organic matrix) of the stone; B was designed to dissolve the mineral layers. One of the substances in B allowed a longer period of irrigation because of a chemical that reduced irritation of the delicate membranes.

Each daily treatment took from 15 to 20 hours. Stones older than six months did not respond so well but the over-all percentages on 260 patients were encouraging. The majority were dissolved completely or partially. The procedure takes so long that it is not practical. In addition, it is difficult to determine the age of a kidney stone.

THE PASSAGE of these rough and irregular rocks is accompanied by intense pain. Soreness usually begins over the kidney area and radiates into the groin. The victim moans and squirms as the discomfort increases in severity. Relief is obtained with painkilling drugs or after the stone is expelled, dissolved, or removed surgically.

Knowing the chemical composition of the calculi helps to prevent recurrences especially when the original cause remains. Some people are known stone formers whereas others develop concretions under certain conditions. Victims of gout, for example, may form a uric acid stone when excessive amounts of the chemical are excreted in the urine as a result of treatment. Others develop stones because they drink too little water, overindulge in calcium-rich foods, consume excessive vitamin D, or remain too long in bed as a result of illness or accident.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if a stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

INJECTIONS ARE SAFE

M. M. writes: Are babies ever harmed by the "shots" doctors give them?

REPLY

Reactions occur occasionally but they do far less damage than the diseases against which the protective injections are given.

AGE AND CONTAGION

Mrs. T. writes: At what age are children likely to go through the various contagious diseases?

REPLY

Most contagious diseases occur when the child starts to school—between the ages of 5 and 7.

ARTHRITIS AND INNER ORGANS

O. Z. writes: Can arthritis affect the bowel and kidneys?

REPLY

These organs usually escape, even though some types of arthritis are generalized diseases and extend beyond the confines of the joints.

ALLERGY AND THE HEART

F. B. G. writes: Could allergy cause heart trouble?

REPLY

This is a moot question. Some persons, overly sensitive to the effects of alcohol, coffee, tea, and tobacco, suffer from paliptation of the heart when these substances are used.

FLUCTUANT FEVER

H.P. writes: What is remittent fever?

REPLY

A remittent fever is one that fluctuates. This up and down tendency is noted in diseases such as brucellosis and relapsing fever. Years ago, a severe form of malaria was dubbed remittent fever.

State To Get Biggest Share Of Federal Scholarship Fund

By RONALD L. SOBLE

SACRAMENTO (AP) — If a California high school student can clear higher education's academic hurdles, the federal government will boost him over the financial barriers.

That's the heart of a section in the federal Higher Education Act of 1965, which promises a multi-million dollar bonus to California.

Signed into law by President Johnson Nov. 8, the bill authorizes a total appropriation of $841.4 million with $160 million earmarked for the 1965-66 fiscal year.

California's share is conservatively estimated at $22.5 million for the present fiscal year—the highest in the nation.

The legislature will have to hammer out the program's administration and determine what state funds will be needed.

"Its full impact probably won't be felt until the summer of next year at the earliest," says Keith Sexton, associate director of the Coordinating Council for Higher Education.

Here's what the plan will provide:

Scholarships ranging from $200 to $1,000 a year with high schools expected to use a "scouting system" to find and recommend outstanding academic talent to colleges and universities.

Arthur S. Marmaduke, executive director of the California State Scholarship Commission, predicts this section "will approximately double the amount of scholarship money" available to college students in the near future. California will receive $5.9 million in the current fiscal year.

Student loans insured through the federal government or a state or private agency with banks and savings and loan associations doing the actual lending.

A college work-study program in which colleges and universities will receive from the federal government 90 per cent of the cost of providing part-time jobs for needy students.

A National Teacher Corp to bring quality education into low income areas, with financing to come next year.

Fellowships for teachers.

Reaction from bankers to the government-backed student loans has been mixed.

Loans — for the first time — would be insured by the federal government for the full 100 per cent of the unpaid principal. If a state or private agency insures the loan, it would be insured up to only 80 per cent.

"The system has high social value," asserts a spokesman for Bank of America, which negotiates more private student loans in California than any other financial institution.

But a spokesman for Wells Fargo declared there was some risk since "you don't know very much about freshmen or sophomores in college." He said the default rate in some private student loan programs was "higher than I'd like to see."

The insurance system will generally cover loans to a maximum of $5,000 for undergraduates and $7,500 for graduates. Loan periods will run for a maximum period of 15 years at 6 per cent annual interest.

California is allocated $642,000 in federal funds for fiscal 1965-66 if the state elects to use the money for an insurance fund.

Students from families whose income is under a gross figure of roughly $20,000 would be eligible for a loan without paying interest while in school. After graduation, the student would have to pay half the interest. Students whose families have a gross income of over $20,000 also could get loans, but would have to pay full interest.

Easy Throttle On Snowy Road

TRUCKEE (AP)—Often when a car slides into a snowbank during winter driving, the motorist's first reaction is to pour on the horsepower.

What happens?

"If you gun it, all you do is sit there and dig a hole," says Lt. Oliver P. Ledford of the California Highway Patrol.

His district covers the Donner Summit area on busy Interstate 80 in the Sierra, where the winter's snowfall, compacted, runs 10 feet or more.

Ledford, who drives his patrol car up to 30,000 miles a year, said in an interview that the way to get out is to ease off on the throttle.

"Let the car almost idle out. The slower you go the more chance you've got. A lot of times you can let a little air out of your tires to increase friction."

The same principle applies going up a snowy or icy hill.

"I've followed people going up the summit spinning their wheel all the way. The slower they go the more they gun it and the worse off they are.

"Let the car pull itself along to the point where the wheels begin to slip. Then slack off a little."

The first precaution for safe winter driving is to have good tires and to carry tire chains, Ledford advises.

"Your stopping distance in snow with chains is about 10 times what it is on dry pavement. You must allow plenty of clearance between you and the car in front. This is where we have an awful lot of our accidents—driving too fast on snow and forgetting you can't stop as fast."

Snow tires go well under certain conditions, but are not as effective as chains on ice or hard-parked snow, he said.

Braking while going down a slippery hill will put the car into a skid. Instead, let the engine compression hold the car back by putting the car into a lower gear and easing off on the gas pedal, Ledford advises. Braking locks the wheels and robs the driver of control.

"We use the emergency brake to slow down a lot of times," he says.

But don't leave the emergency brake on overnight when the car is out, Ledford said, particularly on cars with disc brakes. The brake is likely to freeze.

Motorists stuck in a snowbank along the highway during a storm should wait for help, Ledford said. Those in newer cars can safely run the engine to keep the heater going if they get out once in a while to make certain the exhaust pipe is free of snow or other obstruction. In older cars the engine should be turned off, he said.

Brown Names New Public Health Head

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Dr. Lester Breslow was appointed Saturday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown as the director of the Department of Public Health.

Dr. Greslow succeeds Dr. Malcom H. Merrill, who resigned to become chief of health services for the U.S. Agency for International Development's Office of Technical Cooperation and Research.

Breslow's appointment is subject to Senate confirmation. The director's salary is $26,000 a year.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota Medical School, Dr. Breslow joined the health department in 1946 as chief of the Bureau of Chronic Diseases. He was director of the study for the President's Commission on Health Needs of the nation in 1952.

The governor thanked the special committee of doctors and medical leaders who developed a list of candidates for the director's job. The committee was headed by Dr. John Porterfield, coordinator of medical and health services at the University of California.

Receiver Stolen

Supervisors Face Bolinas Zone Debate

Marin County supervisors tomorrow will again be faced with the debate on proposed open area zoning for Bolinas Lagoon.

The meeting of the board will begin at 9 a.m. at the Civic Center. Hearing on the lagoon is not scheduled until 3 p.m.

Six months ago, faced with protests to the zone from the Bolinas Harbor District and two property owners who planned commercial recreation development, the supervisors postponed any decision.

In the meantime, the harbor district was expected to prepare a master plan for development.

Bahia Baulinas, Inc., and a group including Wilma Leonard and other owners of land on the lagoon's east shore each have plans for commercial recreation. Bahia Baulinas already holds a sub-lease with the harbor district.

Both groups have asked resort-recreation zoning in conflice with the proposed open area zoning.

Also on tomorrow's agenda is a request from Probation Director Walter H. Busher for a Sierra "retreat" for 18 youths who will be moved from Juvenile Hall into the family rehabilitation center nearing completion in Lucas Valley.

Before the Jan. 17 move, Busher said, the retreat would emphasize the changes taking place and would allow the youths to get used to the idea of not being behind closed doors.

He suggests they be given three days in the Sierra prior to a two-day weekend at home before entering the new center.

Funds are in the budget to cover the anticipated $630 cost of the trip, Busher said. Transportation would be provided by the county schools office.

Stolen Car Found Parked In Tiburon

A car reported parked for three weeks in front of the home of Fred C. Claudio, Building M, Hilarita Housing, Tiburon, turned out to be one stolen in Novato on Nov. 4.

Claudino reported the 1964 yellow Falcon to the Tiburon sheriff's substation Saturday. The car, owned by Dervin Ford Co., Novato, was unlocked and had no keys or registration.

Storms Strike Italian Coast

ROME (AP) — Storms lashed the Italian coasts today for the sixth day, keeping shipping double-anchored in ports and wrecking beach resort cabins.

Anchor chains snapped on light freighters in Naples harbor, and crews struggled to keep the ships off the rocks. Waves splashed over coastal highways around the city.

Heavy snowfall was reported in the Alps.

Club To Meet

The Miller Avenue Breakfast Club, a group of business and professional people on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley, will meet at 7 a.m. Thursday at Spangler Hall, First Baptist Church, 285 Miller Avenue.

Blender Stolen

An electric blender valued at $40 was reported stolen from Varney's Hardware, 57 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, Saturday between 8 a.m. and 4:50 p.m. Owner S. W. Schneider told police the blender was taken from a shelf in front of the store.

Nearly 2,600 miles of interstate highways were completed during 1964.

Indonesia Red Boss Disappears

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Unconfirmed reports that Indonesian Communist party boss D. N. Aidit had been arrested in central Java swept Jakarta today.

There was no official confirmation. Nor was their any confirmation of a report by Tokyo's newspaper Asahi that Aidit had been shot and killed Oct. 22 while trying to escape over a prison fence near Surakarta, in central Java.

The reports in Jakarta were that Aidit, who vanished after the Oct. 1 Communist-backed coup against President Sukarno collapsed, was seized in Surakarta.

Intelligence sources in Singapore, quoting information received from Indonesia, said Aidit's fate was still not known. They added it was unlikely Aidit was dead.

Faint Apparently Causes Collision

Henry J. Koch, 67, of 7 Stanton Way, told police he became ill at home and decided to drive to see Dr. John R. Lee at 279 Miller Avenue. As he was driving north on Sycamore Avenue, he said, he fainted and the next thing he remembered was waking up after his car collided head-on with the parked car of D. T. Bennett at 290 Sycamore. He was taken to Dr. Lee for treatment.

Backgammon is probably the oldest of dice games.

Education Board Checks Three Peacock Sites

San Rafael Board of Education members yesterday afternoon slogged through the mud of Peacock Gap checking over three possible school sites, and then agreed to ask the county counsel to order appraisals for each of them.

The board members first saw the site which had been turned down a year ago, five acres at Riviera and Biscayne drives. Then they examined a seven-acre area northeast of the old McNear barn, on the west side of the golf course.

Finally, they were shown a 25-acre parcel, including both the second site and the McNear barn. Supt. Bert C. Corona said an elementary and junior high school might be located there.

After the Peacock Gap trip, the board toured the almost completed additions to San Rafael High School.

Sentencing Set For Kidnaper

OROVILLE (AP) — Bobby Gene Miller, 35, is to be sentenced Friday for a prison break, kidnaping, two auto thefts and burglary. He pleaded guilty last Friday.

Superior Court Judge Jean Morony set the day for sentencing.

Miller was serving a robbery term when he escaped from Megalia Honor Camp and kidnaped Mrs. Sharon Gore, 18, of nearby Nelson.

Novato Asks Help On Cemetery Data

For many years the Pioneer Memorial Cemetery on Simmons Lane, Novato, was unattended, and vandals broke, tipped over and moved grave markers.

Now the Novato Parks and Recreation Department is trying to set things right again, and has asked for help. Any friend or relative of persons buried at the cemetery, now a city park, who has any idea of proper location of graves, will be welcomed by the department.

The city has located 112 graves, and has 15 names, but no official knows which names go with which graves, or to whom the anonymous graves belonged.

A group from the Seventh Day Adventist Church once cleaned up the cemetery and reset the tombstones. The next night the vandals hit again, causing new confusion.

It was after that incident that the city took action to make the cemetery a park.

Belvedere Art Exhibit To Help Young Teams

An art show and sale to benefit Little League basketball teams being formed in Tiburon and Belvedere will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday at the Crocker-Citizens National Bank in the Boardwalk Shopping Center, Belvedere.

The show and the basketball teams are being sponsored by the Shark Lions Club.

Farmers' Votes Due

Marin County farmers and ranchers must mail their ballots for county committeemen to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service by tomorrow, or cast their ballots in person at the ASC Office, 515 Hahman Drive, Santa Rosa, by Thursday, according to A. J. Biachi, Marin County chairman.

Negroes' Ballet Signups Gain

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — An expected upswing continued through October in Negro voter registration in Louisiana, a report of the State Board of registration showed today.

Among 1,221,874 registered voters in the state on Oct. 31, there were 1,013,423 whites and 208 451 Negroes. The Negro total was an increase of 2,389 over the Sept. 30 total of 206,062. The Negro registration total was 163,453 at the end of July, before a new federal law on voter registration took effect.

Louisiana has over 2,000,000 citizens of voting age. About 600,000 of these are Negro.

Almost 1 million persons disappear in the United States each year.

NFL Grabs Quick Lead In Dollar War

By MIKE RATHET
and MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writers

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League has taken a quick lead over the American League in signing draft choices, but the major battles in the checkbook war figure to be fought over two obviously talented and plainly uncommitted player — Tommy Nobis and Jim Grabowski.

Nobis, the Texas linebacker with a 20-inch neck, and Grabowski, the Illinois fullback with Red Grange's records, are the only remaining competitive first-round choices unsigned since the bidding war began Saturday while the drafts were being conducted.

Long before the AFL ended selecting after 17 hours and 59 minutes and the NFL closed down draft headquarters after 30 hours and 50 minutes, it became evident that some players were committed to certain teams — before the draft — and were therefore being avoided by others.

The most significant factors leading to that interpretation were three-fold: The length of time some teams took before making first-round selections, the low number of duplicated first-round choices and the quick rash of signings — 28 in the NFL and seven in the AFL.

Only three players were picked by both leagues on the first round, Nobis, Grabowski and Purdue tackle Jerry Shay, who signed with the NFL's Minnesota Vikings after being picked in the AFL draft by Denver.

Nobis, tapped as the No. 1 pick in the NFL draft by the new Atlanta Falcons, also was picked on the first round by Houston. Grabowski, the No. 1 pick in the AFL draft by the new Miami Dolphins, also was selected on the first round by Green Bay.

And now the bidding starts.

It is possible that the bidding for Nobis, an All-America last season and a leading candidate for the Outland Trophy as the top lineman in the country, will go as high as it did for Dick Butkus last year. Butkus received a reported $200,000 for signing with the Chicago Bears.

NO RUSH

Nobis won't be rushed either. "I don't know what I'll do," he said. "I haven't really talked business with either one of them. A team in my home state will not be a factor. It all depends on the offers."

The offers can be astronomical. There was a report from the Midwest that one back from the sector had suggested that the bidding for his services start in the $500,000 neighborhood — which would top the figure the New York Jets reportedly gave quarterback Joe Namath last year.

The name linked with the report was Grabowski, the power-running fullback who broke Grange's career and single game rushing records at Illinois.

Besides Nobis and Grabowski, five other NFL first-round choices are not signed, Oklahoma linebacker Carl McAdams, picked by St. Louis; Princeton kicker Charlie Gogolak, tapped by Washington; Missouri tackle Francis Peay, selected by New York; Massachusetts end Milt Morin, taken by Cleveland; Mississippi defensive end Stan Hindman.

The AFL signed three first-round picks, Michigan tackle

49ERS DRAFT EX-TAM STAR ELMER COLLETT

Elmer Collett, former Tamalpais High and College of Marin gridder who starred this season at San Francisco State, was among the future draft selections of the San Francisco 49ers over the weekend.

Collett, 6-4 and 227 pounds, is an offensive guard at S. F. State and was drafted No. 15 by the 49ers. He was an offensive tackle and defensive guard at Tam and was graduated in 1962. He played at College of Marin in the 1962 and 1963 seasons and sat out the 1964 season.

His father, Charles Elmer Collett, said today his son will finish his senior year at S. F. State where he still has another year of football eligibility. The Colletts live at 270 Molino Avenue, Mill Valley.

Horror Shows On TV: Patterson, Vikings Blame It On Bad Backs

Television was no place for humanitarians during the past week. Women and children and men with weak stomachs were advised to stick to radio, soap operas or comic books, because the coaxial cables delivered onto us only one-sided mayhem in the worst degree.

It was a week of mismatches, two of which come to mind, starting off with last Monday's Clay-Patterson ambush on closed-circuit TV and winding up with yesterday's 49er rout of the Minnesota Vikings, 45-24, which was free for the watching.

A foreigner watching either of these two events for the first time would wonder about American sporting events and probably compare them with Little Big Horn and the St. Valentine's Day Massacre. These two belong in that category.

A FRIEND of mine who watched both events on television went home last night and beat his wife and kids and kicked the dog, figuring cruel and inhuman punishment had been legalized.

Mr. Patterson had an excuse for his poor showing against the Ali Cat—a bad back.

The Vikings, then, had several excuses yesterday—several bad backs, not to mention a few lousy linemen. The 49ers against the Vikes was like Clay against MRS. Floyd Patterson. If the pro gridders used Marquis of Queensberry rules the refs would have stopped it at halftime.

DON'T LET the Vikings' 24 points fool you. Their last couple of touchdowns were what golfers call "gimmes." A couple of weeks ago Vike Coach Norm Van Brocklin quit in a moment of frustration, then changed his mind and decided to stay. I keep checking the wires to see if the Dutchman has left the country after this one.

IT WAS slapstick comedy at times. Three times the Vike kickoff receivers dropped the ball. Once a white piece of equipment flew off the ball carrier. I'm not going to guess at what it was, but it snapped off.

FIRST STRING Vike quarterback Fran Tarkenton was so bad that they benched him and sent in Ron VanderKelen, who was twice as bad. His teammates blocked and went after passes like they were mad at HIM. He was hacked so much I thought he'd start taking some foul shots. In one frustrating moment he passed with two hands, underhanded. And completed it, which was novel.

It's difficult to say if the Vikings were that bad or the 49ers that good. But the way Brodie, Willard, Parks & Co. played, San Francisco fans are in for some good football. I'm sure glad we don't live in Minnesota.

I WAS NOT surprised to see the 49ers pick Mississippi's Stan Hindman as their number one draft choice. He is a pre-med student and the 49ers have been bugged by injuries, so . . . well, you get the idea. Now, we have on our roster a Casey (not has-Ben), a Johnson & Johnson and now a "Dr. Sock," Baby.. I know the medical profession has become specialized, but a defensive specialist? Crazy!!

Buckpasser Is Officially Named 2-Year-Old Champ

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Buckpasser, who won nine of his 11 races and established a money winning record for 2-year-olds with earnings of $598,596, was named today as the champion 2-year-old colt of 1965 by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations.

Selection of Ogden Phipps' home-bred son of Tom Fool Busanda by War Admiral was made by the racing secretaries of the TRA's 33 member tracks. The TRA board of selection previously announced selection of Mrs. Theodora A. Randolph's Bon Nouvel as the champion steeplechase performer for the second straight year.

The TRA, which opens a three-day meeting here Tuesday, will honor the champions at its annual dinner Dec. 2.

Buckpasser, fourth in his first start and beaten by the filly, Priceless Gem, in the Futurity at Aqueduct, won six stakes en route to the championship. He took the National Stallion, Tremont and Champagne at Aqueduct, Monmouth Park's Sapling, the Hopeful at Saratoga and the Arlington Washington Futurity.

'Unknown' Top 49er Draftee

Stan Hindman was an unknown name among most Bay Area football fans before the San Francisco 49ers drafted him No. 1 last Saturday. But so were Dave Parks in 1963 and Ken Willard in 1964.

Ask any of these fans who Parks and Willard are now. They're two big reasons the 49ers are now 6-5 in the National Football League. If you can use the recent record of the 49er scouts, Hindman just might be what the doctor ordered for the team's defensive line.

Hindman was a guard at Mississippi, stands 6-3 and weighs 235 pounds. Plans of the 49ers are that he will be used as a defensive end to provide some pass rushing, something that the club hasn't had since end Dan Colchico was knocked out of the lineup with an ankle injury.

WEAK POINT

The defense has been the 49ers weak point and that's just where the drafting centered around. Big linemen and defensive backs.

Although the No. 2 selection was Bob Windson of Kentucky, a future choice for the tight end spot, numbers three and four were defensive backs Alvin Randolph (6-2, 186) from Iowa and Don Bland (5-11, 190) from Mississippi State.

The complete list of 49er draftees, designating future picks who still have college ability:

Al Dark To Manage Kansas City A's; Vows New Look, Wide-Open Attack

By RON SPEER

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Alvin Dark promises to provide Kansas City with an exciting new look in 1966 when he attempts to guide the Athletics out of the American League cellar.

The new manager of the A's, operating in the American League for the first time after a star-studded career as a player and manager in the National League, says Kansas City will "run and run and run."

Dark says he considers the opportunity to take over a last-place club "a real challenge" after managing San Francisco to four first-division finishes in his only other managerial stint.

"When I went to the Giants they were fifth and were expected to win the pennant. We did in two years and it wasn't so much because it was expected.

"Now at Kansas City everything we do will have to be worked for, and we feel that whatever we do we will be accomplishing something."

The naming of Dark a few minutes after the announcement that Haywood Sullivan was quitting as manager of the A's to join the front office of the Boston Red Sox highlighted the opening of the annual meeting of major and minor league baseball officials.

Drafting of minor league players was scheduled today with Kansas City getting the first draft choice and the New York Mets the second.

Most clubs indicated they hoped to pick up one or two young prospects.

Among the minor league players likely to be chosen by the leagues were pitchers Galen Cisco of Buffalo, Carlton Willey of Buffalo, Frank Carpin of Columbus, Ohio, Ed Rakow of Syracuse and Bob Garibaldi of Tacoma, and outfielders Jim Beauchamp of Richmond, Elvio Jiminez of Toledo, Gary Geiger of Toronto and Jim Werhas of Spokane.

The minor league activities, however, were overshadowed by Dark's return to the managerial ranks.

Only three months ago he said he was not interested in managing the Athletics, but he explained after accepting the job that "every manager always wants to manage again."

Dark was given a two-year contract at $40,000 a year by Kansas City owner Charles Finley, who last Aug. 28 hired Dark away from the Cubs where he had spent the summer coaching.

Dark was released as San Francisco manager a year ago after the Giants finished fourth in the National League, their worst showing under the 43-year-old former All-Star shortstop.

Dark managed San Francisco to the pennant in 1962 but the Giants lost the World Series in seven games to the New York Yankees.

Dark said he does not expect Kansas City to become a contender overnight "because we've got a long way to go.

"But we've got a pretty good team. We will do a lot of running. We will sacrifice, squeeze,

Phils Swap Amaro For Yanks' Linz

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The New York Yankees traded infielder Phil Linz to the Philadelphia Phillies for infielder Ruben Amaro today in the first inter-league trade of the season.

Linz, 26, batted .207 in 99 games with the Yanks last season. Amaro, 29, former Cardinal farmhand, batted .215 for the Phils in 118 games but hit .264 in 1964 when he won the Golden Glove Award as the leading shortstop in the National League.

"With the injury problems Tony Kubek has had the last two years, we felt we needed to protect ourselves at shortstop," said Yankee General Manager Ralph Houk. "We hate to lose Linz but we feel Amaro can better fulfill our needs."

Five TD Passes, 49ers Rip Vikes

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—John Brodie, San Francisco's much maligned quarterback, owned two 49er passing records today and was within striking distance of two others.

All this came about when the veteran quarterback, now in his ninth season as a pro, threw five touchdown passes yesterday enroute to a 45-24 San Francisco victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

The five scoring passes gave Brodie 24 touchdown pitches for 1965, beating the old club record of 20 set by Y.A. Tittle in 1953. Frankie Albert threw 29 TD passes during the 1948 season but the 49ers then were operating in the old All-American Conference.

In all, Brodie connected on 10 of 21 passes and gained 209 yards. That gave him 179 completions in 287 passing attempts this year for still another mark. Tittle completed 176 of 279 throws during the 1957 season.

Brodie has gained 2,458 yards on his passes this year and is just 130 yards short of tieing his own club record set in 1961. Albert holds the San Francisco team record of 306 passing attempts set in 1950.

Thus, with three games still to go, Brodie is in position to break Albert's passes attempted record and his own yardage gained for a single season mark.

The game against the Vikings was perhaps the best of the season for the 49ers. In addition to putting them over the .500 mark at 6-5, it also was a game during which they put everything together.

The offense clicked almost at will in the first half as Brodie passed San Francisco to a 35-10 lead. And the defense did such a good job of stopping the scrambling Fran Tarkenton that Minnesota coach Norm Van Brocklin had to get his quarterback out of there and use second stringer Ron Vander Kelen in his place. Earlier this season, Tarkenton passed the Vikings to a 42-41 decision over San Francisco in a game the 49ers led, 35-14, at the half.

The switch in passers hardly made a difference as the San Francisco defense stopped all but two Minnesota drives late in the game. They proved just so much wasted effort because of the big San Francisco lead.

Brodie threw his scoring strikes to John David Crow (47 and 9 yards), to Bernie Casey (39), Dave Kopay (20) and Dave Parks (30). Kopay scored another TD when he recovered a fumble by Ken Willard in the end zone. Tommy Davis chipped in with a 49-yard field goal just for good measure.

The victory gave the 49ers sole possession of fourth place in the National Football League's Western Division race and they now trail third-place Chicago by one game, second-place Green Bay by two and first-place Baltimore by three and one-half.

This Sunday, San Francisco plays Detroit at Kezar Stadium.

Easy Throttle On Snowy Road

TRUCKEE (AP)—Often when a car slides into a snowbank during winter driving, the motorist's first reaction is to pour on the horsepower.

What happens?

"If you gun it, all you do is sit there and dig a hole," says Lt. Oliver P. Ledford of the California Highway Patrol.

His district covers the Donner Summit area on busy Interstate 80 in the Sierra, where the winter's snowfall, compacted, runs 10 feet or more.

Ledford, who drives his patrol car up to 30,000 miles a year, said in an interview that the way to get out is to ease off on the throttle.

"Let the car almost idle out. The slower you go the more chance you've got. A lot of times you can let a little air out of your tires to increase friction."

The same principle applies going up a snowy or icy hill.

"I've followed people going up the summit spinning their wheel all the way. The slower they go the more they gun it and the worse off they are.

"Let the car pull itself along to the point where the wheels begin to slip. Then slack off a little."

The first precaution for safe winter driving is to have good tires and to carry tire chains, Ledford advises.

"Your stopping distance in snow with chains is about 10 times what it is on dry pavement. You must allow plenty of clearance between you and the car in front. This is where we have an awful lot of our accidents—driving too fast on snow and forgetting you can't stop as fast."

Snow tires go well under certain conditions, but are not as effective as chains on ice or hard-parked snow, he said.

Braking while going down a slippery hill will put the car into a skid. Instead, let the engine compression hold the car back by putting the car into a lower gear and easing off on the gas pedal, Ledford advises. Braking locks the wheels and robs the driver of control.

"We use the emergency brake to slow down a lot of times," he says.

But don't leave the emergency brake on overnight when the car is out, Ledford said, particularly on cars with disc brakes. The brake is likely to freeze.

Motorists stuck in a snowbank along the highway during a storm should wait for help, Ledford said. Those in newer cars can safely run the engine to keep the heater going if they get out once in a while to make certain the exhaust pipe is free of snow or other obstruction. In older cars the engine should be turned off, he said.

Indonesia Red Boss Disappears

There was no official confirmation. Nor was their any confirmation of a report by Tokyo's newspaper Asahi that Aidit had been shot and killed Oct. 22 while trying to escape over a prison fence near Surakarta, in central Java.

The reports in Jakarta were that Aidit, who vanished after the Oct. 1 Communist-backed coup against President Sukarno collapsed, was seized in Surakarta.

Intelligence sources in Singapore, quoting information received from Indonesia, said Aidit's fate was still not known. They added it was unlikely Aidit was dead.

Faint Apparently Causes Collision

Henry J. Koch, 67, of 7 Stanton Way, told police he became ill at home and decided to drive to see Dr. John R. Lee at 279 Miller Avenue. As he was driving north on Sycamore Avenue, he said, he fainted and the next thing he remembered was waking up after his car collided head-on with the parked car of D. T. Bennett at 290 Sycamore. He was taken to Dr. Lee for treatment.

Backgammon is probably the oldest of dice games.

Brown Names New Public Health Head

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Dr. Lester Breslow was appointed Saturday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown as the director of the Department of Public Health.

Dr. Greslow succeeds Dr. Malcom H. Merrill, who resigned to become chief of health services for the U.S. Agency for International Development's Office of Technical Cooperation and Research.

Breslow's appointment is subject to Senate confirmation. The director's salary is $26,000 a year.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota Medical School, Dr. Breslow joined the health department in 1946 as chief of the Bureau of Chronic Diseases. He was director of the study for the President's Commission on Health Needs of the nation in 1952.

The governor thanked the special committee of doctors and medical leaders who developed a list of candidates for the director's job. The committee was headed by Dr. John Porterfield, coordinator of medical and health services at the University of California.

Supervisors Face Bolinas Zone Debate

Marin County supervisors tomorrow will again be faced with the debate on proposed open area zoning for Bolinas Lagoon.

The meeting of the board will begin at 9 a.m. at the Civic Center. Hearing on the lagoon is not scheduled until 3 p.m.

Six months ago, faced with protests to the zone from the Bolinas Harbor District and two property owners who planned commercial recreation development, the supervisors postponed any decision.

In the meantime, the harbor district was expected to prepare a master plan for development.

Bahia Baulinas, Inc., and a group including Wilma Leonard and other owners of land on the lagoon's east shore each have plans for commercial recreation. Bahia Baulinas already holds a sub-lease with the harbor district.

Both groups have asked resort-recreation zoning in conflice with the proposed open area zoning.

Also on tomorrow's agenda is a request from Probation Director Walter H. Busher for a Sierra "retreat" for 18 youths who will be moved from Juvenile Hall into the family rehabilitation center nearing completion in Lucas Valley.

Before the Jan. 17 move, Busher said, the retreat would emphasize the changes taking place and would allow the youths to get used to the idea of not being behind closed doors.

He suggests they be given three days in the Sierra prior to a two-day weekend at home before entering the new center.

Funds are in the budget to cover the anticipated $630 cost of the trip, Busher said. Transportation would be provided by the county schools office.

Storms Strike Italian Coast

ROME (AP) — Storms lashed the Italian coasts today for the sixth day, keeping shipping double-anchored in ports and wrecking beach resort cabins.

Anchor chains snapped on light freighters in Naples harbor, and crews struggled to keep the ships off the rocks. Waves splashed over coastal highways around the city.

Heavy snowfall was reported in the Alps.

Club To Meet

The Miller Avenue Breakfast Club, a group of business and professional people on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley, will meet at 7 a.m. Thursday at Spangler Hall, First Baptist Church, 285 Miller Avenue.

Blender Stolen

An electric blender valued at $40 was reported stolen from Varney's Hardware, 57 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, Saturday between 8 a.m. and 4:50 p.m. Owner S. W. Schneider told police the blender was taken from a shelf in front of the store.

Nearly 2,600 miles of interstate highways were completed during 1964.

Browns Win Title; Rams Stun Packers

By HAL BLOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The yardage machine that wears number 32 and operates out of the Cleveland Browns' backfield is like any other piece of complicated machinery. It takes time to warm up.

So Jimmy Brown spent the first 30 minutes of yesterday's National Football League game against Pittsburgh doing less than spectacular damage to the Steelers. He managed just 19 yards in seven carries and Cleveland's lead was only 7-0 at halftime.

But 30 minutes is more time than Brown gives most of Cleveland's NFL opponents so he didn't waste any after the intermission.

The bruising fullback took off on a 67-yard sprint on the first play from scrimmage in the third period. Five plays later he barrelled into the end zone with the first of his four touchdowns for the day and the Browns were on their way to a 42-21 romp and their second consecutive Eastern Conference crown.

Brown carried 13 times in the second half, gaining 128 yards — a full game's work for most good runners.

He scored on runs of three, two and 15 yards and caught a 27-yard TD pass from Jim Ninowski. The four touchdowns gave him 19 for the season, a career high.

The Browns needed help to clinch the Eastern crown and got it from Chicago and Philadelphia. The Bears whipped New York 35-14 and the Eagles edged St. Louis 28-24, eliminating the only clubs who still had a shot at Cleveland.

RAMS STUN PACKERS

In the Western Conference, Los Angeles gave a big boost to Baltimore's hopes for a second straight championship by upsetting No. 1 contender Green Bay 21-10. In other NFL games yesterday, Washington nipped Dallas 34-31 and San Francisco walloped Minnesota 45-24. Baltimore and Detroit, who played to a 24-24 tie on Thanksgiving Day, were idle.

In the American League, Boston's last-minute touchdown beat New York 27-23 and Kansas City whacked Houston 52-21.

Gale Sayers, who seems a cinch for Rookie of the Year honors, set an NFL record for freshmen with his 13th and 14th touchdowns of the season as the Bears ripped the Giants. Sayers scored on runs of 15 and 45 yards.

Norm Snead and Pete Retzlaff put on a great passing and catching show as the Eagles caught the Cardinals. Retzlaff caught nine passes for 148 yards and three TDs, the last one a 10-yarder with less than three minutes to play. Snead, who hit on 15 of 31 for 248 yards, marched the Eagles from their own 27 for the winning score, hitting Retzlaff three times before the TD pitch.

Bruce Gossett kicked four field goals, three of them from better than 40 yards, as the Rams dropped Green Bay 1½ games back of the Colts in the West with just three games to play.

LOMBARDI GRIM

The victory snapped an eight-game Los Angeles losing string that had covered two months. "The Rams had to beat somebody sooner or later," Packer Coach Vince Lombardi said grimly, "and it had to be us."

Sonny Jurgensen pitched Washington to a pair of touchdowns in the final four minutes as the Redskins overtook Dallas. Jurgensen, who completed 26 of 42 passes for 411 yards, used just eight plays for the two marches downfield, covering 64 yards in the first series and 80 in the second.

49ers Satisfied With Offense, Draft Big, Defensive Stalwarts

RANDOL

There were two big events for the San Francisco 49ers this weekend, and it is hard to tell which is the more important. One was the decisive thumping of the Minnesota Vikings, 45 to 24. The other was the annual college player draft.

Yesterday's game showed that the 49ers are smart enough to learn from experience. The first half was a replay of the first Viking game, with the 49ers going out in front with a commanding lead. This time they continued to carry the attack until they had a 45 to 10 lad before they allowed the Vikes to shove over a pair of scores.

John Brodie had another great day at quarterback, completing 10 for 20 passes for five touchdowns before he turned the reins over to George Mira in the last quarter. Brodie called the real back-breaker early in the game when, with third down and one to go, he caught the Viking defense flatfooted with a quick pass to John David Crow for the first touchdown.

EXCITING AS the 49er offense continues to be, the most gratifying development was the defensive coverage of the equally explosive Minnesita attack. If there was any doubt before, it can now be said that the 49ers can beat any team in the league on a given Sunday. It has been a long time since anyone could makee THAT statement.

Part of the improvement is improved personnel. Part is experience. But the big thing is confidence. For the first time in years the 49ers KNOW they can win with an even shake in the breaks. What is needed now is greater depth on the bench.

THAT BRINGS us to the draft selections. By his choice, Coach Jack Christiansen indicates that he is well satisfied with his offense. Most of the choices seemed to be big men for the defensive line and some tall fast defensive backs to shore up some obvious weaknesses.

IT MUST BE remembered that picking men in the draft is a far cry from getting their signatures on the line, but the 49ers are really in good shape. Most young graduates would prefer the National Football League to the American, and would prefer to sign up with a team on the rise with a shot at the title. The 49ers qualify on both points.

Just a few years ago the 49ers lost a big one when Lance Alworth chose to go to the San Diego Charges in the AFL. Alworth is the class of the junior league and would be just as great if he were in the NFL. I am sure a big part of his decision to turn down the 49er offer was the obvious unrest on the local club at that time.

WITH THE surprising win of the L. A. Rams over the Green Bay Packers, the Baltimore Colts look like a shoo-in for the Western title. Although the Colts beat the 49ers twice this year the games were close. No question the Colts are aging a bit, and the Packers are coming back to the rest of the league. Next year looks like a wild one.

The 49ers close out the sason with Detroit, Chicago and Green Bay. That's a big order but right now I wouldn't say the 49ers are out of it for second place in the division. The incentive is there for glory and for dollars in the pocket. Both count big in pro ball.

Pro Grid Drafts: Checkbooks Open

Bill Yearby by New York, Minnesota end Aaron Brown by Kansas City and Kentucky halfback Rodger Bird by Oakland. None was picked in the NFL draft.

STILL UNSIGNED

Besides Nobis and Grabowski, four other AFL first-round choices are unsigned, Purdue tackle Karl Singer, picked by Boston; Kentucky quarterback Rick Norton, selected by Miami; Mississippi halfback Mike Dennis, tapped by Buffalo, and Los Angeles State tackle Don Davis, taken by San Diego.

Three teams had considerable difficulties making up their minds about their first-round picks, New York and Oakland in the AFL and Pittsburgh in the NFL. The Jets and Steelers each waited until six hours had passed in their respective drafts before making selections.

The Raiders, however, took 12 hours and 56 minutes from the time the AFL draft started before naming any of their choices — and then took a strange route by announcing their third, fifth and seventh selections before revealing Bird as their No. 1 pick.

Oakland officials still have not given any substantial reason for their unusual tactics.

There also were these developments connected with the draft:

'SECRET DRAFT'

—Clint Murchison Jr., owner of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, demanded that the NCAA impose a one-year sanction on the AFL for holding a secret draft and making "dunces of the NCAA." He pointed to AFL picks which closely coincided with reports earlier this month of a premature draft.

—Of 21 players picked through four rounds of the AFL draft who appeared on the published list reported the premature selections, 19 were taken by clubs assigned in the story. Two were taken by other teams.

—Al LoCasale, personnel director for the San Diego Chargers, said the NFL had hired some 250 "babysitters" to spirit college players to retreats where they would be out of AFL reach and using what he termed the "no sign-no draft" technique to coerce potential draftees.

—Sonny Werblin, owner of the AFL's Jets, implied his club was having difficulty locating its hopefuls before the draft and issued a statement saying the Jets would "not sign any player unless the Jets have the opportunity to speak with him on Saturday."

USF Ousted From NCAA Soccer Race

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — St. Louis University's Billikens, four - time National Collegiate Athletic Assn. soccer champions, have knocked the University of San Francisco out of the running for this year's title.

St. Louis downed USF 5-2 in regional action in San Francisco Saturday for the Dons' first loss in 12 games. The Billikens, now 11-0-1, advance to Thursday's NCAA finals.

The game was close until the third quarter, when St. Louis broke away for three goals. San Francisco scored once in the final period but St. Louis protected its goal from additional threats.

All - American Jack Kinealy kicked two St. Louis goals, boosting his season total to 21. San Francisco scored first on a headon shot by Louis Sagastume, assisted by Eduardo Rangel.

The loss was San Francisco's first in 12 games. St. Louis' season record is now 11-0-1.

Raiders May Offer 300 Gs To Garrett

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Halfback Mike Garrett's No. 20 was officially retired today as rumors flew regarding the future in professional football for the Heisman Award winner from the University of Southern California.

Garrett was in New York for a television appearance, and later the guest of honor at the annual Heisman banquet.

He was reluctant to discuss his future after winding up his college career Saturday in Southern Cal's 56-6 victory over Wyoming.

Garrett set a national intercollegiate rushing record for a three-year career, with a total of 3,221 yards. It broke the old mark of 3,168 set by Ollie Matson of the University of San Francisco in the 1949-50-51 period.

Garrett was drafted in the second round by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, and rumors persisted that Oakland of the rival American League was in the market for his services.

One rumor even said the Oakland club was willing to go as high as $300,000, stretched over two or more seasons.

Most observers here feel that Garrett would be a valuable asset but not to the extent of $300,000.

Garrett himself parried questions, saying he wouldn't make up his mind what to do until later this winter. He said he may not sign anything because he might want to finish out his year in baseball at Southern Cal this spring.

Draft Choices Of The Raiders

Following are the draft choices selected Saturday by the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League:

OAKLAND

Peacock Gap Country Club held a Junior Tournament last Friday and 23 hardy souls braved the rain and cold weather to participate.

The competition was divided into four groups, one for girls and three for boys. The girls group included anyone under 18, and the boys' competition was divided into 7-10, 11-13, and 14-18 age division.

Because of the weather, the girls and the 7-10 boys group played only nine holes. Sixteen-year-old Connie Raznikov led the girls with a 53, and 9-year-old Shelley Gates came in with an excellent 66 to take second. Craig Sanders, 8, led the 7-10 boys with a 69, and Danny Smith, 10, took second.

The older boys managed to get in 13 muddy holes of play. Doug Francisco, 15, won the 14-18 group with a fine 54, with Gary Schweitzer, 14, coming in second.

In the 11-13 group, Kelly Wolfe, 13, won with a 75, with Chuck Rasnikov a close second.

Hiskey Captures Title In Playoff

By ROBERT CAREY

LAFAYETTE, La. (UPI) — Babe Hiskey, a 26-year-old newcomer to professional golf, won the $32,000 Cajun Classic golf tournament yesterday in a sudden-death playoff with Dudley Wysong Jr., anothe r unknown.

Hiskey and Wysong, of Casper, Wyo., finished the 72-hole regulation play with 13-under-par 275s, one stroke ahead of favorite and leading PGA money winner Jack Nicklaus.

Wysong turned in the best round of the day, a six-under-par 66, while Hiskey was scoring a 67.

Nicklaus, who led through two rounds, had a 69 yesterday for a total of 276.

Rex Baxter Jr., with a 68, matched Nicklaus' 276 in the last PGA outing of the season.

Behind Nicklaus and Baxter were Kermit Zarley and Jack McGowan at 277. McGowan had a 67 final round and Zarley a 69.

Both Hiskey and Wysong, who had not even been considered in contention for the classic crown, finished strong over the rain drenched 6,555-yard Oakbourne Country Club course.

The slender, dark haired Hiskey picked up four birdies on the front nine and three on the second, getting near the pin on each of the birdied holes with excellent short iron work.

Stolle Rejects $67,200 Pro Bid

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Australian Davis Cup star Fred Stolle has rejected an offer to turn professional in the hope of winning the Wimbleton Tennis Championship.

Stolle was offered $67,200 for a 10-month touring contract with the professional troupe which features Ken Rosewall, Lew Hoad and Rod Laver among its present Australian squad.

Two-time Wimbleton champion Roy Emerson already has rejected similar offers from professionals.

Stolle feels Emerson may have difficulty regaining the winning form of his past two Wimbleton Tournaments and this was a big factor in his decision.

NFL Grabs Quick Lead In Dollar War

By MIKE RATHET
and MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writers

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League has taken a quick lead over the American League in signing draft choices, but the major battles in the checkbook war figure to be fought over two obviously talented and plainly uncommitted player — Tommy Nobis and Jim Grabowski.

Nobis, the Texas linebacker with a 20-inch neck, and Grabowski, the Illinois fullback with Red Grange's records, are the only remaining competitive first-round choices unsigned since the bidding war began Saturday while the drafts were being conducted.

Long before the AFL ended selecting after 17 hours and 59 minutes and the NFL closed down draft headquarters after 30 hours and 50 minutes, it became evident that some players were committed to certain teams — before the draft — and were therefore being avoided by others.

The most significant factors leading to that interpretation were three-fold: The length of time some teams took before making first-round selections, the low number of duplicated first-round choices and the quick rash of signings — 28 in the NFL and seven in the AFL.

Only three players were picked by both leagues on the first round, Nobis, Grabowski and Purdue tackle Jerry Shay, who signed with the NFL's Minnesota Vikings after being picked in the AFL draft by Denver.

Nobis, tapped as the No. 1 pick in the NFL draft by the new Atlanta Falcons, also was picked on the first round by Houston. Grabowski, the No. 1 pick in the AFL draft by the new Miami Dolphins, also was selected on the first round by Green Bay.

And now the bidding starts.

It is possible that the bidding for Nobis, an All-America last season and a leading candidate for the Outland Trophy as the top lineman in the country, will go as high as it did for Dick Butkus last year. Butkus received a reported $200,000 for signing with the Chicago Bears.

NO RUSH

Nobis won't be rushed either. "I don't know what I'll do," he said. "I haven't really talked business with either one of them. A team in my home state will not be a factor. It all depends on the offers."

The offers can be astronomical. There was a report from the Midwest that one back from the sector had suggested that the bidding for his services start in the $500,000 neighborhood — which would top the figure the New York Jets reportedly gave quarterback Joe Namath last year.

The name linked with the report was Grabowski, the power-running fullback who broke Grange's career and single game rushing records at Illinois.

Besides Nobis and Grabowski, five other NFL first-round choices are not signed, Oklahoma linebacker Carl McAdams, picked by St. Louis; Princeton kicker Charlie Gogolak, tapped by Washington; Missouri tackle Francis Peay, selected by New York; Massachusetts end Milt Morin, taken by Cleveland; Mississippi defensive end Stan Hindman.

The AFL signed three first-round picks, Michigan tackle

49ERS DRAFT EX-TAM STAR ELMER COLLETT

Elmer Collett, former Tamalpais High and College of Marin gridder who starred this season at San Francisco State, was among the future draft selections of the San Francisco 49ers over the weekend.

Collett, 6-4 and 227 pounds, is an offensive guard at S. F. State and was drafted No. 15 by the 49ers. He was an offensive tackle and defensive guard at Tam and was graduated in 1962. He played at College of Marin in the 1962 and 1963 seasons and sat out the 1964 season.

His father, Charles Elmer Collett, said today his son will finish his senior year at S. F. State where he still has another year of football eligibility. The Colletts live at 270 Molino Avenue, Mill Valley.

Horror Shows On TV: Patterson, Vikings Blame It On Bad Backs

Television was no place for humanitarians during the past week. Women and children and men with weak stomachs were advised to stick to radio, soap operas or comic books, because the coaxial cables delivered onto us only one-sided mayhem in the worst degree.

It was a week of mismatches, two of which come to mind, starting off with last Monday's Clay-Patterson ambush on closed-circuit TV and winding up with yesterday's 49er rout of the Minnesota Vikings, 45-24, which was free for the watching.

A foreigner watching either of these two events for the first time would wonder about American sporting events and probably compare them with Little Big Horn and the St. Valentine's Day Massacre. These two belong in that category.

A FRIEND of mine who watched both events on television went home last night and beat his wife and kids and kicked the dog, figuring cruel and inhuman punishment had been legalized.

Mr. Patterson had an excuse for his poor showing against the Ali Cat—a bad back.

The Vikings, then, had several excuses yesterday—several bad backs, not to mention a few lousy linemen. The 49ers against the Vikes was like Clay against MRS. Floyd Patterson. If the pro gridders used Marquis of Queensberry rules the refs would have stopped it at halftime.

DON'T LET the Vikings' 24 points fool you. Their last couple of touchdowns were what golfers call "gimmes." A couple of weeks ago Vike Coach Norm Van Brocklin quit in a moment of frustration, then changed his mind and decided to stay. I keep checking the wires to see if the Dutchman has left the country after this one.

IT WAS slapstick comedy at times. Three times the Vike kickoff receivers dropped the ball. Once a white piece of equipment flew off the ball carrier. I'm not going to guess at what it was, but it snapped off.

FIRST STRING Vike quarterback Fran Tarkenton was so bad that they benched him and sent in Ron VanderKelen, who was twice as bad. His teammates blocked and went after passes like they were mad at HIM. He was hacked so much I thought he'd start taking some foul shots. In one frustrating moment he passed with two hands, underhanded. And completed it, which was novel.

It's difficult to say if the Vikings were that bad or the 49ers that good. But the way Brodie, Willard, Parks & Co. played, San Francisco fans are in for some good football. I'm sure glad we don't live in Minnesota.

I WAS NOT surprised to see the 49ers pick Mississippi's Stan Hindman as their number one draft choice. He is a pre-med student and the 49ers have been bugged by injuries, so . . . well, you get the idea. Now, we have on our roster a Casey (not has-Ben), a Johnson & Johnson and now a "Dr. Sock," Baby.. I know the medical profession has become specialized, but a defensive specialist? Crazy!!

Buckpasser Is Officially Named 2-Year-Old Champ

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Buckpasser, who won nine of his 11 races and established a money winning record for 2-year-olds with earnings of $598,596, was named today as the champion 2-year-old colt of 1965 by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations.

Selection of Ogden Phipps' home-bred son of Tom Fool Busanda by War Admiral was made by the racing secretaries of the TRA's 33 member tracks. The TRA board of selection previously announced selection of Mrs. Theodora A. Randolph's Bon Nouvel as the champion steeplechase performer for the second straight year.

The TRA, which opens a three-day meeting here Tuesday, will honor the champions at its annual dinner Dec. 2.

Buckpasser, fourth in his first start and beaten by the filly, Priceless Gem, in the Futurity at Aqueduct, won six stakes en route to the championship. He took the National Stallion, Tremont and Champagne at Aqueduct, Monmouth Park's Sapling, the Hopeful at Saratoga and the Arlington Washington Futurity.

'Unknown' Top 49er Draftee

Stan Hindman was an unknown name among most Bay Area football fans before the San Francisco 49ers drafted him No. 1 last Saturday. But so were Dave Parks in 1963 and Ken Willard in 1964.

Ask any of these fans who Parks and Willard are now. They're two big reasons the 49ers are now 6-5 in the National Football League. If you can use the recent record of the 49er scouts, Hindman just might be what the doctor ordered for the team's defensive line.

Hindman was a guard at Mississippi, stands 6-3 and weighs 235 pounds. Plans of the 49ers are that he will be used as a defensive end to provide some pass rushing, something that the club hasn't had since end Dan Colchico was knocked out of the lineup with an ankle injury.

WEAK POINT

The defense has been the 49ers weak point and that's just where the drafting centered around. Big linemen and defensive backs.

Although the No. 2 selection was Bob Windson of Kentucky, a future choice for the tight end spot, numbers three and four were defensive backs Alvin Randolph (6-2, 186) from Iowa and Don Bland (5-11, 190) from Mississippi State.

The complete list of 49er draftees, designating future picks who still have college ability:

Lewis was one of many players who were wearing tennis shoes for better traction on the icy turf. The weather was 15 above zero during the game, won by the 49ers, 45-24. (UPI Telephoto)

By RON SPEER

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Alvin Dark promises to provide Kansas City with an exciting new look in 1966 when he attempts to guide the Athletics out of the American League cellar.

The new manager of the A's, operating in the American League for the first time after a star-studded career as a player and manager in the National League, says Kansas City will "run and run and run."

Dark says he considers the opportunity to take over a last-place club "a real challenge" after managing San Francisco to four first-division finishes in his only other managerial stint.

"When I went to the Giants they were fifth and were expected to win the pennant. We did in two years and it wasn't so much because it was expected.

"Now at Kansas City everything we do will have to be worked for, and we feel that whatever we do we will be accomplishing something."

The naming of Dark a few minutes after the announcement that Haywood Sullivan was going to join the front office of the Boston Red Sox highlighted the opening of the annual meeting of major and minor league baseball officials.

Drafting of minor league players was scheduled today with Kansas City getting the first draft choice and the New York Mets the second.

Most clubs indicated they hoped to pick up one or two young prospects.

Among the minor league players likely to be chosen by the leagues were pitchers Galen Cisco of Buffalo, Carlton Willey of Buffalo, Frank Carpin of Columbus, Ohio, Ed Rakow of Syracuse and Bob Garibaldi of Tacoma, and outfielders Jim Beauchamp of Richmond, Elvio Jiminez of Toledo, Gary Geiger of Toronto and Jim Werhas of Spokane.

The minor league activities, however, were overshadowed by Dark's return to the managerial ranks.

Only three months ago he said he was not interested in managing the Athletics, but he explained after accepting the job that "every manager always wants to manage again."

Dark was given a two-year contract at $40,000 a year by Kansas City owner Charles Finley, who last Aug. 28 hired Dark away from the Cubs where he had spent the summer coaching.

Dark was released as San Francisco manager a year ago after the Giants finished fourth in the National League, their worst showing under the 43-year-old former All-Star shortstop.

Dark managed San Francisco to the pennant in 1962 but the Giants lost the World Series in seven games to the New York Yankees.

Dark said he does not expect Kansas City to become a contender overnight "because we've got a long way to go.

"But we've got a pretty good team. We will do a lot of running. We will sacrifice, squeeze,

Phils Swap Amaro For Yanks' Linz

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The New York Yankees traded infielder Phil Linz to the Philadelphia Phillies for infielder Ruben Amaro today in the first inter-league trade of the season.

Linz, 26, batted .207 in 99 games with the Yanks last season. Amaro, 29, former Cardinal farmhand, batted .215 for the Phils in 118 games but hit .264 in 1964 when he won the Golden Glove Award as the leading shortstop in the National League.

"With the injury problems Tony Kubek has had the last two years, we felt we needed to protect ourselves at shortstop," said Yankee General Manager Ralph Houk. "We hate to lose Linz but we feel Amaro can better fulfill our needs."

Five TD Passes, 49ers Rip Vikes

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—John Brodie, San Francisco's much maligned quarterback, owned two 49er passing records today and was within striking distance of two others.

All this came about when the veteran quarterback, now in his ninth season as a pro, threw five touchdown passes yesterday enroute to a 45-24 San Francisco victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

The five scoring passes gave Brodie 24 touchdown pitches for 1965, beating the old club record of 20 set by Y.A. Tittle in 1953. Frankie Albert threw 29 TD passes during the 1948 season but the 49ers then were operating in the old All-American Conference.

In all, Brodie connected on 10 of 21 passes and gained 209 yards. That gave him 179 completions in 287 passing attempts this year for still another mark. Tittle completed 176 of 279 throws during the 1957 season.

Brodie has gained 2,458 yards on his passes this year and is just 130 yards short of tieing his own club record set in 1961. Albert holds the San Francisco team record of 306 passing attempts set in 1950.

Thus, with three games still to go, Brodie is in position to break Albert's passes attempted record and his own yardage gained for a single season mark.

The game against the Vikings was perhaps the best of the season for the 49ers. In addition to putting them over the .500 mark at 6-5, it also was a game during which they put everything together.

The offense clicked almost at will in the first half as Brodie passed San Francisco to a 35-10 lead. And the defense did such a good job of stopping the scrambling Fran Tarkenton that Minnesota coach Norm Van Brocklin had to get his quarterback out of there and use second stringer Ron Vander Kelen in his place. Earlier this season, Tarkenton passed the Vikings to a 42-41 decision over San Francisco in a game the 49ers led, 35-14, at the half.

The switch in passers hardly made a difference as the San Francisco defense stopped all but two Minnesota drives late in the game. They proved just so much wasted effort because of the big San Francisco lead.

Brodie threw his scoring strikes to John David Crow (47 and 9 yards), to Bernie Casey (39), Dave Kopay (20) and Dave Parks (30). Kopay scored another TD when he recovered a fumble by Ken Willard in the end zone. Tommy Davis chipped in with a 49-yard field goal just for good measure.

The victory gave the 49ers sole possession of fourth place in the National Football League's Western Division race and they now trail third-place Chicago by one game, second-place Green Bay by two and first-place Baltimore by three and one-half.

This Sunday, San Francisco plays Detroit at Kezar Stadium.

One Win, Two Losses For Marin Pop Warner Teams

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The champion Marin County Pop Warner football teams are back home today after a jet ride to San Diego. One team was a winner, and two were losers, but all had a great time.

The teams—San Rafael, Novato and Terra Linda — were flown to San Diego Friday morning and played against Pop Warner teams on the University of San Diego field on Saturday. The Marin youngsters, many aboard airplanes for the first time, were flown back Saturday evening.

San Rafael Junior Bulldogs started the day off fine for Marin, whipping Grossmont 34-13. The rest of the day wasn't so good for the Marin kids. Novato Junior Hornets were dumped by Lemon Grove, 40-7, and the Terra Linda Junior Trojans were blitzed by Kearny Mesa, 44-0.

The total for the day was San Diego 97, Marin 41.

Marin's three teams had earned the trip by finishing their regular league games with identical 4-1 records, good for a three - way championship. The sponsoring Marin County Boys Club decided to reward all 120 or so youngsters—12 through 14 —with the trip down South.

Novato '11' Suffers 40-7 Loss

Lemon Grove scored three touchdowns before Novato could get its offense untracked. Lemon Grove followers said it was its best game of the season and Novato backers said it was Novato's worst.

All the excitement must have gotten to the Junior Hornets who fell to a team that had won only one game prior to last Saturday's scrap. That one prior triumph was against winless Grossmont.

Novato's only touchdown of the afternoon came in the third quarter on a brilliant 55-yard run by Vince Lagoy, the 123-pound halfback who had scored three touchdowns in the Marin County North - South All - Star game earlier this season.

GNOSS HURT

Novato's quarterback, Ken Gnoss was hurt in the first quarter and that was quite a blow to the Hornets offensive attack. Later in the game Randy Jackson was also sidelined with a head injury.

The passing combination of Rick Halsey to Henry Deeter was a big weapon in the Lemon Grove arsenal, and it was used quite often to the woes of the Hornets. That combo was good for the first two Lemon Grove touchdowns. Halsey was a big star for the winners, passing for three touchdowns and running for two more.

Scoring summary:

Novato	0	0	7	0	7
Lemon Grove	6	7	7	20	40

Lemon Groce scoring: TD's—Henry Deeter (2), 68 and 28-yard passes from Rick Halsey. Richard Gibbons, 45-pass interception. Halsey (2), 6-yard and 4-yard runs. Robert Littrell, 39-yard pass from Halsey. PAT's—Larry McBee, pass. John Binkele, run. Halsey, run. Mike Crawford, run.

Three Marin Lifters Win

Walt Gioseffi, Terry Johnson and Bill McCraw, all of the MarVel Athletic Club of Marin, were among the winners at the Nevada State Weightlifting Championships in Reno.

Gioseffi lifted a total of 750 pounds to win the 181-pound class and the Nevada light heavyweight championship. Johnson was second in the 148-pound class with a 620 total, and McCraw was third in the heavyweight division with an 815 total.

Fish Poles Gone

Floyd Wagner of 12 Elaine Way, Apt. 3, San Rafael, told San Rafael police yesterday four fishing poles and reels, worth a total of $100, and a $110 Polaroid camera were stolen from his runabout boat, kept at Loch Lomond Yacht Harbor, during the past two weeks.

San Rafael Blasts Southerners, 34-13

San Rafael's Junior Bulldogs showed the San Diego fans a dazzling offense and were in command throughout the game, leading at halftime 20-6.

Lowell Widmer hit at right tackle for the extra point and it was 7-0. Then later in the same quarter, the Buildogs' Dan Jordan intercepted a Grossmont pass to set up another score from 15 yards out. On the first play after that interception, Widmer, a fine little runner who comes from quite a football family, skirted right end for the touchdown. Sam Salcido added the PAT with a burst through right tackle.

WIDMER STARS

Widmer, who has two big brothers playing varsity ball at San Rafael High School, returned a punt 36 yards late in the first period and again returned one 39 yards to set up his team's third touchdown, this time in the second quarter. Salcido was the boy to score, a four-yard blast through left tackle. That put the Junior Bulldogs in front 20-0.

Widmer scored his second touchdown of the day in the third quarter when he galloped 19 yards around left end. When Salcido blasted through right guard for the extra point, it put the Bulldogs in front by 27-6.

Grossmont, which made its first first down in the final quarter, scored in that quarter, again with Stuart toting the ball, this time around right end for 44 yards.

DAZZLING RUN

The Junior Bulldogs scored late in the final period on a dazzling run by Silva. He intercepted a pass on his own 20-yard stripe and dashed 80 yards down the field for the touchdown. That really got the San Rafael parents screaming. Salcido again ran for the extra point, ending the scoring for the game.

Some fine line play came from San Rafael's front wall, including Jim Donovan, Tom Brown, Dick Hermann, Gary Beeman, Richard Wright, Dan Jordan and Coleman.

The Grossmont team had a rough time of it, as it had all season. Grossmont went through the entire season without a win.

Scoring summary:

San Rafael	14	6	7	7	34
Grossmont	0	6	0	7	13

San Rafael scoring: TD's — Dennis Silva, 37-yard run. Lowell Widmer, 15-yard run. Sam Salcido, 4-yard run. Widmer, 19-yard run. Silva, 80-yard pass interception. PAT's—Widmer, Salcido (3).

Grossmont scoring: TD's — Stuart (2), 50 and 44-yard runs. PAT—Joe Cabrera, run.

Seals Win, Host Totes Wednesday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Seals will host the Seattle Totems Wednesday to try for their seventh win of their Western Hockey League season.

The Seals won Saturday night in an inter-league game against the Springfield, Mass., Indians of the American League. San Francisco started the scoring and went on to a 4-1 victory.

The win may have eased the pressure on Seals' wallets. The team's management had fined players for their performance in their recent series of losses.

Springfield's John McCartan scored with 50 seconds remaining in the second period. Ron Harris made San Francisco's final goal midway through the last period after Springfield was given a minor bench penalty.

Terra Linda Is Blitzed By 44 To 0

Terra Linda's Junior Trojans ran into a team that had never been beaten this year and the Kearny Mesa boys from San Diego looked like true champions.

They sad some tall, lean boys who still made the 128-pound limit of the Pop Warner Junior Bantam Division. Some of them had the speed of high school athletes. Where the Marin teams don't have 14-year-olds playing, that is the limit for the Junior Bantam Division. That extra year must have made the difference.

But not to take anything from this Kearny Mesa team, the San Diego fans have a right to be proud of these youngsters. They were simply too much for Terra Linda and they would have been too much for the North Marin County All-Stars.

The Kearny Mesa boys scored in every quarter and it got so bad near the end of the game that even the San Diego fans were cheering for the Marin boys, hoping they would at least score a point or two.

BIGGEST THREAT

But the Kearny Mesa defense would have none of it. Terra Linda's biggest threat to score was halfback Mikes Bridges who made some fine runs before being injured in the second quarter. He had to sit out the rest of the game.

Kearny Mesa had a rarity in Pop Warner football, a tall, skinny boy (taller than his coaches) who kicked extra points. Most of his shots were long enough but just a little wide. The boy, Dwight McDonald, even tried a 40-yard field goal on the last play of the game, but the ball fell to the ground before his toe ever connected.

Scoring summary:

Kearny Mesa	12	19	6	7	44

Kearny Mesa scoring: TD's—McDonald, 4-yard run. Dean Rice, 38-yard run. Lloyd Ellis, 40-yard pass interception. Eddie Evilsizor, 48-yard pass from Gene Watkins. Evilsizor, 42-yard run. Ted Mack, 1-yard run. Randy Washam, 37-yard pass from Evilsizor. PAT's—McDonald (2) kicks.

Marin Preps, College In Cage Action

Coach Cal Riemcke will unveil his College of Marin basketball team this week in three practice games. The Tars, who open their Golden Valley Conference season against the Yuba 49ers Jan. 8, will open a practice schedule that includes nine games and two tournaments.

Wednesday night they will open against the College of San Mateo in Kentfield; Friday they travel to Pacheco to take on Diablo Valley; and Saturday night they return to Kentfield to play host to Foothill College. All Tar games will start at 8 p.m.

All the high schools in the Marin Athletic League will be seeing action this week. Tamalpais will host a pair of 4 p.m. games, tomorrow to Galileo and Friday to S.F. Poly.

San Rafael Bulldogs play only once this week, hosting Galileo Friday at 7 p.m.

Marin Catholic will play a pair of 7 p.m. games: Friday night the Wildcats will host Sierra, and Saturday night they will travel to St. Elizabeth.

The Drake Pirates will play two games: tomorrow they will host Balboa at 3:30 p.m. and Friday they will take on the Apaches at Vallejo, 7 p.m.

Redwood will play two in Santa Rosa: Friday night they go against Gridley, and Saturday night they will face Gilroy. Both games are scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Tomorrow the Novato Hornets travel to Petaluma for a 4 p.m. game, and Friday they return home to face Sonoma in a game scheduled for 7 p.m.

The Terra Linda Trojans will play twice: tomorrow they travel to Sonoma for a 4 p.m. game, and Friday night they will host DeAnza in an 8 o'clock affair.

ARMY-NAVY TIE

'Bama, Troy Romp; Irish Deadlocked

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Alabama's Crimson Tide, counted out of everything two months ago but named to a bowl a week ago, has completed one of the biggest comebacks of the 1965 college football season and now turns its attention to Nebraska.

"We haven't turned a wheel on Nebraska," Alabama Coach Bear Bryant said. "We haven't looked at them, haven't scouted them, haven't thought about them."

But the Tide, ranked fifth in the country and headed for a Jan. 1 Orange Bowl date with Nebraska, 10-0 and No. 3 nationally, undoubtedly will be thinking about the Cornhuskers a lot this week.

They have nothing else to do.

Bryant, one of the toughest task masters in the business, gave the team the week off after Alabama closed its regular season with a 30-3 triumph over Auburn Saturday.

"I'm proud of them," Bryant said, "more so than any team I've ever been associated with. They had to come from so far back."

'Bama was counted out of everything, and knocked out of the nation's No. 1 spot when they lost to Georgia in their opener. Only a tie with Tennessee mars their record since then.

They finished at 8-1-1 and, by beating Auburn, took the Southeastern Conference title. Steve Sloan threw three touchdown passes.

ARMY-NAVY TIE

Georgia Tech, headed for the Gator Bowl, was upset by Georgia 17-7, while the two big ones — Army vs. Navy and Notre Dame vs. Miami, Fla — ended in ties.

Army and Navy struggled to a lack-lustre 7-7 tie before 102,000 in Philadelphia, finishing off a medicore season for each team.

Mighty Notre Dame, No. 6 in the country, apparently suffered a let-down after the previous week's loss to Michigan State and was held to a scoreless tie by Miami.

The other ranked teams in action won handily, No. 9 Tennessee taking Vanderbilt 21-3 and No. 8 Southern California routed Wyoming 56-6.

Brigham Young wrapped up the Western Athletic Conference title with a 42-8 romp over New Mexico while Texas Christian filled out the major bowl lineup, accepting a spot in the Sun Bowl after beating Southern Methodist 10-7.

Sugar Bowl — Missouri, 7-2-1, vs. Florida, 7-3.

Bluebonnet Bowl — Tennessee, 6-1-2, vs. Tulsa, 8-2.

Liberty Bowl — Auburn, 5-4-1, vs. Mississippi, 6-4.

Sun Bowl — Texas Christian, 6-4, vs. Texas Western, 7-3.

Of those, only UCLA and Tennessee have a game left, meeting this weekend.

Several others wound up Saturday. Texas Western ripped up West Texas State 38-21, Florida took Florida State 30-17 and Mississippi blanked Mississippi State 21-0.

A Welcome Rest For Battered Warriors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Warriors are taking a long rest before they head across the bay Thursday to meet the Cincinnati Royals in a National Basketball Assn. game at Oakland.

The four-day breather will give San Francisco a chance to recover from a visit by their towering former teammate, Wilt Chamberlain.

Wilt, now with the Philadelphia 76ers, led his team to victories Friday and Saturday in San Francisco. Philadelphia won the first game, 132-120, and the second, 124-117.

Chamberlain dominated both halves of Saturday's game, stopping a Warrior spurt that put them ahead 72-67 in the third quarter. He grabbed a flurry of rebounds and made seven straight points.

Chamberlain led both teams in individual scoring with 38 points. Forward Tom Meschery led San Francisco with 27 points.

Forward Chet Walker made 17 points in the first half, spurring Philadelphia's lead.

Browns Win Title; Rams Stun Packers

By HAL BLOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The yardage machine that wears number 32 and operates out of the Cleveland Browns' backfield is like any other piece of complicated machinery. It takes time to warm up.

So Jimmy Brown spent the first 30 minutes of yesterday's National Football League game against Pittsburgh doing less than spectacular damage to the Steelers. He managed just 19 yards in seven carries and Cleveland's lead was only 7-0 at halftime.

But 30 minutes is more time than Brown gives most of Cleveland's NFL opponents so he didn't waste any after the intermission.

The bruising fullback took off on a 67-yard sprint on the first play from scrimmage in the third period. Five plays later he barrelled into the end zone with the first of his four touchdowns for the day and the Browns were on their way to a 42-21 romp and their second consecutive Eastern Conference crown.

Brown carried 13 times in the second half, gaining 128 yards — a full game's work for most good runners.

He scored on runs of three, two and 15 yards and caught a 27-yard TD pass from Jim Ninowski. The four touchdowns gave him 19 for the season, a career high.

The Browns needed help to clinch the Eastern crown and got it from Chicago and Philadelphia. The Bears whipped New York 35-14 and the Eagles edged St. Louis 28-24, eliminating the only clubs who still had a shot at Cleveland.

RAMS STUN PACKERS

In the Western Conference, Los Angeles gave a big boost to Baltimore's hopes for a second straight championship by upsetting No. 1 contender Green Bay 21-10. In other NFL games yesterday, Washington nipped Dallas 34-31 and San Francisco walloped Minnesota 45-24. Baltimore and Detroit, who played to a 24-24 tie on Thanksgiving Day, were idle.

In the American League, Boston's last-minute touchdown beat New York 27-23 and Kansas City whacked Houston 52-21.

Gale Sayers, who seems a cinch for Rookie of the Year honors, set an NFL record for freshmen with his 13th and 14th touchdowns of the season as the Bears ripped the Giants. Sayers scored on runs of 15 and 45 yards.

Norm Snead and Pete Retzlaff put on a great passing and catching show as the Eagles caught the Cardinals. Retzlaff caught nine passes for 148 yards and three TDs, the last one a 10-yarder with less than three minutes to play. Snead, who hit on 15 of 31 for 248 yards, marched the Eagles from their own 27 for the winning score, hitting Retzlaff three times before the TD pitch.

Bruce Gossett kicked four field goals, three of them from better than 40 yards, as the Rams dropped Green Bay 1½ games back of the Colts in the West with just three games to play.

LOMBARDI GRIM

The victory snapped an eight-game Los Angeles losing string that had covered two months. "The Rams had to beat somebody sooner or later," Packer Coach Vince Lombardi said grimly, "and it had to be us."

Sonny Jurgensen pitched Washington to a pair of touchdowns in the final four minutes as the Redskins overtook Dallas. Jurgensen, who completed 26 of 42 passes for 411 yards, used just eight plays for the two marches downfield, covering 64 yards in the first series and 80 in the second.

RANDOL

There were two big events for the San Francisco 49ers this weekend, and it is hard to tell which is the more important. One was the decisive thumping of the Minnesota Vikings, 45 to 24. The other was the annual college player draft.

Yesterday's game showed that the 49ers are smart enough to learn from experience. The first half was a replay of the first Viking game, with the 49ers going out in front with a commanding lead. This time they continued to carry the attack until they had a 45 to 10 lad before they allowed the Vikes to shove over a pair of scores.

John Brodie had another great day at quarterback, completing 10 for 20 passes for five touchdowns before he turned the reins over to George Mira in the last quarter. Brodie called the real back-breaker early in the game when, with third down and one to go, he caught the Viking defense flatfooted with a quick pass to John David Crow for the first touchdown.

EXCITING AS the 49er offense continues to be, the most gratifying development was the defensive coverage of the equally explosive Minnesita attack. If there was any doubt before, it can now be said that the 49ers can beat any team in the league on a given Sunday. It has been a long time since anyone could makee THAT statement.

Part of the improvement is improved personnel. Part is experience. But the big thing is confidence. For the first time in years the 49ers KNOW they can win with an even shake in the breaks. What is needed now is greater depth on the bench.

THAT BRINGS us to the draft selections. By his choice, Coach Jack Christiansen indicates that he is well satisfied with his offense. Most of the choices seemed to be big men for the defensive line and some tall fast defensive backs to shore up some obvious weaknesses.

IT MUST BE remembered that picking men in the draft is a far cry from getting their signatures on the line, but the 49ers are really in good shape. Most young graduates would prefer the National Football League to the American, and would prefer to sign up with a team on the rise with a shot at the title. The 49ers qualify on both points.

Just a few years ago the 49ers lost a big one when Lance Alworth chose to go to the San Diego Charges in the AFL. Alworth is the class of the junior league and would be just as great if he were in the NFL. I am sure a big part of his decision to turn down the 49er offer was the obvious unrest on the local club at that time.

WITH THE surprising win of the L. A. Rams over the Green Bay Packers, the Baltimore Colts look like a shoo-in for the Western title. Although the Colts beat the 49ers twice this year the games were close. No question the Colts are aging a bit, and the Packers are coming back to the rest of the league. Next year looks like a wild one.

The 49ers close out the sason with Detroit, Chicago and Green Bay. That's a big order but right now I wouldn't say the 49ers are out of it for second place in the division. The incentive is there for glory and for dollars in the pocket. Both count big in pro ball.

Bill Yearby by New York, Minnesota end Aaron Brown by Kansas City and Kentucky halfback Rodger Bird by Oakland. None was picked in the NFL draft.

STILL UNSIGNED

Besides Nobis and Grabowski, four other AFL first-round choices are unsigned, Purdue tackle Karl Singer, picked by Boston; Kentucky quarterback Rick Norton, selected by Miami; Mississippi halfback Mike Dennis, tapped by Buffalo, and Los Angeles State tackle Don Davis, taken by San Diego.

Three teams had considerable difficulties making up their minds about their first-round picks, New York and Oakland in the AFL and Pittsburgh in the NFL. The Jets and Steelers each waited until six hours had passed in their respective drafts before making selections.

The Raiders, however, took 12 hours and 56 minutes from the time the AFL draft started before naming any of their choices — and then took a strange route by announcing their third, fifth and seventh selections before revealing Bird as their No. 1 pick.

Oakland officials still have not given any substantial reason for their unusual tactics.

There also were these developments connected with the draft:

'SECRET DRAFT'

—Clint Murchison Jr., owner of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, demanded that the NCAA impose a one-year sanction on the AFL for holding a secret draft and making "dunces of the NCAA." He pointed to AFL picks which closely coincided with reports earlier this month of a premature draft.

—Of 21 players picked through four rounds of the AFL draft who appeared on the published list reported the premature selections, 19 were taken by clubs assigned in the story. Two were taken by other teams.

—Al LoCasale, personnel director for the San Diego Chargers, said the NFL had hired some 250 "babysitters" to spirit college players to retreats where they would be out of AFL reach and using what he termed the "no sign-no draft" technique to coerce potential draftees.

—Sonny Werblin, owner of the AFL's Jets, implied his club was having difficulty locating its hopefuls before the draft and issued a statement saying the Jets would "not sign any player unless the Jets have the opportunity to speak with him on Saturday."

USF Ousted From NCAA Soccer Race

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — St. Louis University's Billikens, four - time National Collegiate Athletic Assn. soccer champions, have knocked the University of San Francisco out of the running for this year's title.

St. Louis downed USF 5-2 in regional action in San Francisco Saturday for the Dons' first loss in 12 games. The Billikens, now 11-0-1, advance to Thursday's NCAA finals.

The game was close until the third quarter, when St. Louis broke away for three goals. San Francisco scored once in the final period but St. Louis protected its goal from additional threats.

All - American Jack Kinealy kicked two St. Louis goals, boosting his season total to 21. San Francisco scored first on a headon shot by Louis Sagastume, assisted by Eduardo Rangel.

The loss was San Francisco's first in 12 games. St. Louis' season record is now 11-0-1.

Raiders May Offer 300 Gs To Garrett

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Halfback Mike Garrett's No. 20 was officially retired today as rumors flew regarding the future in professional football for the Heisman Award winner from the University of Southern California.

Garrett was in New York for a television appearance, and later the guest of honor at the annual Heisman banquet.

He was reluctant to discuss his future after winding up his college career Saturday in Southern Cal's 56-6 victory over Wyoming.

Garrett set a national intercollegiate rushing record for a three-year career, with a total of 3,221 yards. It broke the old mark of 3,168 set by Ollie Matson of the University of San Francisco in the 1949-50-51 period.

Garrett was drafted in the second round by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, and rumors persisted that Oakland of the rival American League was in the market for his services.

One rumor even said the Oakland club was willing to go as high as $300,000, stretched over two or more seasons.

Most observers here feel that Garrett would be a valuable asset but not to the extent of $300,000.

Garrett himself parried questions, saying he wouldn't make up his mind what to do until later this winter. He said he may not sign anything because he might want to finish out his year in baseball at Southern Cal this spring.

Peacock Gap Country Club held a Junior Tournament last Friday and 23 hardy souls braved the rain and cold weather to participate.

The competition was divided into four groups, one for girls and three for boys. The girls group included anyone under 18, and the boys' competition was divided into 7-10, 11-13, and 14-18 age division.

Because of the weather, the girls and the 7-10 boys group played only nine holes. Sixteen-year-old Connie Raznikov led the girls with a 53, and 9-year-old Shelley Gates came in with an excellent 66 to take second. Craig Sanders, 8, led the 7-10 boys with a 69, and Danny Smith, 10, took second.

The older boys managed to get in 13 muddy holes of play. Doug Francisco, 15, won the 14-18 group with a fine 54, with Gary Schweitzer, 14, coming in second.

In the 11-13 group, Kelly Wolfe, 13, won with a 75, with Chuck Rasnikov a close second.

Hiskey Captures Title In Playoff

By ROBERT CAREY

LAFAYETTE, La. (UPI) — Babe Hiskey, a 26-year-old newcomer to professional golf, won the $32,000 Cajun Classic golf tournament yesterday in a sudden-death playoff with Dudley Wysong Jr., anothe r unknown.

Hiskey and Wysong, of Casper, Wyo., finished the 72-hole regulation play with 13-under-par 275s, one stroke ahead of favorite and leading PGA money winner Jack Nicklaus.

Wysong turned in the best round of the day, a six-under-par 66, while Hiskey was scoring a 67.

Nicklaus, who led through two rounds, had a 69 yesterday for a total of 276.

Rex Baxter Jr., with a 68, matched Nicklaus' 276 in the last PGA outing of the season.

Behind Nicklaus and Baxter were Kermit Zarley and Jack McGowan at 277. McGowan had a 67 final round and Zarley a 69.

Both Hiskey and Wysong, who had not even been considered in contention for the classic crown, finished strong over the rain drenched 6,555-yard Oakbourne Country Club course.

The slender, dark haired Hiskey picked up four birdies on the front nine and three on the second, getting near the pin on each of the birdied holes with excellent short iron work.

Stolle Rejects $67,200 Pro Bid

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Australian Davis Cup star Fred Stolle has rejected an offer to turn professional in the hope of winning the Wimbleton Tennis Championship.

Stolle was offered $67,200 for a 10-month touring contract with the professional troupe which features Ken Rosewall, Lew Hoad and Rod Laver among its present Australian squad.

Two-time Wimbleton champion Roy Emerson already has rejected similar offers from professionals.

Stolle feels Emerson may have difficulty regaining the winning form of his past two Wimbleton Tournaments and this was a big factor in his decision.

Polish Ace Probably Has Best 'Impossible' Slam Tale Of All

Ask a bridge player for his favorite hand and he's sure to tell you about a slam that he managed to make against bad breaks that would have overwhelmed anybody else.

Few stories of this kind can top that of Andrzej Wilkosz of the Polish national bridge team during the 1963 European Championships.

South's jump to six spades was aggressive, but North was really responsible for the silly slam contract.

North should have jumped to four spades at his second turn without first bidding diamonds as well as clubs.

North's bidding would have been proper if the queen of clubs were changed to the ace; and in that case a normal trump break would permit South to make the slam.

SHOULD HAVE LOST

With the actual layout, South should have lost two club tricks and two trumps.

If West had led a club, South would have gone down three. Even if West had led a trump, South would have gone down.

West actually led the jack of hearts, and then the Polish master took over.

DISCARDS CLUBS

Wilkosz took the ace of hearts, ruffed a heart in dummy and cashed the high diamonds to get rid of his two clubs.

Then he ruffed a club, while East moaned pitifully at the disappearance of the two club tricks.

South ruffed another heart in dummy and ruffed a second club in his hand.

Then he ruffed his last heart in dummy and returned a diamond, ruffing with the eight of spades.

WEST IN TROUBLE

By this time South had taken the first nine tricks, and West was reduced to his four trumps.

He had to over-ruff with the nine of spades and then had to return a trump up to South's A-K-J.

Six spades bid and made.

"There was no way to make seven," Wilkosz said apologetically to his partner.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two spades.

This shows trump support with about 6 to 9 points including distribution as well as high cards.

One Win, Two Losses For Marin Pop Warner Teams

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The champion Marin County Pop Warner football teams are back home today after a jet ride to San Diego. One team was a winner, and two were losers, but all had a great time.

The teams—San Rafael, Novato and Terra Linda — were flown to San Diego Friday morning and played against Pop Warner teams on the University of San Diego field on Saturday. The Marin youngsters, many aboard airplanes for the first time, were flown back Saturday evening.

San Rafael Junior Bulldogs started the day off fine for Marin, whipping Grossmont 34-13. The rest of the day wasn't so good for the Marin kids. Novato Junior Hornets were dumped by Lemon Grove, 40-7, and the Terra Linda Junior Trojans were blitzed by Kearny Mesa, 44-0.

The total for the day was San Diego 97, Marin 41.

Marin's three teams had earned the trip by finishing their regular league games with identical 4-1 records, good for a three - way championship. The sponsoring Marin County Boys Club decided to reward all 120 or so youngsters—12 through 14 —with the trip down South.

Novato '11' Suffers 40-7 Loss

Lemon Grove scored three touchdowns before Novato could get its offense untracked. Lemon Grove followers said it was its best game of the season and Novato backers said it was Novato's worst.

All the excitement must have gotten to the Junior Hornets who fell to a team that had won only one game prior to last Saturday's scrap. That one prior triumph was against winless Grossmont.

Novato's only touchdown of the afternoon came in the third quarter on a brilliant 55-yard run by Vince Lagoy, the 123-pound halfback who had scored three touchdowns in the Marin County North - South All - Star game earlier this season.

GNOSS HURT

Novato's quarterback, Ken Gnoss was hurt in the first quarter and that was quite a blow to the Hornets offensive attack. Later in the game Randy Jackson was also sidelined with a head injury.

The passing combination of Rick Halsey to Henry Deeter was a big weapon in the Lemon Grove arsenal, and it was used quite often to the woes of the Hornets. That combo was good for the first two Lemon Grove touchdowns. Halsey was a big star for the winners, passing for three touchdowns and running for two more.

Scoring summary:

Novato	0	0	7	0—7
Lemon Grove	6	7	7	20—40

Novato scoring: TD — Vince Lagoy, 55-yard run. PAT — Lagoy, run.

Lemon Groce scoring: TD's—Henry Deeter (2), 68 and 28-yard passes from Rick Halsey. Richard Gibbons, 45-pass interception. Halsey (2), 6-yard and 4-yard runs. Robert Littrell, 39-yard pass from Halsey. PAT's—Larry McBee, pass. John Binkele, run. Halsey, run. Mike Crawford, run.

San Rafael Blasts Southerners, 34-13

San Rafael's Junior Bulldogs showed the San Diego fans a dazzling offense and were in command throughout the game, leading at halftime 20-6.

Lowell Widmer hit at right tackle for the extra point and it was 7-0. Then later in the same quarter, the Buildogs' Dan Jordan intercepted a Grossmont pass to set up another score from 15 yards out. On the first play after that interception, Widmer, a fine little runner who comes from quite a football family, skirted right end for the touchdown. Sam Salcido added the PAT with a burst through right tackle.

WIDMER STARS

Widmer, who has two big brothers playing varsity ball at San Rafael High School, returned a punt 36 yards late in the first period and again returned one 39 yards to set up his team's third touchdown, this time in the second quarter. Salcido was the boy to score, a four-yard blast through left tackle. That put the Junior Bulldogs in front 20-0.

Just before the first half ended, Grossmont hit the scoring column, with Hal Stuart romping 50 yards around left end. He broke four tackles en route to the end zone.

Widmer scored his second touchdown of the day in the third quarter when he galloped 19 yards around left end. When Salcido blasted through right guard for the extra point, it put the Bulldogs in front by 27-6.

Grossmont, which made its first first down in the final quarter, scored in that quarter, again with Stuart toting the ball, this time around right end for 44 yards.

DAZZLING RUN

The Junior Bulldogs scored late in the final period on a dazzling run by Silva. He intercepted a pass on his own 20-yard stripe and dashed 80 yards down the field for the touchdown. That really got the San Rafael parents screaming. Salcido again ran for the extra point, ending the scoring for the game.

Some fine line play came from San Rafael's front wall, including Jim Donovan, Tom Brown, Dick Hermann, Gary Beeman, Richard Wright, Dan Jordan and Coleman.

The Grossmont team had a rough time of it, as it had all season. Grossmont went through the entire season without a win.

Scoring summary:

San Rafael	14	6	7	7—34
Grossmont	0	6	0	7—13

San Rafael scoring: TD's — Dennis Silva, 37-yard run. Lowell Widmer, 15-yard run. Sam Salcido, 4-yard run. Widmer, 19-yard run. Silva, 80-yard pass interception. PAT's—Widmer, Salcido (3).

Grossmont scoring: TD's — Stuart (2), 50 and 44-yard runs. PAT—Joe Cabrera, run.

Terra Linda Is Blitzed By 44 To 0

Terra Linda's Junior Trojans ran into a team that had never been beaten this year and the Kearny Mesa boys from San Diego looked like true champions.

They sad some tall, lean boys who still made the 128-pound limit of the Pop Warner Junior Bantam Division. Some of them had the speed of high school athletes. Where the Marin teams don't have 14-year-olds playing, that is the limit for the Junior Bantam Division. That extra year must have made the difference.

But not to take anything from this Kearny Mesa team, the San Diego fans have a right to be proud of these youngsters. They were simply too much for Terra Linda and they would have been too much for the North Marin County All-Stars.

The Kearny Mesa boys scored in every quarter and it got so bad near the end of the game that even the San Diego fans were cheering for the Marin boys, hoping they would at least score a point or two.

BIGGEST THREAT

But the Kearny Mesa defense would have none of it. Terra Linda's biggest threat to score was halfback Mikes Bridges who made some fine runs before being injured in the second quarter. He had to sit out the rest of the game.

Kearny Mesa had a rarity in Pop Warner football, a tall, skinny boy (taller than his coaches) who kicked extra points. Most of his shots were long enough but just a little wide. The boy, Dwight McDonald, even tried a 40-yard field goal on the last play of the game, but the ball fell to the ground before his toe ever connected.

Scoring summary:

Kearny Mesa	12	19	6	7—44

Kearny Mesa scoring: TD's—McDonald, 4-yard run. Dean Rice, 38-yard run. Lloyd Ellis, 40-yard pass interception. Eddie Evilsizor, 48-yard pass from Gene Watkins. Evilsizor, 42-yard run. Ted Mack, 1-yard run. Randy Washam, 37-yard pass from Evilsizor. PAT's—McDonald (2) kicks.

Three Marin Lifters Win

Walt Gioseffi, Terry Johnson and Bill McCraw, all of the MarVel Athletic Club of Marin, were among the winners at the Nevada State Weightlifting Championships in Reno.

Gioseffi lifted a total of 750 pounds to win the 181-pound class and the Nevada light heavyweight championship. Johnson was second in the 148-pound class with a 620 total, and McCraw was third in the heavyweight division with an 815 total.

Fish Poles Gone

Floyd Wagner of 12 Elaine Way, Apt. 3, San Rafael, told San Rafael police yesterday four fishing poles and reels, worth a total of $100, and a $110 Polaroid camera were stolen from his runabout boat, kept at Loch Lomond Yacht Harbor, during the past two weeks.

Seals Win, Host Totes Wednesday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Seals will host the Seattle Totems Wednesday to try for their seventh win of their Western Hockey League season.

The Seals won Saturday night in an inter-league game against the Springfield, Mass., Indians of the American League. San Francisco started the scoring and went on to a 4-1 victory.

The win may have eased the pressure on Seals' wallets. The team's management had fined players for their performance in their recent series of losses.

Springfield's John McCartan scored with 50 seconds remaining in the second period. Ron Harris made San Francisco's final goal midway through the last period after Springfield was given a minor bench penalty.

San Francisco's only other scheduled inter-league game is against Hershey, Pa.

ARMY-NAVY TIE

'Bama, Troy Romp; Irish Deadlocked

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Alabama's Crimson Tide, counted out of everything two months ago but named to a bowl a week ago, has completed one of the biggest comebacks of the 1965 college football season and now turns its attention to Nebraska.

"We haven't turned a wheel on Nebraska," Alabama Coach Bear Bryant said. "We haven't looked at them, haven't scouted them, haven't thought about them."

But the Tide, ranked fifth in the country and headed for a Jan. 1 Orange Bowl date with Nebraska, 10-0 and No. 3 nationally, undoubtedly will be thinking about the Cornhuskers a lot this week.

They have nothing else to do.

Bryant, one of the toughest task masters in the business, gave the team the week off after Alabama closed its regular season with a 30-3 triumph over Auburn Saturday.

"I'm proud of them," Bryant said, "more so than any team I've ever been associated with. They had to come from so far back."

'Bama was counted out of everything, and knocked out of the nation's No. 1 spot when they lost to Georgia in their opener. Only a tie with Tennessee mars their record since then.

They finished at 8-1-1 and, by beating Auburn, took the Southeastern Conference title. Steve Sloan threw three touchdown passes.

ARMY-NAVY TIE

Georgia Tech, headed for the Gator Bowl, was upset by Georgia 17-7, while the two big ones — Army vs. Navy and Notre Dame vs. Miami, Fla — ended in ties.

Army and Navy struggled to a lack-lustre 7-7 tie before 102,000 in Philadelphia, finishing off a medicore season for each team. Mighty Notre Dame, No. 6 in the country, apparently suffered a let-down after the previous week's loss to Michigan State and was held to a scoreless tie by Miami.

The other ranked teams in action won handily, No. 9 Tennessee taking Vanderbilt 21-3 and No. 8 Southern California routed Wyoming 56-6.

Brigham Young wrapped up the Western Athletic Conference title with a 42-8 romp over New Mexico while Texas Christian filled out the major bowl line-up, accepting a spot in the Sun Bowl after beating Southern Methodist 10-7.

Rose Bowl — Michigan State, 10-0, vs. UCLA, 7-1-1.

Cotton Bowl — Arkansas, 10-0, vs. Louisiana State, 7-3.

Sugar Bowl — Missouri, 7-2-1, vs. Florida, 7-3.

Orange Bowl — Nebraska, 10-0, vs. Alabama, 8-1-1.

Gator Bowl — Georgia Tech, 6-1-3, vs. Texas Tech, 8-2.

Bluebonnet Bowl — Tennessee, 6-1-2, vs. Tulsa, 8-2.

Liberty Bowl — Auburn, 5-4-1, vs. Mississippi, 6-4.

Sun Bowl — Texas Christian, 6-4, vs. Texas Western, 7-3.

Of those, only UCLA and Tennessee have a game left, meeting this weekend.

Several others wound up Saturday. Texas Western ripped up West Texas State 38-21, Florida took Florida State 30-17 and Mississippi blanked Mississippi State 21-0.

A Welcome Rest For Battered Warriors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Warriors are taking a long rest before they head across the bay Thursday to meet the Cincinnati Royals in a National Basketball Assn. game at Oakland.

The four-day breather will give San Francisco a chance to recover from a visit by their towering former teammate, Wilt Chamberlain.

Wilt, now with the Philadelphia 76ers, led his team to victories Friday and Saturday in San Francisco. Philadelphia won the first game, 132-120, and the second, 124-117.

Chamberlain dominated both halves of Saturday's game, stopping a Warrior spurt that put them ahead 72-67 in the third quarter. He grabbed a flurry of rebounds and made seven straight points.

Chamberlain led both teams in individual scoring with 38 points. Forward Tom Meschery led San Francisco with 27 points.

Forward Chet Walker made 17 points in the first half, spurring Philadelphia's lead.

Space, Defense Issues Escalate With War

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed irregular today. Trading was heavy.

Aerospace, defense, electronics, airlines, coppers and specially-situated issues made strides.

The escalation of the Viet Nam conflict and reports that money rates are not likely to be increasing despite the boost in defense spending were cited as bullish factors.

Kennecott, Boeing, Eastern Air Lines, American Smelting, Fairchild Camera and Lotton Industries were among the issues showing strength.

Many market standbys such as General Motors, American Motors, Du Pont, Jersey Standard and U.S. Steel were backward.

Volume for the day was estimated at 8.5 million shares compared with 6.97 million on Friday.

The escalation of fighting in Viet Nam helped aerospace defense and electronics stocks, while burgeoning traffic over the Thanksgiving holiday boosted airlines.

Rising copper commodity prices gave a shot in the arm to copper stocks.

Many key stocks lagged badly as the session wore on, however, and an early advance as blunted, leaving the overall list irregular.

Boeing ran up 4 points. General Dynamics about 1½. Up a couple of points were Zenith, Raytheon and Eastern Airlines. Kennecott jumped 4, American Smelting 2.

Du Pont lost 1; IB M5, Jersey Standard more than a point. Fractional losses were shown by all Big Three motors, U.S. Steel and American Telephone.

M. A. Hanna was leading as most active stock, showing a slight loss.

Gains of around 3 points were scored by Fairchild Camera, Braniff Airways, Corning Glass, and American Broadcasting.

Kennecott and Polaroid jumped 4 points, Control Data and American Smelting 2 or more.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly unchanged.

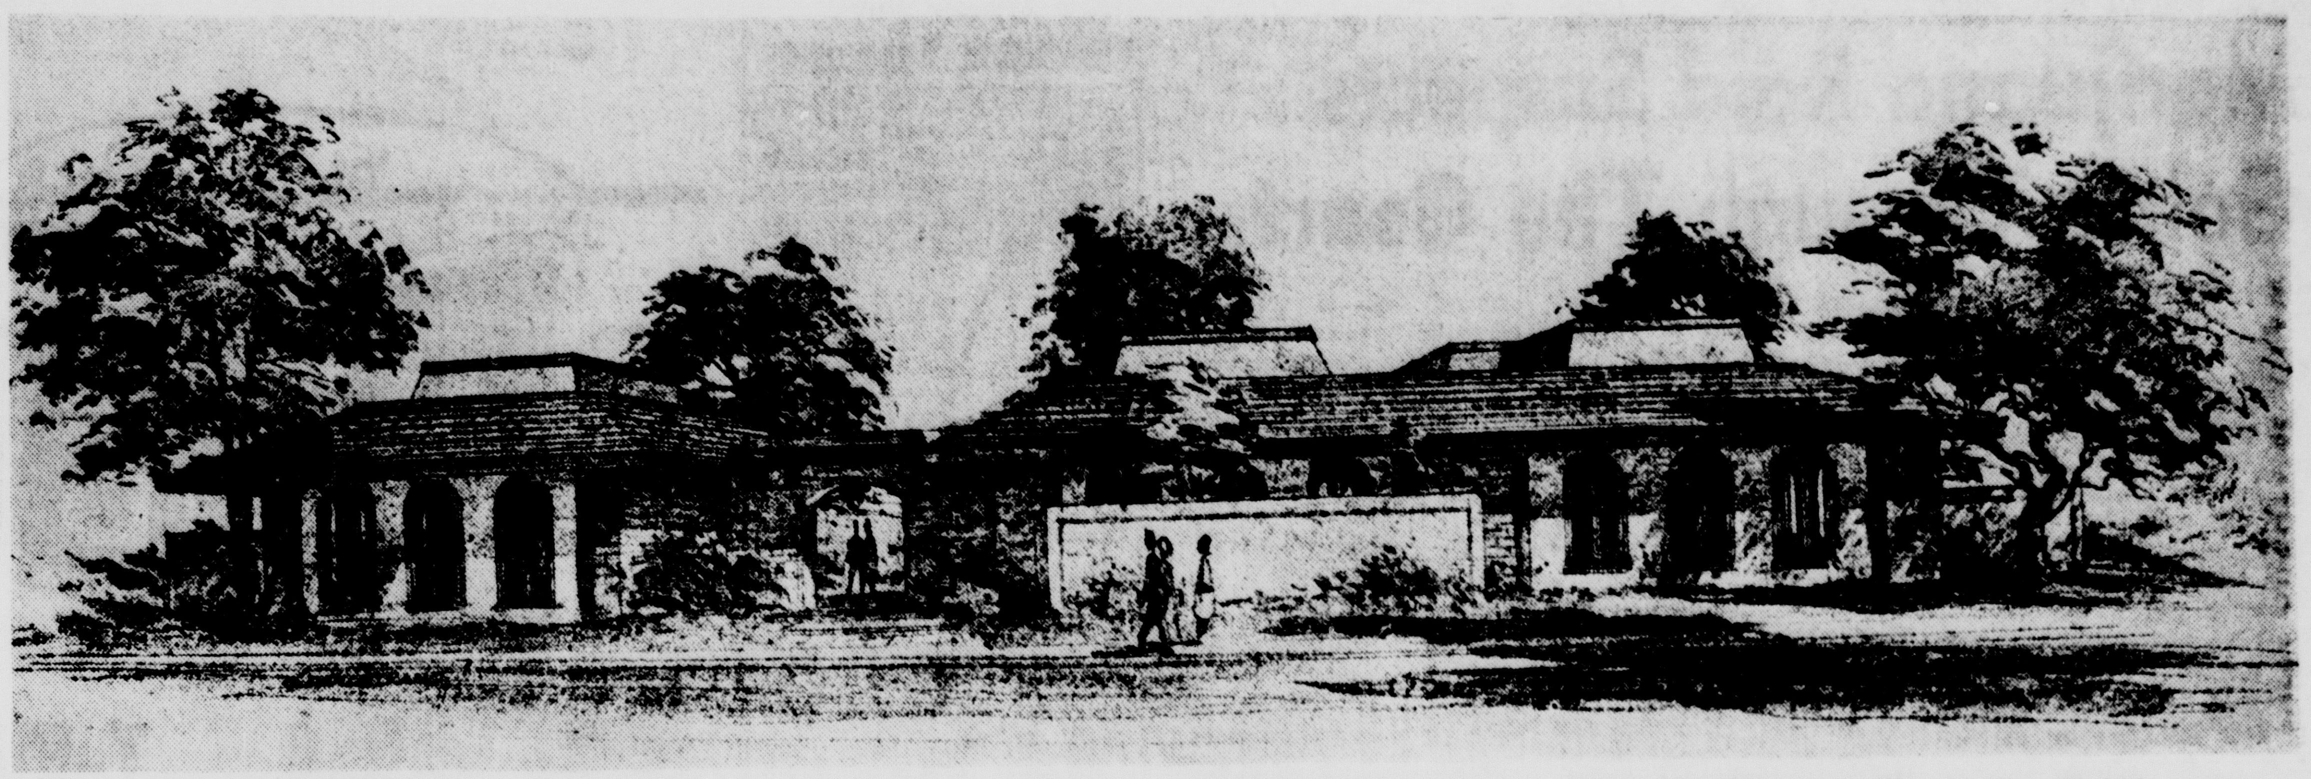
Travel In West Promotion Urged By Utah Official

MONTEREY — Travel will be a $20 billion business in the 13 western states by 1975, it was predicted here today by the chairman of the Western Governors Task Force on Travel Promotion.

Emanuel Floor, director of Utah's Tourist and Publicity Council said tourism can provide new jobs, income and taxes to support the West's expanding economy. He spoke to the annual convention of the Western America Convention and Travel Institute.

Floor said westerners should sell their unique and superior product to the 153 million people east of the Rockies, to 300 million potential customers in Europe and 95 million in the Orient.

Travel directors of most of the states at the convention disclosed state governments will spend almost $10 million this year for travel promotion.



FIRST DEL PRADO UNIT—Planned for construction by D. M. Christensen Construction Co. is this three-building cluster for professional use in the Northgate area. The first unit, designed by Bushnell-Jessup-Murphy-Van Deweghe, will comprise 6,500 square feet of rental space. Entire Del Prado development will comprise 60,000 square feet, with about half of this under cover. Design is early California mission style, with tiled roofs, pathways and large landscaped area.

Milkman Meets Competition

WASHINGTON (AP) —The milk delivery man is running into more and more competition.

The Agriculture Department reports that 40 years ago the proportion of milk sold on home-delivery routes represented 85 per cent of the total bought by consumers.

Today, the home delivery share is said to be less than 35 per cent.

Airline Record

LOS ANGELES—Western Air Lines has reported record October profit of $841,000, or 19 cents a share, a 4.5 per cent increase over the previous October high of $805,000, or 18 cents a share, last year.

Line Orders Ships

BATH, Maine (AP) — American Export-Isbrandtsen Lines has agreed to sign a $38,760,000 shipbuilding contract with the Bath Iron Works to build three cargo ships.

Judge To Review Mines Lawsuit

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Court Judge Frank Wilson is expected to begin in February a review of this fall's antitrust case against the United Mine Workers Union.

The trial transcript runs 5,600 pages in 25 volumes.

The suit was filed by 30 southeast Tennessee coal operators who accuse the UMW of conspiring with major Kentucky operators to drive fringe mines out of business.

Martell Promoted

Charles F. Martell Jr. of 5 Dominican Way, San Rafael, has been promoted to banking services officer of the Wells Fargo Bank, San Francisco, serving in the branch locations department.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Del Prado, Newest Northgate Professional Offices, Going Up

New professional development in the Northgate vicinity is Del Prado - another project of D. M. Christensen Construction Co., who has already been active in this area.

Christensen has a 60,000-square foot parcel on Las Gallinas Avenue behind Northgate Unit One, and expects to break ground in another week or 10 days for a cluster of three mission-type buildings at one end of the property. They will surround a central court and in effect be like one building, with about 6,500 square feet of floor space. One full building is already leased or committed and another is partially so. Remainder is up for lease through Redwood Realtors, lease agent.

Completion of this first unit is expected by the end of February or first part of March. Plans for the rest of the property have not been completed, but very likely there will be about 30,000 square feet of leaseable area in the entire project. Grounds will be landscaped and have offstreet parking.

NEW NAME for the service station at Second and C Streets, San Rafael is Ciucci and Hall Flying A Service. Owners here now are Howard Ciucci and Willard Hall, who purchased from Ivo Vollmer.

Ciucci was formerly principal in Ciucci's Auto Repair Shop at Third and D Streets where he worked for 27 years. The latter business has been cut down considerably, with Howard's uncle Leo Ciucci now operating it as Ciucci's Machine Shop. J and R Sales has taken over part of the premises for its vacuum cleaner business.

Hall was formerly co-owner of Hall and Barnes Mobil station at Third and A Streets, where he was in business 26 years—but gave that up early last year when he and Jack Barnes closed down the operation. After 20 months of traveling in Mexico, Canada and Alaska (he never did make it to the Far East) and playing golf, he has decided to forsake this life of retirement for more work.

Marks

Nathe

HAROLD F. (HAL) MARKS of San Rafael has been named assistant advertising officer at Bank of California's San Francisco headquarters. He joined the bank 15 months ago as art director. Previously he was art director for Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, Inc. for five years, with Dancer-Fitzgerald-Sampl three years and for 10 years a free lance designer.

AL H. NATHE of San Rafael has been appointed corporate planning director of Levi Strauss and Co. and responsible for developing a company-wide system of planning for future expansion. He joined Levi Strauss in 1959 as marketing research manager and was elected a director last February. He was previously with the Emporium in San Francisco and with California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Co.

TWO MARIN MEN are among new corporate officers elected at the San Francisco home office of Industrial Indemnity Co.

Sterling Hilen of Novato has been appointed assistant vice president in the claims section. He recently rejoined Industrial after 16 months in private practice with the San Francisco law firm Leonard and Hilen. Earlier he was nine years in Industrial's claims department in San Francisco and Oakland claims counsel.

Harry M. Galliver of Mill Valley has been elected controller, and has been manager of the financial division 11 years, with 29 years of internal audit, accounting and financial experience.

Non-Farm Labor Decline Slight

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Non-farm employment in the western states dropped from the usual September peak to 9,920,000 in mid-October, the U.S. Labor Department reported last week.

However, the decline of about 50,000 jobs was only about half the normal decrease for the period, according to Max D. Kossoris, regional director of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The drop was felt in all major industries, he said.

Kossoris also reported an increase of 350,000 jobs in the 13-state area from October, 1964.

Weekly earnings of production workers ranged from $94.42 in New Mexico to $160.78 in Alaska.

Sugar Firm Pays Out $15 Million

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—The Holly Sugar Corp. announced payments totaling $15.6 million at nine of its 11 beet sugar plants.

The initial payment checks went to more than 2,000 growers who supplied beets at Sidney and Hardin, Mont.; Worland and Torrington, Wyo.; Delta, Colo.; Hereford, Tex.; and Hamilton City, Alvarado and Tracy, Calif.

President Dennis O'Rourke said the initial payment represents only a part of the total that growers will receive for the 1965 crop.

Underground Gas Storage Cost Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of storing natural gas underground until it is needed has gone up.

Latest statistics made public by the Federal Power Commission show average costs in 1964 were 16.97 cents a thousand cubic feet, compared with 15.14 cents in 1963.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Polish Ace Probably Has Best 'Impossible' Slam Tale Of All

Ask a bridge player for his favorite hand and he's sure to tell you about a slam that he managed to make against bad breaks that would have overwhelmed anybody else.

Few stories of this kind can top that of Andrzej Wilkosz of the Polish national bridge team during the 1963 European Championships.

South's jump to six spades was aggressive, but North was really responsible for the silly slam contract.

North should have jumped to four spades at his second turn without first bidding diamonds as well as clubs.

North's bidding would have been proper if the queen of clubs were changed to the ace; and in that case a normal trump break would permit South to make the slam.

SHOULD HAVE LOST

With the actual layout, South should have lost two club tricks and two trumps.

If West had led a club, South would have gone down three. Even if West had led a trump, South would have gone down.

West actually led the jack of hearts, and then the Polish master took over.

DISCARDS CLUBS

Wilkosz took the ace of hearts, ruffed a heart in dummy and cashed the high diamonds to get rid of his two clubs.

Then he ruffed a club, while East moaned pitifully at the disappearance of the two club tricks.

South ruffed another heart in dummy and ruffed a second club in his hand.

Then he ruffed his last heart in dummy and returned a diamond, ruffing with the eight of spades.

WEST IN TROUBLE

By this time South had taken the first nine tricks, and West was reduced to his four trumps.

He had to over-ruff with the nine of spades and then had to return a trump up to South's A-K-J.

Six spades bid and made.

"There was no way to make seven," Wilkosz said apologetically to his partner.

Marijuana Raid Suspects Going Through The Courts

By ROSS DAVIS

Four of the 11 adults arrested in early June roundups of suspected marijuana pushers and users in southern Marin County have pleaded guilty, four are awaiting jury trials and the remaining three have either been referred to juvenile court or are awaiting certification there.

Of the four who pleaded guilty, two drew no prison or jail sentence, despite requests in both instances by the district attorney's office.

Judgment on a third guilty plea case is still pending. The fourth, a 19-year-old youth, was committed to California Youth Authority for an indefinite period for marijuana sales and two burglaries.

Latest judgment came last Wednesday, on the guilty plea of Anthony Pastor, 26, of Beverly Hills, to a count of selling marijuana. A second count of sale was dismissed by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court because of the earlier guilty plea. Pastor was sentenced on the one count to pay $330 fine and be placed on three years probation.

Judge Haley on Nov. 18 had sentenced Pastor to four months in county jail, and suspended sentence, and placed him on probation for three years. However, he subsequently discovered a new amendment to the Health and Safety Code does not permit a suspended jail sentence for the offense; therefore, Pastor was re-sentenced with the fine imposed.

Judge Haley, however, noted Pastor voluntarily returned from New York to Marin County to face the charge, that he is now married, with his wife pregnant, and that he has a job.

The magistrate said he saw no constructive purpose in sentencing Pastor to jail.

Another judgment was for Susan Kerrigan, 22, of Sausalito, for possession of marijuana and carrying a concealed weapon. On Oct. 5, she pleaded guilty to both charges. On Oct. 26, Judge Samuel W. Gardiner placed her on three years probation.

This came over the protest of Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales, who asked for a 10-day jail sentence, claiming defendants in possession cases often fail to take the charge seriously, and failing to provide any time in jail would indicate that the court concurred.

Judge Gardiner, however, replied that the double felony conviction and the probation period were sufficiently severe for a first offender. He said a short jail term would only appear as "a slap on the wrist."

Third of those sentenced was Ira Lewis Edwards of 135 Drake Avenue, Marin City. He was charged with one count of selling marijuana, but on Oct. 8 pleaded guilty to possession and the sale charge was dropped. Judge Gardiner sentenced him to the indefinite term at California Youth Authority on the marijuana possession and two convictions for burglary.

Fourth guilty plea was that of Otus Hayes, 28, Sausalito. He pleaded guilty Nov. 22 to one count of selling marijuana. A count of possession was then dismissed by Judge Haley. Hayes is to be sentenced at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Pending trial in a joint indictment alleging sales are Wilhelm Alexander Rossknecht, 27, of 10 Reed Lane, Sausalito, Peter Wright Lenihan, 31, of 420 B Street, Sausalito, and Ronald Keith Maska, 29, of Orange County.

A 65-member jury panel was excused Oct. 25 when Rossknecht failed to appear. A bench warrant for his arrest was ordered by Judge Thomas F. Keating, bail of $4,400 was forfeited.

New trial date is Dec. 20, but Rossknecht is still a fugitive.

Other scheduled trial is for Richard Nixon Applebee, 21, of Larkspur on Dec. 6. He is charged with two counts of sales.

Referred to juvenile court for handling were cases of Candace Haseman, 19, of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Marin County, and Harry Ronald Krieger, 20, of 148 Sycamore Avenue, Mill Valley, each charged with one count of possession.

On Aug. 31, Miss Haseman pleaded guilty to one count of marijuana sale. A second sales count was dismissed by Judge Keating and sentencing was deferred until Sept. 23.

On that day, however, Judge Keating instead referred the case to juvenile court. Commenting on Miss Hasseman's petition for the minor's court, Judge Keating noted that persons under 21 years of age are eligible — providing juvenile court accepts them—and said Miss Haseman is "undoubtedly a case" for that court because of her "unsophistication."

Just prior to the referral, Asst. Dist. Atty. Leonard Shaw had opposed a probation department recommendation of mere two years' probation. He asked in addition 60 days in county jail, citing that Miss Haseman was charged with selling $120 worth of marijuana on one occasion, and a kilogram of the weed (2.025 pounds), for which he said she received $200 on another occasion.

Miss Haseman had surrendered to Marin County officers, but only after extradition proceedings had been completed with the governor of Arizona.

Krieger was certified to juvenile court on Sept. 28. Don Edward Fleischer, 20, Sausalito, has a motion before Marin Superior Court for juvenile court referral, which is to be heard by Judge Gardiner at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. Fleischer faces two counts of sales.

Sukarno Decrees New Austerity In Trade

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The Indonesian government has a new economic-financial policy for 1966 that calls for austerity in development projects and continued lavish spending for revolutionary political schemes.

This policy was sanctioned by a decree signed by President Sukarno. It puts all imports and exports under government control.

Cairo is named after the planet Mars —El qahira in Arabic, says National Geographic.

New Owner Buys Plantation Landmark

ALEXANDRIA, La. (AP) —J. D. Cobb of England, Ark., has purchased Rosalie Plantation, one of the few central Louisiana showplaces that escaped ravages of the Civil War, for $290,000.

Real estate dealers said the previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Harris, retained the 145-year-old home with about five acres of land. The plantation consists of 510 acres.

Federal Bureau Sets More Food Stamps

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Agriculture Department plans next year to broaden its programs for improving diets of needy persons.

The agency said in a report it is likely that more food will be donated to the needy through its direct distribution program. In addition, its food stamp plan will be extended to some areas not now covered.

1965 Christmas Greetings 1965

We go to all the trouble of redesigning our interiors, improving our handling, and refining our Wide-Track ride, and some people buy us just for our looks.

Our new Executive Hardtop Coupe. Like all 1966 Pontiacs it includes outside mirror, padded dash and visors, backup lights, front and rear seat belts, dual-speed windshield wipers, and washers to clean your windshield for better visibility.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. We spend so much time and effort in there.

Why, this year alone we've made available brand-new wraparound buckets and profile bench seats. Not to mention extending our use of rich, genuine walnut paneling. And nicer instrument clusters you've never seen.

We've even had our engineers take our test cars apart to see if they can make them smoother, quieter, and more luxurious. And they came up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs even more enjoyable to drive.

Really, though—we don't care which one of our features gets you inside one of our new Pontiacs, just as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

Everything's new in tiger country. Wide-Track Pontiac/'66

Space, Defense Issues Escalate With War

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed irregular today. Trading was heavy.

Aerospace, defense, electronics, airlines, coppers and specially-situated issues made strides.

The escalation of the Viet Nam conflict and reports that money rates are not likely to be increasing despite the boost in defense spending were cited as bullish factors.

Kennecott, Boeing, Eastern Air Lines, American Smelting, Fairchild Camera and Lotton Industries were among the issues showing strength.

Many market standbys such as General Motors, American Motors, Du Pont, Jersey Standard and U.S. Steel were backward.

Volume for the day was estimated at 8.5 million shares compared with 6.97 million on Friday.

The escalation of fighting in Viet Nam helped aerospace defense and electronics stocks, while burgeoning traffic over the Thanksgiving holiday boosted airlines.

Rising copper commodity prices gave a shot in the arm to copper stocks.

Many key stocks lagged badly as the session wore on, however, and an early advance as blunted, leaving the overall list irregular.

Boeing ran up 4 points, General Dynamics about 1½. Up a couple of points were Zenith, Raytheon and Eastern Airlines. Kennecott jumped 4, American Smelting 2.

Du Pont lost 1; IB M5, Jersey Standard more than a point. Fractional losses were shown by all Big Three motors, U.S. Steel and American Telephone.

M. A. Hanna was leading as most active stock, showing a slight loss.

Gains of around 3 points were scored by Fairchild Camera, Braniff Airways, Corning Glass, and American Broadcasting.

Kennecott and Polaroid jumped 4 points, Control Data and American Smelting 2 or more.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly unchanged.

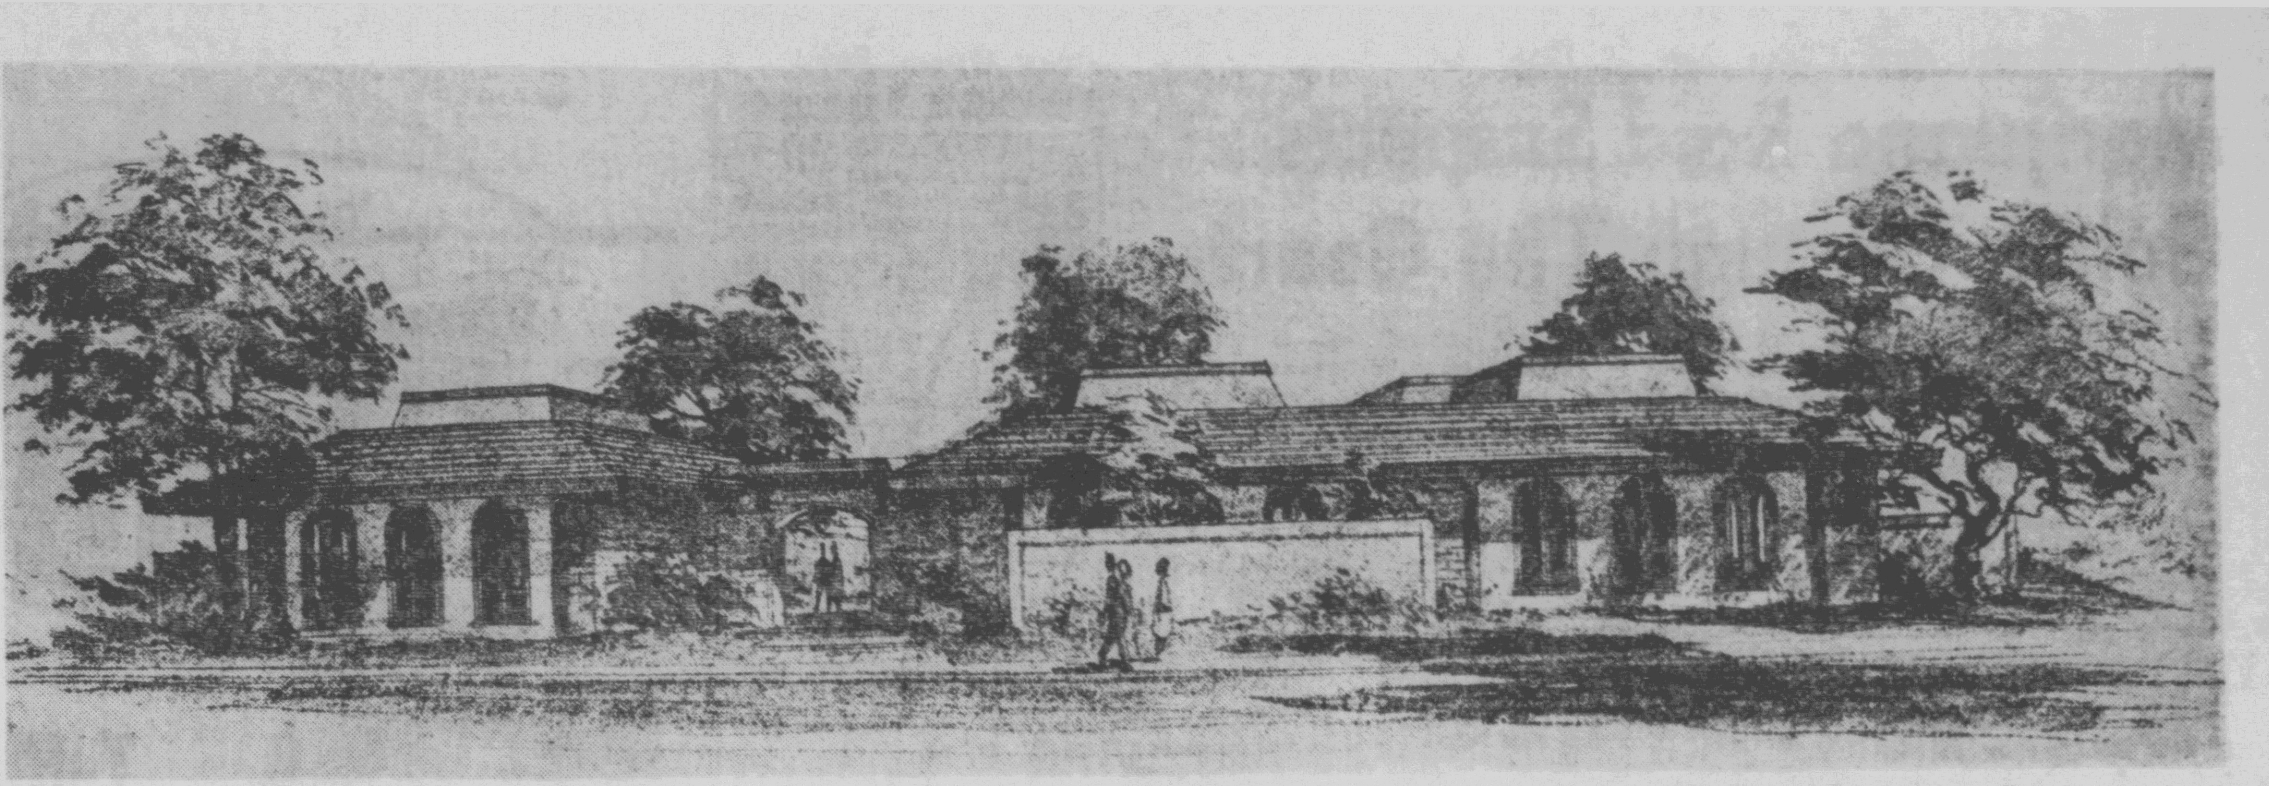
Travel In West Promotion Urged By Utah Official

MONTEREY — Travel will be a $20 billion business in the 13 western states by 1975, it was predicted here today by the chairman of the Western Governors Task Force on Travel Promotion.

Emanuel Floor, director of Utah's Tourist and Publicity Council said tourism can provide new jobs, income and taxes to support the West's expanding economy. He spoke to the annual convention of the Western America Convention and Travel Institute.

Floor said westerners should sell their unique and superior product to the 153 million people east of the Rockies, to 300 million potential customers in Europe and 95 million in the Orient.

Travel directors of most of the states at the convention disclosed state governments will spend almost $10 million this year for travel promotion.



FIRST DEL PRADO UNIT—Planned for construction by D. M. Christensen Construction Co. is this three-building cluster for professional use in the Northgate area. The first unit, designed by Bushnell-Jessup-Murphy-Van Deweghe, will comprise 6,500 square feet of rental space. Entire Del Prado development will comprise 60,000 square feet, with about half of this under cover. Design is early California mission style, with tiled roofs, pathways and large landscaped area.

Milkman Meets Competition

WASHINGTON (AP) —The milk delivery man is running into more and more competition.

The Agriculture Department reports that 40 years ago the proportion of milk sold on home-delivery routes represented 85 per cent of the total bought by consumers.

Today, the home delivery share is said to be less than 35 per cent.

Airline Record

LOS ANGELES—Western Air Lines has reported record October profit of $841,000, or 19 cents a share, a 4.5 per cent increase over the previous October high of $805,000, or 18 cents a share, last year.

Line Orders Ships

BATH, Maine (AP) — American Export-Isbrandtsen Lines has agreed to sign a $38,760,000 shipbuilding contract with the Bath Iron Works to build three cargo ships.

Judge To Review Mines Lawsuit

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Court Judge Frank Wilson is expected to begin in February a review of this fall's antitrust case against the United Mine Workers Union.

The trial transcript runs 5,600 pages in 25 volumes.

The suit was filed by 30 southeast Tennessee coal operators who accuse the UMW of conspiring with major Kentucky operators to drive fringe mines out of business.

Martell Promoted

Charles F. Martell Jr. of 5 Dominican Way, San Rafael, has been promoted to banking services officer of the Wells Fargo Bank, San Francisco, serving in the branch locations department.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Del Prado, Newest Northgate Professional Offices, Going Up

New professional development in the Northgate vicinity is Del Prado - another project of D. M. Christensen Construction Co., who has already been active in this area.

Christensen has a 60,000-square foot parcel on Las Gallinas Avenue behind Northgate Unit One, and expects to break ground in another week or 10 days for a cluster of three mission-type buildings at one end of the property. They will surround a central court and in effect be like one building, with about 6,500 square feet of floor space. One full building is already leased or committed and another is partially so. Remainder is up for lease through Redwood Realtors, lease agent.

Completion of this first unit is expected by the end of February or first part of March. Plans for the rest of the property have not been completed, but very likely there will be about 30,000 square feet of leaseable area in the entire project. Grounds will be landscaped and have offstreet parking.

NEW NAME for the service station at Second and C Streets, San Rafael is Ciucci and Hall Flying A Service. Owners here now are Howard Ciucci and Willard Hall, who purchased from Ivo Vollmer.

Ciucci was formerly principal in Ciucci's Auto Repair Shop at Third and D Streets where he worked for 27 years. The latter business has been cut down considerably, with Howard's uncle Leo Ciucci now operating it as Ciucci's Machine Shop. J and R Sales has taken over part of the premises for its vacuum cleaner business.

Hall was formerly co-owner of Hall and Barnes Mobil station at Third and A Streets, where he was in business 26 years—but gave that up early last year when he and Jack Barnes closed down the operation. After 20 months of traveling in Mexico, Canada and Alaska (he never did make it to the Far East) and playing golf, he has decided to forsake this life of retirement for more work.

Marks

Nathe

HAROLD F. (HAL) MARKS of San Rafael has been named assistant advertising officer at Bank of California's San Francisco headquarters. He joined the bank 15 months ago as art director. Previously he was art director for Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, Inc. for five years, with Dancer-Fitzgerald-Sampl three years and for 10 years a free lance designer.

AL H. NATHE of San Rafael has been appointed corporate planning director of Levi Strauss and Co. and responsible for developing a company-wide system of planning for future expansion. He joined Levi Strauss in 1959 as marketing research manager and was elected a director last February. He was previously with the Emporium in San Francisco and with California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Co.

TWO MARIN MEN are among new corporate officers elected at the San Francisco home office of Industrial Indemnity Co.

Sterling Hilen of Novato has been appointed assistant vice president in the claims section. He recently rejoined Industrial after 16 months in private practice with the San Francisco law firm Leonard and Hilen. Earlier he was nine years in Industrial's claims department in San Francisco and Oakland claims counsel.

Harry M. Galliver of Mill Valley has been elected controller, and has been manager of the financial division 11 years, with 29 years of internal audit, accounting and financial experience.

Sugar Firm Pays Out $15 Million

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—The Holly Sugar Corp. announced payments totaling $15.6 million at nine of its 11 beet sugar plants.

The initial payment checks went to more than 2,000 growers who supplied beets at Sidney and Hardin, Mont.; Worland and Torrington, Wyo.; Delta, Colo.; Hereford, Tex.; and Hamilton City, Alvarado and Tracy, Calif.

President Dennis O'Rourke said the initial payment represents only a part of the total that growers will receive for the 1965 crop.

Underground Gas Storage Cost Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of storing natural gas underground until it is needed has gone up.

Latest statistics made public by the Federal Power Commission show average costs in 1964 were 16.97 cents a thousand cubic feet, compared with 15.14 cents in 1963.

Non-Farm Labor Decline Slight

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Non-farm employment in the western states dropped from the usual September peak to 9,920,000 in mid-October, the U.S. Labor Department reported last week.

However, the decline of about 50,000 jobs was only about half the normal decrease for the period, according to Max D. Kossoris, regional director of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The drop was felt in all major industries, he said.

Kossoris also reported an increase of 350,000 jobs in the 13-state area from October, 1964.

Weekly earnings of production workers ranged from $94.42 in New Mexico to $160.78 in Alaska.

'We Have Stopped Losing War,' McNamara Declares

Saigon Suffers Defeat

COMBINED AP & UPI

SAIGON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said today "We have stopped losing the war" in Viet Nam. At the same time he said North Viet Nam appears determined to carry on the conflict.

McNamara made his statements in an airport news conference before returning to the United States after a one and one-half day visit to South Viet Nam.

McNamara declared that the United States would throw in as many fighting men as needed to wage the war against the Communists.

On the eve of McNamara's arrival, four Viet Cong battalions with North Vietnamese support troops handed the South Vietnamese one of their worst setbacks of the war. In an attack on troops holding an abandoned rubber plantation 45 miles northwest of Saigon, the Communists knocked out an entire government regiment as an effective fighting force. American advisers also perished.

It was feared the casualties, when finally totaled, might be the highest of the war to date.

LONG WAR

McNamara said: "This will be a long war."

There were no reports of major ground fighting during the day.

McNamara told newsmen that despite the recent allied successes in the field the Communists have continued to increase the strength of their forces in South Viet Nam.

"They have more than offset the very heavy losses which they have suffered, the level of infiltration has increased and I think that this represents a clear decision on the part of Hanoi to both escalate the level of infiltration and raise the level of conflict," McNamara said.

INCREASE FORCE

"I'm sure that decision must be countered by an increase in the forces opposing the Viet Cong."

McNamara declined to speculate on the total U.S. forces that will be required but his comments heightened speculation that he will advise President Johnson to increase American ground forces in Viet Nam from 165,000 to 300,000 men and step up air attacks on the North Vietnamese jungle supply routes.

McNamara told newsmen that during his 28-hour visit:

Intelligence sources reported there are at least nine North Vietnamese regiments — between 13,500 and 18,000 men—in South Viet Nam now.

He was much impressed by the combat effectiveness of the 1st Cavalry (air mobile) Division and disclosed at least one more air cavalry division

New Trial Opens For Three In KKK

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Three Ku Klux Klansmen accused of killing a civil rights worker went on trial on civil rights charges in federal court today before a stern judge who repeatedly cautioned prospective jurors that they must decide the issue solely on the evidence.

Thirty minutes after court convened, District Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. granted a 30-minute recess to give lawyers an opportunity to go over a panel of nearly 60 men and women, both white and Negro, drawn for jury duty.

Half a dozen Negroes were on the panel.

The defendants—Collie Leroy Wilkins Jr., 22, of Fairfield, Ala.; Eugene Thomas, 42, and William Orville Eaton, 41, both of Bessemer, Ala.—are charged with civil rights violations in connection with the slaying last March 25 of Viola Gregg Liuzzo, a white Detroit housewife.

Wilkins has already been tried and acquitted of a murder charge in the state courts and the other two defendants are awaiting trial.

Johnson told the prospective jurors on several occasions that "the guilt or innocence of a defendant cannot be determined by what you have read or heard or by anything other than the evidence and the law applicable in the case."

Each of the defendants could be sentenced to 10 years in prison and fined $5,000 under the indictment which is based on an old law used mostly in the past to safeguard voting and property rights.

Nowhere in the indictment is there any mention of the slaying of Mrs. Liuzzo, which touched off the prosecutions in both state and federal court.

The Klansmen are charged with conspiring to injure, oppress, threaten and intimidate U.S. citizens during the civil rights march from Selma to Montgomery last spring.

Mrs. Liuzzo, mother of five children and wife of Anthony Liuzzo, a Teamsters Union official, was shuttling other marchers back to Selma by car when she was shot to death the night of March 25.

The government's chief witness is expected to be Gary Thomas Rowe, a onetime Birmingham bartender who twice has told state court juries he joined the Klan as a paid undercover agent for the FBI. He testified he was in the car from which the fatal bullet was fired and that Wilkins had pulled the trigger.

Jury Picking Starts In Alabama Case

ANNISTON, Ala. (UPI) — Selection of a jury began today in the case of three white men charged with first degree murder in the nightrider slaying of Negro Willie Brewster last July.

It was not immediately announced which of the three would be tried first or if all three would be tried together.

Circuit Judge Robert Parker dismissed several prospective jurors who asked to be excused for personal reasons. Six of 85 prospective jurors are Negroes.

The three men on trial were Johnny Ira Defries, 25; Hubert Damon Strange, 25, and Lewis Blevins, 26. Strange was wounded in a gun battle with another white man following the Brewster murder and was considered a prime candidate to be the first on trial.

Seated with the defendants was militant segregationist Kenneth Adams. Adams, a former Ku Klux Klansman and a local leader of the National States Rights party, once was arrested for beating the late Negro singer Nat (King) Cole in Birmingham.

Brewster, a 38-year-old father of two who said he never had taken part in civil rights activity, was shot July 15 as he returned home from work at Anniston foundry. He died three days later.

Burglars Hit Safe At Novato Safeway

Burglars, who left part of their equipment behind, cut into the safe at the Safeway Store in Novato yesterday, taking an undisclosed amount of cash.

The burglary appears to be the work of a gang that has been hitting Safeway Stores in Washington, Nevada and California, reported Sgt. Otto Haiungs of the Novato Police Department.

Burglars left behind their acetlyene and oxygen tanks, as was the case in the safe cracking at the Safeway Store in Tiburon Oct. 11, Sergeant Haiungs reported.

The burglary occurred between 12:15 a.m. and 8:15 a.m. yesterday, when it was discovered by David Hinton, the store's assistant manager, as he arrived for work.

Burglars entered by prying a vent in the roof, which gave them access to the back of the market, Haiungs said. Then they pried open "a couple of doors" to gain access to the safe in the cashier's office in the front part of the store, he said.

Using a torch, they burned an opening in the steel safe and "cleaned it out," Haiung said.

The Novato Police Department took the two tanks as evidence.

Grape Selling Groceries To Be Picketed

OAKLAND (AP) — A spokesman for farm groups striking against grape growers in Kern County said pickets would march today before stores in the San Francisco Bay Area and Los Angeles where the grapes are being sold.

Four pickets from two farm workers' unions prevented loading of Delano area grapes on the freighter Burrard at the Howard Terminal in Oakland Sunday.

On Nov. 17 pickets from the two groups halted loading of Delano grapes aboard the liner President Wilson in San Francisco.

The National Farm Workers Assn. and the Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee called the strike two months ago against Delano growers, calling for organization of workers, $1.40 an hour minimum wage and increased piecework rates.

When pickets appeared at the Howard Terminal yesterday longshoremen refused to lift the 2,500 grape crates onto the Burrard and three growers' trucks later removed the fruit from the terminal.

Freeze Sneaks Over Marin

The first freeze of the winter sneaked into Marin while few people were looking yesterday morning, but last night thermometers were registering more seasonal overnight lows.

Lawns and rooftops were white with frost at dawn yesterday for anyone awake to see it. Temperatures hit a chilly 29 at Woodacre and 30 at Novato.

Last night the mercury at Woodacre dropped no lower than 34, while at Novato 44 degrees was the minimum.

Forecast calls for continuing fair weather with increasing cloudiness. Temperatures are expected to remain at the seasonal level in the Bay Area.

California Leads In Traffic Toll

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

The nation's traffic death toll for the long Thanksgiving holiday weekend stood today at nearly 600, higher than last year.

A count showed that at least 592 persons were killed between 6 p.m. local time Wednesday and midnight yesterday.

The breakdown: traffic, 592; fires, 79; planes, 24; miscellaneous, 89, for a total of 784.

California led all states with 48 traffic deaths. New York State had 38, Ohio 31 and Texas 29. Only Alaska and Nevada reported no traffic fatalities during the hoilday period.

Although the National Safety Council does not tabulate traffic deaths during Thanksgiving, UPI counted 577 traffic casualties during the 1964 Thanksgiving holiday. The Safety Council said about 575 persons would die in traffic accidents during a normal four-day weekend at this time of year.

The worst accident of the holiday was an airplane crash Saturday in which 13 persons were killed. A chartered airliner crashed into a hillside near Salt Lake City, Utah, while en route to a college football game.

The death toll rose to 11 from an explosion which ripped throught the National Guard Armory at Keokuk, Iowa, at the height of a square dance on Thanksgiving eve.

Eight children at Burlington, Wis., were orphaned in a Thanksgiving day auto accident that claimed the lives of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fuller, and their grandmother.

Four children perished Saturday when fire swept their home in Lafayette, Ind. Two other children and the father escaped the flames.

San Anselmo Student Dies In Crash Of Car

A 21-year-old San Anselmo student was fatally injured at 1:45 a.m. yesterday when his car crashed into a sign pole and a light standard along Skyline Drive, San Francisco.

The victim was Durwood R. Dalka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Dalka, 42 Mariposa Avenue.

According to the San Francisco coroner's office, Dalka was driving north along Skyline and was turning toward John Muir Drive when his car struck a traffic island.

Dalka's small foreign car then struck a one-way sign pole and broadsided into a light standard on John Muir Drive, the coroner reported.

He was taken to Alemany Emergency Hospital where he was dead upon arrival at 2:02 a.m.

Dalka, a student at University of San Francisco, had been a resident of Marin County for four years. He was a native of Indiana.

Surviving are his parents, a sister, Darlyn, and a brother, Darrall Dalka, all of San Anselmo.

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. Anselm's Church, San Anselmo. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Rafael. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. The family prefers that memorial contributions be to the March of Dimes.

Man On Moon Called Waste

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Warren Weaver, former head of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, said today that U.S. attempts to land a man on the moon were a waste of money and scientific manpower.

In a copyrighted interview in "U.S. News & World Report," Weaver said he belongs "with those who do not approve of going to the moon in anything like the way we're doing it.

"If we are doing it as some ridiculous race against the Russians," Weaver said, "I think that is just plain stupid."

Marincello Can't Be Reconsidered

Marin County supervisors cannot reconsider the Marincello master plan that they approved by a 3-2 vote on Nov. 12, according to County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney.

Maloney, in a brief opinion requested by Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen, said today there is no provision in the government code for reconsideration of the adoption of a master plan.

A petition campaign began last week seeking reconsideration by supervisors.

Maloney said the board could make amendments to the plan by referring the proposed changes to the planning commission, which would start the hearing process.

The counsel said, however, there must be some point where the board's action can be considered final.

Judge To Try Novelist Kesey

REDWOOD CITY (AP)—Novelist Ken E. Kesey and a friend agreed today to have their cases on marijuana charges tried by a judge without a jury.

Charges were dismissed against three others brought to court with Kesey on charges of possession of marijuana.

Charges against nine others had been previously dropped. Kesey and 13 guests were arrested April 23 in a raid on Kesey's hilltop home at La Honda.

Kesey, 29, is the author of the novels, "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest" and "Sometimes a Great Notion." Held with him for trial was John Browning, 26, Mountain View.

Marijuana Raid Suspects Going Through The Courts

By ROSS DAVIS

Four of the 11 adults arrested in early June roundups of suspected marijuana pushers and users in southern Marin County have pleaded guilty, four are awaiting jury trials and the remaining three have either been referred to juvenile court or are awaiting certification there.

Of the four who pleaded guilty, two drew no prison or jail sentence, despite requests in both instances by the district attorney's office.

Judgment on a third guilty plea case is still pending. The fourth, a 19-year-old youth, was committed to California Youth Authority for an indefinite period for marijuana sales and two burglaries.

Latest judgment came last Wednesday, on the guilty plea of Anthony Pastor, 26, of Beverly Hills, to a count of selling marijuana. A second count of sale was dismissed by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court because of the earlier guilty plea. Pastor was sentenced on the one count to pay $330 fine and be placed on three years probation.

Judge Haley on Nov. 18 had sentenced Pastor to four months in county jail, and suspended sentence, and placed him on probation for three years. However, he subsequently discovered a new amendment to the Health and Safety Code does not permit a suspended jail sentence for the offense; therefore, Pastor was re-sentenced with the fine imposed.

Judge Haley, however, noted Pastor voluntarily returned from New York to Marin County to face the charge, that he is now married, with his wife pregnant, and that he has a job.

The magistrate said he saw no constructive purpose in sentencing Pastor to jail.

Another judgment was for Susan Kerrigan, 22, of Sausalito, for possession of marijuana and carrying a concealed weapon. On Oct. 5, she pleaded guilty to both charges. On Oct. 26, Judge Samuel W. Gardiner placed her on three years probation.

This came over the protest of Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales, who asked for a 10-day jail sentence, claiming defendants in possession cases often fail to take the charge seriously, and failing to provide any time in jail would indicate that the court concurred.

Judge Gardiner, however, replied that the double felony conviction and the probation period were sufficiently severe for a first offender. He said a short jail term would only appear as "a slap on the wrist."

Third of those sentenced was Ira Lewis Edwards of 135 Drake Avenue, Marin City. He was charged with one count of selling marijuana, but on Oct. 8 pleaded guilty to possession and the sale charge was dropped. Judge Gardiner sentenced him to the indefinite term at California Youth Authority on the marijuana possession and two convictions for burglary.

Fourth guilty plea was that of Otus Hayes, 28, Sausalito. He pleaded guilty Nov. 22 to one count of selling marijuana. A count of possession was then dismissed by Judge Haley. Hayes is to be sentenced at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Pending trial in a joint indictment alleging sales are Wilhelm Alexander Rossknecht, 27, of 10 Reed Lane, Sausalito, Peter Wright Lenihan, 31, of 420 B Street, Sausalito, and Ronald Keith Maska, 29, of Orange County.

A 65-member jury panel was excused Oct. 25 when Rossknecht failed to appear. A bench warrant for his arrest was ordered by Judge Thomas F. Keating, bail of $4,400 was forfeited.

New trial date is Dec. 20, but Rossknecht is still a fugitive.

Other scheduled trial is for Richard Nixon Applebee, 21, of Larkspur on Dec. 6. He is charged with two counts of sales.

Referred to juvenile court for handling were cases of Candace Haseman, 19, of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Marin County, and Harry Ronald Krieger, 20, of 148 Sycamore Avenue, Mill Valley, each charged with one count of possession.

On Aug. 31, Miss Haseman pleaded guilty to one count of marijuana sale. A second sales count was dismissed by Judge Keating and sentencing was deferred until Sept. 23.

On that day, however, Judge Keating instead referred the case to juvenile court. Commenting on Miss Hasseman's petition for the minor's court, Judge Keating noted that persons under 21 years of age are eligible — providing juvenile court accepts them—and said Miss Haseman is "undoubtedly a case" for that court because of her "unsophistication."

Just prior to the referral, Asst. Dist. Atty. Leonard Shaw had opposed a probation department recommendation of mere two years' probation. He asked in addition 60 days in county jail, citing that Miss Haseman was charged with selling $120 worth of marijuana on one occasion, and a kilogram of the weed (2.025 pounds), for which he said she received $200 on another occasion.

Miss Haseman had surrendered to Marin County officers, but only after extradition proceedings had been completed with the governor of Arizona.

Krieger was certified to juvenile court on Sept. 28. Don Edward Fleischer, 20, Sausalito, has a motion before Marin Superior Court for juvenile court referral, which is to be heard by Judge Gardiner at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. Fleischer faces two counts of sales.

Sukarno Decrees New Austerity In Trade

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The Indonesian government has a new economic-financial policy for 1966 that calls for austerity in development projects and continued lavish spending for revolutionary political schemes.

This policy was sanctioned by a decree signed by President Sukarno. It puts all imports and exports under government control.

New Owner Buys Plantation Landmark

ALEXANDRIA, La. (AP) —J. D. Cobb of England, Ark., has purchased Rosalie Plantation, one of the few central Louisiana showplaces that escaped ravages of the Civil War, for $290,000.

Real estate dealers said the previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Harris, retained the 145-year-old home with about five acres of land. The plantation consists of 510 acres.

Federal Bureau Sets More Food Stamps

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Agriculture Department plans next year to broaden its programs for improving diets of needy persons.

The agency said in a report it is likely that more food will be donated to the needy through its direct distribution program. In addition, its food stamp plan will be extended to some areas not now covered.

just for our looks.

Our new Executive Hardtop Coupe. Like all 1966 Pontiacs it includes outside mirror, padded dash and visors, backup lights, front and rear seat belts, dual-speed windshield wipers, and washers to clean your windshield for better visibility.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. We spend so much time and effort in there.

Why, this year alone we've made available brand-new wraparound buckets and profile bench seats. Not to mention extending our use of rich, genuine walnut paneling. And nicer instrument clusters you've never seen.

We've even had our engineers take our test cars apart to see if they can make them smoother, quieter, and more luxurious. And they came up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs even more enjoyable to drive.

Really, though—we don't care which one of our features gets you inside one of our new Pontiacs, just as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

Army Seizes Power In Dahomey

COTONOU, Dahomey (UPI) — The army today seized power in this postage stamp former French African colony and forced the resignation of the republic's warring political leaders.

Maga

It was the second time in two years the military took charge of the country under the direction of army commander, Gen. Christophe Soglo.

Dahomey is situated in West Africa, wedged between Nigeria and Togoland on the Gulf of Guinea. It has a population of 1.9 million.

The coup occurred after President Souron Migan Apithy refused orders to resign from the nation's military and political leaders. Soglo called on National Assembly President Tahirou Congacou to take over temporary control of the government.

The republic remained calm, according to first reports. Martial music blared from the national radio. Vice President Justin Ahomadegbe also was forced to resign, Radio Dahomey reported.

The demand that Apithy resign was made by Gen. Soglo, who seized power in 1963, overthrowing the government of Hubert Maga. Soglo later handed power back to the politicians and a new constitution was put into force last year.

Big Narcotics Ring Cracked

ALTADENA (AP)—Authorities say they've cracked a Los Angeles County narcotics ring that peddled more than $25 million in drugs annually, much of it to high school students.

Netted, investigators said, were:

Sixteen persons—14 suspected pushers and two men believed to be kingpin suppliers.

Nearly $3 million worth of dangerous drugs—heroin, LSD, marijuana and pep pills.

The crackdown climaxed an eight-month investigation prompted by a sharp increase in narcotics user arrests in the Pasadena-Altadena-Monrovia area.

Investigators said many users were high school students who bought the drugs on campus, at drive-ins or other youth hangouts.

Ex-Rep. Ford Dies

SANTA MONICA (UPI) —Funeral arrangements were pending today for former Rep. Leland M. Ford Sr., 72, who led a fight to deport labor leader Harry Bridges. Ford died Saturday of a heart attack. He was a Californa representative in Congress from 1938-42.

11th Blast Victim

KEOKUK, Iowa (AP)—Investigators turned their attention to a gas line today as they continued to probe last Wednesday's armory explosion that has brought death to 11 square dancers. The 11th victim of the blast that wrecked the armory was Mrs. Violet Beckett, 49, of Argyle, Iowa, who died yesterday. Twenty--two others remained in critical condition.

Johnson Hopes To Work For Interest Drop

By JACK BELL

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson hopes to bring pressure to bear against what he believes are unjustified profits being rung up by the nation's lenders from overly high interest rates.

If he has found noway to curb the money changers in his temple of economic stability, the President is ready to give them a hard time about the mounting interest rates they are charging the government when it is forced, as it is continually, to borrow more and more money.

His first move in the direction of easier money could come in the naming of a new member to replace C. Canby Balderston, expected to retire about Jan. 1 from the Federal Reserve Board of Governors.

FOUR YEARS

However, William McChesney Martin, the Federal Reserve Board chairman whom critics have blamed for high interest rates, still has more than four years to go on his present 14-year term. A proposal by the late President John F. Kennedy to make the chairman's term coincide with a presidential term went nowhere in Congress, and the Johnson administration has no plans to revive it.

The board is maintaining a 4 per cent rediscount rate at this point which tends to boost interest charged by banks and other lending institutions.

The White House has figured out that the cost of short-term borrowing by the Treasury has gone up 72 per cent since 1961. In that year the Treasury was renting money for an average of 2.378 per cent interest; this month, the rate has been 4.097 per cent.

12 PER CENT MORE

Long-term Treasury bonds cost the government about 12 per cent more than in 1961, because of an increase in the average interest rate from 3.90 per cent to 4.35 per cent.

As he did in the controversy over aluminum and copper prices, Johnson is staying in the background of the campaign to ease the increased borrowing costs which Budget Bureau experts say will add about $400 million this year to the January estimate of $11.6 billion interest charges on the national debt.

This is one of several reasons given by White House officials to explain why the new budget Johnson will send to Congress Jan. 17 will go over the $100-billion mark — and possibly to $105 billion or more. It is also a factor in the administration's estimate that the deficit for the current year will range from $7 to $8 billion.

Takes Kim's Place

LONDON (AP) — British actress Deborah Kerr is to take over the role of ailing American actress Kim Novak, who was unable to complete the shooting of a $3-million movie. Miss Novak dropped out of the picture, "The Eye of the Devil," two weeks ago because she hurt her back in a riding accident.

Demonstrators Plan More Protest Walks

WASHINGTON (AP) — A leader of the weekend peace march on Washington, in which thousands protested American involvement in the Viet Nam war, said today that "a demonstration doesn't convince anybody."

Despite this, Sanford Gottlieb said in a telephone interview, more demonstrations are being considered by the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy — SANE.

Gottlieb is political action director of SANE, which sponsored Saturday's march and picketing of the White House in protest of U.S. policies in Viet Nam. March officials estimated the turnout at 40,000 to 50,000; police placed it at 25,000.

"We were definitely pleased with the turnout," Gottlieb said, "despite the bus drivers who wouldn't drive people from New York and also from Baltimore."

Future marches are being considered, he said, because "at a time when a dramatic event is needed to publicize your point of view, there's nothing like a large demonstration.

"But a demonstration doesn't convince anybody," Gottlieb said.

March leaders issued a leaflet during the protest titled "What to Do Next." SANE advised protesters to write letters to newspapers, support politicians who favor a peaceful solution to the war and urge clergymen to discuss the moral issues of the Viet Nam battle.

"None of us has any illusions about the effect of any single march or even about marches as a form of action," Gottlieb said. To get results, recommendations such as offered in the leaflet "must be carried out week by week."

SIGNS OF COMPETITION

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "No Napalm for Christmas," "Make Love, Not War," "We Voted for Peace, Not Goldwater."

Such were the signs carried as more than 600 demonstraters marched Saturday from Pershing Square to MacArthur Park to support the march on Washington for peace in Viet Nam.

'Oppose The War' Leaflets Filter Along To Seabees

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — "That's really bad when you have to fight an enemy behind your back," said LeRoy Hensley, a Seabee in Viet Nam who received an "Oppose the War" leaflet.

"Even an animal don't turn on his own kind," Hensley said. "Them people, the head of the organization, they're a real enemy."

Californians in two Seabee companies received pacifist leaflets over the weekend issued by an organization known as the Vietnam Day Committee at Berkeley, Calif. A member of the committee in Berkeley acknowledged that the group issued the leaflets but said the committee didn't mail them to U.S. troops in Viet Nam.

Windrim Smith, Jr., said the committee printed about 30,000 of the leaflets, which call on all military personnel to oppose the war as "criminal and immoral."

"I got three of them in one envelope," said Hensley, 21, of Lodi, Calif. "I told the fellows, 'I got me one of them goofy letters. Anybody want to read one and have a good laugh?' "

Lynch To Head Scientific Crime Attack

LOS ANGELES (UPI)— Gov. Edmund G. Brown today announced the appointment of Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch to pilot a space-age attack on California crime.

He said Lynch had accepted appointment as chairman of a newly-created Governor's Council on Crime and Justice which will screen and recommend priorities suggested in a space firm's report on prevention and control of crime and delinquency.

The governor named Richard Mcgee, administrator of the Youth and Corrections Agency, as vice chairman. He told his council meeting on law enforcement here that other appointments to the new board would be announced soon.

CRIME REPORT

The $100,000 report on crime, one of four aerospace studies that stirred controversy in the 1965 legislature, was produced by engineers of Space General Corp. The reports recommended applying aerospace techniques to solve down-to-earth problems.

'I will ask the council to screen the recommendations that these space-age systems engineers developed for the improvement of our overall machinery for the attack on crime," Brown told the meeting in prepared remarks.

He said he was confident federal funds would help finance the attack, adding he directed his staff "to make certain this council receives all the assistance it needs."

SPACE CONTRACTS

The crime report sparked charges in the legislature that Brown's administration had usurped legislative authority in awarding the $100,000 contracts to the space companies.

Brown said the report clearly indicated California "must increase the trend we have started toward intensive treatment of aggravated, aggressive, violent offenders in the state prisons, and as much as possible where it is safe to do so provide control and treatment in the community for persons who can be logically identified as not being dangerous."

Fair Employment Unit Given Grant

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Fair Employment Practice Commission announced it has received a $11,000 grant from Wayne University, Detroit, to finance an intensive seven-month research project on the use of job screening tests in hiring workers from racial minority groups.

Edward Howden, FEPC executive officer, said the California study probably would concentrate on the area of testing and screening practices for low-skill jobs. He said the work would begin as soon as a full-time specialist is hired, with the study expected to be completed by June, 1966.

Traffic Death

TULARE (AP) — Gregory Fleming, 17, of Visalia, was killed yesterday afternoon in a two-car collision on the Tulare-Lindsay highway, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Worried Mother, Girl Reunited

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — A news dispatch from the United States and a newsman's memory reunited a worried American mother and her runaway 16-year-old daughter in Bangkok today.

The girl, Mary Wilson, had slipped away from the Encino, Calif., home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Wilson, on Nov. 19. They believed she had gone to Bangkok to work for an orphanage.

Mrs. Wilson arrived in Bangkok early today to try to pick up her daughter's trail. Meanwhile, Alan Darby, a newsman at the English-language Bangkok Post read an Associated Press dispatch about the girl's disappearance and recalled a recent article about the Pierra Foundation, a Bangkok orphanage.

Darby called the orphanage and learned that Mary had been working there for a week. He called the U.S. Embassy, by chance found Mrs. Wilson there and told the embassy where Mary was.

"I'm so thankful that she's safe and sound," said Mrs. Wilson after the reunion with her daughter. "She's a do-gooder and rather religious girl."

Two friends, Mr. and Mrs. William Shope, whisked the pair off to their home and refused to allow newsmen to see them.

"They're both distraught and need some rest and quiet," said Mrs. Shope.

Mrs. Wilson and Mary are expected to remain in Bangkok several days before returning to California.

A spokesman at the Pierra Foundation said Mary came to the institute last Tuesday inquiring about adoption of a child.

She was asked to wait until an official of the foundation could be located but left before the official arrived.

Newsmen could not contact Dr. Pierra immediately today.

MARY WILSON
Found in Bagkok

The foundation cares for about 80 orphans.

"Thank God she's safe," said Dr. Wilson in Encinco. "I prayed she would be all right."

Mary, a brown-haired, brown-eyed high school senior, disappeared Nov. 19 after telling her parents she was going to a girl friend's home after school and would not be back until late. She took a suitcase with her.

Shortly after midnight, the Wilsons called the girl friend's home only to discover that Mary had not visited there, nor had she attended school that day.

After questioning her friends, the Wilsons learned from a travel agency that the girl had made inquiries last May about flying to Cambodia.

Strike Called Off

LONDON (AP) — Britain's bakers union called off its guerrilla bread strikes today but only for a week. The union said that unless the bakeries by Dec. 7 give an interim wage increase of $2.80 a week and a promise to discuss its bigger claim, it will call out all of its 32,000 members.

Record Year For Agriculture

"Our earlier forecast that California's farm product value would equal or exceed the $3.6 billion record set in 1964 is being borne out," Brown said in a Saturday statement.

The governor said he based his statement on a recent federal report estimating the state's gross agricultural cash receipts for 1965.

Brown says the U.S. Department of Agriculture's report shows that the value of California crops is only slightly ahead of 1964, while livestock and poultry are up 5 per cent.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Utah Air Disasters Claim 61 In 16 Days

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — Investigators raked through the wreckage of a DC-3, a search party was to recover bodies and search planes circled snow-capped mountains today in the wake of airplane disasters that have claimed 61 lives in Utah in 16 days.

Civil Aeronautics Board investigators probed the wreckage of a twin-engine DC-3 that crashed minutes after takeoff from Salt Lake Airport Saturday, killing all 13 persons aboard.

It was the second commercial airliner tragedy in the state this month. On Nov. 11, a United Air Lines 727 trijet crashlanded and burst into flames at the airport, killing 43 of the 91 persons aboard.

In south-central Utah, a ground party was to bring down the bodies of four Minneapolis residents who perished when their light plane crashed near the peak of 11,139-feet Mount Belnap.

The Minnesota plane disappeared in a snowstorm Nov. 14. The same night a private plane piloted by a Phoenix, Ariz., minister disappeared. He was found dead in the wreckage the next day.

Civil Air Patrol planes were still searching the mountains of eastern Utah today for a small plane that vanished with an Air Force sergeant on a flight from Salt Lake City to Denver.

The plane which crashed Saturday was operated by Edde Airlines, a charter service. On board were nine passengers and four crew members. It took off at dawn. Two hours later the smouldering wreckage was found in the Traverse Mountains 20 miles south of the airport.

Some 20 other passengers were waiting to board at Provo. It was a "football special" carrying members of a Brigham Young University Booster's club to the Cougars' football game with New Mexico at Albuquerque.

$20,000 Mink Stolen From Car

Carol M. La Benda of 20 Tiburon Boulevard, Alto, reported a $2,000 mink stole was taken from her unlocked car between 10:30 p.m. Saturday and 2 a.m. yesterday in Tiburon.

The Tiburon sheriff's substation said the car, with the stole on the front seat, was in the parking lot adjacent to the Tiburon Playhouse.

Vietnamese Get Soap Donations

OROVILLE (AP)—Some 2,000 bars of soap are en route to Viet Nam today, the gift of Oroville area residents. And another 16,000 are ready for shipment.

Mrs. P. D. Adams, who read a serviceman's story, organized the collection. A newspaper quoted the serviceman as saying soap costs a Vietnamese a day's wages.

Mrs. Adams and other donors are sending the soap to Viet Nam to be given away by servicemen.

The Air Force transported the first 2,000 bars without charge and has offered to transport the other 16,000.

No Delay Is Expected In Gemini Space Shot

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) —The space agency said today that an electrical problem with a spacecraft power unit was not expected to delay Saturday's Gemini 7 launching.

A spokesman made the statement after engineers wrestled through the night with the trouble. First they installed a new power unit in the spacecraft, discovered it probably would cause the same difficulty, yanked it out and replaced it with the original unit.

"The problem is not completely solved at this time," the spokesman said. "Evaluation is continuing. But the situation looks good and we don't expect it will delay the launching."

Astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell Jr. are to ride Gemini 7 into space for a 14-day endurance mission. Nine days later, Gemini 6 astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford are to take off in an attempt to rendezvous within a few feet of Gemini 7.

The trouble developed Saturday during a flight rehearsal when a stray electrical signal called a "voltage spike" appeared in the spacecraft guidance system. The source was traced to the power unit which supplies the system."

Instruments recorded the stray current at seven-tenths of a volt for 100 milliseconds. This sent a signal that simulated an unwanted three-tenths of a degree turn in the Titan 2 booster rocket.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said the primary guidance system immediately took over and corrected the situation.

He said officials are confident the same correction could be made under similar circumstances during the actual launching.

He added that when the new power unit was installed, it became apparent that it could create similar voltage spikes. So the decision as made to return to the original unit because it had been tested more thoroughly.

A space agency spokesman noted that similar trouble occurred a few days before the Gemini 5 launching in August. The unit was replaced without delaying the firing.

Fence Busting Vandals Sought

Marin County sheriff's deputies today were investigating an expensive form of vandalism: fence busting.

Jay J. Wimberly of 195 Vista Grande Drive, Greenbrae, reported to the sheriff's office Saturday that sometime last week someone knocked down his 160-foot fence, valued at $300.

Ralph E. Brodeck, 205 Nista Grande Drive, reported that someone knocked down 40 feet of his picket fence, valued at $100.

Car Radio Gone

Wayne Lenherr told Mill Valley police last night that the car radio was stolen from his sister's car, which he had parked, unlocked, in front of their home at 26 Montford Avenue.

REFUGE FOR FOWL

It was Thanksgiving Day when this fowl flew into the swimming pool of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Cossman in Studio City, Calif. She makes another vain try at netting the elusive bird as Shana, the dog, watches. The Cossmans don't know if its a duck or not, but they'll "give him away free to anyone who can catch him." Canada, U.S. Send Two Satellites Up

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Two new satellites — the Canadian Alouette 2 and the American Explorer 31 — raced side-by-side through space today, placed in orbit by a single booster.

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said initial data from last night's launch at this West Coast base indicated that the satellites reached a near perfect orbit.

The spokesman said the satellites will circle the earth once every two hours and four minutes, reaching an apogee or high point of 1,980 miles and a perigee or low point of 315 miles above the earth.

The double launch went off at 8:48 p.m. atop a Thor-Agena B rocket combination.

The satellites were the second in a series of five Alouette satellite vehicles developed by the Canadian Defence Board and NASA's Direct Measurements Explorer.

The program, first of a two-country effort called International Satellites for Ionospheric Studies, has been dubbed ISIS-X for short.

Passenger, 19, Injured On Cycle

A 19-year-old girl from National City, San Diego County, suffered minor injuries when a motorcycle struck a boat and trailer at the county parking area at the launching ramp along the Petaluma River at Black Point at 12:35 p.m. yesterday.

Injured was Carolyn Phillips, passenger on a motorcycle driven by Robert F. Phillips, 20, of National City, who was thrown from the vehicle by the impact. She suffered multiple scrapes and was treated by her own doctor.

Phillips, driving the motorcycle owned by Donald Robertson of 1125 Mirabelle Avenue, rammed a parked boat and trailer owned by James I. Miyand, 50, of Petaluma, the California Highway Patrol reported. Phillips told officers that the throttle stuck.

Senators Visit Cambodia Chief

The Montana Democrat is the first high-ranking U.S. visitor to visit Cambodia since Sihanouk broke diplomatic relations with the United States May 3.

Mansfield and four other senators are on a global fact-finding mission that included talks with the Soviet leaders in the Kremlin. He arrived aboard a U.S. Air Force plane from Vientiane, capital of neighboring Laos.

How to solve the college problem

Not enough room for the growing number of qualified boys and girls who want to go to college—and who ought to go—that's the problem.

The colleges lack the classrooms, facilities and teachers to educate all these potential leaders.

It's our problem, too. We need leaders to make wise use of our resources, manpower and human skills.

This affects our level of prosperity—our jobs, opportunities and living standards.

The problem is too big, too widespread to be solved by the colleges alone. They need our help.

Let's help the colleges help us—it's the only way. Give to the college of your choice.

VIET

will be formed.

The United States objective in the Viet Nam war is not to destroy the Communist regime in the north but to destroy the Communist insurgents in the south.

Radio Cambodia reported that to American prisoners held since November, 1963 by the Viet Cong arrived at the Cambodian frontier yesterday and were granted transit visas to the United States. The Viet Cong announced over the weekend that the two men—Sgt. George E. Smith of Chester, W.Va., and Sp/5 Claude E. McClure of Chattanooga, Tenn., had been freed.

Air Force planes and Vietnamese Skyraiders today splashed heavy bombs and machinegun fire on a large Viet Cong force in Tay Ninh Province northwest of Saigon.

Six Air Force F-100 Supersabre jets hit three Viet Cong companies camped in Kien Hoa province, 75 miles south of Saigon, with bombs and rockets, an official spokesman reported.

McNamara arrived within hours of the destruction of South Viet Nam's 7th Regiment on the abandoned rubber plantation in the heaviest fighting of the war. Waves of Viet Cong backed by North Vietnamese regulars destroyed the regiment as an effective fighting force in a three-hour battle.

U.S. spokesmen feared the toll of South Vietnamese dead would be the highest of the war. Among the dead were an undisclosed number of U.S. Army advisers whose bodies were found in foxholes next to their Vietnamese comrades.

McNamara, accompanied by Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, said he had been "surprised by the intensity and scale" of the recent attacks by the Viet Cong and regular North Vietnamese forces.

"But," he added, "I think they are surprised at the price they have to pay in launching these attacks. Their fatalities this year are 100 per cent over last year."

In the desperate fighting for the French-owned Michelin rubber plantation Saturday morning, a four-battalion force of 1,200 to 2,000 Communists overwhelmed 1,200 government troops.

The Reds split the 7th Regiment in to with a withering barrage. The Vietnamese regimental commander died early in the battle.

Survivors said the Communists machine-gunned government troops who scrambled out of foxholes with their hands in the air in response to a loudspeaker appeal to surrender.

The Communist attack came at dawn. The regiment was dug in around a road inside the plantation which had been abandoned by its French owners last month.

Sweeping in from three sides, the Communists cut through the regiment, overwhelming the headquarters unit and two center battalions.

An American Army adviser called for air strikes on his own positions because "that's where the Communists are." Government troops as well as Communists died as jets from the newly arrived U.S. carrier Kitty Hawk hammered at the plantation with bombs and rockets.

In the confusion of battle, the Viet Cong hauled off their dead. One government official estimated that they lost as many as 400 men.

The Vietnamese and American dead lay among fallen branches and in foxholes they had dug in the four days they had been in the area in an attempt to regain control of the plantation.

The foxholes gave little protection against the Communist charge and light artillery fire By early afternoon, Vietnamese rangers had gathered up 100 bodies. There were many more.

Legion Opposes Viet Nam Protests

Mill Valley Post 284, American Legion, has unanimously approved a resolution stating its opposition to anti-Viet Nam demonstrations by non-violent groups and individuals, Roy A. Ibach, past post commander, said today.

Copies of the resolution are being sent to Rep. Donald Clausen (R-First District), and to Gov. Edmund G. Brown, he said.

How Police Caught Meter Thief Suspect

Robert Earl Williams quietly opened several parking meters while San Rafael police watched, before they closed in to arrest him shortly after midnight, Saturday, according to Inspector Thomas C. Cheetham, who participated in the arrest of the meter theft suspect.

Williams, 30, of San Francisco (still in jail today in lieu of $1,320 bail) was seen by officers to drop his key to the old-style meters as the police approached, the inspector added. He was due to appear in Marin Municipal Court late today.

The arrest was made at the city parking lot at Third and Cijos streets, one that had been hit before by the thief, who always operated in San Rafael late Friday night or early Saturday. Police had set up a stakeout at the lot.

According to San Leandro police, Williams is also a suspect on parking meter thefts there. He was arrested by that department Sept. 23, and was out on bail from Alameda County Jail when nabbed.

Some 130 meters were opened in San Rafael on Nov. 5 or 6, the first time the city was hit. It was then the city ordered speedy delivery of new meters, with different locks.

City officials estimated as much as $270 may have been taken each time the thief hit.

Main Breaks Cut Supply Of Water

Residents on two streets in Corte Madera were without water for a few hours during the weekend because of water main breaks, Marin Municipal Water District reported.

Most serious break occurred early yesterday near 4 Council Crest Drive. Corte Madera police reported that water from the broken main flooded the area and undermined a portion of the street.

Water district manager William R. Seeger said the street may have been damaged somewhat, but there was no damage to private property. He said water was restored at 5 a.m., four hours after the break occurred.

A crack occurred in another six-inch main on Chickasaw Court in Corte Madera Friday night, Seeger reported. The break was not serious, he said, and water district work crews repaired it by 9 a.m. Saturday.

Police Investigating Possibility Of Arson

San Rafael police today said they were investigating the possibility of arson in a small fire discovered in the basement of James R. Shankland, 24 Vineyard Avenue, at 3:50 a.m. yesterday.

Deputy Fire Chief Francis S. Rogers said the fire, which appeared to have been set in a gunny sack on the concrete floor, did no damage. Shankland was at home at the time, but could not be aroused. The fire was reported by an unidentified woman.

Windows Broken At Redwood High

Vandals smashed six windows, total value estimated at $360, of Redwood High School, sheriff's officers reported today.

Marvin Kattner, a school custodian, told deputies he discovered the damage to north wing classrooms when he arrived at work early yesterday.

$300 Ring, Cash Taken From Car

Theft of a $300 ring and $17 cash from the automobile of Wilma A. Sisk, 220 Van Winkle Drive, Sleepy Hollow, and parked at Indian Valley Golf Club north of Novato was reported today by sheriff's officers.

Deputies said the loot was taken yesterday.

OBITUARIES

Fred L. Stevens Rites Set

Funeral for Fred L. Stevens, 67, of 93 Redwood Road, Fairfax, a retired custodian, will be held at noon Wednesday at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo.

Stevens died Saturday at a local hospital after suffering a heart attack at his home.

He was first stricken at home, taken to the office of Dr. Harold White, 29 Bolinas Road, where he was given resuscitation by the Fairfax Fire Department, and then to the hospital where he died at 5:40 p.m., about an hour after admittance.

Stevens had been a resident of California for 50 years and of Marin for 25 years. He was a native of Cambridge, Mass.

He was a custodian at San Rafael High School for five years prior to his retirement and was a veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his wife, Clarice, of Fairfax; two daughters, Mrs. Vilma Maloney of Fairfax, and Mrs. Nancy Hendrickson, of San Rafael; a son, James N. Stevens of Los Angeles, and a foster son, William Center of Albuquerque, N.M.

Burial at Mount Tamalpais Cemetery.

JESSIE BARDMESS

Funeral for Mrs. Jessie Bardmess, 88, mother of Harold A. Bardmess of San Quentin Village, was scheduled for today in Paso Robles, San Luis Obispo County.

A frequent visitor at her son's home, she died Friday in an Atascadero, San Luis Obispo County, hospital. Burial was in San Luis Obispo.

She is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Leo Bayer.

ALFRED WARREN

Funeral arrangements are pending at Spokane, Wash., for Alfred Emil Warren, 78, who collapsed and died, apparently from a heart attack, in San Rafael Saturday while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Juanita Sanders, 163 Knight Drive.

His wife, Edna, 73, was admitted yesterday to Marin General Hospital with a heart condition and was reported in fair condition today.

Warren and his wife were staying over the holiday at the Dolphin Boatel on Third Street, where he collapsed Saturday night. He was dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital.

Born in Spokane, Warren was a retired heating and air conditioning contratcor.

He is survived by his wife, and two daughters, Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Gladys Tonn of Spokane.

WILLIAM REESE

Funeral was scheduled today in Napa for William Merrill Reese, 59, of San Francisco, father of James C. Reese of Corte Madera.

The elder Reese, founder of Merrill's drug stores, died Friday at a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

A native of West Virginia, he came to California as a boy, and attended school in Fresno and Santa Rosa Junior College.

After working for Skaggs' Cash and Carry Stores in Santa Rosa, he became Safeway Stores district manager in the Santa Rosa area and later assistant division manager for Northern California.

He opened his first drug store in San Francisco, and subsequently started the chain which now includes two stores in San Francisco, one in Vallejo and one in Napa.

Surviving are his wife, Allinea M. Reese, San Francisco; three sons William Merrill Reese Jr., San Francisco; James S. Reese, Corte Madera, and David P. Reese, Napa; a daughter, Mrs. Nancy Belle Christenson, San Francisco and a brother, Phillip S. Reese, Oakland.

ANTON GATTINI

Funeral for Anton Michael Gattini, 78, of 15 Juanita Avenue, Mill Valley, was held today at the Russell and Gooch Funeral Chapel, Mill Valley.

Gattini, a retired watchman, died at home Saturday of a heart attack. He had been a watchman for American Distilling Co. in Sausalito for 19 years prior to his retirement.

A native of Austria, he had lived in California for 59 years and in Marin for 35 years.

Surviving is his wife, Pearl M. Gattini, of Mill Valley.

Burial was in Mount Tamalpais Cemtery, San Rafael.

EINAR ANDERSEN

Funeral was held today in Point Arena for Einar H. Andersen, 77, of Gualgia, Mendocino County, brother of Mrs. Anna Betega of San Rafael.

Andersen died in a Ukiah hospital Wednesday.

Other survivors are a son, Robert Andersen; a daughter, Norma Exley; two other sisters, Martha Griffith and Rachel Lenninger of Oakland; and one grandchild.

A native of Oslo, Norway, he came to California 55 years ago.

Cremation was in Santa Rosa.

MELBA FRANCIS

Funeral services for Melba J. Francis of Petaluma, former Novato resident, will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the chapel of the Sorensen Funeral Home, 400 Washington Street, Petaluma.

Mrs. Francish died Friday in a San Francisco hospital. She was 49 years old, a native of Ashland, Ky.

Burial will be at Cypress Hill Memorial Park, Petaluma.

DANIEL GILES

Private funeral for Dr. Daniel W. Giles, 82, of 610 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, was scheduled for today from the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael.

Dr. Giles died Saturday of a heart attack at a local convalescent home. A native of Oregon, he was a dentist in San Francisco for nearly 40 years. He was a Marin County resident for four years.

He is survived by his wife, Grace E. Giles; and a son, Daniel A. Giles, both of Fairfax.

VIRGINIA SMITH

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Virginia Louise Smith, 52, of 61 Pixley Place, Corte Madera, was to be celebrated today at St. Cecilia's Church, San Francisco.

Mrs. Smith, a registered nurse, died Friday at a local hospital after a long illness. She was employed by the City and County Health Department of San Francisco and worked at the Laguna-Honda Hospital.

Mrs. Smith was the widow of John C. Smith Sr., an employee of the estate tax division of the Internal Revenue Service.

A native of California, she had been a resident of Marin County for 10 years. She was a graduate of Notre Dame High School and College in Belmont, and St. Mary's Hospital College of Nursing.

Surviving are three sons, John C. Smith Jr. and Robert E. Smith of Corte Madera and Michael J. Smith of Berkeley, and two daughters, Patricia J. and Virginia M. Smith, of Corte Madera.

Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

MARTIN KEARNS

A Requiem Mass will be celebrated for Martin James Kearns, 79, of San Francisco, father of Mrs. Lawrence F. Murray, of Marinwood, at 9:45 a.m. tomorrow at St. Cecilia's Church, San Francisco.

Kearns, a retired first assistant chief of the San Francisco Fire Department, died Saturday at a San Francisco hospital after an illness.

A native of San Francisco, Kearns was a member of the fire department for 43 years. He became assistant chief in 1926, served as acting chief on several occasions, and organized the department's first fire prevention bureau.

Kearns was a member of Firefighters Union Local 798; Widows and Orphans Mutual Aid, and Rincon Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West.

Surviving are his wife, Edith F. Kearns of San Francisco; his daughter, Mrs. Murray; six grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Carew and English, Masonic at Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco.

Additive To Gas Said No Solution

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The Motor Vehicle Pollution Control Board reported tests have shown thus far that putting additives in gasoline does not appear to be the solution to the smog problem.

Recent tests with a "highly-touted" additive, made on five automobiles for a combined mileage of about 60,000 miles, showed the additive reduced the hydrocarbons in four cases, but only by a small amount. In none of the tests did the additive reduce hydrocarbons in the exhaust to anywhere near the California standard of 275 parts per million, and 1.5 per cent carbon monoxide.

"The lowest cost mentioned for the additive is about one-third of a cent per gallon," the board said. "This would cost California motorists $2.4 million per year with no proven benefits.

"Thus, at least for the present, it can be seen that California is pursuing the only logical course in auto smog control," they said. "This is not to say that the door is closed on any other control method. It is not so long as the method observes engineering and scientific principles."

The board said more than 5 million California vehicles are equipped with certified crankcase controls, while approved exhaust control system are on more than 100,000 cars. The board estimated these controls are keeping 364,000 gallons of unburned gasoline and 200 tons of carbon monoxide from California's atmosphere every day.

The California legislature will consider smog control again when it meets in special session early next year. While exhaust smog control systems are required on 1966 model cars and in the future, none have been certified for installation on used cars. The law provides the latter may not cost more than $65 and they do not have to be installed until one is certified by the board.

Blizzards Rake Over England

LONDON (AP) — Blizzards, gales, rainstorms and floods raked Britain today, piling snowdrifts up to 18 feet that isolated hundreds of farms in northern England and Scotland.

Most of Europe reported generally miserable conditions, with colder weather predicted.

Drifts blocked deliveries of fodder to snowbound cattle in northern Britain and farmers compared conditions to the winter of 1964, when many cattle perished.

For the first time in many years, British railways canceled their cross channel ferry at Newhave as gale winds swept the coast.

Torrential rain brought flooding in south and west England, Wales and East Anglia.

Phone Holdup Attempt Fails

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An attempted holdup-by-telephone failed today.

Tom Villafuerte, 19 of Daly City, night attendant at a service station on Van Ness Avenue, was the intended victim.

The phone rang at 4:50 a.m., he told police, and a female voice ordered:

"We've got a rifle aimed at your back. Pick up all the money and put it across the street."

He could see no one, but placed $50 on a gas pump island at a service station across the street, then telephoned police.

Officers said the thieves probably saw Villafuerte place the call and decided against picking up the money. Police recovered the cash.

Heavy Snow Hits East, Great Lakes

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Residents of parts of New York and Pennsylvania trudged through heavy snows today as drifts piled up along the eastern and southeastern shores of the Great Lakes.

The port city of Erie, Pa., was digging out of 13 inches of snow and looked forward to a continuing fall of 6 more inches. The snow covered a belt extending about 10 miles along the Lake Erie shore.

Drifting snow in the Erie area —piled up by winds up to 32 knots — hampered highway crews. Snow deposits measured up to 12 inches just northeast of Cleveland.

About 1,000 travelers were forced by blowing and drifting snow to find emergency shelter Sunday night in Dunkirk, N.Y., and three other Chautauqua County communities.

The Weather Bureau said 10 inches or more of additional snow was due today in western New York State and upwards of 6 inches more was likely in northeastern Ohio and northwestern Pennsylvania.

Schlesinger Hits State Department

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Historian Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr. contends that State Department bureaucrats would have blocked the Kennedy administration's Alliance for Progress program, even the nuclear test ban treaty, if they had been left to the diplomats alone to work out.

Schlesinger accused the department yesterday of trying to prevent presidents from exercising their own foreign policy wishes because of two basic problems:

"One, within the State Department bureaucracy, a sense that presidents come and presidents go, but they go on forever and that the foreign policy of the United States is their personal property to be preserved against interference and meddling from the White House."

The other, he said, was the department's "deep commitment to past policies whether good or bad, with a kind of concealed feeling that if you change a past policy it is implying that the policy was wrong."

Schlesinger, author of a newly published book on the Kennedy era, "A Thousand Days," praised individual members of the State Department during a televison interview (Meet The Press—NBC).

Dam To Have New Visitors Facility

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Department of Water Resources has called for bids for construction of a new overlook facility at Oroville dam, a structure to be 325 feet higher than the one that has provided a ringside seat for visitors during early construction of the dam.

The new overlook facility will include an information center, restroom facilities and a parking area. Bids will be opened in Sacramento Dec. 22, with $125,000 available.

Jesus Given Drug, Anthropologist Says

BERKELEY (UPI)— Jesus may not have died on the Cross at all, but rather may have been fed a drug that put him into a trance and fooled his Roman guards, a leading research anthropologist said yesterday.

Dr. Michael J. Harner, assistant director of the University of California's Lowie Museum of Anthropology, said it was "certainly possible" Christ was fed a drug that would make him appear to be dead for as long as three days.

For eight years the scientist has done research on the worldwide use of such drugs throughout history.

"There is some evidence that during the period of Roman rule in Palestine, Jewish women would administer a so-called death wine made from the mandrake plant," Harner said.

He said the death wine was "intended to put a person who was being crucified into a death-like state—with the expectation that the appearance of death would cause the Roman soldiers to lower the person from the cross."

Mandrake wine or a similar substance "may have been the so-called vinegar passed onto Jesus on the Cross, he added.

The scientist said the mandrake plant belongs to the solanaceae family. Included in this group are the drug datura and other hallucogenic plants used "in a number of cultures in the world to effect death-like states during which the individual has visions."

"Mandrake is mentioned in the book of Genesis because of its reported aphrodisiac qualities, but there is much other evidence that the Jews used it" Dr. Harner said.

Harner, an Episcopalian by upbringing, said he was disclosing his research because of a book just published in England by Dr. Hugh J. Schonfield. The London scholar suggested the vinegar passed to Jesus on a sponge may really have been just such a drug.

Reaction from leading area clergymen was immediate and highly critical.

"There is no reason to believe Jesus had anything to drink but straight wine," said the Right Rev. J. Richard Millard, acting Episcopal Bishop of California. "The type of person the Disciples saw after the resurrection was a different kind of person who walked through doorways and appeared and disappeared.

"This would hardly indicate He could have been out for three days on some kind of drug," he added.

The Rev. Thomas Leahy, a professor of New Testament at Alma College, a Jesuit seminary at nearby Los Gatos, said the "critical historical value (of the theory) for the study of the Gospels is zero."

The Rev. John B. Streater, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Francisco, discounted the simulated death theory, calling the resurrection of Christ "as well as the death of Christ, the most thoroughly documented fact in history."

Man Arrested On Two Charges

Leonard G. Tobin, 23, of Modesto was arrested by Corte Madera police yesterday on a warrant for non-support and traffic violations in Stanislaus County.

Tobin was stopped for a traffic warning as he drove out of the Corte Madera Shopping Center. Following in a car right behind him, police said, were his wife, mother-in-law and two brothers-in-law, who had traced him to Marin County.

Tobin, who has been working in Ignacio, was booked at county jail, en route to Stanislaus County.

Compromises Necessary On Redwood Park Plans

Those who are going all-out to set aside the biggest and best chunk of redwood region in Del Norte and Humboldt counties for a Redwood National Park might take a lesson from what happened at Point Reyes National Seashore.

The cost of acquiring 93,000 acres in and around the Jedediah Smith, Del Norte Coast and Prairie Creek State parks is being estimated $120 million to $140 million. The actual cost may come to several times that amount.

Consider what happened at Point Reyes National Seashore in Marin County. A total of $14 million has been appropriated for the acquisition of land for the seashore. Under the cost estimates made originally, that was to be sufficient.

Apparently, the cost was grossly underestimated. Congressman Don H. Clausen reports that another $30 million is needed to complete the acquisition, and he's having a tough time trying to justify the cost, which is more than double what was expected.

Conceivably, the same thing could happen on the Redwood National Park. In fact, warning voices have already been sounded.

Eldon V. Shafer, executive vice president of the Redwood Region Conservation Council, declared that the cost of developing the proposed 93,000-acre national park would come closer to a half billion dollars.

In addition to the cost of acquisition and development must be considered the repercussions on the lumber interests and families who are dependent on that industry for survival.

Major lumber companies like Arcata, Miller and Rellim redwood companies will be forced out of business or seriously crippled.

In contrast with the ambitious federal plan, the state plan for a national redwood park in southern Humboldt County is more modest. It calls for a federal-state partnership, with Humboldt State Park as the nucleus and acquisition of the Kings Range area to the west for campsites.

As we've said before, some compromises will have to be made by both conservationists and lumber interests in preserving and expanding park and recreation areas.

The federal plan for 93,000 acres in Del Norte and Humboldt strikes us as a plan that does not consider the plight of lumber companies that will be forced out of business and the lumber families who will be thrown out of work.

WEALTHY BEGGAR FED BY NEIGHBORS

An estate of $90,000 left by a "beggar" greatly surprised his neighbors in Southampton, England.

Most people assumed he was a penniless old man because he knocked at their back doors asking for sugar, tea and anything they could spare.

When the 72-year-old former prize fighter began chopping down the fence around his garden for firewood, one family provided a weekly supply of wood so he could keep his fence.

Several months after his death, the thoughtful neighbors discovered the retired boxer could have bought and sold the entire block.

His daughter said he had invested in real estate years before and it had made him a wealthy man.

Judging by appearances can be misleading. Often enough, it turns out to be an unreliable method. But in case of doubt, the Lord will abundantly repay you for assisting another in real or apparent need.

In your daily contact with others, try to get the facts—but do not become too inquisitive.

Bond Issues Cost Californians Millions In Servicing, Interest

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO — Although much conversation and some thinking has gone into the subject of pay-as-you-go financing for the state's capital outlay program, the fact has developed that the administration of Gov. Edmund G. Brown is considering another $250 million issues of state bonds for construction purposes during the next two years.

In addition to this, the state allocations board has been advised that financing for local school district projects is about out, and that from $250 to $300 million can be used to further this program.

IF BOTH THESE bond issues are submitted to the people and approved next year, taxpayers of California will be saddled with an additional half billion dollars of indebtedness, in the face of rising interest rates and reluctant markets.

Merely the cost of servicing already outstanding bonds, not computing retirements, is soaring into astronomical figures. It is estimated that the bond issues alone approved during the administration of Governor Brown costs taxpayers of California up to $160 million a year.

INTEREST RATES continue to climb, and the last bond money available is costing the taxpayers 3.7 per cent, where in the past, the figure was around three per cent.

Submission of new bond issues to the legislature next year well could engender a storm of protest reaching into the November elections.

Many legislators feel the state has reached a crucial point in financing new construction for schools and colleges, which with population increases and demand for higher education at taxpayers expense, has gone on almost unabated for more than a decade. The point now is how much can the public afford to spend and how high will taxes have to go during the next 30 or 40 years to enable the state to get out of debt.

OF COURSE, it is fundamental that the state will never even approach the happy state of not owing bond interest and retirement.

And again, adoption of even a partial pay-as-you-go program appears to be conducive to greater increases in taxes. Take this plus the funds necessary for interest and principal on state bonds, and the taxpayer is hit doubly.

SO FAR, there has been little if any discussion concerning cut-backs on expenditures for capital outlay, particularly in connection with the university, the state colleges, and now another obligation to which the state is partially committed, the junior colleges.

However, such discussion is likely to crop up, especially among economy minded legislators, when and if the subject comes up for consideration next year. And some hard facts will be bruited about, among them the question of whether the state has reached the point where it has to tighten its belt, or whether it can continue to tempt bankruptcy for its taxpayers.

U.S. Involvement In Rhodesia Hit

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am continually amazed that the American public keeps electing hypocritical socialists to governmental offices. It now appears that the U.S. government is joining England and that most glorious organization, the United Nations, in applying sanctions against Rhodesia.

It was the U.S. and the U.N., along with the Communists, who insisted on "freedom now" for the Congo, Ghana, Guinea, Kenya and the rest of savage, black Africa. Now when the second most advanced nation in Africa wants independence, these same bleeding heart, left-wing-oriented groups say, "no." The United States has no business sticking its nose into the internal affairs of Rhodesia.

I remember a small colony which in 1776 declared its independence from Britain. I thank God the socialists were not in power and that the U.N. did not exist at that time.

British ships are hauling war goods to the Viet Cong, yet they have the gall to involve us in their crucifixion of Rhodesia. The double standard of moral conduct is obvious in all of these machinations. The communist-socialist axis is in power around the world, including our own government in Washington, D.C.

Americans wake up.

Why The Fuss Over Meters?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A year and a half ago, when I first moved into Marin County, three things impressed me: the beauty of its geography, the cultural level of its people, and the reporting excellence of its local paper. All seemed to exist and function in harmony.

Recently I began to detect a discord in this harmony. A minor controversy between a Fourth Street merchant and a meter maid has created a . . . TEMPEST IN A TEA POT.

The disturbance gained momentum with your pictorial report of a meter maid's electric cart parked in a red zone while she was sipping coffee. The innuendo being that the cart was parked illegally and the meter maid was not attending to her duties.

You and I know that this needs parenthetical explanation. The carts are parked in the red zone to save legal parking spaces for shoppers, and the meter maids are entitled to their coffee breaks, like everyone else.

But what disturbs me most, in the cacophony, is the sad fact that so much valuable space is wasted in your fine paper for such trivia. When more important matters such as THE REDEVELOPMENT OF THE CENTRAL CORE OF SAN RAFAEL, THE CREATION OF A MARINA, THE PLANNING OF NEW AIRPORT FACILITIES IN THE COUNTY, THE CREATION OF A CULTURAL COUNCIL IN MARIN, and THE BUILDING OF HIGHWAY 17 are crying for more attention and space.

Your paper has served this community in a magnificent manner in the past, and I know you will continue to support every worthwhile project to help us build a better community.

Physician Answers Pre-School Critics

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Because I was one of the physicians who planned the medical examinations for the children of the pre-school program in the Sausalito School District, I would like to express my concern with the attack made upon the medical part of the program by the president of the Marin Medical Society.

To begin with, the giving of the examinations by private physicians had the approval of the Marin Medical Society. It did not sponsor them, but was aware of the plan and cooperated generously in its organization.

In August, 1965, when the pre-school program was being planned, representatives of the health department, the medical society, the Economic Opportunity office, the Sausalito School District and I (who didn't represent anybody but myself) met. . . . It was felt by all of us that if the program was to give all the children in it an opportunity to participate in wider experiences in their community, that an examination in a private physician's office should be offered.

To make sure that the examinations would be done by physicians who had time and interest appropriate to this program, a list of volunteers was prepared. Each family was asked to choose a physician from that list if it did not have already a family physician. The examination was designed to take about 45 minutes and a fee of $15 was set.

No doubt some of the children's parents could afford such a fee. But should they be singled out? Should those same parents also send crackers and milk for their children's snack time? The pre-school program is for children—children who can contribute to each other to make all their lives better. It is not a program for separate groups.

I am sorry that the president of the Marin Medical Society did not inform himself of the facts and philosophy of the program before he wrote his editorial.

What's Other Side Of Price Rollbacks?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

James Marlow writes of Johnsons' tactics over price rollbacks on raw materials presenting but one side of the story. He never mentions the fact that first the union bosses made such unreasonable demands on the steel industry that the industry was forced to raise its prices. No check is ever put on the union bosses by this administration. What was the government doing with 200,000 tons of aluminum it wished to get rid of? The aluminum must have been bought with money from taxes paid by you and me. Were we asked if we wished the aluminum dumped?

Mr. Marlow seems to forget investors in a stock have confidence when they realize what can happen, and without investors our country goes bankrupt. Industry has built our country and made it great. With industry controlled by a socialist form of government, our country goes down with all the other socialist countries. Are the people going to accept a socialist regime in which nobody benefits but those in power?

Johnson-Kennedy Conflict Now Polite, Probably Will Change

WASHINGTON — What's up with President Johnson and the Kennedys?

That's one of Washington's most fascinating questions. It is fascinating because anything can happen—and probably will.

It is important because the stake in this now-polite but later no-holds-barred conflict in the making is nothing less than the presidency of the United States.

There is no doubt about Sen. Robert Kennedy's ultimate goal: the Democratic presidential nomination in 1972 unless some circumstance puts Vice President Hubert Humphrey into the White House before then.

Anyone who knows the Kennedys—their drive, talent, resources and charismatic appeal—will not lightly argue that he cannot bring it off.

At this stage the senator is not tied to a full-scale plan of battle. Instead he is trying things out to see where they take him and how far they take him—like these:

1. He is taking special care to identify himself with the Democratic liberals. He rarely misses an opportunity to be a visible and vigorous advocate of liberal measures, thus establishing a position on farther political ground, when possible, from that of the Johnson-Humphrey administration.

2. He is pressing, prodding and pin-pricking the Johnson administration to push harder to get a nuclear non-proliferation treaty with the Soviet and others. He suggests that the president is either dragging his feet or not grasping the urgency of the issue. Mr. Kennedy can hardly fail to make sure that, if agreement should come, he will have been one of its foremost advocates and, if agreement should come, he will have been one of its foremost advocates and, if agreement cannot be reached, he will appear to have talked for it harder than anyone else.

3. Between adjournment and the re-opening of Congress in January, Kennedy will have completed a long, event-laden, well-headlined journey through much of Latin America where he confronted the Communists and got the same sputum treatment as did Richard Nixon in 1958. But the trip is a seasoning, informative experience which will give him new credentials to expand his differences with the administration over the Dominican intervention and some other issues which mark his stance apart from that of the president.

Obviously Kennedy is building for the future. He is keeping flexible. He is moving far enough away from the Johnson administration to challenge it as a Democrat but not so far away that he would impair his standing in the party.

KENNEDY will have a considerable political base from which to operate in 1968 and after. He will be the No. 1 Democrat in New York State; Sen. Edward Kennedy will be the No. 1 Democrat in Massachusetts; and brother-in-law Sargent Shriver by then may be governor of Illinois. He also has two other special assets—his own name and the pervasive memory of his late brother.

But it should be understood that nothing is going to fall into Robert's lap. President Johnson has already chosen his 1968 running mate and his political heir four years later—Hubert Humphrey.

This is why Kennedy will have to hurdle both Johnson and Humphrey to win his goal. He's warming up now.

Otepka Case Seems No Nearer Solution

By ROBERT S. ALLEN
and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The State Department is trying to put over a face-saving plan to end its long-pending case against security officer Otto Otepka.

Aides of Secretary of State Dean Rusk are offering to arrange Otepka's retirement at almost full pay if he will agree to leave early next year.

These secret feelers, channeled through congressional friends of Otepka, are being coupled with a veiled intimation that he will be forced to retire on a lower pay scale if he rejects the compromise proposal.

If accepted by Otepka, this stratagem would, in effect, shelve the State Department's two-year-old charges against him. The nationally known case would be closed and all further action dropped.

So far Otepka has neither accepted nor rejected the backstage offer.

SIGNIFICANTLY, however, close friends are characterizing the proposal as unacceptable on the ground the department should either withdraw the accusations against him or give him the chance to disprove them.

A career civil servant with more than 25 years' service, Otepka has persistently demanded a public hearing to answer the charge that he gave the Senate internal security subcommittee department documents without approval of his superiors.

Otepka admits he gave the subcommittee a memorandum signed by a superior, but he states he did that at the request of the Senate probers and after the official had testified he had not been truthful concerning a matter.

It is Otepka's contention that the memorandum, in the subcommittee's records, proved clearly it was Otepka's accuser and not Otepka who gave untruthful testimony under oath.

Behind Otepka's insistance on public hearings are several other important factors — his strong desire to air the State Department's laxity in security, which he was blocked from investigating, and the use against him of wiretapping and other illegal practices.

The veteran security officer's difficulties with his superior began when he proposed they cooperate with the Senate probers, who were digging into reports of a breakdown of security in the U.S. embassies in Warsaw and other capitals.

Otepka has succeeded in staying on the department's payroll at $19,000 despite numerous attempts to dismiss or force him out. He has been shifted to an unimportant position, and denied access to security and other files.

SEVERAL HEARINGS have been called on his case but have been postponed at the request of both sides. No new date has been set since a scheduled October hearing was cancelled.

State Department authorities claim that Otepka can be compelled to retire by the Stratagem of abolishing his position in the contemplated reorganization of the security office.

Should this ruse be used, members of the International Security Subcommittee have let it be known they will counter by taking the matter directly to President Johnson, and summoning Rusk to a public hearing on this action.

LEADERS of Young Americans of Freedom, which advocates a tougher U. S. policy in Viet Nam, are having trouble finding opponents to debate.

In preparing for a series of campus "Viet Nam Debate-ins" on Pearl Harbor Day, Dec. 7, YAF chairman Tom Charles Huston reports that none of the anti-Viet Nam leaders will accept his organization's challenge.

Hold Your Fire Until You See If Escapee Is Just A Truant

Talk about near things, a 14-year-old Kentfield youth playing hooky Nov. 10, had about the nearest.

According to County Supt. of Schools Virgil S. Hollis, the lad was hiding in the hills above San Quentin Prison when a flock of armed guards swarmed out of the keep by the bay.

They were in search of a prisoner who failed to show up for the noon count at the honor farm. But to the young vagrant, it appeared that a new vigilant crack-down on truants had been initiated and he was the first target.

The boy hid behind a clump of brush until the guards were upon him, then he jumped and ran.

"It's just lucky he did not get himself shot," Hollis said.

Fortunately the guards held their fire and after a brief chase, captured the frightened boy. The shaken guards gave him a sound scolding and sent him home where further disciplinary action was invoked, Hollis said.

A LOST PURSE story with a happy ending is being told by Mrs. Jule Ballarin, clerk of the West Marin Justice Court. Her purse, placed on top of her car while she was loading building materials, fell off somewhere between San Rafael and her home in San Anselmo.

It contained $20, all her credit cards, but no phone number. The number is not listed in the book.

All she could do was pray that some honest person found it.

Her prayers are evidently pretty strong. The purse was found and returned after some tough detective work by William Fred Sliger. He's pastor of the First Baptist Church, San Rafael.

ONLY IN MARIN do the citizens rise to literary heights over refuse dumps. This portion of the protest to the Corte Madera dump from Miss Ann McCorry of Greenbrae Boardwalk to supervisors last Tuesday seems a quotable comment that could apply to all governments.

"I realize that in the administration of this county there is a fight about having ordinary but gifted citizens involved in planning the way of life of this community.

"Admittedly, it is not neat, in the organizational chart sense. It is unweildy—so many views—so much energy. Decision makers have to consider so much.

"The push and pull of a few powers in a public vacuum is so much easier to handle. Real politics is a nightmare."

That's what Miss McCorry said in arguing for a community effort to retain the tidelands for open space rather than fill it with refuse.

Perhaps her argument contributed to the board's decision not to decide last Tuesday.

Peace Feeler Can Distinguish True From False Peace Ideas

WASHINGTON — One of the trickiest things to recognize in Washington are legitimate "peace feelers" from the enemy. In a Look magazine article Eric Sevareid wrote that Adlai Stevenson had told him the United States rejected a "peace feeler" from Hanoi through U.N. Secretary General U Thant in August of 1964. The State Department confirmed that the offer had been made, but thanks to Dean Rusk's antenna, which is very sensitive to peace feelers, the U. S. had turned it down.

The Assistant Secretray for Peace Feelers in the State Department told me the other day, "I don't know what all the fuss is about. We've had a lot of peace feelers from the Commies, but not one of them has shown up on Dean Rusk's feeler set as being legitimate."

"How do you know when a peace feeler is legitimate or not?" I asked.

"WE HAVE a peace-feeler evaluator here," he said, taking me over to what looked like a very complicated radio set. "When a peace feeler comes in, we broadcast to Dean Rusk, who picks it up on his counter - peace feeler. This feeler, attached to the secretary's head, is so sensitive that it can tell within seconds whether it is a sincere feeler or just another lousy Communist trick."

"Could you demonstrate for me?"

"Well, I don't know if the secretary has his counter-feeler on his head now or not. Let's try it." He spoke into the machine. "Hanoi told Bulgaria it will meet with American representatives in Geneva."

There was crackling static and finally a weak voice came over which said, "Turn the offer down."

The assistant secretary switched the machine off.

"THAT'S MARVELOUS," I said. "It's almost like extra-sensory perception."

"It's the greatest breakthrough we've had since radar," he said proudly.

"Would it work for any secretary of state," I asked.

"We don't know. Dean Rusk's feeler is his own. We just built the machinery to fit it."

"Is this the only way you people handle peace feelers?" I asked.

"OH, NO. For the time being it's the most foolproof, but we have other methods as well. Timing is very important when it comes to peace feelers. For example, when you're losing a war, you've got to ignore them or the other side will get you in a box. The peace feeler from them may be legitimate, but you certainly don't want to take it up with people committing naked aggression."

"BUT IF you can't accept a peace feeler when you're losing and you can't accept one when you're winning, when can you accept one?"

"If I told you that I'd be giving aid and comfort to the enemy."

"Do you ever send out peace feelers of your own?"

"All the time. The president has said he will talk peace any where, any time, with no conditions attached."

"Have they ever picked up your feelers?"

"As far as we know they haven't."

"Why not?"

"We don't know, unless it's because they've got one of these damn feeler machines of their own."

Scholarship Rite Set At Redwood

Ceremonies are scheduled for 8 p.m. tomorrow to honor 164 students who achieved academic distinction during the spring semester last year at Redwood High School.

Sponsored by the Sequoians, a parent organization supporting scholarship, the program will be held at the school's little theater.

Howard B. Shontz, assistant chancellor at the new University of California campus at Santa Cruz, will speak to the students and parents.

Leslie Armager is fire chief of Mill Valley.

Serving all of Marin County

JORDAN L. MARTINELLI SR.
Once a judge . . .

Retired Judge Helps State Handle Overload

When Jordan L. Martinelli Sr. retired in 1960 from the Marin County Superior Court bench, he promised he would return to help the courts from time to time if he were needed.

The California Supreme Court in the past two years has taken him up on that offer. Judge Martinelli serves as a referee for the state's highest court on habeas corpus cases from the state's prisons.

Martinelli has yet to handle any cases of writs from prisoners arising from the Dorado decision, which ruled that a prisoner must be advised of his rights to an attorney and to keep silent.

Most of his cases, instead, have dealt with prisoners who did not file appeals on their convictions within the allotted 10 days after sentencing. Often, he said, the prisoners claim they believed their attorney was going to file an appeal.

Such a request for appeal by the Supreme Court might come as much as two years late, Martinelli said. In all, he has handled about 10 cases in the past two years, the most recent at Folsom Prison.

Because the Supreme Court is an appeals court, it generally does not listen directly to witnesses or take evidence. That is where the referee comes in, especially if a man in prison is involved, according to officials of the state attorney general's office in San Francisco.

Martinelli said he always takes evidence in the prisons. He then makes a recommendation to the court, and, sometimes, the court agrees to allow a late appeal. He said he had recommended several late appeals, which later had been allowed.

As for pay, Martinelli said the state pays him the difference between his retirement pay and a regular judge's salary for each day he is handling an assignment.

Gate Span Patrolman Promoted, Moved

Traffic Officer J. H. Courter of the California Highway Patrol's Marin-Golden Gate Bridge Area office has been promoted to sergeant and reassigned to the Eureka area, effective Dec. 2.

A 17-year veteran, Courter was first assigned to San Francisco-Bay Bridge duty in 1948. After 12 years service, he transferred to Marin County.

Trucks Haul More

WASHINGTON (AP) —Intercity truck tonnage in 34 metropolitan areas across the country in the week ended Nov. 20 was up 7.2 per cent from the corresponding week last year, the American Trucking Assn. reports.

Planners Ask Businessmen To Speak Up

"What is right and what is wrong with the city's three commercial areas and what can be done to improve them" will be discussed by the Mill Valley Planning Commission at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Outdoor Art Club.

Planning Director Harvey E. Bragdon said today the commission is very interested in opinions from businessmen and other residents.

Approval of Mill Valley's application for federal "701 funds" for upgrading the business districts is imminent, Bragdon said, and precise studies over the next year will focus on the three commercial areas—Lytton Square, Miller and East Blithedale avenues.

Marin Praised For Work With Retarded Children

Although Marin County's aid for retarded children compares well with that in other areas, much progress lies ahead if they are to get the best possible diagnosis, treatment, and training.

So said Dr. Richard Koch of Los Angeles, president of the California Council for Retarded Children, in San Rafael as he prepared to address members of Marin Aid for Retarded Children Friday.

"The public schools here have done especially well in establishing a program for retarded children younger than eight years old," said Koch. "It is most important to discover and treat the problems of retardation early, and many areas aren't doing that.

"What the county needs most is a public health official to whom all newly discovered cases of retardation may be referred," he added.

Koch described recent state legislation which will provide $1,500,000 to set up regional diagnostic centers and to aid parents of retarded children so the children may continue to live at home.

The Bay Area is due to have one of these regional centers.

Marin Wildlife Talk For Audubon Society

A talk about Marin's most abundant types of doves, treefrogs and fence lizards will be given by Dr. James P. Mackey, associate professor of biology at San Francisco State College at a meeting of Marin Audubon Society Friday at 8 p.m. in the county supervisors' chambers at Marin Civic Center.

Field trips scheduled for December include: Dec. 6, to Stinson Beach State Park; Dec. 11, to Conn Dam; Dec. 13, canoeing on Bolinas Lagoon; and Dec. 20, a cycling trip.

Charles J. Francis is president of the Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce.

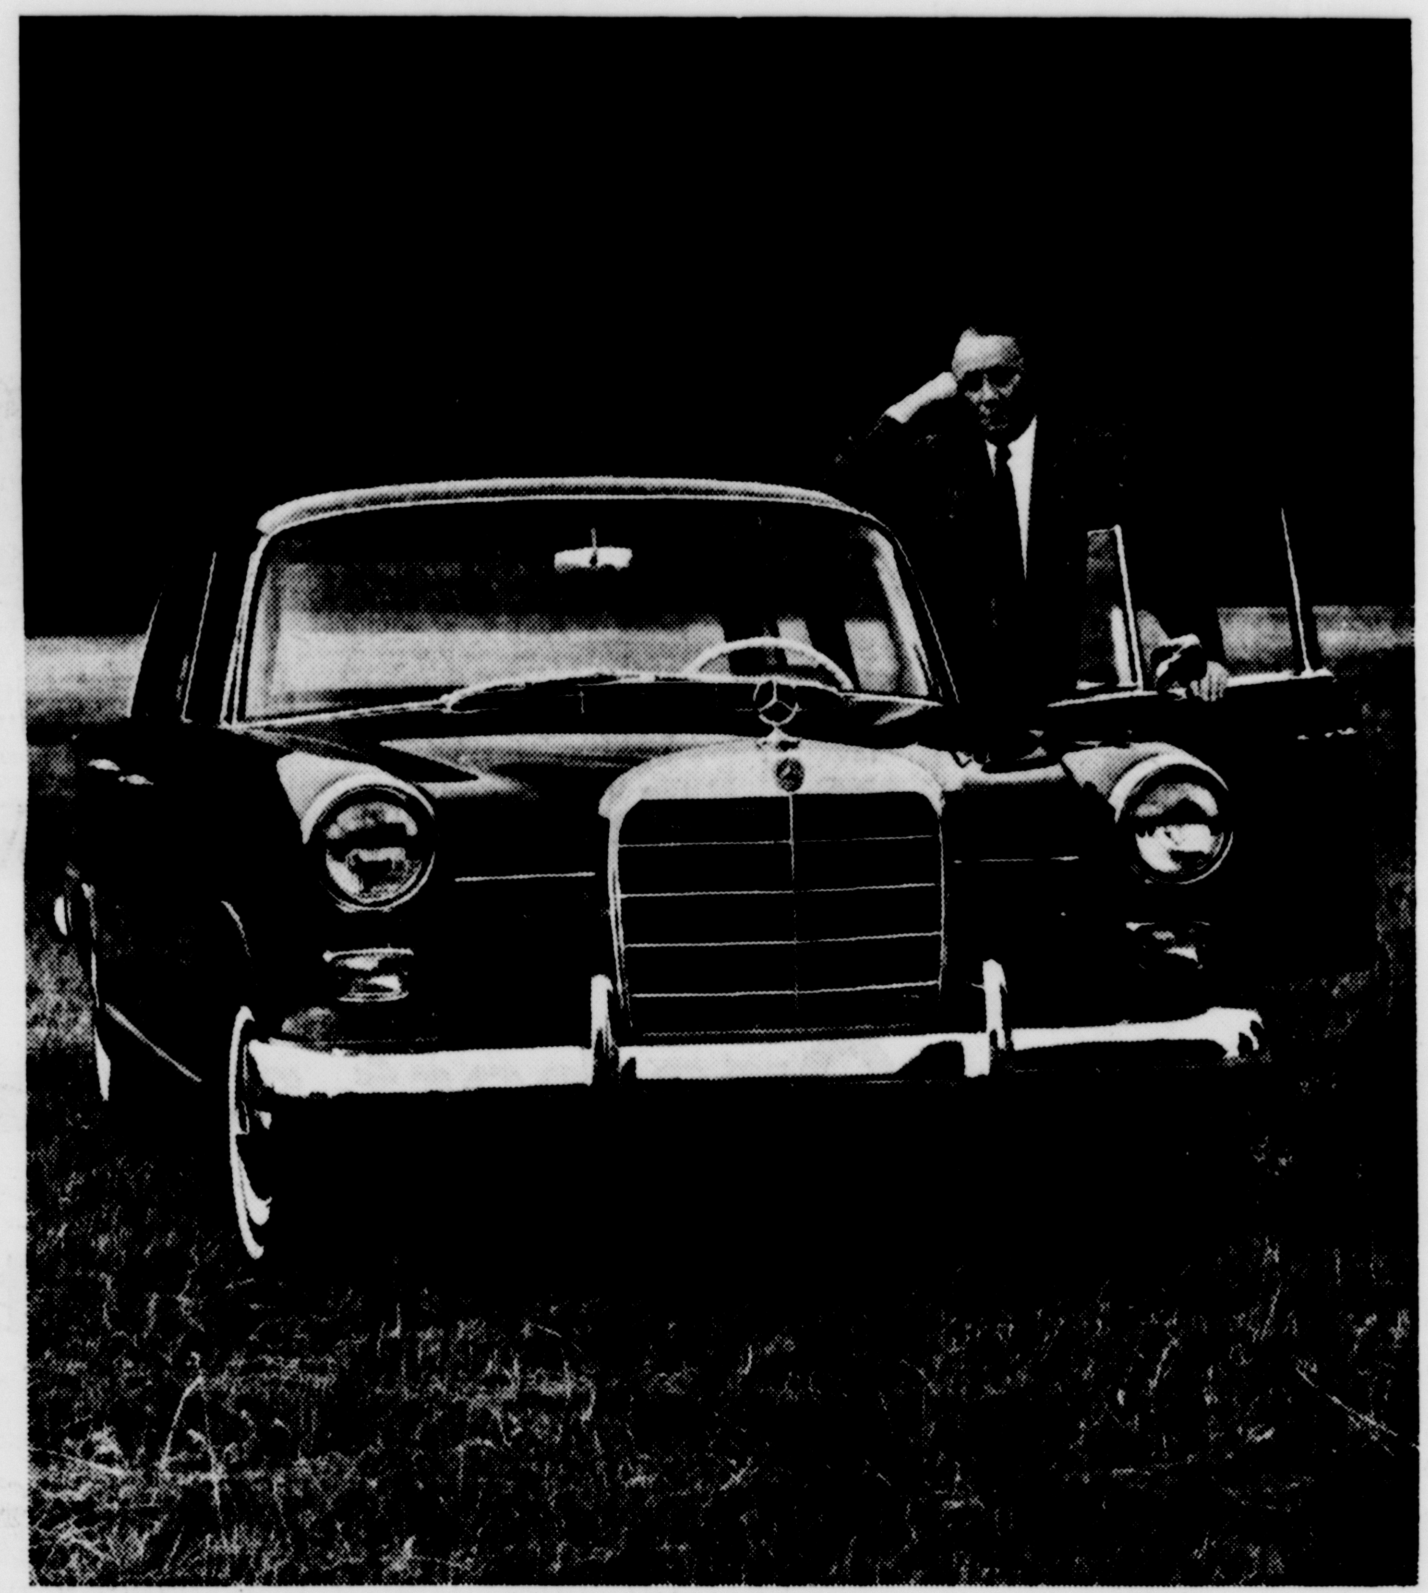
"Let the skeptics scoff. I'm convinced there are Americans who won't mind an odd-sounding engine when they find the Mercedes-Benz Diesel can cut their fuel costs in half."

—Heinz C. Hoppe, Chief Executive Officer, Mercedes-Benz of North America, Inc.



Mr. Heinz C. Hoppe and the impeccably engineered Mercedes-Benz 200D Diesel Sedan.

"The Mercedes-Benz 200D uses inexpensive diesel fuel. It has no sparkplugs to replace, no carburetors to adjust. With normal care, it will be going strong after most cars go to the scrap heap. It's well worth its $4,280 price—as you'll see when you read the full story below."

THE Mercedes-Benz 200D isn't so unconventional it will startle your neighbors. But it is a maverick of sorts—as you'll find the moment you lift the hood.

Tucked inside is a 4-cylinder Diesel engine. Here's how a Diesel differs from gasoline engines. Diesel fuel is fed by injection nozzles, not carburetors, into the engine's combustion chambers. Instead of a spark, compression ignites the fuel—with twice the combustion power of a 150-mph Ferrari gasoline engine.

Speaking frankly

The unique combustion in Diesel engines produces a unique noise, most audible at idling speeds. Mercedes-Benz engineers have reduced this drastically in recent years to a faint echo of what once was called "Diesel knock."

Car Life magazine comments, "Once underway, things quiet down and many unsuspecting passengers are surprised to learn that they've been riding in a Diesel."

Gauge watchers: You won't find diesel fuel at every gas pump. You will find it wherever Diesel trucks refill. And a tankful takes you 550 miles—enough for a nonstop trip from New York to Montreal, with 150 miles of driving to spare.

How you save money

In many areas of the United States, diesel fuel costs much less than gasoline. And the super-efficient Diesel engine uses less of it (to a Diesel owner, 32 miles to the gallon is mere routine mileage on a long trip). You can cut your fuel costs in half.

You never have to adjust carburetors, repair condensers or distributors, or replace sparkplugs and points—there are none.

The Mercedes-Benz Diesel engine is machined to tolerances of 4/10,000ths of an inch. Mercedes-Benz designers specified heavy-duty bearings, crankshaft and engine block to suit the Diesel's high-compression running. Result: the Mercedes-Benz Diesel, with normal care, will be going strong while other cars lie on the junk heap.

Startling proof: Some Mercedes-Benz Diesels are still rolling after 600,000 miles—such as the 1957 model owned by Mr. John J. Gray of Albany, Oregon. "The cost per mile has been 4.6 cents," says Mr. Gray. "This figure includes repairs, tires, fuel, insurance and depreciation."

Background note: Mercedes-Benz sold the world's first Diesel passenger car 29 years ago. A German engineer, Rudolf Diesel, invented the engine in 1897. Diesels may still be a novelty to Americans, but they're a household word elsewhere. Last April, the 500,000th Diesel car left the Mercedes-Benz factory in Germany.

The best—not the best seller

Mercedes-Benz engineers have never felt that a car should pay for its economy by cutting corners somewhere else.

For example, you ride in a body made of heavy-gauge sheet steel, welded at 10,000 points. This taut "unit" structure can't loosen up to rattle, squeak or groan. Nor will it rust in two or three years: 26 pounds of anti-corrosion undercoating are sprayed on at the factory. And the whole car—doors, hood and trunk lid attached—is sunk in a primer bath before painting—then given 6 more coats of paint.

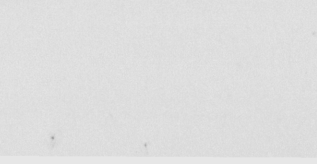
Showroom browsers: Note the rich, silvery sheen of that famous Mercedes-Benz radiator. It's made of steel, then copper-coated and polished by hand, dipped in chrome, baked and buffed by hand again.

The Mercedes-Benz three-pointed star radiator ornament is spring-mounted to foil sudden blows. A minor point—but a telling example of the Mercedes-Benz passion for detail.

Bring on the potholes

"Mercedes-Benz engineers know how to build sports car handling qualities into a family sedan—there's no doubt about that in our minds," says Car Life in a recent report.

The secret: the Mercedes-Benz 200D uses a fully independent suspension similar to that you'll find on the $6,262 Mercedes-Benz 230SL sports car. The "seasick" feeling you get in many big cars that lean and wallow over curvy roads is utterly unknown in the Mercedes-Benz 200D.



Some think it's ugly!

This car is not only agile. It smashes over potholes and ruts with unflappable calm. Each individually sprung wheel—not the entire body—soaks up bumps. Come hell or high water, you ride in civilized comfort.

You're in control

"You feel like you're actually steering a car—not changing direction by remote control," said one automotive authority about Mercedes-Benz steering precision.

There's no sponginess. The Mercedes-Benz 200D even has a shock absorber in the steering linkage. The wheel stays steady in your hands whatever the road surface.

Who needs options?

A refreshing point: the Mercedes-Benz 200D rolls off the assembly line as a completely equipped car. Tires are premium grade. Mercedes-Benz engineers tested their design and quality at continuous speeds of over 100 mph—at normal air pressures. Even the spare is balanced at the factory. You can have the 4-speed, fully synchronized gearshift mounted on the floor or the steering column. And you don't pay a cent extra.

Inside story: Sit in a Mercedes-Benz 200D—you'll find more room than in many large American cars. The car is designed around its occupants—not shaped to a stylist's whim.

Seats are hand built with fine wire coil springs, interwoven and interlocked to prevent sagging. Orthopedic physicians helped shape these seats to ward off fatigue. And they're firm: "When you sit down in a Mercedes-Benz, you don't sort of disappear into the cushion. You're cradled in something that was really engineered to keep a human being where he belongs."—David E. Davis Jr., Editor of Car & Driver magazine.

Note: The individual front seats are equipped with reclining backrests. Twist a knob and you can lean back in one of 4 positions. No extra charge, of course.

Mercedes-Benz motor cars: from $23,245 to $4,065

You may be able to afford a Mercedes-Benz without knowing it. Below are suggested retail prices* for 7 of the 15 Mercedes-Benz models.

600 Grand Mercedes	$23,245
300SE Coupe	11,737
230SL Roadster	6,262
230S Sedan	4,900
230 Sedan	4,250
200 Diesel Sedan	4,280
200 Sedan	4,065

*West Coast port of entry, exclusive of state and local taxes if any.

Trustworthy brakes

The tough-minded Mercedes-Benz engineers think you should have more braking power than you need. The Mercedes-Benz 200D weighs 2,920 lbs.—one and a half tons. Its brakes could safely stop a car of twice the weight. With disc brakes in front (where most of the car's weight is thrown in stopping), you face downhill mountain curves or deep puddles in peace. No shuddering, no fade. And because front and rear brake systems are separately activated, you actually have two sets of brakes.

World's safest car

The body of the Mercedes-Benz 200D has been patented as a safety feature. In the event of a sudden heavy impact, front and rear sections of the car are designed to fold—absorbing shock before it reaches the passenger area.

Savage crash tests at the Mercedes-Benz proving grounds show that doors stay tightly shut under all conditions. The "safety cone" door lock used on the 200D is the same as that used on the $23,245 Grand Mercedes 600 limousine.

Safety padding covers the steering wheel hub, instrument panel edges, even the window cranks. (To those who claim the Mercedes-Benz steering wheel is "ugly," safety experts have a thought-provoking reply: "Yes—so ugly it could save your life!")

Altogether, 12 potential danger spots in the Mercedes-Benz 200D are padded. Control knobs are recessed or made of elasticized material. Authorities term Mercedes-Benz cars "the safest in the world."

See for yourself

As your Mercedes-Benz dealer, we'll be glad to arrange a thorough demonstration drive in a 200D or other Mercedes-Benz model. You'll find it a remarkable experience to drive a car built to be the best—not the best seller.

Combining East And West

By PATRICIA ZINN

A newcomer to Marin who tastefully combines the culinary arts of the East and the West and has cooked soup "in a pumpkin" is Mrs. Ann Lett of Greenbrae.

The newcomer, born in Czechoslovakia, was schooled at the Academy of Cooking in Vienna and the Cordon Bleu in Paris and the Cordon Bleu in London.

FOR THE past 12 years she has lived in Hong Kong, where she spent one year studying Chinese cuisine at the famous Maxim's, and giving television and radio cookery demonstrations.

Mrs. Lett is the wife of a doctor and the mother of a daughter, Angela Mary, who is a junior at Redwood High School.

Although she is an expert in universal cookery and speaks six languages, the attractive brunette says that steaks served with salad, and a glass of wine and fresh fruit is her favorite menu.

Also among her preferences are:

AT LEAST four colors in a salad.

LACQUERED finger bowls with a flower floating on the surface of the slightly perfumed water.

HAWAIIAN style chicken served on a palm leaf (which she polishes with oil first) and a wooden platter.

COLLECTING pretty aprons wherever she goes.

Following are recipes from Ann Lett's collection of recipes:

SWEET AND SOUR PORK

Serves 4

INGREDIENTS:

1 lb. loin pork, cut into 1" cubes
1 tablespoon dry sherry
2 tablespoons soy sauçe
2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon cornstarch
oil for deep frying
2 green peppers — seeded and cut into ½" pieces
4 ozs. bamboo shoots — cut into small wedges
1 small tin pineapple, cut into small wedges
juice of pineapple
4 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons vinegar
1 clove garlic — crushed
4 tablespoons tomato ketchup
2 teaspoons oil
1 dessert spoon cornstarch mixed with ½ cup water

METHOD:

First prepare pork this way:

1. Mix flour and cornstarch together and coat meat well.
2. Heat oil — and fry pork till golden brown — put aside — but keep hot.
3. Heat remaining 2 teaspoons oil.
4. Add sugar — stirring all the time.
5. Add vinegar, soy sauce and tomato catsup.
6. Then add cornstarch mixed with water — lower flame.
7. Now is the time to add crushed clove of garlic, green peppers, bamboo shoots, pineapple chunks, sherry and pineapple juice.
8. Allow the sauce to simmer for 5 minutes, stirring constantly.
9. Lastly add pork to sauce and allow to cook for 5 minutes.
10. Serve very hot.

CHRISTMAS BUFFET

Lotte en Mayonnaise
Swedish Roll-mop Salad
Prawns in Aspic
Stuffed Roast Turkey
Chestnut & Celery Salad
Pineapple & Orange Salad
Meringues Chinoises
Gateau Au Chocolat Et Marrons

LOTTE EN MAYONNAISE

Choose any thick fleshed white fish, such as rock salmon, cod or turbot.

Two pounds white fish; 3 thick slices of white bread; good olive oil; lemon juice; garlic, chopped or crushed with salt; ¾ pint or more of mayonnaise; capers and sliced gherkins to garnish.

Cook the fish with plenty of vegetables and herbs to flavor, leave to cool in the liquor, then drain, bone and skin. Soak the bread in a little water and oil and then squeeze as dry as possible. Crush and work the fish well with the bread, then add by degrees ¾ tablespoons oil, garlic, lemon juice and seasoning to taste. Finish with ⅔ tablespoons of mayonnaise. When a creamy but firm consistency, mound in a serving dish, and coat with the remaining mayonnaise. Decorate with the capers and gherins.

SWEDISH ROLL-MOP SALAD

Six roll-mop herrings, 2 pickled cucumbers,. 3 small potatoes, French dressing.

Scrub and cook the potatoes in their skins until tender, drain, dry and peel: cut into neat slices and moisten with French dressing while still hot. Allow to cool.

Slice the cucumbers and the herrings and mix with the prepared potatoes. Moisten with a little extra dressing, pile in the serving dish and dust with chopped parsley.

PRAWNS IN ASPIC

Four to six ounces frozen or shelled prawns, rounds of canned pimento or ripe tomatoes for decoration.

ASPIC JELLY:

1½ pints good fish stock, ¼ pint white wine; 1½ ozs. gelatin, 2 egg whites, a squeeze of lemon juice.

Put the fish stock and gelatin into a scalded pan and dissolve over gentle heat. Whip the egg whites to a froth and add to the pan with wine and lemon juice. Whisk over steady heat until boiling point is reached and then allow to boil to the top of the saucepan undisturbed, draw aside and leave to settle. Boil up twice more in the same way, stand 5 minutes and then pour through a scalded cloth or jelly bag.

Line small dariole moulds with cool aspic, arrange the decoration at the bottom and set in aspic. Fill the mould with the prawns, fill up with aspic and leave to set.

Dip the moulds into hot water to turn out and garnish the dish with small cress or curled celery.

ROAST STUFFED TURKEY

8 lbs. turkey, butter, a little stock and sherry for roasting.

HAM MOUSSE: 2-lbs. ham; ½ lb. pate de foie, ½ lb. butter, ½ pint Bechamel sauce made with 1½ ozs. butter and 1½ ozs. flour, ¼ pint cream.

GARNISH: Aspic jelly and truffle.

Roast the turkey with the butter, stock and sherry for about 2 hours and allow to cool.

Prepare the aspic jelly and ham mousse.

HAM MOUSSE:

Mince the ham twice and then pound in a mortar with the pate de foie, creamed butter and cold sauce. Season well and fold in the half-whipped cream. Carefully remove the Supremes and then cut away into breast bone. Fill the "body" with the mousse. Cut the supreme into slices and place on the mousse leaving an open space down the center.

Arrange the sliced truffle along the breast and baste the bird with the cold aspic jelly and leave to set.

Serve on a large flat dish garnished with chopped aspic and hand a chestnut and celery salad and an orange and pineapple salad separately.

MERINGUES CHINOISES

Three whites egg, 6 ozs. castor sugar, a few drops vanilla essence. Creme Chantilly, Cape Gooseberries or Kumquats.

Whip the whites to a firm snow. Whisk in 1 teaspoonful of the weighed sugar for each egg white. Add the vanilla and fold in the rest of the sugar. Pipe out into small merinques, dust with sugar and leave for 10 minutes before drying in a cool oven or oiled and floured trays. Lift off and cool.

CREME CHANTILLY: Whip the cream, flavor with vanilla and sweeten to taste.

Fill the meringues and insert a cape gooseberry or kumquat between them.

Beat the egg yolks and sugar until white, add the melted chocolate. Fold in the chestnuts and the egg whites whisked until stiff and dry. Line two shallow sandwich tins with well buttered paper, pour half the mixture into each and bake in a moderate oven 30-40 minutes. When cool, sandwich with chocolate cream and pour a little over to cover.

CHOCOLATE CREAM: 3 ozs. chocolate, 2 tablespoons water, a little sugar to taste, 2 yolks, ¼ pint cream.

Melt the chocolate in the water and beat in the egg yolks. Add a little rum, vanilla or coffee to flavor and when cool, fold in the lightly whipped and sweetened cream.

Benefield-Lamoure Ceremony In City

The choice of Notre Dames Des Victoires Church in San Francisco for the Saturday afternoon wedding of Judith Ann Lamoure and James R. Benefield continues a family tradition of over a century.

The bride's great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jean Pierre Maneiet were wed in the same church in 1861, and her grandparents — Mr. and Mrs. Jean Baptiste Lamoure were married there in 1904.

James, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glidden Benefield of Tiburon claimed his bride at a three o'clock double ring ceremony.

The bridal gown worn by Judith Ann was white peau de soie in the empire style. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline and decorated with pearl and crystal appliques. The long straight skirt ended in a chapel length train. Her Camelot headdress secured a bouffant veil of white silk illusion.

Two of the bride's sisters, Mrs. David K. Ulrickson of San Jose and Mrs. Kenneth G. Fuller of Greenbrae, and a friend, Carol Kimball, of Palo Alto, were her attendants. Mrs. Ulrickson was matron of honor. All were gowned alike in floor-length empire-style dresses of brown chiffon. The bride's nephew, Mark Fuller of Greenbrae was ringbearer.

Best man was Robert Gemignani of San Francisco, while Richard Nystrom of Lafayette and James Goulding of San Mateo were ushers.

After a honeymoon trip to Mexico, the couple will live in San Franicsco.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Lamoure of Los Altos. Her grandparents are the late Judge and Mrs. Lewis Howell Smith and the late Jean Baptiste Lamoure and Mrs. Gabrielle Lamoure of Fresno.

James is the grandson of James E. Moore of Red Bluff and the late Mrs. Moore, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Chelius Clifton Benefield of Chico. His sister is Mrs. Orison Swett Marden III of Scarsdale, N.Y.

Judith is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy in Alabama, and attended Foothill College in Los Altos Hills.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Tamalpais High School and the University of California, where he was affiliated with Sigma Nu fraternity. He is in the advertising business.

Evelyn Bossange Plans Spring Rite

EVELYN BOSSANGE

Mr. and Mrs. Edouard R. Bossange of Dallas, Tex. announced the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Thacher Bossange, to Mohammed Selah Younes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Saleh Younes of Cairo, Egypt.

The future bride attended Katharine Branson School in Ross and schools in Switzerland, Paris and London. She made her debut at a reception given by her great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Kent Jr. in 1960 and at the San Francisco Cotillion. She is the granddaughter of the late Congressman William Kent of Kentfield.

Evelyn is the sister of Kent Arnold Bossange, and the niece of Dr. Elizabeth Whitmore, G. Stanleigh Arnold Jr., Peter and Anthony Arnold.

The future bridegroom was graduated from Cairo University, attended Edinburgh University and was graduated from Harvard Business School in 1963. He is a member of the University Club of New York.

The couple plans a late spring wedding in Kentfield.

SEEING THE SOVIET

State Marriage—USSR Style

One of a series of articles on a just-completed trip through Russia and India.

By BARBARA HOSMER

Stately canned music begins on the loudspeaker and two deputies—women dressed in black mannishly cut suits and wearing no makeup—rise behind a large official-looking desk. There is no other furniture.

The young couple advances to half the length of the standard Soviet red and green striped runner on the hardwood floor of what was once a Russian nobleman's ballroom. They stand stiffly, she in an unadorned short white dress and plain white veil falling from a circlet and he wearing his best suit and a new haircut. On each side stand a friend or two. The girls wear plain wool dresses. No one else is in the room, except a photographer who pops a quick flash and departs.

The head official begins speaking for the state outlining some of the responsibilities the couple will have and urges patience and understanding in their life together. Each replies in a few syllables. Rings are exchanged. Then the chief deputy advances from behind the desk, an official but motherly looking woman, and smiles at the pair as she offers each an abrupt handshake.

The witnesses step up to bashfully kiss and congratulate the pair, and all retreat to the strains of the canned music. There went the bride . . .

In the adjacent room the young couple stands quietly before a floral arrangement and poses with champagne toasting glasses from the white clothed table before them. Their friends join in the toast and the photographer makes a few quick recordings of the scene to be framed for placement on a table at home and hurries out. In the large room the canned music is starting again and a young couple is advancing on the red and green striped runner.

Another of the 60 weddings per day held every 10 minutes at the Palace of Weddings in Moscow is beginning in the room with unornamented cream-colored walls, hardwood floor and small alcove along one side—where one imagines an orchestra played in the days of the empire. Far back in the alcove is a marble bust of Vladimir Ilyich Lenin, placed so unobtrusively that one must squint into the shadows to identify it.

Outside in the halls and other rooms crowds of people push their way from room to room in processes of Soviet style marriage. Out on the sidewalk bride after bride, all in the plain white gowns, are waiting with their bridegrooms and friends for taxis to go home, where their parents are waiting to welcome them, as is the traditional Russian custom. It is explained to visitors that couples may have a religious ceremony in a church if they wish. Most don't.

Inside the spacious, though hardly palatial, building which was once the Polish embassy, young people crowd the entry rooms. Some have come to wait their turn to make application to be married. Then they will learn when it will be possible to schedule their wedding, probably on a week day. When that day arrives, they come to the Palace of Weddings, where "everything they will need can be bought." A counter in the lobby has rings, and there they can buy the bride's dress and veil, and some white flowers which remain cellophane wrapped in Russian style through the brief ceremony. They also can purchase the champagne for the toasts if they wish that part of the "reception" afterward.

In one room the bridegrooms wait nervously with their friends, and across the hall a room is filled with girls in the white dresses and their female friends who help fix their hair and adjust the veils. Though the legal marriage age is 18 in most of the Soviet Union, the brides look very young and unsophisticated compared to their American counterparts. Mostly they are devoid of makeup and jewelry, and wear plain white shoes and no gloves.

Most of the young people prefer to be married at the Wedding Palaces, of which there are two in Moscow and at least one in most of the large Soviet cities, we were told. But some have a religious ceremony at one of the few functioning Russian Orthodox churches. Older people and those having second marriages are married at another office in Moscow without the music and the "ceremony"—stiff and cold as it seemed to foreigners allowed to witness it.

It was explained that formerly couples merely signed a register and were married, but the people wanted to have a small ceremony and hence the music, flowers and white gown of today.

And the state has made another concession to just-married young people—a special store in Moscow only for newlyweds where they may obtain all the goods and furniture necessary to set them up in housekeeping, all at a reduced price. Thus the state smiles on the institution of marriage in the USSR as does the rest of the world.

Negro Strike Attempt Fails In Rhodesia

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (UPI) —Another underground attempt to set in motion a general strike by African workers failed today.

Authorities said absenteeism was at the normal rate despite a broadcast from neighboring Zambia which urged Africans to stay home today in protest against the white-ruled secessionist government of Premier Ian Smith.

(In London, informed sources said British Prime Minister Harold Wilson has decided to send Royal Air Force units to Zambia to patrol the frontier with Rhodesia. The action was taken at the request of Zambian President Kenneth Kaunda who asked for help in guarding the key Kariba hydroelectric dam which is situated on the border between the two countries.)

Police riot squads guarded most African districts of Salisbury and other officers rode buses and stationed themselves at bus stops in anticipation of a strike. Workers streamed to their jobs and no incidents were reported.

Ten Africans were being held by police in connection with two factory fires Sunday night touched off by Molotov cocktail explosions. Extensive damage was reported at a flooring company hit by terrorists. The other plant, a paper company, was slightly damaged.

The Roman Catholic Church in Rhodesia Sunday condemned the Smith government in its first official statement since the premier broke with Britain Nov. 11.

The statement was in a pastoral letter signed by the five Rhodesian bishops, including the Most Rev. Francis W. Markall, archbishop of Salisbury.

Congo Says Kasavubu Put In Camp

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Former President Joseph Kasavubu was taken to an army camp after the bloodless coup which ousted him last Thursday, a Leopoldville newspaper said today.

The newspaper said its reporter asked Lt. Gen. Joseph Mobutu, the new president, about Kasavubu's whereabouts. Mobutu had another official take the reporter to the heavily guarded camp, where he saw Kasavubu and his family strolling comfortably around a large house.

Kasavubu reportedly said there was no need to worry about him.

"I will make statements when I am free," he said. "But I must affirm that my major worry is for national reconstruction and I appeal to everybody to use nonviolence in this aim."

The Congolese Parliament voted unanimous approval yesterday of the cabinet of Mobutu's premier, Col. Leonard Mulamba. Mobutu has named himself president for five years.

Troupe, Singers To Do Wilder

The College of Marin Opera Workshop and San Anselmo's Festival Theater have joined forces to present Thornton Wilder's play, "The Long Christmas Dinner," coupled with its operatic adaptation by Paul Hindemith.

The play and opera will be performed on Dec. 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 10, and Jan. 1 and 2. Friday and Saturday performances will begin at 8:30 p.m., Sunday performances will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The program will be the first presentation of the two works in one performance in the United States. It also will be the West Coast premiere of Hindemith's opera.

Flood Control Work Is Repaid

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Department of Water Resources has announced payment of $1,625,655 to the Los Angeles county flood control district as reimbursement for expenditures on flood control works.

The payment is one of a continuing series that reached $60-million for various local agencies since the program started 20 years ago. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, in its flood control projects, requires that local agencies acquire lands, easements and rights of way needed for the project and that they pay for relocation or replacement of utility lines required to be moved.

The local agencies are reimbursed for their expenses by the department of water resources.

Suspect Shot By Detectives

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Los Angeles police officer shot a suspect in the cheek today to save another policeman from injury, police said.

Vice detective Gary Figelski, 23, shot Robert Wright, 39, as he attempted to drive away from an arrest, officers said. They said detective S. P. Eisenhower, 24, was partially in Wright's car when the suspect started to drive away.

Figelski opened fire, police said, and wounded Wright in the left cheek. He was treated at Central Receiving Hospital and then booked for assault on a police officer with a deadly weapon, officers said.

THE BLUES TAKE A BREAK

Felix McGill of Mill Valley and Phyllis Johnson of Oakland find romance for a moment in James Baldwin's play, "Blues for Mr. Charlie" which opens Friday at 8:30 p.m. in Brown's Hall, Mill Valley. Opening night is a benefit for Marin Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. Other performances will be given next Saturday and Sunday and again on Dec. 10, 11 and 12. The story is a protest against the violence of white supremacists.

Casady Says Very Few CDC Aides Will Resign

GROSSMONT (UPI) —Simon Casady, president of the California Democratic Council CDC, predicted last night that very few CDC clubs will defect and very few CDC officers will resign as a result of recent unsuccessful impeachment proceedings against him.

"The CDC is not in any danger of disintegrating because of its domestic crisis," Casady told a meeting of the Heartland Democratic Club.

"Up and down the state I find that nobody expects the CDC to wither and die," he added.

Casady also said Gov. Brown wants CDC support in the 1966 elections. He said he learned this from remarks made by Brown during an hour-long conference Friday in Los Angeles.

"The governor is not mad at the CDC," Casady said.

State Gets Park Land For Less Than Appraisal

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state has been successful in purchasing 1,975 acres of prime land on the west shore of Lake Tahoe for a new state park for less money than the appraisal for the property.

The agreement was announced Friday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown at a special meeting of the state Public Works Board, which handles property acquisition.

The special session of the 1965 legislature approved a bill providing $8.3 million for purchase of the property. Because it was generally known that the property was worth more than that figure, the legislature also provided that, if the state could buy the entire property for $8.3 million, a total of $7.4 million would be available to acquire as much of the property as possible through condemnation proceedings.

But Brown announced that Mrs. Esther Ehrman Lazard, San Francisco, had agreed to sell the property for $8.3 million. The Public Works Board approved the purchase agreement.

"The purchase price is less than the appraised value of the property," Brown said, "and I want to thank Mrs. Lazard for making it possible for us to acquire the land."

The property has a 1-5-mile beach front and extends west about three miles along General Creek. It is located north of D. L. Bliss state park and south of Tahoe City. The property, which will be known as the Sugar Pine Point state park, has a large, three-story turreted mansion, recreational facilities and an excellent beach.

B-B Breaks Window

Corte Madera police reprimanded three Corte Madera boys, two aged 13 and one aged 12, and confiscated their B-B gun yesterday after they admitted firing at and breaking a kitchen window at the Melvin O. Brockhoff home at 209 Oakdale Avenue. Parents of the boys promised to repair the window.

Woman Suffers Cut In Car Collision

Ruth L. Donnellon, 40, of 23 Sutter Street, Tiburon, suffered a cut upper lip at 1:25 a.m. yesterday when her station wagon crashed into a parked car on Beach Road just north of Main Street, the Tiburon sheriff's substation reported.

Deputies said Mrs. Donnellon was northbound when she struck a blue 1964 Cadillac sedan. She was to see her own doctor.

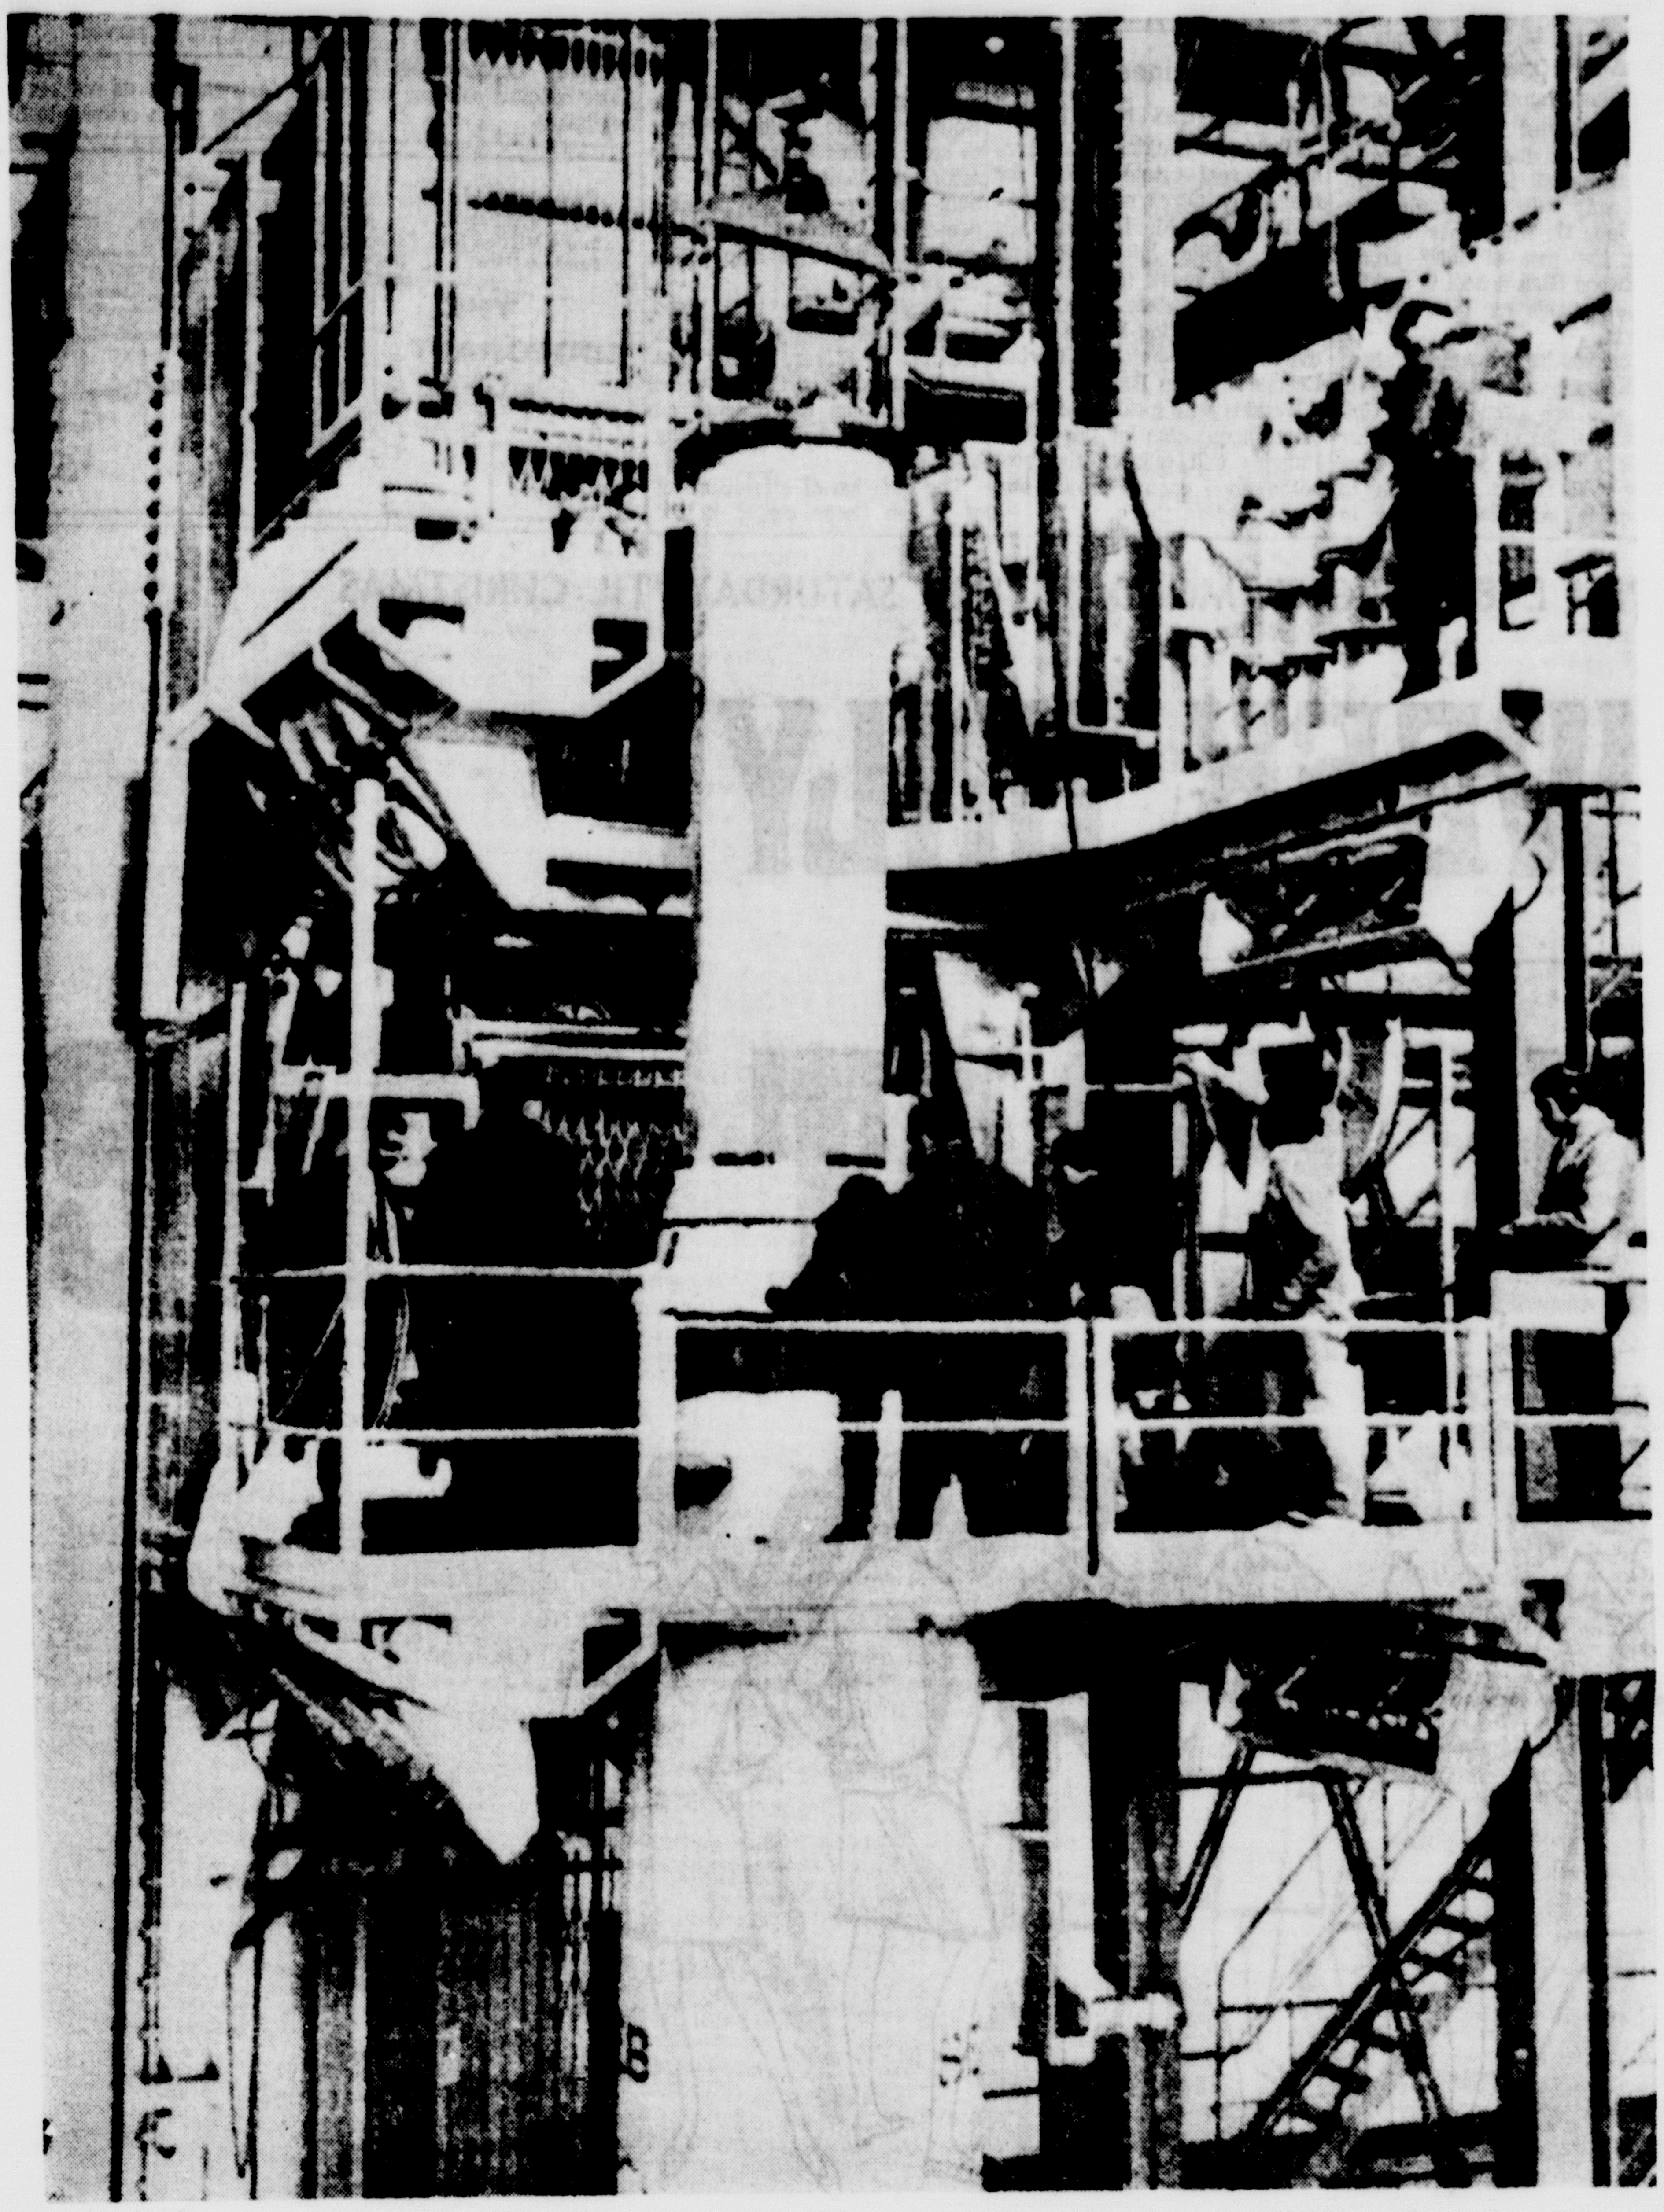
France's Formal Inauguration Into Space Race



FRENCH PREPARE FOR LAUNCH—Specialists at the launching base at Hammaguir in the Algerian Sahara work on the second stage of the three-stage Diamond rocket used to put the French satellite A1 into orbit. This picture and others on this page were made available by the French Army in Paris after the Defense Ministry announced Friday the 92.5-pound satellite was in orbit.

Signal From A1 Falters

PARIS (AP) — France's first space satellite continued orbiting, but its radio signals had all but died away by Saturday.

Technicians said that the "beep-beep" signal from the A1 satellite could be heard from time to time, but that it was very feeble. Radio transmissions to indicate details on the orbiting also encountered trouble, they said.

Part of the trouble apparently was due to damage to the antennas during the launching.

Long-distance radar confirmed that the A1 had gone into orbit.

The Defense Ministry said the principal purpose of the shot was to test the launching rocket, called the Diamond.

President Charles de Gaulle said the successful launching "attests to the high value of French science and technique" and is "an important accomplishment of which the entire nation should be happy and proud."

The launching was the most dramatic demonstration of French technological development since France exploded its first A-bomb in the Sahara Feb. 13, 1960.

SATELLITE ON ITS WAY—The Diamond rocket takes off from its Sahara site, to put France alongside the United States and Russia in the exclusive space club. The A-1 was designed to transmit radio signals for two weeks, but faded after a day. Its practical purpose was to test the Diamond rocket, not to gather scientific data.

Otepka Security Case Shakes State Department Hierarchy

By EWARD W. O'BRIEN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — Every week or two, the Senate Internal Security subcommittee is releasing another volume of testimony in what it stiffly calls, "State Department Security — The Otepka Case."

Otto F. Otepka is the State Department personnel security officer who was ordered fired in 1963 on a variety of charges by the department. His offenses amount to an allegation that he was cooperating with the Senators in their investigation of State Department security practices.

Because Otepka is an unusually obdurate man, his case has taken on an importance extending far beyond his personal fate. Before he received his dismissal notice he was convinced of serious laxity in the State Department's security program, and he answered the Senators' questions about what was going on. Despite almost three years of harassment by his department superiors, those are still his convictions, and he still responds to the subcommittee.

A newly released volume of testimony demonstrates for the first time how this one rather lonely government employe has shaken the mighty hierarchy of the State Department. The testimony leaves no doubt that the issues raised by Otepka have rubbed some exceedingly sensitive nerves among the officials who make big decisions on relations with the communist world.

In the hearing, Abram Chayes, the department's former top legal official, was describing the handling of the effort to get rid of Otepka, and the role in that effort of Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Undersecretary George Ball.

"Every major step in the case has been considered either by Mr. Rusk or Mr. Ball," the subcommittee was told by Chayes.

Chayes was the subordinate who recommended placing the dismissal charges against Otepka. He told the subcommittee that after Otepka's office trash was searched and evidence of correspondence between the subcommittee and Otepka was found, "Mr. Ball and the Secretary called me in and asked me to review the material and make recommendations to them" on whether federal law or government regulations had been violated.

The decision to bring the ouster action against Otepka was made by Ball, with the knowledge of Secretary Rusk, Chayes testified.

With all the other problems to be dealt with daily by Secretary Rusk and Undersecretary Ball, it is enlightening that the Otepka case could claim their time and attention. Even to a conference growing out of the tawdry episode of monitoring his waste basket, tapping his telephone, and drilling his office safe.

Why the determination at the top to rid the State Department of Otto Otepka? The answers are in the hearings, where everyone involved had his say. The Senators, Democrats and Republicans, have not yet given their formal answer in a committee report. But their persistence in delving into the case and publishing the evidence suggests their conclusion that Otepka was right in wanting to correct many things which he believed are desperately wrong in the department's security program.

'Space Park' Ground Broken

REDONDO BEACH (AP)—Gov. Brown today broke ground for a "space park complex" in Redondo Beach and said the facility will mean "several thousand new jobs by the end of 1966."

The space park is being built by TRW Space Technology Laboratories, which employes about 10,000 Californians.

Brown said the space park "truly symbolizes California's position as a leader in the space age."

TRW's most recent projects are the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's orbiting geophysical observatories and the Air Force's nuclear detection satellites.

Bonn Asks Decision Role In Use Of Nuclear Arms

BONN (UPI) —Government and opposition deputies joined hands today in a demand for a German role in NATO nuclear decision-making, including a veto over the use of American weapons located in West Germany.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard's parliamentary supporters said an increased nuclear role was not a matter of prestige but of security. They called for participation in the making of decisions as well as in fixing the principles on which they are based.

Fritz Erler, leading for the opposition Social Democrats in the parliamentary debate on Erhard's government policy speech, said it was legitimate for the chancellor to seek "appropriate participation" in the nuclear area.

"That must include," Erler arned, "a German territory or against German territory—in this we must feel ourselves responsible for the fate of Germany beyond the demarcation line."

Erhard, informed sources report, intends to ask for such veto rights when he meets President Johnson Dec. 19-21. Germany is the only NATO member which does not enjoy the right of veto over American nuclear weapons stationed on its territory.

Rainer Barzel, chairman of Erhard's Christian Democratic parliamentary party, opened the discussion scheduled to continue until Wednesday night.

In his speech, Barzel echoed Erhard's own plea to the NATO powers to end nuclear discrimination against West Germany, which provides the largest conventional armed force in Europe.

"We are prepared to accept military division of labor within the alliance," Barzel said.

"We are not prepared to permit a division of the risk. The alliance is as effective as the mutual confidence and the non-discrimination of all partners, and as the common deterrent."

Owner Pays Fine To Keep Bar Open

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control announced it has accepted payment of $502 from Max Key, in lieu of a suspension of his on-sale general liquor license at the Rancho Rafael, 6045 Redwood Highway, Ignacio.

The licensee was charged on July 30 with sales of alcohol to minors and permitting minors to consume it.

Britisher To Russia For Viet Nam Talks

MOSCOW (AP)—British Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart arrived in Moscow today for talks with Soviet leaders on Viet Nam and on the non-proliferation of nuclear weapons.

Pravda said it hoped Stewart's four-day visit would contribute "to the normalization of the international situation." British sources here held little hope of major results.

Ex-Racing Skipper Made Risky Move

When John Johnsen of Santa Venetia gave up a commanding a racing yacht back East and took to working aboard slow moving sea-going dredges, he thought life would be less exciting.

But it packed a bigger punch than expected for the 68-year-old first mate, who this month has retired to his home at 7 Jefferson Avenue after surviving two boat sinkings during his 55 years at sea.

The first was in 1945 when the dredge MacKenzie was caught in a typhoon off Okinawa and rapidly sank.

In September, 1957, he was first mate aboard the hopper dredge Rossell when it was rammed by the Norwegian motor vessel Thorshal and sank in the entrance of Coos Bay, Ore. Four men lost their lives.

Johnsen was commended for the part he played in the orderly evacuation of the Rossell.

"I guess I've been lucky all my life," he said at his home yesterday. "It's sure good to be ashore for a while."

He has served 24 years with the Army Corps of Engineers and retired as first mate aboard the dredge Davison, out of Portland.

Finland was the first country in Europe to grant women the right to vote, in 1906.

Nevada Court Denies Retrial To Marinites

A Corte Madera man and woman serving a prison sentence for manslaughter in Nevada lost an attempt Friday to have their case retried, this time for murder.

Dr. Sherman O. Wirt, 59, and Mrs. Helen C. Calani, 45, had pleaded guilty to voluntary manslaughter in the death of Virginia City contractor Richard Ghilotti in his restored Victorian home on May 23, 1964.

They later asked for a trial on the murder charge, in hopes of being freed. Yesterday the motion was denied by Judge Richard L. Waters Jr. of the First Judicial District Court in Nevada's Storey County.

Wirt is serving a term of five to 10 years. Mrs. Calani's sentence was one to 10 years.

Marin To Host Kuwait Youths Over Holidays

Eight young men from Kuwait will arrive in Marin County on Dec. 18 to spend their holiday with host families in the area.

The youths, who under the auspices of the Experiment in International Living Program, will stay with the families until Jan. 17, when they will rejoin the rest of their group. Redwood High School is making arrangements for their stay in Marin.

The youths are among about 40 Kuwait students, ages 18 to 22, who are attending the University of Texas at Austin. After their Christmas vacation here they will return to Austin to complete semester courses in English and studies about the United States. Then they will attend various trade schools to prepare themselves for jobs in their Persian Gulf country's wealthy petroleum industry.

Hhe Kuwait government is financing the youths' stay in this country. The students have their own cars and will be on a very independent basis during their Marin visit.

Army Engineers Due To Address Realtors

Harlan B. Watkins, special assistant real estate officer for the Army Corps of Engineers, and Eugene M. Huggins, the corps' public information officer, will speak to the Marin County Real Estate Board at its breakfast meeting at 8 a.m. tomorrow at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael.

Watkins will speak about real estate acquisition for the corps. Huggins will talk on the proposed flood control project for Corte Madera Creek.

Litter Problem Compounded By Home Garbage

Members of Bolinas Community, Inc. Friday learned that the litter problem on the beaches is being compounded because families are putting household garbage in litter cans placed by the county.

The group voted to ask the Bolinas Public Utility District to send notices with water bills asking residents not to do so, and warning them of possible penalties. District employees were also asked to help police the beach.

The organization also voted to write to County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer, asking that the mounted sheriff's deputy be used again on the beaches on weekends and holidays starting Feb. 12.

The question of establishment of a Job Corps center in the Bolinas area was again discussed, with persons at the meeting overwhelmingly opposed to the idea unless police protection is increased.

Pipe Dampens Store

A ruptured water pipe in the fire sprinkler system of the Emporium at 9:35 p.m. Friday wetted down racks of greeting cards at the northeast corner of the store at the Northgate Shopping Center, San Rafael. Store officials said the loss was negligible.

Christmas Party Set For Retired Persons

A Christmas party with games, entertainment and carol singing will be held by the Marin Chapter, American Assn. of Retired Persons, at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the First Methodist Church of San Rafael. Officers for 1966 will be elected. Refreshments will be served.

Quentin Execution Slated —First In Three Years

Controversy Expected To Rise Again

By ROBERT STRAND
U.P. International

EXECUTION CHAMBER — This is the San Quentin Prison gas chamber. There have been no executions there for almost three years, but one is scheduled there next month. Preparation for the event is sure to bring more mass demonstrations. (UPI Telephoto)

On Dec. 15, a convicted killer is scheduled to enter the gas chamber at San Quentin prison for the first criminal execution in California in nearly three years.

The event is likely to revive bitter controversy over the future of capital punishment in the state, and could bring about the same type of mass demonstrations the San Francisco Bay area has experienced for civil rights and pacifist causes.

Up to 1963, California normally had about eight executions a year at San Quentin. But a combination of court decisions has stopped all executions since Jan. 23, 1963.

Now sitting in the prison's death row is Thomas Leroy Teale, 37, convicted of kidnaping and killing a Lodi bartender and robbing him of $266 in 1962, just six months after he was released from prison for another robbery and shooting 11 years earlier. He was sentenced to death.

The conviction was upheld by the California Supreme Court, and now Teale's only hope is a stay of execution from the U.S. Supreme Court.

The capital punishment controversy—now muted because of the moratorium—reached a climax in California with the 1960 execution of author-kidnaper Caryl Chessman, who fought through the courts from death row for 12 years.

Gov. Edmund E. Brown, an avowed foe of capital punishment, granted Chessman a stay 10 hours before one of his scheduled execution dates to give a special legislative session a chance to abolish the death penalty. The legislature overwhelmingly turned down his plea—as it has done repeatedly before and after.

The night before Chessman's execution hundreds of protesting pickets held a bonfire vigil outside the prison walls. The vigils have continued at every execution since.

Brown's vocal opposition has brought the widest publicity to the capital punishment controversy, but it was two decisions of the California Supreme Court which played the primary role in bringing about the current moratorium.

In one case, the state court interpreted the U.S . Supreme Court's Escobedo decision to mean that local police must inform suspects of their right to remain silent and consult a lawyer. This ruling has resulted in new trials or freedom for a number of convicts.

The other decision ruled that prosecutors may not tell a jury that a defendant sentenced to life imprisonment could be paroled, thus possibly influencing the jury to vote the death penalty instead.

Since these two cases were handed down within the last two years, 42 men and one woman have had their death sentences reversed. Upon retrial, 12 were sentenced to death for a second time and five received life sentences. The rest of the cases are pending.

In the meantime the San Quentin gas chamber remained unused.

One of Brown's sharpest critics, Assemblyman C. George Deukmejian, a Long Beach Republican, has charged that statistics show violent crime has increased in the state as a result of the execution moratorium.

He said he believes a renewed controversy over capital punishment will help make crime the major issue of the state's 1966 gubernatorial campaign.

Brown, a Democrat, points to studies which find no solid evidence the death penalty either encourages or discourages crime. He is continuing to urge the abolition of the death penalty, complaining that the moratorium has made "a laughing stock of the administration of justice."

But as Teale's scheduled execution approaches, the battle lines are being drawn for a renewal of the state's bitter fight.

No Mental Center Delay Is Hoped

Marin Hospital District board president Marion C. Ibach said today she hopes that Psychiatrist J. M. Stubblebine's five-page critique of plans for community mental health center at Marin General Hospital will not delay the project.

She said she does not think the county board of supervisors should allow the criticism to halt planning for the joint county-hospital district project.

County Administrator Alan Bruce has said he will recommend that, because of the report, the supervisors hold up planning for the center. Construction is scheduled to begin next July.

Mrs. Ibach suggested the supervisors "should instruct the architects to go ahead and resubmit a program more in line with Dr. Stubblebine's thinking, if they are going to accept the report. If not, they should tell the architects to proceed with the present program."

In his report, Dr. Stubblebine, San Francisco mental health director and former chief psychiatrist at Ross General Hospital, took issue with the mental health center's emphasis on outpatient care.

He also urged that the county auditor study projected costs to see if the facility will provide cheaper care than a private one. Private clinics are sometimes able to provide cheaper rates, he said.

Dr. Stubblebine's report will go to the supervisors, tomorrow, with Bruce's recommendation that it be referred to the mental health advisory board and that design work be suspended.

Girl Arrested

A 14-year-old Marinwood girl was arrested at the Emporium in the Northgate Shopping Center Saturday after a store detective said she left the store without paying for an $8.30 brassiere she was carrying. The girl was booked at Marin County Juvenile Hall.

Lower-Class Airmen Losing Club At Base

The lowest strata of the Air Force caste system is about to lose its wine-and-dine club at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Col. Ralph M. Wanderer, base commander, has announced that the Airmen's Club, operated for airmen third and second class, will be closed Jan. 25. The reason: it lost $4,000 last year and the loss is increasing.

Airmen third and second class are not permitted by Air Force regulations to operate their own club, selling drinks, on the base. Higher enlisted grades can do so, and have a Non-Commissioned Officers Club at Hamilton which sells meals and drinks. If the NCO Club makes a profit, it gets to keep it; if it goes in the red, the taxpayer unknowingly picks up the tab.

Not so with the airmen third and second. So their Airmen's Club has been subsidized by the NCO Club; and, according to Colonel Wanderer, its losses have been made up out of what should have been the NCO Club's profits, or from the pockets of the members.

"The low base pay of the airmen just does not give them enough money to support such a club," said Colonel Wanderer.

The finances of these low-strata airmen (with a base pay starting at $93.90 per month) was one reason for organizing the Airmen's Club. It sells mixed drinks at 35 to 40 cents, and beer at 15 cents a glass. Hamburgers are 35 cents, and meals with chicken and steak $1 and $1.25—all well below the prices of the night spots that line Highway 101 in the vicinity of Hamilton Air Force Base.

The club also has dancing one night each week with music by a combo. There used to be dancing both Friday and Saturday nights, but it was cut to once weekly as a money-saving measure.

The NCO Club has "tried everything, including bingo," to put its stepchild Airmen's Club in the black ink, but all without avail, according to M/Sgt. J. L. Andrews, NCO Club manager.

It seems the unmarried airmen prefer to get their action off the base, he said.

One reason may be that, while there has been no complaints of the club's drinks or meals, and certainly none about its prices, the club itself is none too attractive. It is a wooden building erected during World War II, and somewhat the worse for wear.

Colonel Wanderer said the club has lacked funds to put the building in shape. Sergeant Andrews said a contractor had to be hired, at $250, to complete a "self-help" painting job the airmen started but didn't finish.

The club was scheduled to close Nov. 25, it was learned, but a two-month delay was granted — perhaps in hope of making up some of the loss during the Christmas season.

Not quite all will be lost for the non-teetotaling airman when his club closes: he can still drink beer at the Post Exchange.

And, pointed out Colonel Wanderer: "We do have a service club that's open seven days a week. They have dances there and TV, pool tables and reading and game rooms." But no beer or liquor.

Christmas Lights Go Up In Mill Valley

Mill Valley firemen today put finishing touches on the city's Christmas street decorations which, in a switch from recent year's redwood branches, will be colored lights in many of the street trees. Trees are to be lighted Friday.

Lights are being installed in Lytton Square, on Miller and East Blithedale avenues by the chamber of commerce. The city plans to erect lights in front of city hall and in trees in the center of the square. Santa Claus' house will be erected at 85 Throckmorton Avenue, and Saint Nicholas himself will put in his appearance at a date to be announced.

Auto Strikes Driver Pushing His Own Car

A/2c Charles P. Lavin was behind his car, pushing it north in front of 1440 Lincoln Avenue in San Rafael, when he heard a squeal of brakes behind him about 1:15 a.m. yesterday.

The next thing he knew he was pinned against the rear of his car by one driven by Roger L. Reclus, 44, of 4136 Redwood Highway, San Rafael, according to San Rafael police. Lavin, 20, of Hamilton Air Force Base, was taken to the base hospital, where he was reported in satisfactory condition today with a broken right leg.

Police said Lavin was wearing dark clothes and no hat, and that an overhead streetlight was partly blocked by a tree. Reclus was cited, however, for not having a driver's license in his possession.

Kentfield Session

Kentfield fire district commissioners will meet at 8 p.m. today in the fire house, Chief Kenneth Kamp reported. The commission's regularly scheduled meeting this month fell on Thanksgiving night and was postponed.

Nicasio Lake Rec Proposal 'Impractical'

The Marin Visitors Bureau today advanced a proposal to turn Nicasio Lake into a recreation-tourist area, but Gen. Mgr. William R. Seeger of Marin Municipal Water District called it "completely impractical."

Clinton De Lap, Visitors Bureau manager, said the bureau's board of directors envisioned the big lake becoming a year-around recreation area, available for swimming, fishing and boating.

He said the water could be replaced from Russian River or Eel River sources, and reported "MMWD officials indicate that this would be feasible."

No so, said Seeger. "I told them it would not be feasible," he declared, referring to the proposal as a "hare-brained idea."

Nicasio Lake cost some five million dollars, Seeger pointed out, and was financed from a bond issue so could not be sold by the water district without approval of the voters.

Replacement of the water from Russian and Eel River sources is impractical, he said. The water district already is planning on utilizing such sources, but needs the big Nicasio Reservoir, which stores seven and one-half billion gallons, as a major source of water supply, he declared.

DeLap admitted the Visitors Bureau could not implement its plan, but suggested the county could buy the reservoir and the water district could use the five million dollars to develop water sources elsewhere.

Marijuana Suspect Held

An 18-year-old Marin City youth, Floyd Barrow of 25 Burgess Court, was booked in county jail yesterday for investigation of possession of marijuana.

Sheriff's officers said they approached a car parked in the 300 block of Drake Avenue, Marin City, to quizz Barrow, after he acted in a suspicious manner.

Barrows leaped out of the car and fled. But officers found particles appearing to be marijuana on the car's front seat. These will be analyzed by state narcotic laboratories.

Barrow surrendered himself at the Marin City sheriff's substation shortly afterward. He was held in lieu of $1,100 bail.

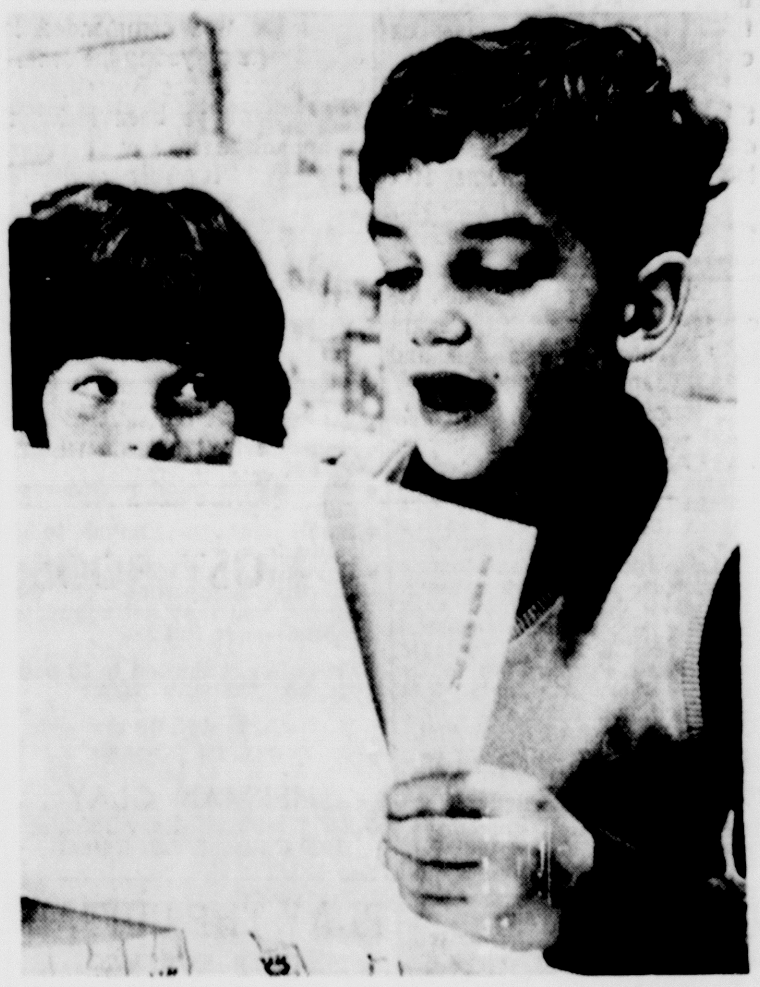
Boy Waiting For Very Important Pet From Luci Baines Johnson

By JOHN F. KEARNEY



WHITE HOUSE LETTER—Andrew Bassis reads letter from White House informing him that Luci Baines Johnson is sending him one of her hamsters, while wide-eyed Mary Carlson listens. Both are second graders at Don Timoteo School in Dixie School District. (Independent-Journal photo)

Andrew Bassis is only seven but he will stay up late tomorrow to meet a VIP from the White House at San Francisco International Airport.

The VIP is a Very Important Pet: a three-month-old hamster which has been given Andrew by Luci Baines Johnson because the President's daughter enjoyed so much the letter he sent her from his home in San Rafael.

Andrew read in a newspaper that Luci wanted to give away six hamsters born Aug. 27 to her pets, Boris and Natasha.

So he put pencil to paper and cheerfully wrote from his home on Tarragon Drive:

"I have heard that your hamster had babies. I am seven years old. My mother said I could have a hamster. And I have asked you for a hamster. Could you give me a girl because I would like to name it after you."

Before leaving for Don Timoteo School today, Andrew swallowed a mouthful of cereal, took a deep breath, and said:

"I am going to take great care of it and keep it in my den and it eats tid-bits and carrots, peas, beans, lettuce and lots of things and I have read all about it in a book 'cause I never had a pet like this before although I once had a dog that died."

The hamster will travel in a box direct from Washington in the captain's cabin on United Air Lines flight 57, arriving at San Francisco Airport at 8:20 p.m.

Andrew is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Milton L. Bassis and has a sister, Lisa, 11.

His mother said today: "I had a call last week from a secretary at the White House asking if it was all right for Andrew to have a hamster. I, of course, said we would be delighted.

"Miss Johnson followed the call with a letter saying how much she was captivated by Andrew's request. It was all his own idea. He is so unpredictable, I didn't even know what he had written."

Andrew's letter was one of six chosen out of a hundred requests for hamsters received at the White House.

Needless to say, the VIP is a girl hamster and Andrew will call her Luci Baines Johnson.

Woman Bruised, Man Bleeding

San Rafael police were called to an apartment at 65 Fairfax Street Saturday and found a man bleeding from cuts on both arms and a woman with a bruised cheek and broken bridgework.

Responding to a call from a neighbor, officers confiscated a butcher knife with an eight-inch blade before giving first aid treatment to Donald J. Sollar, 45, who lived in Apartment 18 in the building.

They questioned Martha M. Lutzi, 47, who also said she lived in the same apartment, but released her, saying today they were not sure exactly how the cutting took place.

Two Women Win Bridge Ratings

Two more members of the Marin unit of American Contract Bridge League won their life master ratings during the 10-day national bridge tournament which wound up yesterday in San Francisco.

Mrs. Susan Cole of Marinwood and Mrs. Sue Takeshita of Livermore won enough "red" points (awarded only in major tournaments) to win the coveted life master rating.

Mrs. Cole was paired with Ludovica Bigelow of Belvedere, and Mrs. Takeshita with P. L. Dearmond of Kentfield when they "went over the top."

Police End His Easy Life In A Church

The easy life of living off a Sausalito Church came to an abrupt end early today for a young man from Moss Beach, San Mateo County.

Mark A. Hills, 18, was awakened by police at the Sausalito Presbyterian Church at 112 Bulkley Avenue at 3:45 a.m., rolled off the couch and given a new home in Marin County Jail. Charge: unlawful entry.

Police Lt. Ted Zink said he had had reports the past week that someone had been breaking into the church, sleeping downstairs in the recreation room, eating from the larder in the kitchen, and turning the heat up too high.

Each morning the uninvited sleep-in, eat-in intruder would leave the church before anyone arrived for the day.

Last night police had a look, and found Hill asleep on a couch in the basement.

Zink said Hill has been employed at the Marin Guide in Sausalito.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL DISTRICT BONDS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, at the office of the County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of said Board of Supervisors in the Civic Center, City of San Rafael, in said County, California, on Tuesday, the 14th day of December, 1965, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock A.M. for the purchase of bonds of NOVATO-SAN JOSE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT OF MARIN COUNTY, State of California, more particularly described below:

ISSUE: $1,810,000.00 1965 School Bonds, Series A, consisting of 362 bonds of the denomination of $5,000.00 each, numbered A-1 to A-362, inclusive, all dated December 15th, 1965. Said bonds are part of an authorized issue in the aggregate principal amount of $3,840,000.00. The remaining $2,030,000.00 principal amount of said authorized issue may be sold when and as determined by said Board of Supervisors, but it is anticipated will not be offered for sale prior to April 1st, 1966.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum five per cent (5%) per annum, payable annually for the first year on December 15th, 1966, and semi-annually thereafter on December 15 and on June 15 in each year. Bidders must specify the rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders will be permitted to bid different rates of interest and to split rates irrespective of the maturities of said bonds. The interest rate stated in the bid must be in a multiple of one-eighth or one-twentieth of one per cent per annum payable as aforesaid. Each bond must bear interest from its date to its fixed maturity date at the rate specified in the bid.

MATURITIES: Said bonds mature serially in consecutive numerical order from lower to higher (without option of prior redemption) as follows:

Principal Amount	1965 Series A Bond Numbers	Maturity Dates (Dec. 15)
$ 20,000.00	1-8	1966-1967
25,000.00	9-28	1968-1971
20,000.00	29-52	1972-1977
100,000.00	53-72	1978
130,000.00	73-98	1979
145,000.00	99-127	1980
200,000.00	128-167	1981
250,000.00	168-217	1982
260,000.00	218-269	1983
275,000.00	270-324	1984
190,000.00	325-362	1985

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest payable in lawful money of the United States at the San Francisco Main Office of Bank of America, National Trust and Savings Association in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California, or at the option of the holder at the respective offices of the paying agents of said County in the City of New York, State of New York, or in the City of Chicago, State of Illinois.

REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by said Board of Supervisors on behalf of said school district. Such bonds are registrable only as to both principal and interest.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: Said bonds were authorized by more than two-thirds of the voters voting at an election held in said district on April 20th, 1965, and will be issued and sold for the purpose of raising money for authorized school purposes.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of said school district and said Board of Supervisors has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of said bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within said school district, subject to taxation by said school district (except certain intangible personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds the income received by private holders from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable under any Federal Income Tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a Federal Income Tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service or by the decision of any Federal Court, the successful bidder may at his option, prior to the tender of said bonds by the Board of Supervisors, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and, in such case, the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of the following firm, approving the validity of said bonds, will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge: Orrick, Dahlquist, Herrington & Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the official in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond at the expense of the successful bidder, if requested in his bid.

TERMS OF SALE

HIGHEST BIDDER: The bonds will be awarded to the highest responsible bidder or bidders considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the district would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates thereof at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the district. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the district.

RIGHT OF REJECTION: Said Board of Supervisors reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD: The Board of Supervisors will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for receipt of proposals; provided, that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given the Board of Supervisors notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY: Delivery of said bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the County Treasurer of said County as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be within 30 days from the day of sale.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the bonds are not tendered for delivery within 60 days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event, the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale, and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Board of Supervisors of said County and endorsed "Proposal for School Bonds of NOVATO-SAN JOSE UNIFIED School District of Marin County."

BID CHECK: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000.00 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the County Treasurer, to secure said school district from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the district on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the district. Checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be returned by the County Clerk by mail, upon the award of the bonds. No interest will be paid upon deposit made by the successful bidder.

There is no controversy or litigation pending or threatened concerning the validity of the above issue, the corporate existence of said district or the title of the officers to their respective offices and the Board of Supervisors will deliver to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of delivery of the bonds.

Dated: November 23, 1965.

Three Inmates Due New Trials

Three Death Row inmates at San Quentin Prison were scheduled to go on trial today in Santa Ana to determine if their sentences should be reduced from death to life imprisonment.

They are Joseph Rosoto, John Vlahovich and Donald Franklin, who have been at the prison since July, 1960.

The State Supreme Court ordered a new penalty trial because the Orange County district attorney told the jury the trio could be freed on parole in seven years if given life sentences.

The three men were convicted of hiring a man to murder Leslie Simpson, an Anaheim tavern owner, who was shot outside his home Feb. 7, 1959.

Ex-President Is Recovering

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Former president Adolfo Lopez Mateos was reported getting along well today after a four-hour brain operation to remove a blood clot.

Dr. Gregorio Gonzalez Mariscal, a Mexican brain specialist, said: "I am very happy about the results."

Lopez Mateos, 55, was sent to the hospital last week after suffering severe headaches and loss of control of his left eye.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Kidney Stone Dissolution Can Be Done, But Not With Ease

VAN DELLEN

Is it possible to dissolve kidney stones? Yes, and we have written on this treatment on several occasions. It has never been a popular remedy because washing out the kidneys is time consuming and fluid strong enough to dissolve stones is likely to be irritating. A new report from West Germany sounds encouraging because physicians were able to dissolve all the concretions that were less than six months old.

ACCORDING TO an abstract in International Medical Digest, two irrigating solutions designated A and B were inrtoduced via a catheter into the small tube that connects the bladder and kidney (ureter) on the involved side. Solution A contained chemicals that dissolved the framework (organic matrix) of the stone; B was designed to dissolve the mineral layers. One of the substances in B allowed a longer period of irrigation because of a chemical that reduced irritation of the delicate membranes.

Each daily treatment took from 15 to 20 hours. Stones older than six months did not respond so well but the over-all percentages on 260 patients were encouraging. The majority were dissolved completely or partially. The procedure takes so long that it is not practical. In addition, it is difficult to determine the age of a kidney stone.

THE PASSAGE of these rough and irregular rocks is accompanied by intense pain. Soreness usually begins over the kidney area and radiates into the groin. The victim moans and squirms as the discomfort increases in severity. Relief is obtained with painkilling drugs or after the stone is expelled, dissolved, or removed surgically.

Knowing the chemical composition of the calculi helps to prevent recurrences especially when the original cause remains. Some people are known stone formers whereas others develop concretions under certain conditions. Victims of gout, for example, may form a uric acid stone when excessive amounts of the chemical are excreted in the urine as a result of treatment. Others develop stones because they drink too little water, overindulge in calcium-rich foods, consume excessive vitamin D, or remain too long in bed as a result of illness or accident.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if a stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

INJECTIONS ARE SAFE

M. M. writes: Are babies ever harmed by the "shots" doctors give them?

REPLY

Reactions occur occasionally but they do far less damage than the diseases against which the protective injections are given.

AGE AND CONTAGION

Mrs. T. writes: At what age are children likely to go through the various contagious diseases?

REPLY

Most contagious diseases occur when the child starts to school—between the ages of 5 and 7.

ARTHRITIS AND INNER ORGANS

O. Z. writes: Can arthritis affect the bowel and kidneys?

REPLY

These organs usually escape, even though some types of arthritis are generalized diseases and extend beyond the confines of the joints.

ALLERGY AND THE HEART

F. B. G. writes: Could allergy cause heart trouble?

REPLY

This is a moot question. Some persons, overly sensitive to the effects of alcohol, coffee, tea, and tobacco, suffer from paliptation of the heart when these substances are used.

FLUCTUANT FEVER

H.P. writes: What is remittent fever?

REPLY

A remittent fever is one that fluctuates. This up and down tendency is noted in diseases such as brucellosis and relapsing fever. Years ago, a severe form of malaria was dubbed remittent fever.

State To Get Biggest Share Of Federal Scholarship Fund

By RONALD L. SOBLE

SACRAMENTO (AP) — If a California high school student can clear higher education's academic hurdles, the federal government will boost him over the financial barriers.

That's the heart of a section in the federal Higher Education Act of 1965, which promises a multi-million dollar bonus to California.

Signed into law by President Johnson Nov. 8, the bill authorizes a total appropriation of $841.4 million with $160 million earmarked for the 1965-66 fiscal year.

California's share is conservatively estimated at $22.5 million for the present fiscal year—the highest in the nation.

The legislature will have to hammer out the program's administration and determine what state funds will be needed.

"Its full impact probably won't be felt until the summer of next year at the earliest," says Keith Sexton, associate director of the Coordinating Council for Higher Education.

Sexton calls the measure "one of the most significant" pieces of education legislation of the decade.

Here's what the plan will provide:

Scholarships ranging from $200 to $1,000 a year with high schools expected to use a "scouting system" to find and recommend outstanding academic talent to colleges and universities.

Arthur S. Marmaduke, executive director of the California State Scholarship Commission, predicts this section "will approximately double the amount of scholarship money" available to college students in the near future. California will receive $5.9 million in the current fiscal year.

Student loans insured through the federal government or a state or private agency with banks and savings and loan associations doing the actual lending.

A college work-study program in which colleges and universities will receive from the federal government 90 per cent of the cost of providing part-time jobs for needy students.

A National Teacher Corp to bring quality education into low income areas, with financing to come next year.

Fellowships for teachers.

Reaction from bankers to the government-backed student loans has been mixed.

Loans — for the first time — would be insured by the federal government for the full 100 per cent of the unpaid principal. If a state or private agency insures the loan, it would be insured up to only 80 per cent.

"The system has high social value," asserts a spokesman for Bank of America, which negotiates more private student loans in California than any other financial institution.

"There's no high risk involved — not with the federal government behind it."

But a spokesman for Wells Fargo declared there was some risk since "you don't know very much about freshmen or sophomores in college." He said the default rate in some private student loan programs was "higher than I'd like to see."

The insurance system will generally cover loans to a maximum of $5,000 for undergraduates and $7,500 for graduates. Loan periods will run for a maximum period of 15 years at 6 per cent annual interest.

California is allocated $642,000 in federal funds for fiscal 1965-66 if the state elects to use the money for an insurance fund.

Students from families whose income is under a gross figure of roughly $20,000 would be eligible for a loan without paying interest while in school. After graduation, the student would have to pay half the interest. Students whose families have a gross income of over $20,000 also could get loans, but would have to pay full interest.

Education Board Checks Three Peacock Sites

San Rafael Board of Education members yesterday afternoon slogged through the mud of Peacock Gap checking over three possible school sites, and then agreed to ask the county counsel to order appraisals for each of them.

The board members first saw the site which had been turned down a year ago, five acres at Riviera and Biscayne drives. Then they examined a seven-acre area northeast of the old McNear barn, on the west side of the golf course.

Finally, they were shown a 25-acre parcel, including both the second site and the McNear barn. Supt. Bert C. Corona said an elementary and junior high school might be located there.

After the Peacock Gap trip, the board toured the almost completed additions to San Rafael High School.

Sentencing Set For Kidnaper

OROVILLE (AP) — Bobby Gene Miller, 35, is to be sentenced Friday for a prison break, kidnaping, two auto thefts and burglary. He pleaded guilty last Friday.

Superior Court Judge Jean Morony set the day for sentencing.

Miller was serving a robbery term when he escaped from Megalia Honor Camp and kidnaped Mrs. Sharon Gore, 18, of nearby Nelson.

Novato Asks Help On Cemetery Data

For many years the Pioneer Memorial Cemetery on Simmons Lane, Novato, was unattended, and vandals broke, tipped over and moved grave markers.

Now the Novato Parks and Recreation Department is trying to set things right again, and has asked for help. Any friend or relative of persons buried at the cemetery, now a city park, who has any idea of proper location of graves, will be welcomed by the department.

The city has located 112 graves, and has 15 names, but no official knows which names go with which graves, or to whom the anonymous graves belonged.

A group from the Seventh Day Adventist Church once cleaned up the cemetery and reset the tombstones. The next night the vandals hit again, causing new confusion.

It was after that incident that the city took action to make the cemetery a park.

Farmers' Votes Due

Marin County farmers and ranchers must mail their ballots for county committeemen to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service by tomorrow, or cast their ballots in person at the ASC Office, 515 Hahman Drive, Santa Rosa, by Thursday, according to A. J. Biachi, Marin County chairman.

Negroes' Ballet Signups Gain

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — An expected upswing continued through October in Negro voter registration in Louisiana, a report of the State Board of registration showed today.

Among 1,221,874 registered voters in the state on Oct. 31, there were 1,013,423 whites and [illegible]3 451 Negroes. The Negro total was an increase of 2,389 over the Sept. 30 total of 206,062. The Negro registration total was 163,453 at the end of July, before a new federal law on voter registration took effect.

Louisiana has over 2,000,000 citizens of voting age. About 600,000 of these are Negro.

Almost 1 million persons disappear in the United State each year.

Easy Throttle On Snowy Road

TRUCKEE (AP)—Often when a car slides into a snowbank during winter driving, the motorist's first reaction is to pour on the horsepower.

What happens?

"If you gun it, all you do is sit there and dig a hole," says Lt. Oliver P. Ledford of the California Highway Patrol.

His district covers the Donner Summit area on busy Interstate 80 in the Sierra, where the winter's snowfall, compacted, runs 10 feet or more.

Ledford, who drives his patrol car up to 30,000 miles a year, said in an interview that the way to get out is to ease off on the throttle.

"Let the car almost idle out. The slower you go the more chance you've got. A lot of times you can let a little air out of your tires to increase friction."

The same principle applies going up a snowy or icy hill.

"I've followed people going up the summit spinning their wheel all the way. The slower they go the more they gun it and the worse off they are.

"Let the car pull itself along to the point where the wheels begin to slip. Then slack off a little."

The first precaution for safe winter driving is to have good tires and to carry tire chains, Ledford advises.

"Your stopping distance in snow with chains is about 10 times what it is on dry pavement. You must allow plenty of clearance between you and the car in front. This is where we have an awful lot of our accidents—driving too fast on snow and forgetting you can't stop as fast."

Snow tires go well under certain conditions, but are not as effective as chains on ice or hard-parked snow, he said.

Braking while going down a slippery hill will put the car into a skid. Instead, let the engine compression hold the car back by putting the car into a lower gear and easing off on the gas pedal, Ledford advises. Braking locks the wheels and robs the driver of control.

"We use the emergency brake to slow down a lot of times," he says.

But don't leave the emergency brake on overnight when the car is out, Ledford said, particularly on cars with disc brakes. The brake is likely to freeze.

Motorists stuck in a snowbank along the highway during a storm should wait for help, Ledford said. Those in newer cars can safely run the engine to keep the heater going if they get out once in a while to make certain the exhaust pipe is free of snow or other obstruction. In older cars the engine should be turned off, he said.

Indonesia Red Boss Disappears

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Unconfirmed reports that Indonesian Communist party boss D. N. Aidit had been arrested in central Java swept Jakarta today.

There was no official confirmation. Nor was their any confirmation of a report by Tokyo's newspaper Asahi that Aidit had been shot and killed Oct. 22 while trying to escape over a prison fence near Surakarta, in central Java.

The reports in Jakarta were that Aidit, who vanished after the Oct. 1 Communist-backed coup against President Sukarno collapsed, was seized in Surakarta.

Intelligence sources in Singapore, quoting information received from Indonesia, said Aidit's fate was still not known. They added it was unlikely Aidit was dead.

Faint Apparently Causes Collision

Henry J. Koch, 67, of 7 Stanton Way, told police he became ill at home and decided to drive to see Dr. John R. Lee at 279 Miller Avenue. As he was driving north on Sycamore Avenue, he said, he fainted and the next thing he remembered was waking up after his car collided head-on with the parked car of D. T. Bennett at 290 Sycamore. He was taken to Dr. Lee for treatment.

Backgammon is probably the oldest of dice games.

Brown Names New Public Health Head

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Dr. Lester Breslow was appointed Saturday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown as the director of the Department of Public Health.

Dr. Greslow succeeds Dr. Malcom H. Merrill, who resigned to become chief of health services for the U.S. Agency for International Development's Office of Technical Cooperation and Research.

Breslow's appointment is subject to Senate confirmation. The director's salary is $26,000 a year.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota Medical School, Dr. Breslow joined the health department in 1946 as chief of the Bureau of Chronic Diseases. He was director of the study for the President's Commission on Health Needs of the nation in 1952.

The governor thanked the special committee of doctors and medical leaders who developed a list of candidates for the director's job. The committee was headed by Dr. John Porterfield, coordinator of medical and health services at the University of California.

Supervisors Face Bolinas Zone Debate

Marin County supervisors tomorrow will again be faced with the debate on proposed open area zoning for Bolinas Lagoon.

The meeting of the board will begin at 9 a.m. at the Civic Center. Hearing on the lagoon is not scheduled until 3 p.m.

Six months ago, faced with protests to the zone from the Bolinas Harbor District and two property owners who planned commercial recreation development, the supervisors postponed any decision.

In the meantime, the harbor district was expected to prepare a master plan for development.

Bahia Baulinas, Inc., and a group including Wilma Leonard and other owners of land on the lagoon's east shore each have plans for commercial recreation. Bahia Baulinas already holds a sub-lease with the harbor district.

Both groups have asked resort-recreation zoning in conflice with the proposed open area zoning.

Also on tomorrow's agenda is a request from Probation Director Walter H. Busher for a Sierra "retreat" for 18 youths who will be moved from Juvenile Hall into the family rehabilitation center nearing completion in Lucas Valley.

Before the Jan. 17 move, Busher said, the retreat would emphasize the changes taking place and would allow the youths to get used to the idea of not being behind closed doors.

He suggests they be given three days in the Sierra prior to a two-day weekend at home before entering the new center.

Funds are in the budget to cover the anticipated $630 cost of the trip, Busher said. Transportation would be provided by the county schools office.

Storms Strike Italian Coast

ROME (AP) — Storms lashed the Italian coasts today for the sixth day, keeping shipping double-anchored in ports and wrecking beach resort cabins.

Anchor chains snapped on light freighters in Naples harbor, and crews struggled to keep the ships off the rocks. Waves splashed over coastal highways around the city.

Heavy snowfall was reported in the Alps.

Club To Meet

The Miller Avenue Breakfast Club, a group of business and professional people on Miller Avenue in Mill Valley, will meet at 7 a.m. Thursday at Spangler Hall, First Baptist Church, 285 Miller Avenue.

Blender Stolen

An electric blender valued at $40 was reported stolen from Varney's Hardware, 57 Throckmorton Avenue, Mill Valley, Saturday between 8 a.m. and 4:50 p.m. Owner S. W. Schneider told police the blender was taken from a shelf in front of the store.

Nearly 2,600 miles of interstate highways were completed during 1964.

NFL Grabs Quick Lead In Dollar War

By MIKE RATHET
and MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writers

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League has taken a quick lead over the American League in signing draft choices, but the major battles in the checkbook war figure to be fought over two obviously talented and plainly uncommitted player — Tommy Nobis and Jim Grabowski.

Nobis, the Texas linebacker with a 20-inch neck, and Grabowski, the Illinois fullback with Red Grange's records, are the only remaining competitive first-round choices unsigned since the bidding war began Saturday while the drafts were being conducted.

Long before the AFL ended selecting after 17 hours and 59 minutes and the NFL closed down draft headquarters after 30 hours and 50 minutes, it became evident that some players were committed to certain teams — before the draft — and were therefore being avoided by others.

The most significant factors leading to that interpretation were three-fold: The length of time some teams took before making first-round selections, the low number of duplicated first-round choices and the quick rash of signings — 28 in the NFL and seven in the AFL.

Only three players were picked by both leagues on the first round, Nobis, Grabowski and Purdue tackle Jerry Shay, who signed with the NFL's Minnesota Vikings after being picked in the AFL draft by Denver.

Nobis, tapped as the No. 1 pick in the NFL draft by the new Atlanta Falcons, also was picked on the first round by Houston. Grabowski, the No. 1 pick in the AFL draft by the new Miami Dolphins, also was selected on the first round by Green Bay.

And now the bidding starts.

It is possible that the bidding for Nobis, an All-America last season and a leading candidate for the Outland Trophy as the top lineman in the country, will go as high as it did for Dick Butkus last year. Butkus received a reported $200,000 for signing with the Chicago Bears.

NO RUSH

Nobis won't be rushed either. "I don't know what I'll do," he said. "I haven't really talked business with either one of them. A team in my home state will not be a factor. It all depends on the offers."

The offers can be astronomical. There was a report from the Midwest that one back from the sector had suggested that the bidding for his services start in the $500,000 neighborhood — which would top the figure the New York Jets reportedly gave quarterback Joe Namath last year.

The name linked with the report was Grabowski, the power-running fullback who broke Grange's career and single game rushing records at Illinois.

Besides Nobis and Grabowski, five other NFL first-round choices are not signed, Oaklahoma linebacker Carl McAdams, picked by St. Louis; Princeton kicker Charlie Gogolak, tapped by Washington; Missouri tackle Francis Peay, selected by New York; Massachusetts end Milt Morin, taken by Cleveland; Mississippi defensive end Stan Hindman.

The AFL signed three first-round picks, Michigan tackle

49ERS DRAFT EX-TAM STAR ELMER COLLETT

Elmer Collett, former Tamalpais High and College of Marin gridder who starred this season at San Francisco State, was among the future draft selections of the San Francisco 49ers over the weekend.

Collett, 6-4 and 227 pounds, is an offensive guard at S. F. State and was drafted No. 15 by the 49ers. He was an offensive tackle and defensive guard at Tam and was graduated in 1962. He played at College of Marin in the 1962 and 1963 seasons and sat out the 1964 season.

His father, Charles Elmer Collett, said today his son will finish his senior year at S. F. State where he still has another year of football eligibility. The Colletts live at 270 Molino Avenue, Mill Valley.

Horror Shows On TV: Patterson, Vikings Blame It On Bad Backs

Television was no place for humanitarians during the past week. Women and children and men with weak stomachs were advised to stick to radio, soap operas or comic books, because the coaxial cables delivered onto us only one-sided mayhem in the worst degree.

It was a week of mismatches, two of which come to mind, starting off with last Monday's Clay-Patterson ambush on closed-circuit TV and winding up with yesterday's 49er rout of the Minnesota Vikings, 45-24, which was free for the watching.

A foreigner watching either of these two events for the first time would wonder about American sporting events and probably compare them with Little Big Horn and the St. Valentine's Day Massacre. These two belong in that category.

A FRIEND of mine who watched both events on television went home last night and beat his wife and kids and kicked the dog, figuring cruel and inhuman punishment had been legalized.

Mr. Patterson had an excuse for his poor showing against the Ali Cat—a bad back.

The Vikings, then, had several excuses yesterday—several bad backs, not to mention a few lousy linemen. The 49ers against the Vikes was like Clay against MRS. Floyd Patterson. If the pro gridders used Marquis of Queensberry rules the refs would have stopped it at halftime.

DON'T LET the Vikings' 24 points fool you. Their last couple of touchdowns were what golfers call "gimmes." A couple of weeks ago Vike Coach Norm Van Brocklin quit in a moment of frustration, then changed his mind and decided to stay. I keep checking the wires to see if the Dutchman has left the country after this one.

IT WAS slapstick comedy at times. Three times the Vike kickoff receivers dropped the ball. Once a white piece of equipment flew off the ball carrier. I'm not going to guess at what it was, but it snapped off.

FIRST STRING Vike quarterback Fran Tarkenton was so bad that they benched him and sent in Ron VanderKelen, who was twice as bad. His teammates blocked and went after passes like they were mad at HIM. He was hacked so much I thought he'd start taking some foul shots. In one frustrating moment he passed with two hands, underhanded. And completed it, which was novel.

It's difficult to say if the Vikings were that bad or the 49ers that good. But the way Brodie, Willard, Parks & Co. played, San Francisco fans are in for some good football. I'm sure glad we don't live in Minnesota.

I WAS NOT surprised to see the 49ers pick Mississippi's Stan Hindman as their number one draft choice. He is a pre-med student and the 49ers have been bugged by injuries, so . . . well, you get the idea. Now, we have on our roster a Casey (not has-Ben), a Johnson & Johnson and now a "Dr. Sock," Baby.. I know the medical profession has become specialized, but a defensive specialist? Crazy!!

Buckpasser Is Officially Named 2-Year-Old Champ

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Buckpasser, who won nine of his 11 races and established a money winning record for 2-year-olds with earnings of $598,596, was named today as the champion 2-year-old colt of 1965 by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations.

Selection of Ogden Phipps' home-bred son of Tom Fool Busanda by War Admiral was made by the racing secretaries of the TRA's 33 member tracks. The TRA board of selection previously announced selection of Mrs. Theodora A. Randolph's Bon Nouvel as the champion steeplechase performer for the second straight year.

The TRA, which opens a three-day meeting here Tuesday, will honor the champions at its annual dinner Dec. 2.

Buckpasser, fourth in his first start and beaten by the filly, Priceless Gem, in the Futurity at Aqueduct, won six stakes en route to the championship. He took the National Stallion, Tremont and Champagne at Aqueduct, Monmouth Park's Sapling, the Hopeful at Saratoga and the Arlington Washington Futurity.

'Unknown' Top 49er Draftee

Stan Hindman was an unknown name among most Bay Area football fans before the San Francisco 49ers drafted him No. 1 last Saturday. But so were Dave Parks in 1963 and Ken Willard in 1964.

Ask any of these fans who Parks and Willard are now. They're two big reasons the 49ers are now 6-5 in the National Football League. If you can use the recent record of the 49er scouts, Hindman just might be what the doctor ordered for the team's defensive line.

Hindman was a guard at Mississippi, stands 6-3 and weighs 235 pounds. Plans of the 49ers are that he will be used as a defensive end to provide some pass rushing, something that the club hasn't had since end Dan Colchico was knocked out of the lineup with an ankle injury.

WEAK POINT

The defense has been the 49ers weak point and that's just where the drafting centered around. Big linemen and defensive backs.

Although the No. 2 selection was Bob Windson of Kentucky, a future choice for the tight end spot, numbers three and four were defensive backs Alvin Randolph (6-2, 186) from Iowa and Don Bland (5-11, 190) from Mississippi State.

The complete list of 49er draftees, designating future picks who still have college ability:

Stan Hindman, Mississippi tackle; x-Bob Windsor, Kentucky end; Alvin Randolph, Iowa helfback; Dan Bland, Mississippi State defensive halfback; Dan

TENNIS SHOES ON A FOOTBALL FIELD

By RON SPEER

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Alvin Dark promises to provide Kansas City with an exciting new look in 1966 when he attempts to guide the Athletics out of the American League cellar.

The new manager of the A's, operating in the American League for the first time after a star-studded career as a player and manager in the National League, says Kansas City will "run and run and run."

Dark says he considers the opportunity to take over a last-place club "a real challenge" after managing San Francisco to four first-division finishes in his only other managerial stint.

"When I went to the Giants they were fifth and were expected to win the pennant. We did in two years and it wasn't so much because it was expected.

"Now at Kansas City everything we do will have to be worked for, and we feel that whatever we do we will be accomplishing something."

The naming of Dark a few minutes after the announcement that Haywood Sullivan was quitting as manager of the A's to join the front office of the Boston Red Sox highlighted the opening of the annual meeting of major and minor league baseball officials.

Drafting of minor league players was scheduled today with Kansas City getting the first draft choice and the New York Mets the second.

Most clubs indicated they hoped to pick up one or two young prospects.

Among the minor league players likely to be chosen by the leagues were pitchers Galen Cisco of Buffalo, Carlton Willey of Buffalo, Frank Carpin of Columbus, Ohio, Ed Rakow of Syracuse and Bob Garibaldi of Tacoma, and outfielders Jim Beauchamp of Richmond, Elvio Jiminez of Toledo, Gary Geiger of Toronto and Jim Werhas of Spokane.

The minor league activities, however, were overshadowed by Dark's return to the managerial ranks.

Only three months ago he said he was not interested in managing the Athletics, but he explained after accepting the job that "every manager always wants to manage again."

Dark was given a two-year contract at $40,000 a year by Kansas City owner Charles Finley, who last Aug. 28 hired Dark away from the Cubs where he had spent the summer coaching.

Dark was released as San Francisco manager a year ago after the Giants finished fourth in the National League, their worst showing under the 43-year-old former All-Star shortstop.

Dark managed San Francisco to the pennant in 1962 but the Giants lost the World Series in seven games to the New York Yankees.

Dark said he does not expect Kansas City to become a contender overnight "because we've got a long way to go.

"But we've got a pretty good team. We will do a lot of running. We will sacrifice, squeeze,

Phils Swap Amaro For Yanks' Linz

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — The New York Yankees traded infielder Phil Linz to the Philadelphia Phillies for infielder Ruben Amaro today in the first inter-league trade of the season.

Linz, 26, batted .207 in 99 games with the Yanks last season. Amaro, 29, former Cardinal farmhand, batted .215 for the Phils in 118 games but hit .264 in 1964 when he won the Golden Glove Award as the leading shortstop in the National League.

"With the injury problems Tony Kubek has had the last two years, we felt we needed to protect ourselves at shortstop," said Yankee General Manager Ralph Houk. "We hate to lose Linz but we feel Amaro can better fulfill our needs."

Independent-Journal Sports

Five TD Passes, 49ers Rip Vikes

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — John Brodie, San Francisco's much maligned quarterback, owned two 49er passing records today and was within striking distance of two others.

All this came about when the veteran quarterback, now in his ninth season as a pro, threw five touchdown passes yesterday enroute to a 45-24 San Francisco victory over the Minnesota Vikings.

The five scoring passes gave Brodie 24 touchdown pitches for 1965, beating the old club record of 20 set by Y.A. Tittle in 1953. Frankie Albert threw 29 TD passes during the 1948 season but the 49ers then were operating in the old All-American Conference.

In all, Brodie connected on 10 of 21 passes and gained 209 yards. That gave him 179 completions in 287 passing attempts this year for still another mark. Tittle completed 176 of 279 throws during the 1957 season.

Brodie has gained 2,458 yards on his passes this year and is just 130 yards short of tieing his own club record set in 1961. Albert holds the San Francisco team record of 306 passing attempts set in 1950.

Thus, with three games still to go, Brodie is in position to break Albert's passes attempted record and his own yardage gained for a single season mark.

The game against the Vikings was perhaps the best of the season for the 49ers. In addition to putting them over the .500 mark at 6-5, it also was a game during which they put everything together.

The offense clicked almost at will in the first half as Brodie passed San Francisco to a 35-10 lead. And the defense did such a good job of stopping the scrambling Fran Tarkenton that Minnesota coach Norm Van Brocklin had to get his quarterback out of there and use second stringer Ron Vander Kelen in his place. Earlier this season, Tarkenton passed the Vikings to a 42-41 decision over San Francisco in a game the 49ers led, 35-14, at the half.

The switch in passers hardly made a difference as the San Francisco defense stopped all but two Minnesota drives late in the game. They proved just so much wasted effort because of the big San Francisco lead.

Brodie threw his scoring strikes to John David Crow (47 and 9 yards), to Bernie Casey (39), Dave Kopay (20) and Dave Parks (30). Kopay scored another TD when he recovered a fumble by Ken Willard in the end zone. Tommy Davis chipped in with a 49-yard field goal just for good measure.

The victory gave the 49ers sole possession of fourth place in the National Football League's Western Division race and they now trail third-place Chicago by one game, second-place Green Bay by two and first-place Baltimore by three and one-half.

This Sunday, San Francisco plays Detroit at Kezar Stadium.

Browns Win Title; Rams Stun Packers

By HAL BLOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The yardage machine that wears number 32 and operates out of the Cleveland Browns' backfield is like any other piece of complicated machinery. It takes time to warm up.

So Jimmy Brown spent the first 30 minutes of yesterday's National Football League game against Pittsburgh doing less than spectacular damage to the Steelers. He managed just 19 yards in seven carries and Cleveland's lead was only 7-0 at halftime.

But 30 minutes is more time than Brown gives most of Cleveland's NFL opponents so he didn't waste any after the intermission.

The bruising fullback took off on a 67-yard sprint on the first play from scrimmage in the third period. Five plays later he barrelled into the end zone with the first of his four touchdowns for the day and the Browns were on their way to a 42-21 romp and their second consecutive Eastern Conference crown.

Brown carried 13 times in the second half, gaining 128 yards — a full game's work for most good runners.

He scored on runs of three, two and 15 yards and caught a 27-yard TD pass from Jim Ninowski. The four touchdowns gave him 19 for the season, a career high.

The Browns needed help to clinch the Eastern crown and got it from Chicago and Philadelphia. The Bears whipped New York 35-14 and the Eagles edged St. Louis 28-24, eliminating the only clubs who still had a shot at Cleveland.

RAMS STUN PACKERS

In the Western Conference, Los Angeles gave a big boost to Baltimore's hopes for a second straight championship by upsetting No. 1 contender Green Bay 21-10. In other NFL games yesterday, Washington nipped Dallas 34-31 and San Francisco walloped Minnesota 45-24. Baltimore and Detroit, who played to a 24-24 tie on Thanksgiving Day, were idle.

In the American League, Boston's last-minute touchdown beat New York 27-23 and Kansas City whacked Houston 52-21.

Gale Sayers, who seems a cinch for Rookie of the Year honors, set an NFL record for freshmen with his 13th and 14th touchdowns of the season as the Bears ripped the Giants. Sayers scored on runs of 15 and 45 yards.

Norm Snead and Pete Retzlaff put on a great passing and catching show as the Eagles caught the Cardinals. Retzlaff caught nine passes for 148 yards and three TDs, the last one a 10-yarder with less than three minutes to play. Snead, who hit on 15 of 31 for 248 yards, marched the Eagles from their own 27 for the winning score, hitting Retzlaff three times before the TD pitch.

Bruce Gossett kicked four field goals, three of them from better than 40 yards, as the Rams dropped Green Bay 1½ games back of the Colts in the West with just three games to play.

LOMBARDI GRIM

The victory snapped an eight-game Los Angeles losing string that had covered two months. "The Rams had to beat somebody sooner or later," Packer Coach Vince Lombardi said grimly, "and it had to be us."

Sonny Jurgensen pitched Washington to a pair of touchdowns in the final four minutes as the Redskins overtook Dallas. Jurgensen, who completed 26 of 42 passes for 411 yards, used just eight plays for the two marches downfield, covering 64 yards in the first series and 80 in the second.

Pro Grid Drafts: Checkbooks Open

Bill Yearby by New York, Minnesota end Aaron Brown by Kansas City and Kentucky halfback Rodger Bird by Oakland. None was picked in the NFL draft.

STILL UNSIGNED

Besides Nobis and Grabowski, four other AFL first-round choices are unsigned. Purdue tackle Karl Singer, picked by Boston; Kentucky quarterback Rick Norton, selected by Miami; Mississippi halfback Mike Dennis, tapped by Buffalo, and Los Angeles State tackle Don Davis, taken by San Diego.

Three teams had considerable difficulties making up their minds about their first-round picks, New York and Oakland in the AFL and Pittsburgh in the NFL. The Jets and Steelers each waited until six hours had passed in their respective drafts before making selections.

The Raiders, however, took 12 hours and 56 minutes from the time the AFL draft started before naming any of their choices — and then took a strange route by announcing their third, fifth and seventh selections before revealing Bird as their No. 1 pick.

Oakland officials still have not given any substantial reason for their unusual tactics.

There also were these developments connected with the draft:

'SECRET DRAFT'

—Clint Murchison Jr., owner of the NFL's Dallas Cowboys, demanded that the NCAA impose a one-year sanction on the AFL for holding a secret draft and making "dunces of the NCAA." He pointed to AFL picks which closely coincided with reports earlier this month of a premature draft.

—Of 21 players picked through four rounds of the AFL draft who appeared on the published list reported the premature selections, 19 were taken by clubs assigned in the story. Two were taken by other teams.

—Al LoCasale, personnel director for the San Diego Chargers, said the NFL had hired some 250 "babysitters" to spirit college players to retreats where they would be out of AFL reach and using what he termed the "no sign-no draft" technique to coerce potential draftees.

—Sonny Werblin, owner of the AFL's Jets, implied his club was having difficulty locating its hopefuls before the draft and issued a statement saying the Jets would "not sign any player unless the Jets have the opportunity to speak with him on Saturday."

USF Ousted From NCAA Soccer Race

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — St. Louis University's Billikens, four - time National Collegiate Athletic Assn. soccer champions, have knocked the University of San Francisco out of the running for this year's title.

St. Louis downed USF 5-2 in regional action in San Francisco Saturday for the Dons' first loss in 12 games. The Billikens, now 11-0-1, advance to Thursday's NCAA finals.

The game was close until the third quarter, when St. Louis broke away for three goals. San Francisco scored once in the final period but St. Louis protected its goal from additional threats.

All - American Jack Kinealy kicked two St. Louis goals, boosting his season total to 21. San Francisco scored first on a headon shot by Louis Sagastume, assisted by Eduardo Rangel.

The loss was San Francisco's first in 12 games. St. Louis' season record is now 11-0-1.

Raiders May Offer 300 Gs To Garrett

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Halfback Mike Garrett's No. 20 was officially retired today as rumors flew regarding the future in professional football for the Heisman Award winner from the University of Southern California.

Garrett was in New York for a television appearance, and later the guest of honor at the annual Heisman banquet.

He was reluctant to discuss his future after winding up his college career Saturday in Southern Cal's 56-6 victory over Wyoming.

Garrett set a national intercollegiate rushing record for a three-year career, with a total of 3,221 yards. It broke the old mark of 3,168 set by Ollie Matson of the University of San Francisco in the 1949-50-51 period.

Garrett was drafted in the second round by the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, and rumors persisted that Oakland of the rival American League was in the market for his services.

One rumor even said the Oakland club was willing to go as high as $300,000, stretched over two or more seasons.

Most observers here feel that Garrett would be a valuable asset but not to the extent of $300,000.

Garrett himself parried questions, saying he wouldn't make up his mind what to do until later this winter. He said he may not sign anything because he might want to finish out his year in baseball at Southern Cal this spring.

Peacock Gap Country Club held a Junior Tournament last Friday and 23 hardy souls braved the rain and cold weather to participate.

The competition was divided into four groups, one for girls and three for boys. The girls group included anyone under 18, and the boys' competition was divided into 7-10, 11-13, and 14-18 age division.

Because of the weather, the girls and the 7-10 boys group played only nine holes. Sixteen-year-old Connie Raznikov led the girls with a 53, and 9-year-old Shelley Gates came in with an excellent 66 to take second. Craig Sanders, 8, led the 7-10 boys with a 69, and Danny Smith, 10, took second.

The older boys managed to get in 13 muddy holes of play. Doug Francisco, 15, won the 14-18 group with a fine 54, with Gary Schweitzer, 14, coming in second.

In the 11-13 group, Kelly Wolfe, 13, won with a 75, with Chuck Rasnikov a close second.

Hiskey Captures Title In Playoff

By ROBERT CAREY

LAFAYETTE, La. (UPI) — Babe Hiskey, a 26-year-old newcomer to professional golf, won the $32,000 Cajun Classic golf tournament yesterday in a sudden-death playoff with Dudley Wysong Jr., another unknown.

Hiskey, from Pocatello, Idaho, captured his first pro tournament title with a 20-foot putt on the second extra hole.

Hiskey and Wysong, of Casper, Wyo., finished the 72-hole regulation play with 13-under-par 275s, one stroke ahead of favorite and leading PGA money winner Jack Nicklaus.

Wysong turned in the best round of the day, a six-under-par 66, while Hiskey was scoring a 67.

Nicklaus, who led through two rounds, had a 69 yesterday for a total of 276.

Rex Baxter Jr., with a 68, matched Nicklaus' 276 in the last PGA outing of the season.

Behind Nicklaus and Baxter were Kermit Zarley and Jack McGowan at 277. McGowan had a 67 final round and Zarley a 69.

Both Hiskey and Wysong, who had not even been considered in contention for the classic crown, finished strong over the rain drenched 6,555-yard Oakbourne Country Club course.

The slender, dark haired Hiskey picked up four birdies on the front nine and three on the second, getting near the pin on each of the birdied holes with excellent short iron work.

Stolle Rejects $67,200 Pro Bid

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Australian Davis Cup star Fred Stolle has rejected an offer to turn professional in the hope of winning the Wimbleton Tennis Championship.

Stolle was offered $67,200 for a 10-month touring contract with the professional troupe which features Ken Rosewall, Lew Hoad and Rod Laver among its present Australian squad.

Two-time Wimbleton champion Roy Emerson already has rejected similar offers from professionals.

Stolle feels Emerson may have difficulty regaining the winning form of his past two Wimbleton Tournaments and this was a big factor in his decision.

49ers Satisfied With Offense, Draft Big, Defensive Stalwarts

RANDOL

There were two big events for the San Francisco 49ers this weekend, and it is hard to tell which is the more important. One was the decisive thumping of the Minnesota Vikings, 45 to 24. The other was the annual college player draft.

Yesterday's game showed that the 49ers are smart enough to learn from experience. The first half was a replay of the first Viking game, with the 49ers going out in front with a commanding lead. This time they continued to carry the attack until they had a 45 to 10 lad before they allowed the Vikes to shove over a pair of scores.

John Brodie had another great day at quarterback, completing 10 for 20 passes for five touchdowns before he turned the reins over to George Mira in the last quarter. Brodie called the real back-breaker early in the game when, with third down and one to go, he caught the Viking defense flatfooted with a quick pass to John David Crow for the first touchdown.

EXCITING AS the 49er offense continues to be, the most gratifying development was the defensive coverage of the equally explosive Minnesita attack. If there was any doubt before, it can now be said that the 49ers can beat any team in the league on a given Sunday. It has been a long time since anyone could makee THAT statement.

Part of the improvement is improved personnel. Part is experience. But the big thing is confidence. For the first time in years the 49ers KNOW they can win with an even shake in the breaks. What is needed now is greater depth on the bench.

THAT BRINGS us to the draft selections. By his choice, Coach Jack Christiansen indicates that he is well satisfied with his offense. Most of the choices seemed to be big men for the defensive line and some tall fast defensive backs to shore up some obvious weaknesses.

IT MUST BE remembered that picking men in the draft is a far cry from getting their signatures on the line, but the 49ers are really in good shape. Most young graduates would prefer the National Football League to the American, and would prefer to sign up with a team on the rise with a shot at the title. The 49ers qualify on both points.

Just a few years ago the 49ers lost a big one when Lance Alworth chose to go to the San Diego Charges in the AFL. Alworth is the class of the junior league and would be just as great if he were in the NFL. I am sure a big part of his decision to turn down the 49er offer was the obvious unrest on the local club at that time.

WITH THE surprising win of the L. A. Rams over the Green Bay Packers, the Baltimore Colts look like a shoo-in for the Western title. Although the Colts beat the 49ers twice this year the games were close. No question the Colts are aging a bit, and the Packers are coming back to the rest of the league. Next year looks like a wild one.

The 49ers close out the sason with Detroit, Chicago and Green Bay. That's a big order but right now I wouldn't say the 49ers are out of it for second place in the division. The incentive is there for glory and for dollars in the pocket. Both count big in pro ball.

"We have to," Dark said, "because we will be that type of team. We have a lot of youngsters with ability on the team.

"I think we have the nucleus of a good ball club," he said, and added that shortstop Bert Campanaris, second baseman Dick Green and pitcher Jim (Catfish) Hunter are among the players he is counting on to help improve the last-place finish of 1965.

One Win, Two Losses For Marin Pop Warner Teams

By RALPH CHATOIAN

The champion Marin County Pop Warner football teams are back home today after a jet ride to San Diego. One team was a winner, and two were losers, but all had a great time.

The teams—San Rafael, Novato and Terra Linda — were flown to San Diego Friday morning and played against Pop Warner teams on the University of San Diego field on Saturday. The Marin youngsters, many aboard airplanes for the first time, were flown back Saturday evening.

San Rafael Junior Bulldogs started the day off fine for Marin, whipping Grossmont 34-13. The rest of the day wasn't so good for the Marin kids. Novato Junior Hornets were dumped by Lemon Grove, 40-7, and the Terra Linda Junior Trojans were blitzed by Kearny Mesa, 44-0.

The total for the day was San Diego 97, Marin 41.

Marin's three teams had earned the trip by finishing their regular league games with identical 4-1 records, good for a three - way championship. The sponsoring Marin County Boys Club decided to reward all 120 or so youngsters—12 through 14 —with the trip down South.

Novato '11' Suffers 40-7 Loss

Lemon Grove scored three touchdowns before Novato could get its offense untracked. Lemon Grove followers said it was its best game of the season and Novato backers said it was Novato's worst.

All the excitement must have gotten to the Junior Hornets who fell to a team that had won only one game prior to last Saturday's scrap. That one prior triumph was against winless Grossmont.

Novato's only touchdown of the afternoon came in the third quarter on a brilliant 55-yard run by Vince Lagoy, the 123-pound halfback who had scored three touchdowns in the Marin County North - South All - Star game earlier this season.

He romped around left end and busted through three tackles on his way to the six-pointer. He picked up his seventh point of the day on a run around left end for the extra point.

GNOSS HURT

Novato's quarterback, Ken Gnoss was hurt in the first quarter and that was quite a blow to the Hornets offensive attack. Later in the game Randy Jackson was also sidelined with a head injury.

The passing combination of Rick Halsey to Henry Deeter was a big weapon in the Lemon Grove arsenal, and it was used quite often to the woes of the Hornets. That combo was good for the first two Lemon Grove touchdowns. Halsey was a big star for the winners, passing for three touchdowns and running for two more.

Scoring summary:

Novato	0	0	7	0	7
Lemon Grove	6	7	7	20	40

Novato scoring: TD — Vince Lagoy, 55-yard run. PAT — Lagoy, run.

Lemon Groce scoring: TD's—Henry Deeter (2), 68 and 28-yard passes from Rick Halsey. Richard Gibbons, 45-pass interception. Halsey (2), 6-yard and 4-yard runs. Robert Littrell, 39-yard pass from Halsey. PAT's—Larry McBee, pass. John Binkele, run. Halsey, run. Mike Crawford, run.

San Rafael Blasts Southerners, 34-13

San Rafael's Junior Bulldogs showed the San Diego fans a dazzling offense and were in command throughout the game, leading at halftime 20-6.

Lowell Widmer hit at right tackle for the extra point and it was 7-0. Then later in the same quarter, the Buildogs' Dan Jordan intercepted a Grossmont pass to set up another score from 15 yards out. On the first play after that interception, Widmer, a fine little runner who comes from quite a football family, skirted right end for the touchdown. Sam Salcido added the PAT with a burst through right tackle.

WIDMER STARS

Widmer, who has two big brothers playing varsity ball at San Rafael High School, returned a punt 36 yards late in the first period and again returned one 39 yards to set up his team's third touchdown, this time in the second quarter. Salcido was the boy to score, a four-yard blast through left tackle. That put the Junior Bulldogs in front 20-0.

Just before the first half ended, Grossmont hit the scoring column, with Hal Stuart romping 50 yards around left end. He broke four tackles en route to the end zone.

Widmer scored his second touchdown of the day in the third quarter when he galloped 19 yards around left end. When Salcido blasted through right guard for the extra point, it put the Bulldogs in front by 27-6.

Grossmont, which made its first first down in the final quarter, scored in that quarter, again with Stuart toting the ball, this time around right end for 44 yards.

DAZZLING RUN

The Junior Bulldogs scored late in the final period on a dazzling run by Silva. He intercepted a pass on his own 20-yard stripe and dashed 80 yards down the field for the touchdown. That really got the San Rafael parents screaming. Salcido again ran for the extra point, ending the scoring for the game.

Some fine line play came from San Rafael's front wall, including Jim Donovan, Tom Brown, Dick Hermann, Gary Beeman, Richard Wright, Dan Jordan and Coleman.

The Grossmont team had a rough time of it, as it had all season. Grossmont went through the entire season without a win.

Scoring summary:

San Rafael	14	6	7	7	34
Grossmont	0	6	0	7	13

San Rafael scoring: TD's — Dennis Silva, 37-yard run. Lowell Widmer, 15-yard run. Sam Salcido, 4-yard run. Widmer, 19-yard run. Silva, 80-yard pass interception. PAT's—Widmer, Salcido (3).

Grossmont scoring: TD's — Stuart (2), 50 and 44-yard runs. PAT—Joe Cabrera, run.

Terra Linda Is Blitzed By 44 To 0

Terra Linda's Junior Trojans ran into a team that had never been beaten this year and the Kearny Mesa boys from San Diego looked like true champions.

They sad some tall, lean boys who still made the 128-pound limit of the Pop Warner Junior Bantam Division. Some of them had the speed of high school athletes. Where the Marin teams don't have 14-year-olds playing, that is the limit for the Junior Bantam Division. That extra year must have made the difference.

But not to take anything from this Kearny Mesa team, the San Diego fans have a right to be proud of these youngsters. They were simply too much for Terra Linda and they would have been too much for the North Marin County All-Stars.

The Kearny Mesa boys scored in every quarter and it got so bad near the end of the game that even the San Diego fans were cheering for the Marin boys, hoping they would at least score a point or two.

BIGGEST THREAT

But the Kearny Mesa defense would have none of it. Terra Linda's biggest threat to score was halfback Mikes Bridges who made some fine runs before being injured in the second quarter. He had to sit out the rest of the game.

Kearny Mesa had a rarity in Pop Warner football, a tall, skinny boy (taller than his coaches) who kicked extra points. Most of his shots were long enough but just a little wide. The boy, Dwight McDonald, even tried a 40-yard field goal on the last play of the game, but the ball fell to the ground before his toe ever connected.

Scoring summary:

Kearny Mesa	12	19	6	7	44

Kearny Mesa scoring: TD's—McDonald, 4-yard run. Dean Rice, 38-yard run. Lloyd Ellis, 40-yard pass interception. Eddie Evilsizor, 48-yard pass from Gene Watkins. Evilsizor, 42-yard run. Ted Mack, 1-yard run. Randy Washam, 37-yard pass from Evilsizor. PAT's—McDonald (2) kicks.

Seals Win, Host Totes Wednesday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Seals will host the Seattle Totems Wednesday to try for their seventh win of their Western Hockey League season.

The Seals won Saturday night in an inter-league game against the Springfield, Mass., Indians of the American League. San Francisco started the scoring and went on to a 4-1 victory.

The win may have eased the pressure on Seals' wallets. The team's management had fined players for their performance in their recent series of losses.

Wayne Connelly scored two goals for the Seals Saturday. Player - coach Charley Burns, the only man not fined, also scored.

Springfield's John McCartan scored with 50 seconds remaining in the second period. Ron Harris made San Francisco's final goal midway through the last period after Springfield was given a minor bench penalty.

San Francisco's only other scheduled inter-league game is against Hershey, Pa.

Three Marin Lifters Win

Walt Gioseffi, Terry Johnson and Bill McCraw, all of the MarVel Athletic Club of Marin, were among the winners at the Nevada State Weightlifting Championships in Reno.

Gioseffi lifted a total of 750 pounds to win the 181-pound class and the Nevada light heavyweight championship. Johnson was second in the 148-pound class with a 620 total, and McCraw was third in the heavyweight division with an 815 total.

Fish Poles Gone

Floyd Wagner of 12 Elaine Way, Apt. 3, San Rafael, told San Rafael police yesterday four fishing poles and reels, worth a total of $100, and a $110 Polaroid camera were stolen from his runabout boat, kept at Loch Lomond Yacht Harbor, during the past two weeks.

Marin Preps, College In Cage Action

Coach Cal Riemcke will unveil his College of Marin basketball team this week in three practice games. The Tars, who open their Golden Valley Conference season against the Yuba 49ers Jan. 8, will open a practice schedule that includes nine games and two tournaments.

Wednesday night they will open against the College of San Mateo in Kentfield; Friday they travel to Pacheco to take on Diablo Valley; and Saturday night they return to Kentfield to play host to Foothill College. All Tar games will start at 8 p.m.

All the high schools in the Marin Athletic League will be seeing action this week. Tamalpais will host a pair of 4 p.m. games, tomorrow to Galileo and Friday to S.F. Poly.

San Rafael Bulldogs play only once this week, hosting Galileo Friday at 7 p.m.

Marin Catholic will play a pair of 7 p.m. games: Friday night the Wildcats will host Sierra, and Saturday night they will travel to St. Elizabeth.

The Drake Pirates will play two games: tomorrow they will host Balboa at 3:30 p.m. and Friday they will take on the Apaches at Vallejo, 7 p.m.

Redwood will play two in Santa Rosa: Friday night they go against Gridley, and Saturday night they will face Gilroy. Both games are scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Tomorrow the Novato Hornets travel to Petaluma for a 4 p.m. game, and Friday they return home to face Sonoma in a game scheduled for 7 p.m.

The Terra Linda Trojans will play twice: tomorrow they travel to Sonoma for a 4 p.m. game, and Friday night they will host DeAnza in an 8 o'clock affair.

ARMY-NAVY TIE

'Bama, Troy Romp; Irish Deadlocked

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Alabama's Crimson Tide, counted out of everything two months ago but named to a bowl a week ago, has completed one of the biggest comebacks of the 1965 college football season and now turns its attention to Nebraska.

"We haven't turned a wheel on Nebraska," Alabama Coach Bear Bryant said. "We haven't looked at them, haven't scouted them, haven't thought about them."

But the Tide, ranked fifth in the country and headed for a Jan. 1 Orange Bowl date with Nebraska, 10-0 and No. 3 nationally, undoubtedly will be thinking about the Cornhuskers a lot this week.

They have nothing else to do. Bryant, one of the toughest task masters in the business, gave the team the week off after Alabama closed its regular season with a 30-3 triumph over Auburn Saturday.

"I'm proud of them," Bryant said, "more so than any team I've ever been associated with. They had to come from so far back."

'Bama was counted out of everything, and knocked out of the nation's No. 1 spot when they lost to Georgia in their opener. Only a tie with Tennessee mars their record since then.

They finished at 8-1-1 and, by beating Auburn, took the Southeastern Conference title. Steve Sloan threw three touchdown passes.

ARMY-NAVY TIE

Georgia Tech, headed for the Gator Bowl, was upset by Georgia 17-7, while the two big ones — Army vs. Navy and Notre Dame vs. Miami, Fla — ended in ties.

Army and Navy struggled to a lack-lustre 7-7 tie before 102,000 in Philadelphia, finishing off a medicore season for each team. Mighty Notre Dame, No. 6 in the country, apparently suffered a let-down after the previous week's loss to Michigan State and was held to a scoreless tie by Miami.

The other ranked teams in action won handily, No. 9 Tennessee taking Vanderbilt 21-3 and No. 8 Southern California routed Wyoming 56-6.

Brigham Young wrapped up the Western Athletic Conference title with a 42-8 romp over New Mexico while Texas Christian filled out the major bowl line-up, accepting a spot in the Sun Bowl after beating Southern Methodist 10-7.

That makes the bowl line-up look like this:

Rose Bowl — Michigan State, 10-0, vs. UCLA, 7-1-1.

Cotton Bowl — Arkansas, 10-0, vs. Louisiana State, 7-3.

Sugar Bowl — Missouri, 7-2-1, vs. Florida, 7-3.

Orange Bowl — Nebraska, 10-0, vs. Alabama, 8-1-1.

Gator Bowl — Georgia Tech, 6-1-3, vs. Texas Tech, 8-2.

Bluebonnet Bowl — Tennessee, 6-1-2, vs. Tulsa, 8-2.

Liberty Bowl — Auburn, 5-4-1, vs. Mississippi, 6-4.

Sun Bowl — Texas Christian, 6-4, vs. Texas Western, 7-3.

Of those, only UCLA and Tennessee have a game left, meeting this weekend.

Several others wound up Saturday. Texas Western ripped up West Texas State 38-21, Florida took Florida State 30-17 and Mississippi blanked Mississippi State 21-0.

A Welcome Rest For Battered Warriors

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Warriors are taking a long rest before they head across the bay Thursday to meet the Cincinnati Royals in a National Basketball Assn. game at Oakland.

The four-day breather will give San Francisco a chance to recover from a visit by their towering former teammate, Wilt Chamberlain.

Wilt, now with the Philadelphia 76ers, led his team to victories Friday and Saturday in San Francisco. Philadelphia won the first game, 132-120, and the second, 124-117.

Chamberlain dominated both halves of Saturday's game, stopping a Warrior spurt that put them ahead 72-67 in the third quarter. He grabbed a flurry of rebounds and made seven straight points.

Chamberlain led both teams in individual scoring with 38 points. Forward Tom Meschery led San Francisco with 27 points.

Forward Chet Walker made 17 points in the first half, spurring Philadelphia's lead.

HOW TO PLAY WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Polish Ace Probably Has Best 'Impossible' Slam Tale Of All

Ask a bridge player for his favorite hand and he's sure to tell you about a slam that he managed to make against bad breaks that would have overwhelmed anybody else.

Opening lead — ♡ J

South's jump to six spades was aggressive, but North was really responsible for the silly slam contract.

North should have jumped to four spades at his second turn without first bidding diamonds as well as clubs.

North's bidding would have been proper if the queen of clubs were changed to the ace; and in that case a normal trump break would permit South to make the slam.

SHOULD HAVE LOST

With the actual layout, South should have lost two club tricks and two trumps.

If West had led a club, South would have gone down three. Even if West had led a trump, South would have gone down.

West actually led the jack of hearts, and then the Polish master took over.

DISCARDS CLUBS

Wilkosz took the ace of hearts, ruffed a heart in dummy and cashed the high diamonds to get rid of his two clubs.

Then he ruffed a club, while East moaned pitifully at the disappearance of the two club tricks.

South ruffed another heart in dummy and ruffed a second club in his hand.

Then he ruffed his last heart in dummy and returned a diamond, ruffing with the eight of spades.

WEST IN TROUBLE

By this time South had taken the first nine tricks, and West was reduced to his four trumps.

He had to over-ruff with the nine of spades and then had to return a trump up to South's A-K-J.

Six spades bid and made.

"There was no way to make seven," Wilkosz said apologetically to his partner.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid two spades.

Space, Defense Issues Escalate With War

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed irregular today. Trading was heavy.

Aerospace, defense, electronics, airlines, coppers and specially-situated issues made strides.

The escalation of the Viet Nam conflict and reports that money rates are not likely to be increasing despite the boost in defense spending were cited as bullish factors.

Kennecott, Boeing, Eastern Air Lines, American Smelting, Fairchild Camera and Lotton Industries were among the issues showing strength.

Many market standbys such as General Motors, American Motors, Du Pont, Jersey Standard and U.S. Steel were backward.

Volume for the day was estimated at 8.5 million shares compared with 6.97 million on Friday.

The escalation of fighting in Viet Nam helped aerospace defense and electronics stocks, while burgeoning traffic over the Thanksgiving holiday boosted airlines.

Rising copper commodity prices gave a shot in the arm to copper stocks.

Many key stocks lagged badly as the session wore on, however, and an early advance as blunted, leaving the overall list irregular.

Boeing ran up 4 points, General Dynamics about 1½. Up a couple of points were Zenith, Raytheon and Eastern Airlines. Kennecott jumped 4, American Smelting 2.

Du Pont lost 1; IB M5, Jersey Standard more than a point. Fractional losses were shown by all Big Three motors, U.S. Steel and American Telephone.

M. A. Hanna was leading as most active stock, showing a slight loss.

Gains of around 3 points were scored by Fairchild Camera, Braniff Airways, Corning Glass, and American Broadcasting.

Kennecott and Polaroid jumped 4 points, Control Data and American Smelting 2 or more.

Corporate and U.S. Treasury bonds were mostly unchanged.

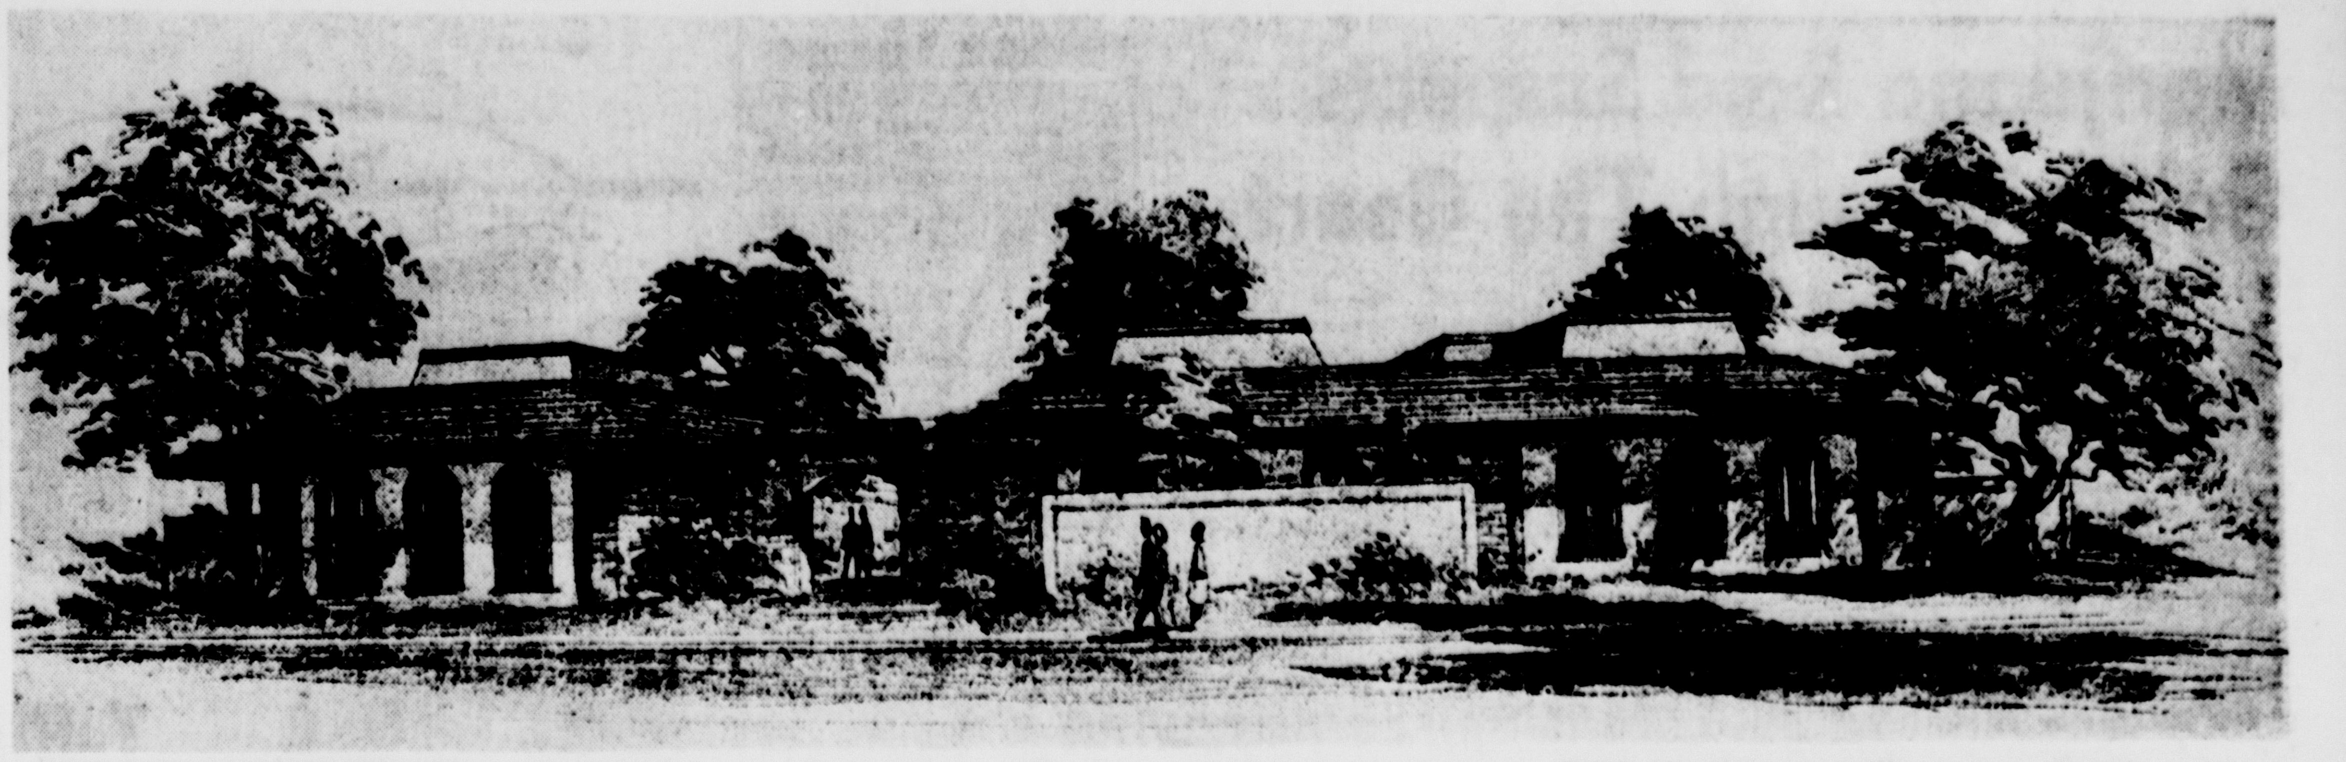
Travel In West Promotion Urged By Utah Official

MONTEREY — Travel will be a $20 billion business in the 13 western states by 1975, it was predicted here today by the chairman of the Western Governors Task Force on Travel Promotion.

Emanuel Floor, director of Utah's Tourist and Publicity Council said tourism can provide new jobs, income and taxes to support the West's expanding economy. He spoke to the annual convention of the Western America Convention and Travel Institute.

Floor said westerners should sell their unique and superior product to the 153 million people east of the Rockies, to 300 million potential customers in Europe and 95 million in the Orient.

Travel directors of most of the states at the convention disclosed state governments will spend almost $10 million this year for travel promotion.



FIRST DEL PRADO UNIT—Planned for construction by D. M. Christensen Construction Co. is this three-building cluster for professional use in the Northgate area. The first unit, designed by Bushnell-Jessup-Murphy-Van Deweghe, will comprise 6,500 square feet of rental space. Entire Del Prado development will comprise 60,000 square feet, with about half of this under cover. Design is early California mission style, with tiled roofs, pathways and large landscaped area.

Milkman Meets Competition

WASHINGTON (AP) —The milk delivery man is running into more and more competition.

The Agriculture Department reports that 40 years ago the proportion of milk sold on home-delivery routes represented 85 per cent of the total bought by consumers.

Today, the home delivery share is said to be less than 35 per cent.

Airline Record

Judge To Review Mines Lawsuit

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — U.S. Dist. Court Judge Frank Wilson is expected to begin in February a review of this fall's antitrust case against the United Mine Workers Union.

The trial transcript runs 5,600 pages in 25 volumes.

The suit was filed by 30 southeast Tennessee coal operators who accuse the UMW of conspiring with major Kentucky operators to drive fringe mines out of business.

Charles F. Martell Jr. of 5 Dominican Way, San Rafael, has been promoted to banking services officer of the Wells Fargo Bank, San Francisco, serving in the branch locations department.

OTHER PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

By HARRY CRAFT

Del Prado, Newest Northgate Professional Offices, Going Up

New professional development in the Northgate vicinity is Del Prado - another project of D. M. Christensen Construction Co., who has already been active in this area.

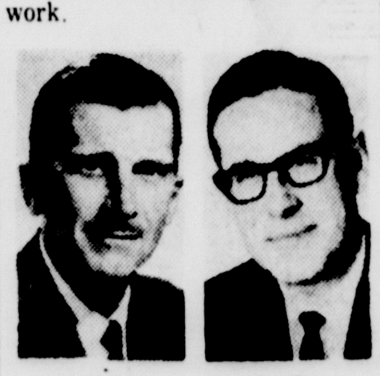
Christensen has a 60,000-square foot parcel on Las Gallinas Avenue behind Northgate Unit One, and expects to break ground in another week or 10 days for a cluster of three mission-type buildings at one end of the property. They will surround a central court and in effect be like one building, with about 6,500 square feet of floor space. One full building is already leased or committed and another is partially so. Remainder is up for lease through Redwood Realtors, lease agent.

Completion of this first unit is expected by the end of February or first part of March. Plans for the rest of the property have not been completed, but very likely there will be about 30,000 square feet of leaseable area in the entire project. Grounds will be landscaped and have offstreet parking.

NEW NAME for the service station at Second and C Streets, San Rafael is Ciucci and Hall Flying A Service. Owners here now are Howard Ciucci and Willard Hall, who purchased from Ivo Vollmer.

Ciucci was formerly principal in Ciucci's Auto Repair Shop at Third and D Streets where he worked for 27 years. The latter business has been cut down considerably, with Howard's uncle Leo Ciucci now operating it as Ciucci's Machine Shop. J and R Sales has taken over part of the premises for its vacuum cleaner business.

Hall was formerly co-owner of Hall and Barnes Mobil station at Third and A Streets, where he was in business 26 years—but gave that up early last year when he and Jack Barnes closed down the operation. After 20 months of traveling in Mexico, Canada and Alaska (he never did make it to the Far East) and playing golf, he has decided to forsake this life of retirement for more work.



Marks Nathe

HAROLD F. (HAL) MARKS of San Rafael has been named assistant advertising officer at Bank of California's San Francisco headquarters. He joined the bank 15 months ago as art director. Previously he was art director for Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn, Inc. for five years, with Dancer-Fitzgerald-Sampl three years and for 10 years a free lance designer.

AL H. NATHE of San Rafael has been appointed corporate planning director of Levi Strauss and Co. and responsible for developing a company-wide system of planning for future expansion. He joined Levi Strauss in 1959 as marketing research manager and was elected a director last February. He was previously with the Emporium in San Francisco and with California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Co.

TWO MARIN MEN are among new corporate officers elected at the San Francisco home office of Industrial Indemnity Co.

Sterling Hilen of Novato has been appointed assistant vice president in the claims section. He recently rejoined Industrial after 16 months in private practice with the San Francisco law firm Leonard and Hilen. Earlier he was nine years in Industrial's claims department in San Francisco and Oakland claims counsel.

Harry M. Galliver of Mill Valley has been elected controller, and has been manager of the financial division 11 years, with 29 years of internal audit, accounting and financial experience.

Non-Farm Labor Decline Slight

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Non-farm employment in the western states dropped from the usual September peak to 9,920,000 in mid-October, the U.S. Labor Department reported last week.

However, the decline of about 50,000 jobs was only about half the normal decrease for the period, according to Max D. Kossoris, regional director of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The drop was felt in all major industries, he said.

Kossoris also reported an increase of 350,000 jobs in the 13-state area from October, 1964.

Weekly earnings of production workers ranged from $94.42 in New Mexico to $160.78 in Alaska.

Sugar Firm Pays Out $15 Million

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI)—The Holly Sugar Corp. announced payments totaling $15.6 million at nine of its 11 beet sugar plants.

The initial payment checks went to more than 2,000 growers who supplied beets at Sidney and Hardin, Mont.; Worland and Torrington, Wyo.; Delta, Colo.; Hereford, Tex.; and Hamilton City, Alvarado and Tracy, Calif.

President Dennis O'Rourke said the initial payment represents only a part of the total that growers will receive for the 1965 crop.

Underground Gas Storage Cost Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of storing natural gas underground until it is needed has gone up.

Latest statistics made public by the Federal Power Commission show average costs in 1964 were 16.97 cents a thousand cubic feet, compared with 15.14 cents in 1963.

Marijuana Raid Suspects Going Through The Courts

By ROSS DAVIS

Four of the 11 adults arrested in early June roundups of suspected marijuana pushers and users in southern Marin County have pleaded guilty, four are awaiting jury trials and the remaining three have either been referred to juvenile court or are awaiting certification there.

Of the four who pleaded guilty, two drew no prison or jail sentence, despite requests in both instances by the district attorney's office.

Judgment on a third guilty plea case is still pending. The fourth, a 19-year-old youth, was committed to California Youth Authority for an indefinite period for marijuana sales and two burglaries.

Latest judgment came last Wednesday, on the guilty plea of Anthony Pastor, 26, of Beverly Hills, to a count of selling marijuana. A second count of sale was dismissed by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court because of the earlier guilty plea. Pastor was sentenced on the one count to pay $330 fine and be placed on three years probation.

Judge Haley on Nov. 18 had sentenced Pastor to four months in county jail, and suspended sentence, and placed him on probation for three years. However, he subsequently discovered a new amendment to the Health and Safety Code does not permit a suspended jail sentence for the offense; therefore, Pastor was re-sentenced with the fine imposed.

Judge Haley, however, noted Pastor voluntarily returned from New York to Marin County to face the charge, that he is now married, with his wife pregnant, and that he has a job.

The magistrate said he saw no constructive purpose in sentencing Pastor to jail.

Another judgment was for Susan Kerrigan, 22, of Sausalito, for possession of marijuana and carrying a concealed weapon. On Oct. 5, she pleaded guilty to both charges. On Oct. 26, Judge Samuel W. Gardiner placed her on three years probation.

This came over the protest of Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales, who asked for a 10-day jail sentence, claiming defendants in possession cases often fail to take the charge seriously, and failing to provide any time in jail would indicate that the court concurred.

Judge Gardiner, however, replied that the double felony conviction and the probation period were sufficiently severe for a first offender. He said a short jail term would only appear as "a slap on the wrist."

Third of those sentenced was Ira Lewis Edwards of 135 Drake Avenue, Marin City. He was charged with one count of selling marijuana, but on Oct. 8 pleaded guilty to possession and the sale charge was dropped. Judge Gardiner sentenced him to the indefinite term at California Youth Authority on the marijuana possession and two convictions for burglary.

Fourth guilty plea was that of Otus Hayes, 28, Sausalito. He pleaded guilty Nov. 22 to one count of selling marijuana. A count of possession was then dismissed by Judge Haley. Hayes is to be sentenced at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Pending trial in a joint indictment alleging sales are Wilhelm Alexander Rossknecht, 27, of 10 Reed Lane, Sausalito, Peter Wright Lenihan, 31, of 420 B Street, Sausalito, and Ronald Keith Maska, 29, of Orange County.

A 65-member jury panel was excused Oct. 25 when Rossknecht failed to appear. A bench warrant for his arrest was ordered by Judge Thomas F. Keating, bail of $4,400 was forfeited.

New trial date is Dec. 20, but Rossknecht is still a fugitive.

Other scheduled trial is for Richard Nixon Applebee, 21, of Larkspur on Dec. 6. He is charged with two counts of sales.

Referred to juvenile court for handling were cases of Candace Haseman, 19, of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Marin County, and Harry Ronald Krieger, 20, of 148 Sycamore Avenue, Mill Valley, each charged with one count of possession.

On Aug. 31, Miss Haseman pleaded guilty to one count of marijuana sale. A second sales count was dismissed by Judge Keating and sentencing was deferred until Sept. 23.

On that day, however, Judge Keating instead referred the case to juvenile court. Commenting on Miss Hasseman's petition for the minor's court, Judge Keating noted that persons under 21 years of age are eligible — providing juvenile court accepts them—and said Miss Haseman is "undoubtedly a case" for that court because of her "unsophistication."

Just prior to the referral, Asst. Dist. Atty. Leonard Shaw had opposed a probation department recommendation of mere two years' probation. He asked in addition 60 days in county jail, citing that Miss Haseman was charged with selling $120 worth of marijuana on one occasion, and a kilogram of the weed (2.025 pounds), for which he said she received $200 on another occasion.

Miss Haseman had surrendered to Marin County officers, but only after extradition proceedings had been completed with the governor of Arizona.

Krieger was certified to juvenile court on Sept. 28. Don Edward Fleischer, 20, Sausalito, has a motion before Marin Superior Court for juvenile court referral, which is to be heard by Judge Gardiner at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. Fleischer faces two counts of sales.

Sukarno Decrees New Austerity In Trade

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — The Indonesian government has a new economic-financial policy for 1966 that calls for austerity in development projects and continued lavish spending for revolutionary political schemes.

This policy was sanctioned by a decree signed by President Sukarno. It puts all imports and exports under government control.

New Owner Buys Plantation Landmark

ALEXANDRIA, La. (AP) —J. D. Cobb of England, Ark., has purchased Rosalie Plantation, one of the few central Louisiana showplaces that escaped ravages of the Civil War, for $290,000.

Real estate dealers said the previous owners, Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Harris, retained the 145-year-old home with about five acres of land. The plantation consists of 510 acres.

Federal Bureau Sets More Food Stamps

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Agriculture Department plans next year to broaden its programs for improving diets of needy persons.

The agency said in a report it is likely that more food will be donated to the needy through its direct distribution program. In addition, its food stamp plan will be extended to some areas not now covered.

We go to all the trouble of redesigning our interiors, improving our handling,
and refining our Wide-Track ride, and some people buy us
just for our looks.

Our new Executive Hardtop Coupe. Like all 1966 Pontiacs it includes outside mirror, padded dash and visors, backup lights, front and rear seat belts, dual-speed windshield wipers, and washers to clean your windshield for better visibility.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. We spend so much time and effort in there.

Why, this year alone we've made available brand-new wraparound buckets and profile bench seats. Not to mention extending our use of rich, genuine walnut paneling. And nicer instrument clusters you've never seen.

We've even had our engineers take our test cars apart to see if they can make them smoother, quieter, and more luxurious. And they came up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs even more enjoyable to drive.

Really, though—we don't care which one of our features gets you inside one of our new Pontiacs, just as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

Everything's new in tiger country. Wide-Track Pontiac/'66
